

The Populists are beaten every where except in North Carolina. They elect only four Congressmen outside of this State, and lose nine. The Northwest has gone almost solidly against Populism. In North Carolina, it is a Republican and not a Populist victory. So, really, the Pops. have nothing in the world to boast of.

If Democracy is beaten, Populism is dead. Mark that.

Senator will make money as plentiful as leaves in Alabama.

Notes From the Organ.

Rosa Pauline, infant daughter of Mr. H. L. Goodman, died the 23rd and was buried at Mt. Hope the 25th. Of all the people that visited the big "show" at Salisbury the 23rd, I wonder how many are now crying "hard times"? Listen and find out. There are men who haven't a good farming tool on the farm. Their wagons, plows, harrows, etc., are gone to rack, the times are so hard that they cannot buy new ones and yet they took the whole family and went to the show.

The regular communion meeting was held at Organ church Sunday, the 25th. There was a very large congregation present and more than three hundred communed. The pastor was unassisted, Rev. J. Q. Wertz, who was expected, having been prevented by sickness.

All of the Lutheran pastors living south of the Salisbury and Charlotte railroad are off this week for conference, which meets at Albemarle.

Rev. Paul Barringer and Rev. J. L. Lyster of the German Reformed church have just returned from Pennsylvania where they have been attending the meeting of the General Synod of their church.

There is to be a Demost Gold Medal contest at Oak Grove school house next Saturday night.

Geo. Klutz, son of Moses Klutz, Sr., enters N. C. College, at Mt. Pleasant, this week.

Nov. 5, '94.

It will not be surprising to members of the diplomatic corps should the relations between this country and Germany become very much strained, if nothing more serious occurs, on account of the action of Germany in prohibiting the importation of American cattle and dressed beef without any real excuse for such unjust action. It is known that this Government has intimated very strongly to Germany that it isn't inclined to accept the ridiculous excuse put forward—fear of Texas fever,—and that it has made a protest clothed in the most dignified language. There is no doubt that the matter rests at present, but it will not be allowed to rest there. Germany may find that if retaliation is to be the game the United States holds the winning hand.

For some reason the number of Democratic office holders who went home to vote fell below expectations, and it will not be surprising if a large number of the delinquents spend a very disagreeable half hour with their Congressmen when Congress gets back to Washington.

Mrs. Cleveland has accepted an invitation from the Cramps's, the Philadelphia shipbuilders, to christen the American Line Steamship, "Louis," which will be launched next Monday. The President will not be able to go, but Mrs. Cleveland will be accompanied by a small party of friends, leaving here Monday morning in a private car returning the same afternoon.

NOT A Late Letter to Thatcher.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—Private Secretary Thurston states that the letter of President Cleveland to Robert L. Thatcher, made public from Albion, New York, Monday was written on the third day of August, 1892, and related to the presidential campaign of that year.

Mechanics and Families Leave Pullman.

CHICAGO, November 7.—Thirty-four families left Pullman yesterday for Elkhart, Kan., to join the new co-operative colony there. They included a number of first-class mechanics, former employees in the Pullman shops.

Idaho Also Joins the Rank.

Boise, Idaho, November 7.—The Democrats concede that Wilson, republican, is elected to congress. Careful estimates give the state to the republicans by 4,000 for the entire state ticket.

Frankman North Carolinian Dead.

WILMINGTON, N. C., November 7.—Mayor Jas. Reilly, one of the most prominent ex-confederate soldiers of this state, died at his home in Brunswick county last night.

MORTON HAS HIS WAY

Carries New York by a Greatly Increased Majority. REPUBLICANS SWEEP THE COUNTRY.

Returns Not Full But Sufficient to Indicate the Results—W. L. Wilson Probably Defeated in West Virginia.

New York, November 7.—In this state the election was remarkable for the general quietude that prevailed in the city despite the intense party feeling that ran with great force in every district from the battery to Spuyten Duyvil.

