WEIK'S HAPPENINGS OF THE NATIONS AT WAR

October 4.—Having repulsed the

The great effort of the allies to envelop the German right may be said and either encircle the German army forming the right wing or force it to fall back to Belgium and Luxemburg.

in which to make their positions secure, so there is a lot of hard fighting ahead for both the attacking forces role is apparently being assumed by

Heretofore fortresses have not stood

Four monarchs, the Russian empeof Belgium and the president of France are taking part in the battles on the actual firing line ever since

October 5.-Only brief reference the French war office in its latest report on the conflict in Northern France. "The general situation is

In the eastern war zone the Russians report that having conquered

In the South, on the Adriatic, to be bombarding the Ausrtian port

As yet the situation surrounding the forts at Antwerp, which are under not been cleared up definitely. The Germans still cailm they have captur-

Great Britain is investigating coal fences remain intact.

has reached $15,000,000.

Bohemia and Moravia

cavalry died yesterday of wounds.

An epidemic of dysentery has brok-

Great Britain has prohibited the ex-

Winston Spencer Churchill, first

Antewrep consulting with the Belgian

The Washington government is still

A second Russian army is now

Twenty-four American nurses and

Oct. 1, after two months of the war, reached $420,000,000," the minister of finance said. "The credit balances on the same date in the treasury was bank. Besides we have just renewed the convention to assure the resources necessary in case the war should be threatening the town of Huszt, in archipelago in the Pacific ocean.

The Germans have had a long time

September 30.—The German wings | Silesia. appear to be folding back on the cen- In the north, if the reports are to ter, leaving the sole loophole for a be believed, the Russians seem to backward movement by way of have checked the German invasion

The Germans are even busier than ed the Germans to retract their steps the Russians, for besides the battles except on the right wing which is still in France and Russia, they have be- fighting around Ossowetz. gun an attack on the outer forts of The latest report on the movements Antwerp. For two days they have of the German Emperor is that he bee ashelling forts Waelhem and has left Breslau, from which point the Wayre-St. Cathraines, which cover invasion of Poland was launched. the road Malines to Antwerp.

The sowing of floating mines by the German attacks presumably in the vi-Austrians to harass the French and cinity of Roye, the French, according English warships in the Adriatic, has to an official communication issued resulted in the sinking of an Italian at Paris, have resumed the offensive fishing boat, and the Italian govern- at several points, while other posiment has entered a protest at Vienna tions on their left have been main-

Semlin, the important Austrian town | tained. opposite Belgrade, which the Servians captured several weeks ago, but evac uated when the Austrians threatened to be in operation again, and it is bethem in another quarter again has lieved the whole French column from fallen into Servian hands.

October 1-Both sides appear confi- eastward against the German posident. The Germans, bringing up re- tions. inforcements to meet the attempts to outflank them, are in what appears to be almost impregnable positions and are fighting sternly.

While the German attack on the outer fortifications on Antwerp, again Belgium has become the scene of serious operations. The invaders, so far, have confined their attack to the forts protecting the river crossings between Malines and Antwerp. A German report says two forts have been silenced but the Belgians deny this.

The Russians in the North, according to Petrograd accounts, have checked the Germans advance and driven them back 30 miles to the region of long after the big German siege guns Suvalki and Miriampol. have been brought up. But Antwerp Suvalki and Miriampol.

On the allies' right, in Southern is in a different category for in addi-Woevre where progress also is report- tion to being stronger than any forted, the French have been fighting to ress yet attacked, there is a considcompel the Germans, who crossed the erable space in which the field army Meuse at St. Mihiel, to return to the can operate against the besieging Fastern side of the river.

October 2-Telegrams from Petro- The battle is still raging along the grad, The Central News corespondent | East Prussian frontier, and according | at Rome says, declare that the Ger- to Berlin reports the Germans have mans have lost 30,000 men in killed scored a victory over the Russians and wounded and 20,000 taken prison- who had pierced their center at Au- Belgians and the Germans in the en ed and, within the limitations of ecoers in Roland.

