After many years' experience in the use of it and other cough medicines, there are many who prefer Chamberlain's to any other. Mrs. A. C. Kirstein, Greenville, Ill., writes "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my mother's home and mine for years, and we always found it a quick cure for colds and bronchial troubles. We find it to be the most reliable cough medicine we have used."

FAIR NEWS.

People Taking Much Interest and the Prospects For a Successful Fair are Excellent.

October 22 to 26 promises to be the leading week of the year in Rowan County. Interests develop more and more as the time approaches for our Big Fair. We are proud to announce to the people that the prospects for our Fair is better than ever. People from all over the county are writing us they are coming. They are going to make exhibits of Live Stock, Poultry, and Agricultural products, galore. Much interest is being manifested in our races for farm horses, in the hay loading contest, and other features and amusements. Entries are being made daily, in the different departments, and our offices are the busiest in town, all of which indicate a big success and a big fair.

Our free attractions will be among the best ever shown here, while our midway will be filled with shows of a higher class than those usually found with any Carnival company. There is a reason for this; we are booking independent shows only, and have a choice of placing only the best. We are expecting a firm in Ohio to bring a car load of Shetland ponies here during the Fair, which will be a free attraction for women and children.

Taking everything into consideration we can give positive assurance that our Fair will be better than before.

Space in the main building is fast being taken up for different exhibits, and others contemplating making an exhibit would do well to let us hear from them.

The sale of advance tickets, by members of the Red Cross, is progressing satisfactory. We are giving a liberal per cent to the Red Cross, and we urge people to buy tickets now from them.

Mrs. Smith Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I have had more or less stomach trouble for eight or ten years" writes Mrs. G. H. Smith, Brewerton, N. Y. "When suffering from attacks of indigestion and after eating, one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets have always relieved me. I have also found them a pleasant laxative." These tablets tone up the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you are troubled with indigestion give them a trial, get well and stay well.

A New Firm for China Grove.

Eagle & Sloop is the name of a new mercantile firm for China Grove, being the successor of Bernhardt & Eagle, who recently were forced to dispose of their stock and dissolve partnership because Mr. Bernhardt was called to join the army. Mr. Eagle remains with the new firm now composed of himself, and O. E. Sloop, who has been employed at A. T. Bost's up to this time. These gentlemen are busy at present taking stock, after which they will purchase new goods and will carry a large line of groceries, confections, dry goods and numerous other articles generally carried in a first class general store. They are clever and capable young men thoroughly reliable, courteous and prompt in all matters pertaining to their business and satisfactory service to their customers.

Robt. E. Eagle was in Salisbury today purchasing new goods for the firm of Eagle & Sloop.

The Red Cross Bazaar.

The bazaar being conducted in the Washington Building, Salisbury, by the ladies of the Red Cross of Rowan County is a success, and was a success from the start, as generally the case with anything the good ladies of Rowan undertake. The bazaar opened Wednesday night after a well-attended patriotic meeting in the old course, when Cameron Morrison of Charlotte, made a speech that enthused and inspired all who heard him.

There are a number of well-stocked booths with nearly all sections of the county being represented, to wit:

Granite Quarry, Cleveland, Spencer, Rockwell, China Grove, Landis and Salisbury, all being carefully attended by ladies from their respective neighborhoods.

The following ladies and gentlemen from China Grove were the managers of the China Grove booth on Wednesday: Misses Mary Ramsdell and Evelyn Thom, Mrs. C. B. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Shuford, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shepherd and W. J. Swink.

The managers for Thursday were: Mesdames W. J. Swink, F. A. Eardardt, C. B. Miller and Misses Evelyn Thom, Ruth Thom, Mary Rose, Gladys Pouncey and Zenith Riser.

The managers for Friday are: Mesdames F. E. Shepherd, W. C. Sifferd, B. S. Shuford, Thos. S. Wilkie, and probably others whose names we did not obtain.

Over $30 worth of goods have been sold by the China Grove chapter up to yesterday evening and the stock is still large, which means the ladies will probably realize more than fifty dollars by their enterprise.

Sour Stomach.

Eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, abstain from meat for a few days and in most cases the sour stomach will disappear. If it does not, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. Red meats are most likely to cause sour stomach and you may find it best to cut them out.

BARNUM & BAILEY CIRCUS IS COMING

Greatest Show On Earth Will Soon Exhibit In The Vicinity

Again the glad tidings are being spread broadcast telling of the coming of the Barnum & Bailey circus. The greatest show on earth, it is announced will positively be exhibited within easy traveling distance this season and as usual, a large percentage of the population will declare a holiday to visit the show.

The big circus will exhibit in Charlotte on October 25th.

It is promised that nothing to compare with the present Barnum and Bailey performance has ever been seen under canvas. New and novel features have been imported from abroad and a program of events, thrilling, educational and seemingly funny will occupy every instant in three rings, four stages, the riggings above, and the hippodrome surrounding for more than three hours.

There is a new and gorgeous pageant entitled, "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp" in which nearly 1,400 persons and one thousand animals appear in magnificent costumes rivaling the dress of the people of the famous "Arabian Nights" story. This will be followed by a host of acts in all parts of the great enclosure. There will be sixty clowns, a greatly increased menagerie of wild and untamed animals, four great herds of elephants, several caravans of camels and many recently born baby animals.

The free street parade, which will start from the circus lot at 10 o'clock on the morning of circus day, is entirely different from anything of the kind ever shown before. It will be three miles in length and there will be bands on foot, on horseback, and riding on top of wagons of red and gold. There will be six bands in all and they will be assisted by three steam calliopes and an electric piano.

With the largest tent in the history of all circuses, the Barnum & Bailey circus promises this season to make good again its boast that it is the Greatest Show On Earth. Five railroad trains comprising 89 railroad cars, will be required to transport its paraphernalia, and more than 750 horses will be used to transfer its wagons from the railroad yards to the show lot.

Youth is ever anxious for a birthday, for Christmas, New Year, Easter or some other holiday. They are ever alert for some new joy, for glad tidings and for most any occasion that will give them an opportunity to cast dull care aside and revel in the sunshine of real happiness. So it no wonder a birthday is made use of for such a purpose.

So it was Monday, October 8th, that Miss Zena Peeler had a birthday and of course a party was a necessity. Preparations were made, invitations sent out and gladness took place on that evening at the home of her relative, J. L. To'shouser, with whom the attractive Miss Peeler resides. Besides the games and other many pleasures afforded, delicious refreshments were served and the many present were much pleased and made glad by the cheerful hospitality of their hostess.

Miss Peeler was the recipient of numerous presents from her friends, some of considerable value.

We hope they will soon be home again.

Venus has just received a nice post card showing a big snow drift from his old friend in another country. Here it is, "Dear Venus, just a word of appreciation from one of your readers and admirers in a far away land. Can you trot out any snow to beat this? The large drift is in front of my consulate. Very sincerely Sam Hamilton Wiley, American Consul, St. Pierre Miguelan, North Atlantic Ocean. I am a Salisbury boy."
