Town Booming Helps

L—Cackle! Cackle! Cackle!

When Ambassador Choate went to England he made a reputation as a wit with one joke.

He sat at the breakfast table beside a sprightly young lady. In England they serve soft boiled eggs wrapped in a napkin. The young lady fumbled, and the egg fell to the floor.

"Oh, Mr. Choate," she cried in dismay, "what shall I do? I have dropped my egg!"

"CACKLE, my dear, CACKLE!" "It's a mighty good thing to do a little CACKLING once in awhile. CACKLE about your business, about the town you are living in. Let all the world know what a good thing we have here, and our town will grow."

Whenever you have a chance to CACKLE about your town and boom it don't hesitate. Remember the fable of the old hen that observed that every time she CACKLED some one came and took the egg away. She thought it would be much wiser for her to hide her nest and keep quiet about it, and she did till a Sunday school picnic was organized. Her owner was asked to contribute, and he said:

"Well, that old hen is not laying any more, and I guess she'd do first rate for a fricassee."

MORAL.

If you want to keep out of the soup pot, CACKLE.

That W. B. Smoot has announced his intention of being a candidate for the State Senate, is evidence that the good people of Rowan County are not going to be misrepresented in the next legislature. Mr. Smoot is a clean, able man, one whom the best of our citizens can rally to with confidence and self respect. Few people in Rowan have been as particular as the editor of THE RECORD in choosing men to make our laws, we are just as exacting as ever and, being so, most heartily endorse Mr. Smoot's candidacy and recommend him to those who are looking for clean, moral men to represent the grand old christian county of Rowan in the next legislature. Mr. Smoot does not need recommendation, by any one, where he is known, hence our tip is to those few who do not know him. Let's see that Rowan is properly represented this year, also that Smoot represents us in the Senate.

Many matters of vital importance to the state will be considered by the next legislature and it is essential that the best possible men be sent to Raleigh as members of the body. A revision of present methods of taxation and assessing property for taxation, the proposed adoption of the Torrens land title system, adequate provision for the state's charitable institutions and for the Confederate soldiers, a state good roads measure, the proposition to build a fire-proof library building at Raleigh, a satisfactory revenue law, a proposition for more uniformity with reference to the game laws, further provisions for progress along educational lines, these and many matters of importance are to be considered and their handling in a wise manner necessitates the presence in the general assembly of men of ability and broad-minded-patriotism.

The above taken from the Winston Sentinel applies to Rowan as forcibly as it does to Forsythe. In this particular Rowan has made a good start in the person of Mr. Smoot. Now for two good, intelligent men from the county. The following have been favorably mentioned: T. D. Brown, N. N. Fleming, Prof. L. H. Rothrock, W. H. Burton, J. C. Deaton, Dr. C. M. Poole, Frank Thompson, Walter Goodman, R. D. Coleman and others.

Seventy-Five Patients Transferred From Morganton to Raleigh.

Morganton, May 24.—This morning seventy-five patients, most of them epileptics, were taken from the Western Hospital for the Insane here and carried to Raleigh, where they will be placed in the Central hospital. The State hospital commission authorized the erection of buildings at the Raleigh institution for the insane people from the eastern part of the State, also all the epileptic insane in the State and this is why these people were moved there to-day, the buildings being finished and ready for occupancy. By this transfer more room, which was badly needed, will be given the Morganton institution. One of the physicians and six attendants from the Raleigh hospital came up yesterday for these people, comprising two carloads, a majority of them women.

This lot of unfortunates passed through Salisbury Tuesday afternoon.

The Finest Gentleman Twain Ever Saw.

"The finest gentleman I ever knew," said Mark Twain once, "was an old California miner who could barely write his own name. He was a forty-niner, and he and his partner had struck it rich in the early days. The old man had neither chick nor child, and he had worked hard all his life, and when he did get his money he hardly knew what to do with it."

"He did not try to jump into society or to push his way with the 'big fellows' there. He continued to live with the people whom he had associated with all his life, and many an act of kindness was done, many a wandering son and father saved, many a sorrowing woman's burden lightened and her home brightened by an unknown donor, whose identity with the old man was only known to a few."