The Russian troops have continued to repulse the enemy from the boundaries of the governments of Suvalki and Lomza. The engagement has been very fierce west of Symno. The German troops that were atthe field. The German emperor has tacking Ossowetz are retreating hasbeen on both western and eastern tily to the north. Considerable forces of the enemy, of which the bulk arrives from the west are concentrating in the districts west of the governments of Piontrkow and Kielce.

The front of the French battle line is now extended into he region to the south of Arras. Upon the Meuse the Germans attempted at night to throw a bridge across the river near St. stationary," it says. Mihiel. The bridge was destroyed by French guns.

In the Woever district French of the Germans in Russian Poland two ensive continues and progresses Russian armies are invading East step by step notably in the region be- Prussia with Allenstein as their obtween Apremont and St. Mihiel. On jective. the remainder of the front there have been attempted only artial operations French men-of-war are reported again here and there. The Germans, who are supposed of Cattaro. to have the assistance of heavy Austrian guns, apparently have failed bombardment by the Germans, has in their first atempt to pierce the outer line of forts at Antwerp. Stubborn resistance is being offered by the Germans in the vicinity of ed several of the outer fortifications Roye where earlier in the battle they while the Belgians declare the deoccupied heights which they were forced to abandon. The battle which promises to be shipments from the United States unthe greatest and most important of der the suspician that the cargoes inthe eastern campaign has commenced | stead of reaching ports to which they near Cracow, Galicia, where the Aus- are consigned, reach German warships tro-German army, estimated to num- at sea. ber 800,000 men, is endeavoring to check the Russian advance. October 3.-Roye, the little town on the main road from Amiens to Noyon, raid back of the German lines where the heights around which have been they blew up a railroad tunnel and alternately occupied by the French escaped. and the Germans during the past week is still the center of a battle of great violence. The Germans, who are fighting stubbornly to protect their flank at this important changes have been made in point, have brought up reinforce- Germany's army commanders. ments, but according to the French official communication today, all their en out among the Austrian troops in attacks have been repulsed The action, however, is still proceeding and upon it much depends, portation of raw wool. for if the Germans are beaten, their line of communication at Tergnier lord of the admiralty, is said to be at will be seriously threatened. Of other operations on this front, chief of staff. which extends as far north as Arras, nothing has been disclosed since the without official advices concerning the French themselves announced that landing of Japanese blujeackets on their force debouching from Arras had the island of Jaluit, in the Marshall north of that town. There is evidence from other sources that the Germans are making pre- eastern Hungary, according to a news parations to protect their flank, should dispatch from Rome. Huszt is 40 retirement become necessary. They miles from the boundary of Galicia, have evacuated West Flanders and which is near the crest of the Carpatheir attack on Antwerp is believed thian mountains. by many to be designed to keep the Belgians busy and prevent them from six doctors, members of the Red Cross operating on what would be General units assigned to Russia, are at Stock-Von Kluck's left should he fall back holm, Sweden, on their way to Petro-through Belgium. grad. A big Russian army is gathering to .A force of 90 French architects and meet them and a great battle probab- 3,000 workmen stands ready in Paris ly will be fought in Poland, instead to go forth into the war zone to reof on the borders of Poland and pair damage done by shell and flame.

SEVEN MILLIONS A DAY.

Cost of War'ls Immense But Bank of France Stands the Strain Well. Paris. The war is costing France $59,200,000 and, therefore, we are far $7,000,000 a day! Minister of Finance from having exhausted the amount Alexander announced that the outlay provided by our convention with the for the first sixty days of the conflict had been $420,000,000. In a Temps interview M. Ribot says the bank of France on October prolonged beyond the date foreseen. 1 had $812,400,000 in cash, which was "France is far from having ex-$63,000,000 more than it had on the hausted her reserve and when the hour comes she will find the money

"Advances made to the government for a new loan."