With the exception of a few ordinary encounters there was no happening of a riotous nature that could be called riotous in any section. A tour of the districts by a close observer would lead to no discoveries more striking than the extraordinary serious, determined mood the average voter seemed to be in. Men who never dream of talking breakfast before a clock in the morning were everywhere when the polls before they were legally open for voters. They stood in the chilly air reading their papers, calmly waiting till the time came for business to begin.

In the big districts, on the west side, there were long lines of men who stood for hours without being able to get anywhere near the polls till two or three hours after they had gone to work in the single files on the sidewalk. At one time in some of the brown stone districts where the republican strength is noted, many of the voters became suspicious as to the cause of the slow movement ahead of them and at the ballot boxes, and feeling very strong that the delay was caused by the "malicious inactivity" of their enemies. In some instances there was some basis for this view of the situation and when it became apparent to the inspectors and the watchers that too much time was being taken up by the slow "coaches" there was a cry "Get a move on" and things became more rustling.

There was actual disfranchisement in hundreds of cases in various parts of the city. Unfortunate fellows, who because of their disabilities and who were allowed no guide posts behind the screens, were unable to make ballot ends meet legally and had to give up the job finally, very many. But they were not the only men who had gone to the "trouble" of being registered and lost their vote. The cause of it all was unquestionably the lack of both.

Two thousand one hundred and sixty outside of New York and Brooklyn give Morton more than 70,000 over Hill and 67,000 more than Fasset in 1891. Total vote for governor of New York: Hill 124,680; Morton 127,801; Wheeler 8,787.

Grant ran behind Hill and Strong and ahead of Morton.

There was an ominous silence as the returns were read at Tammany hall. "Tammany's beaten" was the cry that went round the hall. The strains of Byrne's band were insufficient to keep people in humor.

Nicholas Bonoho made an address. He said he could not believe that two such "thorough-going" democrats as Senator Hill and ex-mayor Grant could be beaten in the state and city of New York.

"You have heard me announce in the past years the victories of Tammany hall. I am sorry to say, to announce a defeat. We have lost the city by 35,000 votes and the state by 100,000 votes. It has been a landslide—a tide that we could not stem. We have, at any rate, nailed our colors to the mast and fought to the last ditch."

A wall went up from the crowd as Mr. McGoldrick gave out the official statement that victory deserted the ranks of the democratic party and that Tammany hall was defeated.

WISCONSIN.

Upham, Republican, Elected Governor by Over Fifteen Thousand Plurality.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., November 7.—Twenty-one towns, including two precincts in this city, gave Peck 1,899; Spooner 2,700 and this year Peck, democrat, 2,610; Upham, republican, 3,022.

The republicans have carried the state by over 15,000 plurality for Governor Upham and their state ticket. D. C. Wall, chairman of the democratic state central committee, has just admitted this and has given up all hope.

NEW JERSEY.

Republican Successor to Senator McPherson Now Assured.

TRENTON, N. J., November 7.—Returns come in slowly. Those at hand indicate the election of sufficient republicans to give the legislature to them by a majority of twenty-three joint ballot which requires the election of a republican successor to Senator McPherson. Republican leaders here claim the election of the first congressional candidates in the first, second, sixth and eighth districts.

Texas.

GALVESTON, Tex., November 7.—The Galveston News announces the usual democratic majority for state officers and the legislative, also the election of democratic congressmen in all the districts with the possible exception of the ninth and tenth districts.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, November 7.—The republicans have carried the second and third districts of Louisiana, and will probably get the first district at ballot. Returns indicate the election of five, and possibly six democratic congressmen in this state.

FLORIDA.

Both of the Democratic Congressmen are Elected by 10,000 Majority.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., November 7.—Election day in Florida was fair and pleasant throughout the entire state. An extremely light vote was cast, probably about one-half of that cast at the state election in October. The only offices to be filled were those of the two congressmen. In the first district the vote is generally heavier than in the second, particularly the democratic nominee in the first, is elected over McKinnon, populist, by about 10,000 majority. In the second district, Cooper, democrat, defeats Atkinson, populist, by about 6,000. It is not likely that the populists will carry more than four counties in the republican vote is close in those. The entire populist vote in the state will not be likely to reach 4,000. Duval county (Jacksonville) gives Cooper a majority of 1,000.