"It was different with the partner. He had a wife and two daughters with social aspirations, and after a whole lot of pushing and hauling and showing they landed in society. The expense was too great a strain on the husband's purse, and he speculated, with the inevitable outcome. He lost his entire fortune and then shot himself. Then it was that the true gentleness of the old man showed itself. The widow and her daughters had not one to turn to but him, and he did not disappoint them. He saved their home for them when everything else went under the hammer, and he maintained them in all the regal style to which they were accustomed, although he still lived in his old lodgings. He lived long enough to see both of the girls well married and the mother carefully settled in life. Then he died in a charity hospital in San Francisco. He had spent every penny he owned on the family of his partner."

FINAL PLAN SUBMITTED

For Consolidation of Lenoir College and Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute.

Hickory, May 24.—In answer to the broad proposition for consolidation of Lenoir College and Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute made last night by the commission of the North Carolina Lutheran Synod, the officers of the Tennessee Synod and the committee of the board of trustees of Lenoir College met this morning and drew up the following proposition to be submitted this afternoon to the commission of the North Carolina Synod. It was first submitted to the full board of trustees of Lenoir College which adopted it unanimously and then adjourned sine die:

"Whereas, the interests of the Lutheran Church in North Carolina demand the concentration of all its energy and means to build up and equip a high grade central college, and whereas, the North Carolina Synod has made overtures through a regularly appointed commission to the president of our synod and the board of trustees of Lenoir College for the consolidation of the educational interests of the North Carolina Synod and the Tennessee Synod.

"Wherefore, resolved, that we approve of the movement and pledge ourselves to carry this matter by resolution to Synod, upon the following basis:

"1. In order that a distinctively Lutheran college shall be maintained and perpetuated, this consolidated college shall be conducted upon the fundamental principles and constitution of Lenoir College as established and now conducted.

"2. That the North Carolina Synod shall be given equal representation on the board of trustees, and half interest in the property of Lenoir College, and be associated with us in the further execution of the original trust.

"3. That in consideration of equal representation on the board of trustees and one-half interest in our property, the North Carolina Synod assumes the payment of one-half of the present indebtedness of Lenoir College, and gives to the Tennessee Synod a half interest and half control in the educational interests of the North Carolina Synod at Mt. Pleasant, free of the indebtedness and the further moral and financial support of the North Carolina Synod to the consolidated college.

"4. That the consolidated educational property of the two synods shall be controlled and operated by one joint board of trustees. W. J. Roger, president; B. D. Wessinger, vice president; E. L. Stroup, secretary; R. A. Yoder, D. D., treasurer; officers of Synod: W. A. Deaton, James F. Deal, John J. George, J. S. Manney, P. C. Setzer, committee board of trustees.

This proposition, whatever form it leaves the joint conference, is to be submitted to the respective synods for final consideration.

There is a small indebtedness of about $12,000 on Lenoir College, and under the resolution of the North Carolina Synod would assume half of this debt. It is understood that the indebtedness of the North Carolina Synod in its Mt. Pleasant properties is small and therefore there is nothing burdensome in the terms of the resolution that the Tennessee Synod is to be free from any responsibility for indebtedness at Mount Pleasant.

Lenoir College has a magnificent property with a fine main building whose towering dome overlooks the town. In it are classrooms. There are two up-to-date dormitories, one for boys and one for girls, two stories and spacious. There are professors' houses around the beautifully wooded 20 acre campus. The property is easily worth $100,000. The old North Carolina College property is estimated by some to be worth $40,000, but probably $80,000 would be too liberal an estimate, and at auction it would not bring that.

There is a strong sentiment for consolidation, and both synods seem to be convinced that this is the propitious time for it. If it is effected it may have a far-reaching effect in the work of the Lutheran Church and it is hard to estimate all the possibilities that are wrapped up in it.

