KING EDWARD IS CROWNED.

The 9th a Glorious Day in London—The King Bears up Well—Aged Archbishop Almost Collapses—But Crown on the King's Head Bear in Front.

The coronation of King Edward and Queen Alexandria took place on Saturday, the 9th, attended with a superb procession, the firing of artillery salutes, deafening cheers and the most solemn and impressive religious ceremonies.

The King and Queen each knelt at their seats on entering and engaged in prayer. After the crowning too they laid aside their crowns and received the sacrament of the Lord's supper.

A very impressive scene was that of the King to his son, the Prince of Wales. When the latter approached before his sire and sovereign and touched the crown in token of his fealty the father king put his arms about him and kissed him, then as the Prince was leaving he drew him back and gave him a most hearty handshake.

The aged archbishop of Canterbury, feeble with age and very dim of sight, almost collapsed in the ceremonies and even put the crown on the King's head with the back part in front. Before he could place it right the organ pealed and the cheers rent the air. The King kissed the wrinkled hand of the divine.

In the procession Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener, the late heroes of South Africa, came in for distinguished honors.

The King bore the ordeal wonderfully well after his crisis of six weeks ago. He looked pale but was in such good condition that in response to an ovation by the throng in front of the palace later in the day he and the Queen appeared on the balcony, wearing their crowns and acknowledging honors with radiant smiles at their enthusiastic subjects.

But one minor accident occurred in the throng and the day was all that could be wished for as a success.

First New Bale of Cotton in the State.

Mr. P. E. Ratcliff, of Anson county, has the honor of producing the first bale of cotton in the State this year. He put one on the market at Marven on last Saturday. It weighed 603 pounds and received 10 cents a pound for it.

Let the farmers of Cabarrus keep their eyes on Mr. Correll's offer in another column for the in Cabarrus.

FATAL WRECK ON THE SOUTHERN.

Freight Engineer Forgets His Orders and Meets a Passenger Train—Two Killed, Several Injured.

There was a fatal wreck on the Southern near Wall Creek at 6:30 Sunday morning, says a Danville dispatch, in which two men were killed outright and several others seriously injured. It is said that Engineer Byerly on the Southern freight No. 71 forgot his orders and was going at the rate of 40 miles an hour when he met passenger train No. 12. The latter almost stopped but the engineer of No. 71 said his brakes would not act and he went crashing into the passenger train. No passengers were hurt. The worst fatalities were in a box car where six persons were beating a ride. The two were killed there and another is expected to die.

Train Kills Geo. Kizer Near Harrisburg.

Geo. Kizer a negro man who has been in the employment of W. C. Coleman was killed Sunday morning by train No. 40 while sleeping on the railroad track half way between Rocky River bridge and Harrisburg.

He was in Concord Saturday night and left for his home near Harrisburg very late, walking, after he had bought a small sack of flour and meal both packages of which were found near the place where he is supposed to have sat down on the track to rest, then to have fallen asleep.

The body was found early in the morning and the coroner Mr. A. E. Lentz accompanied by Dr. R. S. Young was soon on the scene and had his jury summoned, the verdict of which was that the negro came to his death by being struck by a train. The train struck him on the right side crushing in his ribs.

Geo. Kizer is a brother of Joe Kizer the negro who was lynched here, but was a sober and industrious man.

A Recipe to be Miserable.

The best recipe we know, if you want to be miserable, is to think about yourself, how much you have lost, how much you have not made, and the poor prospect for the future. A brave man with a soul in him gets out of such pitiful ruts and laughs at discouragements, rolls up his sleeves, whistles and sings, and makes the best of life. This earth was never intended for a paradise, and a man who rises above his discouragements and keeps his manhood will only be the stronger and better for his adversities. Many a noble ship has been saved by throwing overboard its most valuable cargo, and many a man is better and more humane after he has lost his gold.—Thrift.

Veterans Meet Tomorrow.

Tomorrow is our annual reunion of Confederate Veterans. It is the day for Camp No. 212, also for Co. H First Cavalry, for Co. F 57th and Co. A 52nd, infantry regiments. The State or N. C. division meeting takes place at Greensboro on the 20th and Camp No. 212 will send delegates to that body.

A Necessary Precaution.

Don't neglect a cold. It is worse than unpleasant. It is dangerous. By using One Minute Cough Cure you can cure it at once. Allays inflammation, clears the head, soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane, cures Coughs, croup, throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Children like it.—Gibson Drug Store.

Senator McMillan Dead.

Senator James McMillan of Michigan, died at 4 a. m. Sunday morning at Manchester by the Sea, Mass. It seems that he died of heart disease. He was sick but a few hours.

FURNITURE

For this season of the year our trade never was better. The reason is very plain. Concord is on a boom and the dear people must have Furniture, and if you will give us just a minute by the watch we will convince you that we are equal to the demand.

Car lots for spot cash is our way of buying. A living profit our way of selling. No trouble to trade—come and see.

WHAT IS A RED LETTER SALE? It is simply this—the mark down red pencil has been used quite freely. After handling large quantities of merchandise, as we did during July, we find odds and ends and stragglers in each department. New purchases have been made, too, and a bright lot of specials are now piled high on counters and shelving that will make this a very interesting sale and one long to be remembered. No merchant is in business for his health, nor is it his chief ambition to loose money, yet there are times when to do so is good business. This is one of those times. Read on:

Almost everybody remembers what a tremendous value giving pants sale we had in July. Now the stragglers are bunched together at prices that will carry them out in short order. Prices in this sale run like this—
Long waist perfect fitting trousers, pure worsted, finely finished and ivory buttons, good value at $5.00, red letter price 2.50
Trousers that sold as bargains at 2.00 are now priced 1.50. 1.50 and 1.75 pants, red letter price 98c
75c and 98c pants, some with two hip pockets, cut price 30c
This summer's coats you can buy at almost half.

- $1.25 and 98c wrappers, all colors, cut price 75c
- 88 and 75c wrappers, good value at this price, reduced to 59c
- All 49c wrappers only 33c
- Some short lengths in silk ginghams, all colors, worth 19c, cut price 10c
- Black unfinished serge, 40 inches wide, good value at 50c, red letter price 39c.
