

THE ROWAN RECORD

CHINA GROVE, N. C., MAY 3RD, 1912.

THE FLOWERS COLLECTION

NO. 16.

Local Train Schedule.

Arrival of passenger trains at China Grove.

(Only trains that stop here are given.)

Northbound. NO 8 -for Richmond... 4:35 a.m. NO 44 -for Washington... 7:05 a.m.

Southbound. NO 45 -for Charlotte... 5:56 a.m. NO 11 -for Atlanta... 8:39 a.m.

LOCAL NEWS MATTERS.

Short Items Concerning our People and their Doings.

Miss Nellie Glass of Concord, visited Miss Virginia Winecoff Sunday.

Mrs. J. L. Sifford had strawberry pie Wednesday, May 1st. That's living some.

Dr. G. E. Young and daughter, Miss Nellie, of Forest City, are here visiting the Doctor's son, C. J. Young.

The statement of the Merchants' and Farmers' Bank of Landis is to be found in this paper.

Mrs. C. B. Miller and son, Bennett, of Charlotte, visited at Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sifford's this week.

Rev. C. A. Brown and his delegate, L. W. Earnhardt, will attend the meeting of the North Carolina Synod at St. Mark's E. L. Church, Charlotte, next week.

Jonas Kirk was in Salisbury Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. Lyerly was in Salisbury Wednesday.

Dr. G. A. Ramsaur went to Salisbury yesterday at noon to participate in the sessions of the Ninth District Medical Society in session there.

Rev. A. Shulenberger and J. E. Corriher are attending the annual meeting of the North Carolina classis of the Reformed church, in session this week at St. Matthew's Reformed church, in Lincoln County.

D. D. Alexander was out to his farm yesterday morning and picked several quarts of strawberries. He gave some to his friends.

Mrs. F. E. Corriher and daughter, Miss Zelia, went down to Charlotte yesterday morning.

Mrs. F. M. Thompson and mother, Mrs. Rutledge, are visiting G. H. Rutledge, in Concord.

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Brown were the guests of Mrs. M. J. Sloop for dinner on last Wednesday.

Miss T. Ruth Brown has had a right bad case of ivy poisoning since the commencement of the China Grove High School, but she is about well now.

Rev. C. A. Brown was in Salisbury yesterday attending the meeting of the Executive Committee of the North Carolina Synod. This is the final meeting of the Synod's Executive Committee before the convening of the N. C. Synod at Charlotte next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. G. H. Weddington is having her residence painted. C. C. Sechler is assisting in the work.

Esq. P. A. Sloop, is now busy listing taxes.

E. W. Edwards and family visited at J. A. Barger's Sunday.

Miss Nora Foust is here this week visiting her sister, Mrs. L. M. Holschouer.

Rev. John Hall field secretary of Lenoir College, Hickory, N. C., will preach in Mt. Moriah E. L. church, two miles west of town, on next Sunday, 5th, at 11 o'clock a. m. and at St. Mark's, five miles out of town, at 8 o'clock p. m.

These are the churches recently vacated by Rev. Hoffman. Everybody invited.

Floyd Bostian, who underwent an operation at the Charlotte Sanatorium for appendicitis is at home now.

John Frank Bingham who was quite seriously injured in the cotton mill a week or so ago, is able to be out.

H. B. Kimball is holding down the hello girl's job at the phone office this week, Miss Linn having resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shepherd spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Shepherd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sifford.

Mrs. J. L. Holschouer and little grandson, Hubert Peeler, went down to Concord Tuesday to visit relatives there.

A Horse Does a Valuable Stunt.

In Salisbury Tuesday afternoon G. G. Gullett's horse decided to get rid of the wagon to which he was hitched.

The Thursday Afternoon Club met last Thursday with Mrs. W. C. Sifford, who proved to be a charming hostess.

Mr. Bostian sells out. J. L. Bostian, administrator of Mrs. Geo. A. Bostian, has disposed of her stock of millinery in a lump.

Weaver-Van Pelt Marriage.

On April 28, 1912, A. Van Pelt and Miss Allie E. Weaver were happily united in the bonds of holy matrimony at the old Weaver homestead where the bride's sister, Mrs. J. M. Calvin now lives.

Helps a Judge in Bad Fix.

Justice Eli Cherry, of Gillis Mills, Tenn., was plainly worried.

Base Ball.

There was an interesting game of ball played at Landis last Saturday by the China Grove and Landis teams.

What Texans Admire

is hearty, vigorous life, according to Hugh Tallman, of San Antonio.

Escapes An Awful Fate.

A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate.

The R. Lee Mahaley, Feed, Livery and Sales Stables, successors to the Harper Livery & Sale Co., has an important announcement in this paper to which all in need of stock and livery service should give heed.

A POPULAR COUPLE TO WED.

Announcement of the Engagement of Miss Zelia Corriher and Dr. B. O. Edwards.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Zelia Corriher, the attractive daughter of Mrs. F. E. Corriher, to Dr. B. O. Edwards of Landis, N. C., came as a pleasant surprise to a number of her friends last Thursday afternoon.

An elegant salad course was served, followed by oranges, whipped cream and cake. Immediately after the refreshments were served an oranges was placed before each guest and at the same identical time a telegram arrived bearing a message, that on opening the orange a secret would be revealed.

Two contests were participated in and greatly enjoyed. Misses Annie Rose and Lurline Graham coming out prize winners.

The house was beautifully decorated in cut flowers and potted plants. A color scheme of pink and green being carried out.

This happy event will be looked forward to with great pleasure by scores of friends of this popular couple.