It is possible that there may be a called meeting of the North Carolina Synod to consider this proposition. The Tennessee Synod's regular meeting is October 1 at Lincolnton, and strangely enough it is to be in the same church where the separation from the North Carolina Synod was effected in the year 1820, and the main thing at this next meeting will be the consolidation proposition—a plan for co-operation that has possibilities of extension in it.—Charlotte Observer.

SALISBURY AND OTHER NEWS MATTERS.

Matters of General Interest Prepared Especially for Our Readers.

John F. Gordon, for a number of years a valued machinist at the Southern Railway shops at Spencer, has accepted a position with the Southern as shop foreman at Columbia, S. C., and left on Tuesday night to take charge of the work. Mr. Gordon has many friends in Salisbury who will regret his departure but wish him every sort of success in his new work.

Geo. A. Fisher, who has been for some years ticket agent at the Southern passenger station here, has been promoted to the Winston-Salem office. T. J. Anderson, for some time assistant agent in the Salisbury office, will succeed Mr. Fisher.

Miss Mary Archie, of Salisbury, and A. B. Kuhn, Secretary of the Newton Cotton Mill, of Newton, were married in Asheville, at 7 o'clock, on Tuesday night. Miss Archie is a daughter of Dr. L. M. Archie, of Concord, but for the past four years has lived with her uncle, G. A. Fisher, in Salisbury. She left here on Tuesday morning to visit another uncle, L. E. Fisher, at Flat Rock, N. C. Mr. Kuhn joined her at Asheville, where they were quietly married. After a short sojourn in the mountains they will return to Newton to live.

The two young women, May Allman and Jennie Lewis, who were found guilty of an affray on Tuesday not having paid the fines and cost assessed against them, when court was opened on Wednesday, were ordered sent to the county roads for 30 days with the privilege of hiring out. They are both white women and have figured in this court before.

Work on the Grubb building began in earnest on Monday. The concrete mixer, which had been placed some time ago, was started and all week a force of men have been pouring crushed stone, sand and cement, into one side of it while hands on the other side took it out, when mixed, and bore it away in wheelbarrows to the floor of the building. It is emptied into casings which had been prepared by the carpenters to receive it. It is placed on the temporary flooring several inches thick and will make a substantial floor when the cement hardens. Already more than half of the first floor has been laid and the casings are in on the second floor. A tower is being built by which with the aid of a hoist, already in place, the mixed concrete will be conveyed to the upper stories of the building. This was formerly done by hod carriers who were compelled to climb long scaffolds with a heavy hod of mortar on their shoulder. Now a wheelbarrow filled with the mixed stone, sand and cement is rolled onto a platform, the man in charge of the hoist starts it and the wheelbarrow with its contents are shot up as far as wanted, unloaded and barrow returned. As many barrow loads can be sent up at one time as there is room on the platform, as often as the hands at the bottom can load up and those at the top unload and return the barrows to those on the ground. This is just the starting of the work and goes along with the laying of the pipes and wires of the building. It is likely that at least a year will be gone before the building is completed.

The commencement exercises which have been going on at Livingstone College, a very worthy colored institution at the edge of the city, for the past week, closed on Wednesday. The exercises have been very largely attended by the colored people from this and other states. On Tuesday all the bishops of the A. M. E. Zion Church, except one, was in attendance. On that day the Hood Theological Seminary was dedicated. This handsome building was erected by the colored members of the A. M. E. Zion Church for the fitting of young men for the ministry and in honor of Bishop J. W. Hood, who was for many years chairman of the board of trustees of this college. This building has just been finished at a cost of $25,000 and is one of several splendid buildings belonging to the college. Prof. E. Shaw Wilkinson, of Orangeburg, S. C., delivered the annual address on Monday night to a large audience, among which was seen many white faces. His subject being "Duty and Service." He is said to have hadled it well and was listened to attentively by every one present. As the exercises drew to a close the students began packing up and for some days almost every train has borne some of them away to their homes in this and other states, so that only a few of the two hundred or more are left.

