These women are only a few of the thousands of living witnesses of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases. Not one of these women ever received compensation in any form for the use of their names in this advertisement—but are willing that we should refer to them because of the good they may do other suffering women to prove that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a reliable and honest medicine, and that the statements made in our advertisements regarding its merit are the truth and nothing but the truth.

EXPOSITION.—I. Six Great Evils That Result From Indulgence In Wine, 29, 30. Solomon here gives us a very vivid picture of six evils that result from indulgence in wine. Centuries have passed since Solomon's day, but it is as true in our day as it was in his that these evils pursue the winebibber. Note them carefully. (1) "Voe," literally, "Oh!" i. e., the intense pain that leads one to cry "Oh." How many "Ohs" are arising each day from the lips of men and women whose bodies are tortured with the many ills that arise from the use of alcoholic stimulants. I can see still the man that I once carried bodily through the streets of my city shrieking "Oh, oh, oh," in indescribable agony from drink, and I see him later as I held him down with my knee upon his chest as they strapped him to a bed in the hospital. (2) "Sorrow," literally, "Alas," i. e., the deep seated and abiding grief that causes one to cry, "Alas! alas!" This sorrow of the drunkard is of an insufferable form. Sometimes it is the sorrow of seeing loved wife and children reduced from plenty to poverty. Sometimes it is the sorrow of being passed upon the street unnoticed by old-time friends. Sometimes it is the sorrow of standing by the grave of the once beautiful and happy wife who has died of a broken heart over her loved one's degradation. (3) "Contentions." At home, contentions in the place of business, contentions on the street. Alcohol mothers most of the broils in this world. If man was not so prone to let him drink. (4) "Complaining." (R. V.) Wine injures the stomach and breaks down the nerves and thereby spoils the disposition. The drinker soon becomes a grumbler and the grumbler is miserable under any circumstances. (5) "Wounds without cause." Going to the police court to-morrow morning and see the blind eyes, broken noses, cracked ears and legs, chafed ears and more serious and entirely unnecessary wounds that have come through drink. (6) "Reddened eyes," the sign of disordered brain and premonitory of approaching insanity and death. Note that these things come from "wine," not merely from the stronger distilled liquors.

The Only Wise Attitude Toward Wine. 31. "Look not thou upon the wine." This is total abstinence with a vengeance. Not only "don't taste," but "don't look." It is good advice, inspired advice. If a thing ought to be left alone, leave it alone utterly. There are many who do not mean to sin, but they will just look at the sin. That look is fatal. Eye first looked then she tasted. Then she ate, then she died (Gen. 3:6). Many a man and woman has taken the same path to the drunkard's grave and the drunkard's hell. "I wouldn't drink wine for anything," said a man. He looked at it. It has such a beautiful color. It sparkles so. How smoothly it would go down! Just look there! Just a sip now. Delicious! Anger. Just one more. What is the matter? I am dizzy. I am drowsy. I am dead. I damned. Don't look at it.

III. "Three significant words." The men could not see the end from the beginning, how many things they would leave undone which they now do. Before entering upon any course of action we ought always to ask these questions: (1) "What is the end thereof?" (2) "What is the way of death?" (chap. 14:12). The way of the wine drinker is undoubtedly such a way.

IV. The Wine Drinker's Confession. Heart, 33. "Thine eyes shall behold strange things." (R. V.) Indeed they shall. They shall see things out of all proper proportion. They shall see devils and devils shall see them. The drinking man has perverted vision, physical, mental, moral. Folly looks like wisdom and wisdom looks like folly. Right appears wrong and wrong appears right. A man who is truthful and honest and pure when sober, will lie and steal and commit abomination when he has drunk. He is a false and capricious man for business, for study, for decent living. If we take the rendering of the A. V., the verse is still true, for when the stomach is full of wine the eyes are full of lies. How many young men (yes, and young women) has taken his first step in unmentionable villainy when all that is bad in him has been set on fire by a glass of wine? Wine is the sinner's most potent ally.

V. The Wine Drinker's Brain. 34, 35. The head of the drinker reels and he is stupid. He tosses to and fro as the wind. In the midst of the sea and away back and forth as "he that lieth upon the top of a mast." It is a graphic picture of a drunkard's confused and unsteady mental condition. Furthermore the brain is for the time insensible to injuries received and the drinking man is thus rendered incapable of self-protection. Last of all, the drinker is the complete slave of his enemy. With full knowledge of the injury drink does him he cries "I will seek it yet again."

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product, has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative which has the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed, because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States, in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.
