The most successful remedy in this country for the cure of all forms of female complaints is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compeund.

It is more widely and successfully used than any other remedy. It has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means had failed. Why don't you try it?

ENLIST AID OF CHURCHES Powerful Weapon Brought to Bear in the Fight Against Tuberculosis. Just how serious a problem tuberculosis is to the average church, and in just what ways pastors are called upon to minister to those suffering fromthis disease, is the subject of an investigation which the national association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis is conducting in connection with its plans for tuberculosis day on April 30. Statistics are being gathered from thousands of ministers regarding this subject, and among other figures the number of deaths last year from tuberculosis in the church congregation will be given. It is planned to place these statistics together with other educational material, in the hands of every minister in the country for his use in connection with Tuberculosis day. Millions of circulars and pamphlets on the prevention of tuberculosis will also be issued, both from the national office and from the headquarters of the 450 anti-tuberculosis associations who will co-operate in the movement.

A lady writes from the land of cotton of the results of a four years' use of the food beverage-hot Postum. "Ever since I can remember we had used coffee three times a day. It had a more or less injurious effect upon us all, and I myself suffered almost death from indigestion and nervousness caused by it. "I know it was that, because when I would leave it off for a few days I give it up, even though I realized how harmful it was to me.

"At last I found a perfectly easy way to make the change. Four years ago I abandoned the coffee habit and began to drink Postum, and I also influenced the rest of the family to do the same. Even the children are allowed to drink it freely as they do water. And it has done us all great good.

"I no longer suffer from indigestion. and my nerves are in admirable tone since I began to use Postum. We never use the old coffee any more. "We appreciatae Postum as a delightful and healthful beverage, which not only invigorates but supplies the best of nourishment as well." Name

NO PREVIOUS MARRIAGE.

Old Libel Revived by Man Representing Paris Newspaper-King Sent a Letter-The Admiral and His Doughter Disprove Allegation.

London.-The report oft-repeated that King George while a cadet in the royal navy made a morgantic alliance with the daughter of Sir Michael Culme-Seymor, has been given complete official denial in the highest court of England. Edward F. Mylus, the local agent and distributor of The Liberator, a Republican paper published in Paris, which revived the tale last November, was tried on a charge of seditious libel, promptly convicted and given a maximum penalty of 12 month's imprisonment.

In pronouncing sentence Lord Chief Justice Alverstone said that the punishment was inadequate for one who had chosen a weapon for a personal attack upon His Majesty, from the use of which every honorable man would recoil.

King George's accession. As published by Edward H. James, editor of fore George became heir to the throne, the future King visited Malta, | rectly upon the consumer. where he fell in love with and married Mary Elizabeth Culme-Seymour, eldest daughter of the Admiral, who records of the island of Malta were produced to prove that no such marriage has been recorded, Admiral Culme-Seymour swore that his two daughters, one of whom had since died, never had had an opportunity to meet His Majesty. The Admiral's three sons gave similar testimony and finally the daughter in question, who is now the wife of Captain N. Napier, entered the witness box and declared that she had seen the King but three times in her life. On the first occasion she was 7 years old. She saw him again at Portsmouth, when he called upon her father in 1898, eight years after the alleged marriage, and once

Sir Rufus Isaacs, the Attorney General, who led the prosecution, in his closing speech denounced the defendant as the circulator of a base libel. The Attorney General concluded his appeal to the jury by saying that it was not the throne which required defense but that His Majes ty had sought the protection of the court as a man, husband and father The proceedings came to a dramatic close when, after sentence had been pronounced, Sir. Rufus read a letter from King George in which the writer set forth that only the advice of officers of the Crown that such a course would be unconstitutional, had prevented him from appearing personally in the court room and publicly branding as untrue the allega tion that he had ever entered into any marriage alliance other than that contracted with Queen Mary.

German Claims Presented at Wash-Ington Are Contradicted by American Interests.

Washington, D. C., Jan.—The cotton growing states are particularly interested in the potash controversy between the State Department and Berlin, since the future price of fertilizer is directly affected by the outcome. German interests have just made representation to Secretary Knox similar in effect to those assertions made by circular letter to the miners throughout the South claiming that the German potash law, which places a penalty on mines selling heavily to Americans at a lower price than has formerly ruled, is merely a part of the general conservation policy of Germany. According to Ochsimus, a leading German geologist, there are about 39,000 square miles of potash in one section of Germany, each of these containing some 50,000,000 tons of pure potash. This same authority these mines is about 600,000 tons each. and he figures that if the ennual output should jump to 5,000,000 tons annually, it would still require 621,600 years to exhaust the supply.

Another of Germany's assertions is that the law does not discriminate against Americans. The brief of the American potash buyers committee submitted to congress points out that, under the law as recently passed by Germany, the mines of the potash trust in that country were allowed a The story of the now exploded ro- proportion of output sufficient to supmance had been current for a long ply the world, while the independent time but it became specially irritat mines that had made contracts to suping to British sensibilities following ply the United States at a reduced price were limited to one-fourth of their actual sales already made to us. The fact is squadron. This was supposed to be that there is no such complete and in 1890; but the admiralty records powerful trust in the United States showed that the King did not hold an as this German potash syndicate. appointment on any ship that visited This syndicate actually monopolizes Malta between the fall of 1888 and the entire potash supply of the world, and summer of 1893. The marriage save for the two mines that broke away from the trust and sold to American buyers. In this country there are about 70 different fertilizer manufacturers using potash, and of these about 75 per cent are independent of any trust affiliation.

Another claim made by the German committee at the White House was to the effect that the American buyers knew that a law would be passed providing for government taxes and penalties to be assessed, and that they made these contracts with this knowledge in mind. The American committee states positively that this information was brought to them after the contracts were made, and used as a club in an attempt to force them to give up the contracts already entered into, which would have reduced the price of fertilizer materially in this

An official high in the government here is authority for the statement that the cost of this controversy must necessarily fall upon the consumer, and that it should, therefore, be settled quickly. While the American' companies paying a penalty have met the prices made by the German trust that pays no penalty, this has been done at a loss, and should they withdraw from the field because of this, the price of fertilizer in this country would be dictated by the German monopoly untrammelled in Berlin.

Miserable Women

"Every two weeks," writes Mrs. Lucy Cantrell, of Big Sandy, Tenn., "I had to go to bed, and stay there several days. I suffered untold misery. Nothing seemed to help me until I tried Cardul, the woman's tonic. Although I had been afflicted with womanly weaknesses for seven years, Cardul helped me more than anything else ever did. It is surely the best tonic for women on earth." Weakness is woman's most common trouble.

Cardui is woman's most reliable medicine, because it overcomes that weakness, and renews the womanly strength.

The Woman's Tonic

Cardul is a good remedy—for women. It does the work. Made from purely vegetable ingredients, that act gently on the womanly organs, Cardul brings strength in a natural manner; it is pleasant and harmless to take, and seems to go to the sick spot and coax it back to health.

In the past 50 years, Cardui has helped a million women. It has relieved their aches and pains, and has made many miserable invalids well and happy,
