PRICE-EVERETTE WAREHOUSE BILL

Makes Warehoused Cotton Receipts Gilt Edge Security—Provides Revolving Fund for Building New Warehouses.

The Warehouse Bill just enacted is one of the most constructive pieces of legislation passed at the present session. The bill as passed is essentially the same as that introduced early in the session by Senator W. B. Cooper, except that it takes all cotton ginned for the next two years twenty-five cents per bale to provide a guarantee and revolving building fund. Under the terms of the Act the Board of Agriculture can loan 50% of the needed money for constructing warehouses where there are no facilities.

Among the benefits expected from the bill are the following:
 1st. It will immediately improve storage facilities for North Carolina cotton and thereby insure more graduated marketing of the staple—a reform for which the present crisis shows the imperative need. This will benefit every man who grows cotton no matter whether he stores a pound or not. As providing the facilities for others who do store, will cause the market to be steadied and advanced for every man who sells without storing.

2nd. The receipts of every warehouse will be good at any bank anywhere and enable us to borrow wherever money is cheapest.

3rd. The bill makes provision for the superintendent to borrow for others in New York or elsewhere.

4th. It is believed that it will greatly reduce the cost of storage through a reduction in insurance charges and rates. The insurance rate on cotton stored in State Warehouses in South Carolina is only about one-third the present rate in this state.

5th. All cotton stored in the warehouses is to be graded and stapled by State or Federal experts and the superintendent is authorized to act as broker for those having cotton stored when so requested. It is expected that a record of the grade and staple of every bale stored will be kept at a central office and that mills and large exporters will endeavor to locate cotton that they desire and make purchases through the superintendent.

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, . . . and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui? . . . I did, and soon saw it was helping me. . . . After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic
 Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health.

Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.

BANKS TO SAFEGUARD BONDS AND STAMPS

Are Ready to Protect Securities of Small Investors Free or For Nominal Charge.

In buying Liberty Bonds, Victory Bonds, Thrift and War Savings Stamps the people of the United States have done more than perform a patriotic duty—they have invested in the soundest securities in the world, gold obligations of the United States of America.

But the safeguarding of these securities has become a problem for many folk. Only a few persons, relatively, have either a safe in the house or office, or a safe-deposit box in the vaults of the bank. For so many patriotic citizens are keeping bonds and stamps about the house, in the bureau drawer, under the mattress, or on the shelf. And even if the treasure is thus hidden from thieves, there is the ever present danger of fire, and the loss of the money invested.

There may be no further call for the people at large to subscribe to huge bond issues, but the government needs the daily and weekly sums which come in from the sale of Thrift and War Savings Stamps for taxes must be kept down. The danger of loss has deterred some people from getting as many stamps as they might otherwise buy. Hence the problem will be a future question as well as a present one.

Steps have been taken, however, to meet this situation. Stamp certificates may be registered with the Treasury Department. Registration means that the owner's name and the number of his security have been "registered" by the government, and that nobody but himself can possibly get the money which the bond or stamp certificate calls for. Certificates may be registered through the nearest postoffice; bonds through the nearest bank.

And the second method for safeguarding has been provided by the banks themselves. Every bank—national bank or savings bank—and every trust company has, of course, ample and secure vaults. For the man who does not feel that he can afford to rent a safe deposit box to keep Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps in, many of the banks and trust companies have announced their willingness to keep these securities for him in their own vaults.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS MADE HOME POSSIBLE

Man Who Suddenly Found Himself Without Roof Over Head Was Able to Buy Property.

This true story tells how War Savings Stamps built a sure protection around one Washington war worker and his family.

Early in the war savings campaign he began a small systematic investment in Thrift Stamps, which ultimately grew until he had an investment of $100. He says he acquired his stamps without depriving himself or family. The investment "just grew" out of incidental savings.

Presently this incidental money became scarce. The war worker and his family felt the burden of the wartime high cost of living, and the anxiety and expense of extraordinary illness of the two children. Then another blow fell. He awoke one morning to find that he had no place to live.

His residence had been sold and he and his family were asked to vacate. He could find no houses for rent within his means, and was confronted with the necessity of leaving the city or buying a home for his family. He could not buy without making a substantial initial payment, and ready funds were seemingly beyond reach.

Then he thought of his War Savings Stamps. He remembered they were redeemable on ten days' notice, with accrued interest. With the proceeds of these stamps and such small sums as he could gather he made first payment on a new home in the suburbs.

Recently he refused to sell it for $1,200 more than the purchase price. This man is a War Savings Stamp enthusiast—and he is on the straight road to financial independence.

College Educations are Made Possible By Government Plan

Director of War Loan Organization of This District is Anxious to Explain Method to All Who are Interested and He Invites Requests for Information.

