A Pretty Rose Freak.

Our thanks are tendered to Mrs. J E Smoot for a curious beauty in form of a flower. She has a cream rose now in bloom and to her surprise on Saturday she saw one flower whose petals were of cream color on one side and of a beautiful red on the other, the flower being about half and half of each color. She has no way of accounting for the pretty freak. There is no red rose standing near it. She would be delighted, however, if the bush were to go into the habit of producing variegated roses.

Stanly Politics.

In Stanly county Saturday Mr. S H Milton defeated J M Brown, Esq., at the Democratic primaries for senator of the twenty-fourth district by 81 votes, and Mr. J R Price, a young attorney of Albemarle, received the nomination for the lower house, defeating Mr. M E Blalock, the present representative.

There were three candidates for sheriff and a second primary will have to be held, as neither received the majority of the vote.

The Child Follows Mother and Brother.

The infant child of Mr. J W Johnson died on Saturday at his home on West Depot street. It was but six weeks old. Mr. Johnson left for Pelzer, S. C., on Sunday with the remains where it will be remembered that he took those of his wife about one month ago and but a short while before his 12 year old son. It is truly a subject of heart bleeding sadness to him and to the sympathetic that share the grief of this series of afflictions.

Saturday's Excursion.

The Lexington excursion to Charlotte Saturday was a record breaker. The train that it was expected would carry all the excursionists was full before it reached Salisbury and it dashed through loaded and returned as soon as possible. There were about 300 wanting to go from Concord and probably 200 of them did go. 150 tickets were sold here and many boarded the train lacking tickets.

To compensate for waiting they boarded the train when it returned from Charlotte and rode to Salisbury and back in the bargain, making more than 80 miles of riding for the 50 cents.

It was found that 1800 people were in this excursion and at Charlotte the spirit of enjoyment was manifested by riding in the street cars and taking in the Queen city. It was almost 2 o'clock Saturday night when they returned home and all seemed entirely satisfied with the day's enjoyment.
