Rowan County Boy Killed at Cotton Gin Near Faith.

Paul Castor, 12 year-old son of Bert Castor, met a horrible death yesterday at the cotton gin near Faith where the elder Castor is employed. The boy while handling a bag, got caught in the shafting and was dragged on to the rapidly moving shaft. His legs and arms were torn off and his head badly battered, death being almost instantaneous.

PREVENT PNEUMONIA

Neglect of a simple cold is often the direct cause of pneumonia. Children do not like to take nauseating medicine but do like the soothing effect of the external remedy.

Brame's Vapomentha Salve is applied by rubbing this delightful salve into the chest and under the arms. The result is almost instant relief from croup and colds. It is not unusual for embrocations of vapomentha to relieve after a few applications. Recently endorsed by doctors for the youngest babies as well as for grown-ups.
 Price, 50c and $1.20 at all drug and general stores. Free sample upon request to

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard

Criticism and Citizenship

It is the plain, public duty of every citizen to criticize proposed government measures believed to be harmful.

Swift & Company is in a better position perhaps, than others, to understand the meat packing business in all its relations to public and private interests, even though the others may have been giving the subject a great deal of sincere attention.

Swift & Company is convinced that interference with its legitimate business function by governmental agencies, however well intentioned, would be an injury to every man, woman and child who wants meat to eat, as well as to the men who raise the meat and to those who dress and distribute it.

Maximum service—that cannot monopolize because of keen competition and lack of control over sources of supply is furnished at a minimum of profit—a fraction of a cent per pound from all sources.

Therefore Swift & Company is taking every legitimate step of citizenship to prevent interference.

These advertisements are intended to help you, and to help Congress decide what is best to be done. Mistakes are costly and apt to be harmful in these trying times.

CAN EASILY REDUCE HIGH LIVING COSTS

Prices Will Come Down When Everyone Puts Shoulder to Wheel and Increases Volume of Production.

"Past history has proved quite conclusively that you can no more legislate the cost of living up and down than you can stop the tide by building a sea wall," says Roger W. Babson, national expert in finance. "The basic economic law of supply and demand always was and always will determine prices," he declares, "in spite of artificial restrictions which may seem to interfere temporarily."

"When demand exceeds supply, prices are bound to rise. With three hungry men with one loaf of bread, but one thing can happen. When supply exceeds demand the reverse is true. Three loaves of bread to one man bring prices tumbling down."
 "The real cause for the present high level prices is apparent when you realize that the United States is exporting at present twice the foodstuffs that it exported a year ago, and three to four times the amount exported in normal years. We are feeding Europe, what's more we must continue to feed Europe until it gets back on its own feet again."

"Their crop of 1919 will help some, but we must wait until the harvest of 1920 before they are wholly independent of this country. If the general public can be educated to an appreciation of the situation as it is, and can be made to see that the well-being of every one of us depends upon every man producing as he has never produced before, supply can be increased to meet and exceed this unprecedented demand and we shall weather the storm with everybody ahead. . . . ."

"Under the circumstances, it is more of a religious question than an economic one. Maximum production on the part of every individual must be made a moral issue. . . . . Decreased demand means depression, and employment and hard times for everybody. Increased production will meet the situation and solve the problem."

"But that can only be accomplished by every man putting his shoulder to the wheel, and producing as he never produced before. . . . . When the majority of the people were made to feel that slavery was wrong, it was abolished. When the majority of the people were made to feel that drinking was wrong and were ashamed to be seen going into a saloon, we got prohibition."

"In the same way, when the people begin to look down on the man who is not a producer, or who curtails his production, we shall strike at the tap root of the cost of living problems. We must go on a 'producing campaign'."

The only road to independence—thriftiness and economy. The power a man puts into saving measures the power of the man in everything he undertakes.

There are 1,440 minutes in every day. If you use five of them to buy War Savings Stamps, you still have 1,435 left for other things.

A quarter saved a day means $91.25 in a year, or more than $100 if put in War Savings Stamps.

STAMPS FOLLOWING FLAG AROUND WORLD

Thrift Campaign Goes On Wherever Old Glory Waves—Cheering News Comes From Faraway Constantinople.

Along with the men of the Navy, the War Savings Stamp is following the flag around the world. In the Mediterranean squadron, the government savings securities are as much a part of the battleships and cruisers that are aiding in straightening out the tangled affairs of Asia Minor as the ammunition hoists.

For American thrift has not stopped at home. The savings campaign organized by the Savings Division of the Treasury Department is being carried out by both officers and men through War Savings Societies, Thrift Stamps, War Savings Stamps and Treasury Savings Certificates.

A letter just received by the Savings Division from Captain David F. Boyd, commanding U. S. S. Olympia at Constantinople brings the information that the thrift campaign on that vessel has been placed in charge of Lieutenant H. K. Koebig. Captain Boyd gave assurance of the co-operation of himself and his men in the work.

PAID FOR FUNERAL

War Savings Stamps are as inevitable as death and taxes, and they benefit the dead as well as the living.

Recently John Kirkiras died in Dayton, Ohio. He left no relatives and two who sought to give him a proper burial were confronted with difficulty in financing the funeral. Kirkiras had died leaving no ready cash, and the solicitous friends were afraid that public charity would have to be charged with the burial expenses.

They discovered, however, that before he died the man had invested in about $100 of War Savings Stamps. A trip to the Dayton postoffice and the observance of the necessary formalities enabled them to pay the undertaker's bill.

THE SOBERING BUNDLE

When you have a bunch of boodle in the bank just up the pike, you'll stand for Yankee Doodle, law and order and the like. Then no creed of devastation, such as Russian outlaws shriek, will receive your confirmation—you'll denounce it like a streak. When a man is broke and busted, with no package laid away, he is evermore disgusted with the laws we all obey. He would see our courts all leveled, and the judges on the rack, and the plutocrats bedeviled till they gave up all their stack. He would see all things upended; justice he would render mute; then his chances would be splendid to accumulate some loot. I have seen some agitators stirring up the people's souls, and they all wore cast-off garters and their pants were full of holes. And they said their chains were clanking as they damned the plutocrat; if they'd only do some banking they would soon get over that. I have heard the spickest thriftless putting up their weary song. I have heard the weak and shiftless saying everything is wrong. But the man who saves his money thinks the Russian creed absurd, and he thinks it beastly funny that so many rangers are heard.
