China Grove, August 29, 1913

In the discussion of matters pertaining to a town, county or State, let no one think that when the word "people" is used that it necessarily means all the inhabitants of such community, nor a majority, nor yet a goodly number, for per chance it may mean only two. Demagogues use the word to impress others with the importance of their imaginings. People, like few, merely means two or more.

FAITH.

Aug. 27—David Parks has returned from Tallulah Falls, Ga., on a visit to his parents. He has been running machinery for the Hardway Contracting Company, in Georgia.

Faith and Crescent crossed bats on the latter's diamond. The score-board at the end of the game showed 8 to 2 in favor of Faith Thursday at the Peeler reunion.

Mrs. J. Corl and children are visiting at her father's, down on the Gold Hill road, today.

J. T. Wyatt has delivered two wagon loads of granite window sills to the R. A. Brown Construction Company, in Concord. They will be used in the new addition to the graded school house now being erected in that place.

The Sunday School classes of Mrs. G. H. Peeler, P. A. Peeler, W. S. Barger, G. C. Miller and

L. M. Peeler, of the Reformed Church, had a nice little picnic in the grove near the church on Saturday, August 23rd.

Rev. A. Albert Gosser, Mount Carmell, Pa., will be at Lowerstone Church on the first Sunday in September at 11 o'clock and will preach also at Shiloh Reformed church at Faith at eight o'clock the same night and will also preach the second Sunday in September at Shiloh, N. C., at 11 a. m., and at night at 8 o'clock he will be here with a view of becoming pastor of the Faith charge of the Reformed churches.

Mrs. Myron Fisher is spending the day with Mrs. Henry Heilig. L. R. Earnhardt and D. T. Fesperman will soon commence on an addition to the Salisbury Cotton Mill.

Sydney R. Wyatt writes home that he is well pleased with the U. S. Navy and that he has already won some medals and is getting along fine.

Mrs. J. Corl has a beet in her garden 15 inches around. Who ever beats that trot out your beet. Venus got some good pictures at the orphans home picnic at Crescent recently.

J. T. Watt wants to find a vein of free mill gold ore on some farm for some Northern capitalists who will furnish the money to develop it right away. This might bring many thousands of dollars in our section if one could be found.

Sandy Frick, who just came home on a visit from the navy at Portsmouth, Va., reports he is getting along fine. He has gained over thirty pounds since being there and likes it fine.

Lots of people went to Mount Hope today to the Youst reunion. There is a small house in Faith where the bats camp in every day. At dark they begin to come out by the hundreds. At break of day light they return. Venus.

Suffering a broken blood-vessel, Mrs. Thomas M. Rice, aged 58 years died suddenly at the home of a daughter, Mrs. J. H. Sapp, in Salisbury late Wednesday afternoon. She was stricken with paralysis immediately and did not regain consciousness. She is survived by four daughters and two sons. Among the daughters are Mrs. Sapp and Mrs. N. C. Little, both of Salisbury. The burial took place at Franklin, this county.