MARYLAND.

Joined the Republican Franchise for the First Time in the State's History.

BALTIMORE, Md., November 7.—Maryland's solid democratic front has been broken, and the republicans have made unprecedented gains in every direction. It is certain that the republican congressmen have been elected, Baker in the second district; Coffin in the fifth, and Wellington in the sixth. The democrats carried the third and fourth districts with Bunk and Cowan, but by a large majority in the republican vote the first district is still in doubt. The republicans gained ten city councilmen and will control the first branch. John J. Dobbler, republican, defeated Charles B. Kerr, democrat, for supreme bench judge.

G. L. Wellington, republican candidate for congress in the sixth Maryland district, has carried the district by an estimated majority of 3,000 over Ferdinand Williams, democrat.

IOWA.

Election of Entire State Republican Ticket by 50,000 Majority.

DES MOINES, Iowa, November 7.—A small vote was polled in Iowa and enough returns are at hand to indicate the election of the entire republican ticket by 50,000 with certainty. The republicans elected ten congressmen and the result in the second district is in doubt with the chances in favor of Walton I. Hayes, democrat, by a small plurality.

FAULKNER'S CONCESSION.

Believes That the House Will be Republican After All.

WASHINGTON, November 7.—Chairman Faulkner of the democratic campaign committee, claims that the democrats have carried the next house. He says there will be no losses in the south which the committee has not already conceded. He added, however, that if it was true that the republicans secured four of the five congressmen in Brooklyn and all in Massachusetts, that it placed a different aspect on the case.

LATER—Faulkner now concedes the republicans a working majority in the next house.

COLORADO.

McIntyre, Republican for Governor, Gets Two Thousand Plurality.

PUEBLO, Col., November 7.—Pueblo voters, at the polls, for registration, the female vote being very large. Thomas M. Bowen, republican, for congress, second district, and McIntyre, republican for governor, will have 2,500 or 3,000 plurality. The election of the entire republican ticket is certain.

Pedco, populist, for the first district congressman, is beaten by Shafroth, republican, by 3,500.

ARKANSAS.

The Successor to Clifton B. Breckinridge is the Only Congressman.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., November 7.—The election in this state resulted in the selection of the following congressional delegation: First district, P. B. McCubbin; second district, John S. Little; third district, Thomas C. McRae; fourth district, William L. Terry; fifth district, Hugh A. Dinwiddie; sixth district, Robert Neill, all democrats; John S. Little, who succeeds Clifton B. Breckinridge, is the only change in the delegation.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Republican Ticket, Including Two Congressmen at Large, Elected.

PIERRE, S. D., November 7.—Returns from all portions of the state indicate that the republican ticket, including two congressmen at large, are elected by not less than 13,000 plurality. Returns from legislative districts are not in except from cities and towns, but these fairly indicate that the legislature will be safely two-thirds republican.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Out of the Nine Congressmen, One Republican, One Fusionist, Seven Democrats.

RALEIGH, N. C., November 7.—Democratic state and judicial tickets in North Carolina are tested by reduced majorities. Legislature will be democratic by good majority. Democrats carry seven districts certain. Pearson (Fusionist) claims to be elected in the first district. Returns indicate that Settle (rep.) is probably elected.

KANSAS.

Morrill Elected Governor, and the Entire Republican State Ticket.

TOPEKA, Kan., November 7.—Returns indicate the election of a republican governor and the entire republican state ticket. The republicans probably carry all but two congressional districts. The legislature will probably be republican on joint ballot.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., November 7.—Ten precincts in Indiana give for secretary of state: Owen, republican, 1,000; Meyers, democrat, 500.

A Child Enjoys.

GEORGIA NOT BROKEN

The Delegation Remains the Same Save in the Sixth.

RICHMOND COUNTY ELECTED BLACK.

Atlanta, November 7.—Georgia voted yesterday only for congressmen, the state election having taken place last month. The legislature voted for two United States senators electing the democratic caucus nominees by a strict party vote, Hon. Patrick Walsh for the short term ending March, 1895, and Hon. Augustus O. Bacon, of Bibb, for the long term beginning March, 1895.