BATTLE REPORTS VARIED FORTUNES THE ST. LOUIS PLAN

NOTHING DEFINITE COMES FROM THE FRONT AS TO EITHER

ITS PART TOWARD BELIEF

from East Prussia and have compell- England Claim Conditions Are Good But Give Nothing But Mere Out> line of Progress. While the world awaits news of the great battle in which the British and actual opérations.

lost and tomorrow the same ground of the German right wing.

As a matter of fact General von Kluck in command of that section Roye northward to Arras is moving of the German army with heavy reinforcements which have reached him in the past week, has taken a decided It is the same operation that has offensive and day by day the anbeen tried repeatedly for the last nouncement is made by the French a special rule for its consideration three weeks in an attempt to reach | War Office that the "violent battle before the adjournment of the present | tile forces was observed before dark, the German lines of communication continues."

The British official bureau reports ference, Senator Overman said: that the French army is fighting with the greatest dash and bravery but is silent on what the British are doing, right direction. It is the belief of The French officials report an advance on certain points on the center and of not less than $100,000,000 in the and the defenders. The defensive yielded in the Roye district.

been recently seen near Lille and behind them German forces moving on a line between Tourcoing and Armentieres. This important unit of fthe German army, which it was thought might serve to break the French line. check, and to the north of Lille, has situation." been driven back. On two wings, it is added the German attacks have the delegation that called on the presbeen repulsed.

The northward mov French line brings it close to the Bel- the conference and the attitude of the gian frontier and coincidentally there president it may be stated as follows: have been engagements between the The president is profoundly interestvirons or Ypres, 20 miles south of Os- nomic law and safe finance, he will do tend and at Audenarde, 5 miles south- all in his power to help. It was evioror, the German emperor and the king | west of Ghent.

or on their way to visit the troops in frontiers, while King Albert has been an inland training camp.

concerning actual fighting is made by somewhat problematical, but a very ably initiated, through the banks of strategical defensive movement and their power." that they abandoned the bombardment of Ossowetz, a fortress in Russian

This statement adds that the fighting at Augustowo and in Suwalki was of a most sanguinary nature and that while the German machine guns finally man artillery men was terrific. The movements of the German troops were alist agency here. greatly hampered by the physical condition of the country. have fallen into German hands.

The Belgian Government has been The Prince of Wales' relief fund removed from Antwerp to Ostend. several of the ministers and many French cavalry executed a daring thousands of refugees having reached there. The bombardment of Antwerp it is reported, already has begun, following a notification from the com-General Jean Rousseu of the French October 6.—A news dispatch from do so, should withdraw from the city. Bordeaux announces that a number of Forces Fight Well Together. Manchester, Mass. - The Austro-Hungarian Embassy here announced receipt of an official wireless message from Count von Berchtold, the Foreign Secretary of Augstria-Hungary, as follows: "Austro-Hungary and German forces are fighting successfully shoulder to shoulder in Russian Poland, where their sudden advance seems sians, who were repulsed across the near Sandomier.

Russians Opposed by Germans. Petrograd.-The Russian general staff issued the following statement: "On the East Prussian frontier the Germans, having brought up reinforcements from Koenigsberg, continue to oppose a tenacious resistance lakes and marshes in the region of in the region of Opatow and Sandomir. At Saliva we have caputrde an artillery park and numerous convoys."

Germans Repulsed Along Center. Paris.—The French war department issued the following:

"Except on the two wings where the Louisville & Nashville Railroad the German attacks have been 're here recently show an increase in net pulsed, there has been nearly complete calm along the front.

"On our left wing the German cavalry has been held in check to the north of Lille and it has been driven back.

"Between Chaulnes and Roye the ground previously ceded has been re taken.