Perhaps in no other thing is Uncle Sam more interested than in the future of America in the citizens of tomorrow—the children of today—and he consequently realizes the tremendous importance of inculcating in the minds of the children the principles of thrift and enkindling in their hearts a desire to improve their condition in life. With these things in view the government is suggesting ways whereby a higher education may be had by many boys and girls who otherwise would never receive the benefits of a college course.

"In the 2,000,000 homes in Maryland, the District of Columbia, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina," said Albert S. Johnstone, director of the War Loan Organization, Richmond, Va., "there are perhaps 1,000,000 boys and girls, 12 to 15 years old, who are looking forward to entering college some day. Their parents realize, if the boys and girls do not, that this 'some day' will come very, very soon. It is not merely a question of money. Enkindled ambition, steady adherence to by both the child and his parents, is necessary. Otherwise the money will probably not be accumulated in time, nor appreciation of the value of a college education be so developed in the minds of the boy and girl that they will stick to their purpose to get it regardless of the obstacles in their path."

"There is a method—provided by the United States Government—by which this money can be accumulated gradually and be ready when it is needed. Meanwhile it will be absolutely safe, will draw a splendid rate of interest and be exempt from all state, county, and city taxes, both as principal and interest, except estate and inheritance taxes. Moreover, the process of getting this money ahead is so simple, so direct, that all the members of the family may share in it, though no one can get except the money that belongs."

Mr. Johnstone says he would like to tell every interested parent, boy, or girl more about it. He asks simply that you fill out the coupon below, clip it out, and mail it to him at the address given on it. He promises a prompt reply.

SUCCESSFUL DOLLARS ARE THOSE WORKING

Invested in War Savings Stamps They Never Fail to Yield You Handsome Profit.

It is the dollar that goes to work that is the successful dollar. The idle dollar is a failure. The successful dollar brings back another dollar with it. It makes itself a dollar and something—two dollars and something—a whole family of dollars.

But the careless dollar goes off somewhere and is never seen again. A Texas man the other day lost a life-time's savings—$786. His dollars had gone off in the pockets of two fake stock promoters. He had not taught his dollars to keep good company.

Hundreds of years ago a man to whom a handful of money had been trusted buried it all in a napkin. He got no increase—he did not even keep what he had.

The dollar that succeeds is energetic—and careful. War Savings Stamps do more than save your dollars. They put them to work at compound interest. And they never fail. Your government guarantees every one of them.

A man once bought Manhattan Island for $24. He had the $24. Buy War Savings Stamps and be ready.

Provide a silver lining for the coming cloud. War Savings Stamps will do it.

REMEMBER THE ANT

Save and have! Remember the story of the ant and the grasshopper? The ant worked and saved. The end of each day found him with a little more added to what he had the day before. The grasshopper danced and sang and fiddled his time away. Winter came; the ant had plenty. The grasshopper had nothing; he had not saved. He went to the ant and asked for help. Said the ant: "While I worked, you fooled your time away. You can dance now for all I care."

Are you an ant-person or a grasshopper-person? Some time are you going to have to ask for help and, will someone tell you to dance; or will you be independent?

If you save now, you'll have later on. Let the end of every week find more Thrift Stamps on your card. At the end of every month be able to show more War Savings Stamps pasted on your certificate. Lend your money to the government at 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly, and see it grow.

Take stock of yourself! What are you worth? Will next New Year's Day find you worth more or less? Which will you be, an ant or a grasshopper?

WAR SAVING STAMP VALUABLE SECURITY

There are eight points of excellence that are possessed by War Savings Stamps which are especially appealing and which are not combined in any other security now to be obtained in any market. War Savings Stamp workers would do well to get these eight points and to see that their advantages are not lost sight of.

(1) Every War Savings Stamp is a direct promise to pay on the part of the strongest government in the world.

(2) It bears interest at the rate of 4 per cent compounded quarterly if held until maturity.

(3) The amount of money required for the investment is so small that every person can own at least one interest bearing security.

(4) It is readily obtainable. Any post office, almost any bank and any other agency will supply them.

(5) It is always in season and may be purchased at any time.

(6) Its principal is always maintained with an accrual of interest.

(7) It is the most liquid of all securities, readily converted into cash on short notice and is redeemable upon maturity at convenient places.

(8) Its interest is received immediately at the time of purchase, instead of periodically during the life of the securities.

ARE YOU CIVILIZED?

"The difference between the civilized man and the savage is thrift. Keep expenditures always below income; save something," said Andrew Carnegie.

How far are you civilized? Do you simply live in today, as does the savage, or are you preparing for the necessities of tomorrow? Will you be ready to take advantage of future opportunities? Will you be able to own your own home, to travel, to change your position or enlarge your business? Are you confident of what old age will bring, and what opportunities you will be able to give to your children?

In other words—ARE YOU SAVING?

You can do it. Join the great movement for a Thrifty America. Make a start with your odd quarters today. Thrift Stamps may pave the way to a happy, comfortable and more civilized tomorrow. Are you traveling this smooth road, or is yours an unpaved one? Choose between the two.