Both are free silver democrats favoring return of silver coinage to 16 to 1. In the state congressional elections all the democrats are elected. There was no uneasiness felt in any but the fourth, ninth, tenth and tenth districts, and in each of these districts the democrats were elected by good majorities, Moses defeating Thornton, populist, in the fourth; Maddox defeating Felton, populist, in the seventh; Tate defeating Twitty, populist, in the ninth, and Black defeating Tom Watson, populist, in the tenth. Richmond county, Black's home, polled 10,000 votes, Watson showing increase in the counties he carried before.

The congressional delegation not including the above districts will stand: Lester in the first district, Russell in second, Crisp in third, Livingston in fifth, Bartlett in sixth, Lawson in eighth and Turner in eleventh. The entire delegation with one exception re-elected, the only change being Bartlett, democrat, in sixth district who succeeds Cabanis, democrat.

TENNESSEE.

Evans, Republican, for Governor is Conceded to be Elected.

KNOXVILLE, November 7.—The congressional fight between Hook and Gibson in this district was the warmest ever known. Congressman Hook went on largely unopposed by the populists. He succeeded in having deputy marshals appointed to be stationed at all the voting places yesterday to keep order and arrest all persons caught trying to obstruct the action. In so doing is based on a charge that Gibson used money to be used for fraudulent purposes.

Brown republican defeats Snodgrass democrat, in third district, by several hundred.

In first district, W. C. Anderson, republican, is elected over Thad A. Cox, democrat.

The voting was light. In East Tennessee, Evans, republican, for governor, runs ahead of Governor Turney by 20,000.

Democratic congressmen have been chosen in the eighth, ninth and tenth districts.

LATER—Friends of Governor Turney claim his election by 10,000 votes.

The congressional delegation will stand seven democrats and three republicans.

ALABAMA.

All Democratic Nominees Elected With Possible Exception of Denon.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., November 7.—The returns from the election in this state, show the election of all the democratic nominees with possible exception of Denon in the seventh which at present seems to be in doubt. The republicans were very active in the fourth and ninth districts, but Robbins and Underhill, safe beyond peradventure. The republicans carry the senate entire and will have two-thirds of the house.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Twenty Four, Including Randall's District, Carry in the Republican.

PHILADELPHIA, November 7.—Returns show the election to congress of Joseph J. Hart, from the 8th district, of J. C. Erdman from the 9th and Charles R. Bucklew from the 17th district, all democrats, the remaining 24 representatives will be republican.

The democratic nomination in the third congressional district, now represented by William Medler, democrat, and for so many years represented by the late Samuel J. Randall, was shown yesterday to have been even greater than the more hopeful republican had anticipated. McCullen, the democratic candidate, is defeated by Halterman, republican, by 5,000 majority.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, November 7.—Everything points to a complete victory for the republicans. A largely increased vote for the populist, with little hope for the democrats anywhere. It is now reasonably certain that the republican state ticket will be elected by a large majority.

Republican state central committee claims Illinois as gone republican by 70,000 plurality.

Two hundred five precincts give Claggett 23,739; Wall 26,548; Randolph, 5,755.

Congressman Springer, of Illinois, concedes his defeat.

MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, Minn., November 7.—Ten precincts in eight counties, give Nelson, republican, for governor, 613; Becker, democrat, 175; Owens, populist 213.

OMAHA, Neb., November 7.—Ten precincts outside Douglas county give MaJors, republican, for governor, 499; Holcomb, fusionist, 73; Starvorn, democrat, 103.

MISSISSIPPI.

JACKSON, Miss., November 7.—All the democratic congressmen from this state are elected by safe majorities, except in the fourth, fifth and sixth districts.

OHIO.

The Republicans Gain Over McKinley's Plurality Last Year.

COLUMBUS, O., November 7.—One hundred and fifty-six precincts in Ohio show a net republican gain over last year when McKinley had a plurality of 80,000 of 470 and 30 precincts outside of Cincinnati show a net republican gain of 605.