PRESIDENT FAVORS OFFICIAL BRITISH REPORT SAYS GERMANS FIRE ON OWN FORGES

THINKS CONGRESS HAS DONE issued a descriptive account of the operations in France of the British force and the French armies in im-OF COTTON. mediate touch with it, communicated by an eye witness present at the headquarters of Field Marshal Sir John indicated a willingness to lend this of an attempt to carry out the dan-

"Sept. 25, 1914-For four days companied by a spell of fine weather, though the nights are now much colder. One cannot have everything, however, and one evil result of the sunshine has been the release of flies, which were torpid during the wet

"Advantage has been taken of the arrival of re-enforcements to relieve by fresh troops the men who have been on the firing line for some time.

their baptism of fire during the week.

Germans Fire on Own Men.

headquarters evidence has been regerous expedient of a converging ad-

"Opposite one portion of our position a considerable massing of hos-and some hours later a furious fusillade was heard in front of our line,

Many Dead in Trenches.

tember 21 and covers only two days.

On Monday, the 21st, there was little the better, which has been maintained.

the artillery, our guns at one point shelling and driving away the enemy, during the night of September 21-and in them, or near them, in the woods, more than a hundred dead and wounded were picked up. A number of rifles, ammunition and equipment

also were found. There were other signs that portions of the enemy's forces had withdrawn for some dis-

"Tuesday, the 22nd, also was a fine day, with less wind, and was one of the most uneventful days that has passed since we reached the Aisneuneventful, that is, for the British.

There was less artillery work on either side, the Germans nevertheless giving another village a taste of the Bodies in "No Man's Land."

from the ridge where some of the most severe fighting in which we have taken part has occurred. All over this

'no man's land' between the lines the bodies of German infantrymen are still lying in heaps where they have

"Espionage plays so large a part in the conduct of the war by the Germans that it is difficult to avoid further reference to the subject. They lowed by a hundred cooks; when I take the field I am preceded by a

"Indeed, until about twenty years ago there was a paragraph in their field service regulations directing that the service of 'protection in the field'

-outposts and advanced guards-should always be supplemented by a

Many Spies Give Signals.

well known, still carry them into ef-arrangements which were made in peace time for obtaining information

by paid agents, some of the methods which are being employed for the collection or conveyance of intelligence

"Men in plain clothes signal to the German lines from points in the hands of the enemy by means of colored lights at night and puffs of smoke from chimneys by day. Pseudo laborers working in the fields between the armies have been detected conveying information and persons in plain clothes have acted as advanced scouts to the German cavalry when ad-

Officers Remain Behind.

German officers and soldiers in lain clothes, or in French or British evacuated by the Germans in order to

"One spy of this kind was found by our troops hidden in a church tower.

His presence was discovered only through the erratic movements of the hands of the church clock, which he was using to signal to his friends by means of an improved semaphore

the German artillery at the time of headquarters and staff. A high explosive shell would then have mys-

"Women spies also have been teriously dropped on the building.

their arrival the exact location of the furnish them with intelligence.

"Though such instructions are no fallen at different times.

"The spot thus honored was not far

Jack Johnsons.'

hundred spies.'

system of espionage.

are as follows:

"This narrative begins with Sep-vance in the dark.

trenches.

a village.

"Since the last letter left general

Several units therefore have received

NEWS IS ALL SATISFACTORY NOW UP TO THE BANKERS French. there has been a comparative lull all along our front. This has been ac-

North Carolina Delegation from Farmers' Union Given Sympathetic Hearing by Wilson.

The North Carolina delegation in congress, accompanied by Dr. H. Q. French Allied forces and the Germans | Alexander, J. Z. Green and W. B. Gibin norther France have engaged, son of the State Farmers' Union, conmeager official reports from the front ferred with the president about cotton vouchsafe little information of the today. The president told the Tar Heels that he favors the St. Louis Today it is a small piece of ground plan for financing the cotton crop. The president gave the North Carohas been regained. Meanwhile the linians a sympathetic hearing, and French forces are moving northward, told them that he believed the situabut are gaining little to the east, which | tion could be met without further fiwould be essential to the outflanking nancial legislation by congress. He ceived which points to the fact that added, however, that the warehouse during counter-attacks on the night bill, which has passed the senate al- of Sunday, the 20th, the German infanready, should be enacted speedily. He try fired into each other as the result > measure his support. As a result of his attitude, it is believed the rules committee will report session. After the White House con-