That Judge Miller, of the County Court, is determined, so far as he can, to put down the habit of toting pistols and other deadly weapons, was clearly shown in the case of Meeks Irvin, colored, on Wednesday. Meeks went to a little store kept by Orange Watts, also colored, to see Watts about some reports that had been circulated about him and Watts' wife. They had some words in the store and Watts and his wife retreated to their bed room, which was in an adjoining house. Meeks followed Watts into his bed room, assaulted him with a pair of knuckles and knocked his wife down. After they separated Irvin went to his home, got his pistol, a great big 44 Winchester, came back and was arrested with the pistol and the knuckles on him. He claims that he had started to Esquire Fesperman's to report the matter and had no intention of renewing the quarrel with Watts, but the court found him guilty on two counts, for assault with a deadly weapon and for carrying concealed weapons. Judge Miller deferred his sentence until Thursday, when he stated that it would be eight months on the roads for Meeks. Mr. Farr, representing Meeks, asked that the sentence be changed to fine, and, after considering the matter, the court decided that if he would pay a fine of $150 and the cost by Friday morning, he would be released. Meeks thinks he has some friends who will raise the money for him by that time.

Miss Beatrice Surratt, daughter of Alderman J. W. Surratt, and Walter Daniels, a brother of Alderman W. A. Daniels, stole a march on the old folks on Tuesday and slipped quietly away to Chestnut Hill where, at the parsonage of the Chestnut Hill Methodist church, Rev. W. O. Davis, in the presence of a few friends, made them man and wife. After the ceremony, which was performed at 4 o'clock, the couple returned to Salisbury and announced that they were married and left on No. 12, at 7:45, for Petersburg, Va., to visit the parents of the groom. Mr. Daniels was, for a number of years, employed in the Southern Shops at Spencer and served his apprenticeship as machinist there, but has for some time been with the Southern in its shops at Columbia, S. C.

The Henkle Live Stock Company, of Statesville, a firm which does an extensive business in Rowan, has just closed a trade by which they acquire the splendid farm of the late Allen Heilig, in the St. Paul neighborhood, about four miles south of town. The property, one of the best farms in the county, will be used as a stock farm. The price paid for the property was $8,600. Extensive improvements are planned by the Henkle company in the way of large barns and other buildings. The farm consists of 240 acres.

Only one case was tried in the County Court on Thursday morning, that of a white man who had been found drunk on Lee street on Wednesday. Upon the statement of a friend that he was one of those unfortunates who could not resist the desire for whiskey, but was otherwise a good man, he was let go upon paying a fine of $2.00 and the cost.

H. N. Nabors has been made round house foreman at the Spencer Railway Shops to succeed Locke Atwell, who takes another position. D. Sadler Brown is also night round house foreman. Both are good men and will fill well the places assigned them.

CAROLINA WATCHMAN—ROWAN RECORD

Two Papers For Week at the Price of One. A Semi-Weekly.

THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN and THE ROWAN RECORD are the name of the two editions of our semi-weekly newspaper. Both papers are printed at the Watchman office and, so far as the news is concerned, they are issued as a semi-weekly. Our paper given, the news from Friday to Tuesday and the other giving it from Tuesday to Friday. They are entirely different, each giving all news of interest up to the hour of going to press, but no more. The advantage in this arrangement to the reader is just the same as any semi-weekly when compared with a weekly. The quantity and quality of news is greater and better, it is furnished oftener and fresher and it is prepared especially for our readers. This latter item is of considerable importance to those who wish accurate and reliable information. The disadvantage in taking only one of these papers lies in the fact that the reader will get only about half of the news and very often the very piece of news which he is interested in and wants to see will be found in the paper he does not take.

The man who takes a semi-weekly and gets only one copy and misses one becomes dissatisfied, he knows he is missing something and generally finds time to kick. Knowing this to be true, and knowing that he who does not take both copies of our semi-weekly, THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN and THE ROWAN RECORD, will find himself in the same condition, we therefore urge all who can to take both papers. The price is only $1.00 per year and the subscriber will get more news than can be secured elsewhere for the same money.

This combination arrangement of THE WATCHMAN and RECORD was made for the purpose of accommodating those who want a semi-weekly. Any one trying these papers as indicated will find that they secure all the news fresher and in a more readable form than can be gotten elsewhere for the same money.