Democratic State Chairman Taylor has just telegraphed the Cincinnati Enquirer conceding the state to the republican Allen T. Thurman said: "The whole country seems to have gone republican. There is but one bright spot apparent. South Carolina still stands democratic. We have heard from only 195 precincts in Ohio, but that is enough. If it keeps up, the republicans will carry the state by 150,000. It means that there will not be a democratic congressman elected in Ohio. I think Outhwaite is defeated by at least 2,500."

In spite of the overwhelming majority against them in the state, the democrats have elected at least three congressmen, and two districts are in doubt. The democrats elected are: Paul J. Sorg, third district; E. C. Layton, fourth; and J. A. D. Richards in the seventh. The fifth and third districts are in doubt.

Congressman Tom L. Johnson concedes his defeat by between 4,000 and 5,000.

WASHINGTON, C. H., O., November 7.—J. E. Cook, republican candidate for sheriff, who called out the troops a few weeks ago to defend the jail, was defeated by 1,000 votes. The normal republican majority in the county is 900.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Hon. W. L. Wilson Did Not Escape the Republican Deluge.

WHEELING, W. Va., November 7.—Returns from the second and fourth West Virginia districts indicate that the republicans have carried all three of them and Wilson is probably beaten, but complete returns may be required to settle the result. Howard, democrat, is beaten by 500 in the first district. The probabilities are that West Virginia will be represented by a solid republican delegation in the next house.

Returns are coming in slowly, but indicate republican gains throughout the third congressional district, where Alderson, democrat, is understood to be defeated by Holmes, republican. Democratic headquarters are closed and republicans are jubilant.

There is scarcely a ray of hope for the escape of William L. Wilson from the republican deluge. Dayton has made gains in every county so far heard from. Miller has also defeated Harney in the fourth district and the republican committee claims all four congressmen. The indications are that a republican legislature has been elected. This will give the republicans a United States senator in place of Camden, democrat.

CONNECTICUT.

The Republicans Carry the State and Gain Three Congressmen.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., November 7.—Piggott, democrat, for congress, in second district, is defeated.

All Connecticut towns show good republican gains. Returns from twenty towns out of 169 in this state show a republican gain of 1,345 over the vote of 1893.

Returns from seven towns out of forty-one in the second congressional district show a republican gain of 757 over the vote for congressman in 1893.

The republicans have carried the state entire, besides the five to ten thousand. Besides this, they have gained three congressmen—Henry, in the first district; Sperry, in the second and Hill in the fourth. Russell in the third, is safe beyond peradventure. The republicans carry the senate entire and will have two-thirds of the house.

Pennsylvania.

Twenty Four, Including Randall's District, Carry in the Republican.

PHILADELPHIA, November 7.—Returns show the election to congress of Joseph J. Hart, from the 8th district, of J. C. Erdman from the 9th and Charles R. Bucklew from the 17th district, all democrats, the remaining 24 representatives will be republican.

The democratic nomination in the third congressional district, now represented by William Medler, democrat, and for so many years represented by the late Samuel J. Randall, was shown yesterday to have been even greater than the more hopeful republican had anticipated. McCullen, the democratic candidate, is defeated by Halterman, republican, by 5,000 majority.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, November 7.—Everything points to a complete victory for the republicans. A largely increased vote for the populist, with little hope for the democrats anywhere. It is now reasonably certain that the republican state ticket will be elected by a large majority.

Republican state central committee claims Illinois as gone republican by 70,000 plurality.

Two hundred five precincts give Claggett 23,739; Wall 26,548; Randolph, 5,755.

Congressman Springer, of Illinois, concedes his defeat.

MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, Minn., November 7.—Ten precincts in eight counties, give Nelson, republican, for governor, 613; Becker, democrat, 175; Owens, populist 213.

OMAHA, Neb., November 7.—Ten precincts outside Douglas county give MaJors, republican, for governor, 499; Holcomb, fusionist, 73; Starvorn, democrat, 103.

MISSISSIPPI.

JACKSON, Miss., November 7.—All the democratic congressmen from this state are elected by safe majorities, except in the fourth, fifth and sixth districts.