"The projected St. Louis cotton pool though no bullets came over our is regarded generally as a step in the the administration that a similar pool the retaking of the ground previously | Southeastern states would afford adequate relief, and I am personally of rain and the weather took a turn for Masses of German cavalry have the opinion that the banks and business enterprises in the section should. The action was practically confined to hasten to organize such a pool. Persons who are familiar with the St. Louis plan regard it as important to who were endeavoring to construct a the people of the South in the present | redoubt. The Germans for their part emergency as the $100,000,000 gold expended a large number of heavy the French report, has been held in pool is to the international financial Representative Small, speaking for ident, said: "If one may summarize result dent that he was not in sympathy While the East Indian troops have with any plan to valorize the price reached France and already may have of cotton and regarded any such proreinforced Field Marshal French's ar- posal as unwise and dangerous. He my operating in the neighborhood of would like to see the federal ware-Soissons, the whereabouts of the Cana. house bill become a law before this dians, numbering about 33,000, has session closes, but does not believe been a matter of conjecture. It is now any further legislation is necessary, announced that they are about to be but that the situation can be met, in landed in England and will be sent to so far as can be metall, by mobilizing our currency for making advances The situation as between the Rus anh andling the cotton crop, and that sians and Germans and Austrians is this must be done largely, and probfrank statement from Berlin admits the country, and that the secretary of that the German forces on the front- the treasury and the federal reserve ier of East Prussia have assumed a board will render all the assistance in

PEACE IN MEXICO EXPECTED. Battle Continues Between Hall and

Naytorena at Naco. Washington.-Speedy restoration of harmony between Generals Carranza turned the scale of battle in favor of and Villa through open conferences as the Germans the slaughter of the Ger. Aguas Calientes was predicted in a statement issued by the Constitution-Consul Silliman, who has returned to Washington after a sojourn of three The forty-third German casualty months in Mexico as the personal replist issued at Berlin contains 10,600 resentative of President Wilson, renames in dead, wounded and missing. sumed conferences with State Depart-Berlin also reports that the fighting ment officials on the Mexican situaon the German right wing in France tion generally without reference to has been successful and that in the the question of recognition, it was assault on Antwerp two more forts | said. Pending the outcome of the preliminary conference at Aguas Calientes and the general convention which has been called to meet there, officials here say it would be unwise to give this question serious attention. Reports to the State Department indicate that the battle between the forces of Governor Maytorena and mander of the German troops that General Hill at Naco, countinues non-combatants and others desiring to without advantage to either of the Bryan Urges Election of Gerard. Washington.-Secretary Bryan enered the New York senatorial campaign when he made public a leteer declaring himself in favor of the election of Ambassador Gerard as "an endorsement of the policies of the Administration. Judge Gerard," Mr. Bryan said, "has renederd splendid service at Berlin, and there is no reahave completely surprised the Rus- son why his success as a diplomatic representative should stand in the way Vistula in their attempt to cross that of his promotion in his home state river. Our forces took a bridge head I feel sure he would make an excellent representative.

Mellen Expresses Opinion. New York .- Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven & Hartford Railroad Co., stated briefly a few days ago his position regarding the suit brought by the New Haven Road an dthe New England Naviga upon the battle front of Vladislavoff | tion Company against himself, John and Ratchka, profiting by the defiles, L. Ballard and five other officers of the Billard Company to recover $3. Tchernoganja. Beyond the Vistula 824,147 in connection wit hthe sale advance guard battles have occurred of the Boston & Maine Railroad. "I never had a share of stock or invested a dollar in the Billard Company," Mr. Mellen said.

the preceding fiscal period.

