Then and Now.

About 247 years ago, When the Colonel was a little boy,

He was not about here then, you know, Neither did he consume any of it of jay.

The charming hockworm joint yet unknown, But Chas. Sech, the lasitudinarian, Jumped round like the "Flying Dutchman," sea foam, Methuselah, Thom. Kirk, or some other antiquarian.

Patrick Secher and the Wizard of the Wind, Chased Pharaoh around the pyramids;

Then the Rainbow Chaser came up with a grin, And they scampered about like Katy-dids.

But what has this to do with Jonas and his jug, Or with June bugs all aglow;

Can't George swap a horse for a plug, And uncle Pat vacate for a day or so?

Salisbury's Hold Mass Meeting and Agree on a Charter.

There was a mass-meeting of the citizens of Salisbury in the court house last night for the purpose of discussing the commission form of government for Salisbury. The meeting was presided over by Theo. F. Klutz and T. G. Furr acted secretary.

A large crowd showed interest in proposed amendments to the bill as read by the City Attorney Walter Woodson at the last meeting. These were all adopted and other amendments as proposed by citizens present last night.

Among the amendments were the following: That the matter of the extension of the city limits be left out of the bill and be presented as a separate matter; to eliminate the city clerk and let one of the commissioners fill the office; that voting in all city elec-

Miss Edith Esqle, of Harris' Chapel, and George Honbarger, of China Grove, were happily united in the bonds of matrimony at the Methodist church parsonage Saturday night, at 7 o'clock, Rev. H. H. Robbins officiating. Miss Edith is well known by a host of friends and Mr. Honbarger has a position with the Southern Railway. We wish them much joy, a long and happy life.

I guess the ground hog saw his shadow. We can look for some bad weather through February. He has started off for six weeks. Plucky had better stay in a while.

Three of James Corriher's children have the measles, but they are improving some.

We had a nice little Sunday School at Harris Chapel Sunday. We would be glad to have a larger crowd for Sunday, the 9th, at 2 o'clock p. m. Everybody is invited to come and bring a friend.

Mrs. Cora Bame visited her brother, H. B. Wilhelm, Sunday.

The bill will be sent down to Raleigh at once, after the committee has revised it.

The committee has revised it.

Two Pure Bred Berkshire Boars

at a price it will be impossible to duplicate for same line of breeding elsewhere. One boar 25 months old, will weigh about 300 pounds, not fitted for the show ring, but in good breeding condition. Has never been overdone by high feeding, so his breeding qualities have not been impaired. He is one of the famous Riley strains, of Thornton, Ind. These gentlemen have bred purebred Berkshires for 40 years. The Riley type is the standard in many sections of America. Nearly every good herd of Berkshires in this country is represented with one or more Riley bred, and at all the big shows for the last 40 years, they have won the lion's share of first prizes.

This one will be priced at $30 if taken before February 15. Also another half brother, 14 months old, for $20. If you want a boar for less than half price you would have to pay any other breeder for the same line of breeding, better see me at once. Will furnish pedigree free. A. E. Sloop, China Grove, N. C.
