How an Enemy was Foiled. The following graphic statement will be read with intense interest: "I cannot describe the numb, creepy sonsation that existed in my arms, hands and legs. I had to rub and heat those parts until they were sore, to overcome in a measure the dead feeling that had taken possession of there. In addition, I had a strango weakness in my back and around my waist, together with an indescribable 'gone' feeling in my stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralytis, from which, according to their universal conclusion, there is no A Household Treasure,

"He has to, sometimes," confessed the deacon.

"I think not."

"You never had boy twins at your house did you?" inquired the deacon softly, and the pastor retired in discomfiture.

Too Deep.

"My hands are awfully cold," said the pretty girl, suggestively, as they drove home from the dance.

"Why didn't you bring a muff with you?" asked the practical young man, prosaically.

"I did!" she snapped, but she wouldn't explain where the muff had