L. & N. Makes Report. WOUNDED GERMANS Louisville, Ky-Reports submitted KISS HANDS OF FOE at the annual stockholders meeting of passenger earnings and a decrease in net freight earnings for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914. The passenger earnings were $4,359,397.21 as compared with $3.768.823.35 fofr the corresponding period in the previous year; freight earnings were $9,540, 167.55 as compared with $9,849.22 for London.-The official press bureau f at the railroads observing entrainments and detrainments.

"It is a simple matter for spies to mix with the refugees moving about to their homes; difficult for our troops, who speak neither French nor German, to detect them.

"The French have found it necessary to search villages and also casual wayfarers on the roads for carrier "Among the precautions taken by us-to guard against spying is the publication of the following notice printed in French and posted: "'1. Motor cars and bicycles not carrying soldiers in uniform may not circulate on the roads. "'2. The inhabitants may not leave the localities where they reside between 6 p. m. and 6 a. m. "'3. Inhabitants may not quit their homes after 8 p. m. "'4. No person may on any pretext pass through the British lines without an authorization, countersigned by a British officer.'

Value of Secrecy Shown. "Events have moved so quickly during the last two months that anything connected with the mobilization of the British expeditionary force is now ancient history. Nevertheless, the following extract of a German order is evidence of the mystification of the enemy and is a tribute to the value of secrecy, well and loyally maintained at the time in Englands

"'Tenth Reserve Army Headquarters, Mont St. Guibert, Aug. 20, 1914, 23:40.—Corps order, Awg. 21: The French troops in front of the Tenth army corps have retreated south across the Sambre. Part of the Belgian army has withdrawn to Antwerp. It is reported that an English army has disembarked at Calais and Boulogne, en route for Brussels."

DEATH COMES SWIFTLY TO TWO GERMAN SPIES

shells in a long range bombardment of London.-A story received from point in France it is not permitted to "Reconnoitering parties sent out pine tree with rifle and fixed bayonet: 22 discovered some deserted trenches, > point a little toward me. "Je vais me promener," I reply smiling, and anticipate his next demand by pulling out my case and displayother papers and an officially stamped free. Adv. photograph, which proves my identification with the name upon the special permit. "Monsieur, permit me," says the soldier suddenly in very fair English. "Monsteur is ze man that writes. I shake you by ze hand with ver great pleasaire. It is to me an honor!" We "shake" with enormous empressment and I compliment him upon his

He smiles, gratified, and disclaims with great modesty. He beckons me back among the trees.

"One comes!" he says. "Ssh! Ze woods here have been many times set in flames. We have suspects these be done with intention.

See Spy Among Trees. He ceased his whisper abruptly and we both bent forward together. A hundred yards down the narrow path among the pines a man in a workhave evidently never forgotten the saying of Frederick the Great: 'When man's blue blouse is standing, looking Marshal Soubise goes to war he is folquietly in every direction.

Suddenly he takes a couple of steps in among the trees, stoops and lifts a stone. Far down the hillside at the end of the narrow vista among the trees, a second man was suddenly seen. So utter is the silence that I can hear him plainly as he coughs. He begins to haul on something, and I realize suddenly the meaning of the whole incident that I am watching. The two men have located the underground private telephone wire going up to the longer made public, the Germans, as is fort. They have been tapping it for fect. Apart from the more elaborate any news they might pick up. Death is Painless.

The soldier is methodical. He takes the distant man first. Kneeling there behind him, I watch with a growing thrill and tension of tragedy and sickness his sunburned cheek cuddle against the stock of his rifle. Then very slowly it seems to me in that quiet, dreadful moment his stubby cigarette stained forefinger crooks back gently, gently on the trigger.

"Crack!" comes the sharp, snapping bang of the weapon, and the man down the vists of trees gives a queer little jump and then turns right around quickly and looks behind him. And thus looking, and seemingly unaware that he is the person who has been shot, his heart stops and he rolls over quite easily and gently on his sidea merciful enough death, as these uniforms, have remained in localities violent deaths go, for some of them are so dreadful.

> Shoots Second German. And then, as I stare, the rifle goes "crack!" again, and I jump; for I am still looking at the silent figure down the vista of trees.