THE WATCHMAN thinks this is a very good plan. If followed it is likely to bring about the change desired.

We did not suppose there was any danger of President Taft failing to carry Massachusetts, but alas the Rough Rider has not lost his cunning.

The way the Catholic-controlled newspapers are vilifying Theodore Roosevelt gives one a fair idea of what Catholics mean by toleration.

Bank Statement.

Attention is called to the statement of the condition of the Bank of China Grove to be found in this paper.

Helps a Judge in Bad Fix.

Justice Eli Cherry, of Gillis Mills, Tenn., was plainly worried.

Base Ball.

There was an interesting game of ball played at Landis last Saturday by the China Grove and Landis teams.

What Texans Admire

is hearty, vigorous life, according to Hugh Tallman, of San Antonio.

Escapes An Awful Fate.

A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate.

The R. Lee Mahaley, Feed, Livery and Sales Stables, successors to the Harper Livery & Sale Co., has an important announcement in this paper to which all in need of stock and livery service should give heed.

A Suggestion.

Mr. Editor: I believe the people want a change of county commissioners badly, but if all the candidates running are voted for, this ambition will be defeated.

POLITICAL.

THE WATCHMAN thinks this is a very good plan. If followed it is likely to bring about the change desired.

We did not suppose there was any danger of President Taft failing to carry Massachusetts, but alas the Rough Rider has not lost his cunning.

The way the Catholic-controlled newspapers are vilifying Theodore Roosevelt gives one a fair idea of what Catholics mean by toleration.

One of the features of the dog law passed by the last legislature is to the effect that no dog shall be allowed to run at large during the months of May, June, July and August.

Just as sure as the Democrats nominate a man for office who has served three terms, just as sure will the party endanger all of the county ticket.

Are the Democrats going to nominate a man for county treasurer who went to Greensboro two years ago and took part in the Republican convention, ruined a woman in Providence Township and then went to Indiana and taught a negro school for several years?

FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS. I hereby announce myself a candidate for Register of Deeds of Rowan County, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries and convention.

Escapes An Awful Fate.

A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate.

The R. Lee Mahaley, Feed, Livery and Sales Stables, successors to the Harper Livery & Sale Co., has an important announcement in this paper to which all in need of stock and livery service should give heed.

SALISBURY NEWS ITEMS.

Things of Interest Gathered to our Busy Record Reader.

Mrs. S. H. Wiley, Sr., has been quite ill for several weeks and her friends are somewhat uneasy about her.

Quite a number of the medical fraternity were in Salisbury yesterday and last night. The occasion being the first annual meeting of the Ninth District Medical Society.

Dr. G. A. Brown, of Mt. Ulla was in Salisbury yesterday.

R. A. Smith of the Ebenezer neighborhood was in Salisbury yesterday and this morning.

T. B. Parker, State director of Farmers' Institutes, will be in Salisbury tomorrow and will hold a meeting in the grand jury room with the Rowan institute directors for the purpose of fixing dates for holding the institutes in Rowan this year.

D. M. Blackwelder, who was in the accident Tuesday that cost Detective Attaway his life, is getting along very well, though still in a very serious condition.

G. H. Park, who has been attending the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Columbia, S. C., has returned home for the summer.

The Demons of the Swamp are mosquitoes. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the icy chills and the fever.

JACKSON COLLEGE.

The farmers of this section are very busy planting corn and cotton at this writing.

Wheat and oats are looking very well through this section.

P. N. Trexler is through sawing for Adolphus Holschouer near the college.

The J. A. Morgan saw mill company is about through sawing for Jas. H. Morgan.

What has become of Elizer? I guess she must be asleep. Wake up and give us the news from your way.

Look out boys it will soon be fishing time. There have already been some fine fish caught this season.

There will be preaching at Cornith the first Sunday in May. Everybody is invited to come.

Frankie Morgan and family visited Ivey C. Morgan's Sunday night, April 21st.

The writer took a trip to Albemarle the 20th, which he enjoyed very much.

Charlie Brady is all smiles. It's a big boy.

J. C. Klutts attended the commencement exercise at Crescent on the 25 and 26th.

A. T. C. Morgan and family visited at Ivey C. Morgan's Sunday, April 28th.

SOME OF ROWAN'S OLDEST CITIZENS.

Who are They? Is This List Correct? Send in Some From Your Neighborhood.

- We are still getting names for our old folks column and filling in the dates of birth of others and making slight corrections. Any aid extended will be appreciated. Icom Hoaky, son, East Spencer, born May 8, 1811... 100

FEEDING BABIES.

Needless Slaughter of the Innocents Results from Improper Feeding.

One hundred and sixty babies will be born in North Carolina tomorrow. Thirty-two of these will die within a year.

Immediately after birth do not give artificial food while waiting for the milk supply to come.

Nurse the baby by the clock. "Meals at all hours" cause indigestion in babies as well as in adults.

If you suspect that you have not enough milk, that your milk does not agree with the baby, or any other question arises, eat the doctor before changing him to the bottle.

Do not be content with advice of neighborhood grandmothers concerning the baby.

These special trains will consist of first class coaches, standard Pullman sleeping cars and Pullman tourist sleeping cars.

Following round trip rates will apply from stations named. Rates on same basis from all other points on Southern Railway.

Charlotte... $6.00 Concord... $7.00 China Grove... $7.45

Blacksburg... $8.00 Rock Hill... $6.10 Statesville... $7.30

Mooresville... $7.00 Shelby... $6.80 R. H. DuBuras, division passenger agent, Charlotte, N. C.