But the soldier has been attending to his business and has snapped off a second shot at the nearer man, for "Had this man not been seized it is | the man had started to bolt. And beprobable he would have signaled to cause the shot was hastily aimed the

An examination of both bodies shows that the men were German spies, in possession of "ciphered" information that would no doubt prove caught; secret agents have been found | very helpful to our enemies.

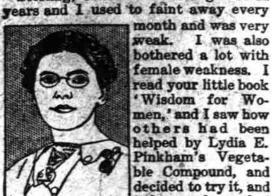

stages of suffering, finding a water bottle at their parched lips, kissed the hands of the foe who held it to their

The young Frenchman told me sadly of being embraced and kissed by wounded Germans he had helped on

LIVES A GIRL

Who Suffered As Many Girls Do-Tells How She Found Relief.

Sterling, Conn.-"I am a girl of 22 it has made me feel like a new girl and I am now relieved of all these troubles. I hope all young girls will get relief as I have. I never felt better in my life."-Miss BERTHA A. PELOQUIN, Box 116, Sterling, Conn.

Massena, N. Y .- "I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I highly recommend it. If anyone wants to write to me I will gladly tell her about my case. I was certainly in a bad condition as my blood was all turning to water. I had pimples on my face and a bad color, and for five years I had been troubled with suppression. The doctors called it 'Anemia and Exhaustion,' and said I was all run down, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me out all right."-Miss LAVISA MYRES, Box 74, Massena, N.Y.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice. Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Affronted.

"The impudence of that druggist." "What's the matter, Grayce?" "I went in to buy a stamp and he asked me if I could wait until he took an order over the telephone."

St. Louis Lady Cured of Eczema. A soldier comes out from behind a ine tree with rifle and fixed bayonet:
"Ou allez vous?" he says, stepping
"Ou medicine has cured me after six without success, until I tried Tetterine.

Your medicine has cured me after six without success, until I tried Tetterine. Tetterine cures Eczema, Itching Piles, Ring Worm, Dandruff and every form of Scalp and Skin Disease. Tetterine 50c; Tetterine Soap 25c. At druggists or by mail direct from The Shuptrine Co., Savannah, Ga. With every mail order for Tetterine we

Why He Collapsed.

"And what," said the great specialist, "do you consider to have been the cause of your husband's sudden and complete collapse?" "He insisted on trying to follow a story in the moving pictures?"-Puck. Atlanta's garbage crematory is de-

Monmouth, Ore., school children now study dairring.

nounced as a nuisance by citizens residing near it. Cost $276,000.

HANFORD'S Balsam of Myrrh For Galls, Wire Cuts, Lameness,

Strains, Bunches, Thrush, Old Sores, Nail Wounds, Foot Rot Fistula, Bleeding, Etc. Etc. Made Since 1846. Ask Anybody Price 25c, 50c and $1.00

All Dealers S.C. Hanford Mig. Co.

SPECIAL TO WOMEN The most economical, cleansing and germicidal of all antiseptics is

A soluble Antiseptic Powder to be dissolved in water as needed. As a medicinal antiseptic for douches in treating catarrh, inflammation or ulceration of nose, throat, and that caused by feminine ills it has no equal. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women, which proves its superiority. Women who have been cured say it is "worth its weight in gold." At druggists, 50c, large box, or by mail.

DRIVE MALARIA OUT OF THE SYSTEM

The Paxton Toilet Co., Boston, Mass.

AGENTS To introduce our new i

Heart, Kidney and Lung troubles. Se ettits some Eye syes Salve

. BRINGING THEM AID France.-A young soldier told me

Day and night he and his fellows had been fighting till the Germans melted away. Then they returned across the country they had fought over. Here and there they came upon a wounded man and, French or German, did what they could for him, but | tories.

in many cases the stricken burden was so awful they were glad when it died.

Wounded Germans, in the last mouths.

the battlefield.

Belgium has four artificial silk fac-