—The Baptist State Convention meets in Charlotte to-day.

—Work on Mr. C. T. Troy's nice new house is progressing rapidly.

—Mrs. Ed. McDonald, of Charlotte, returned Tuesday to Charlotte.

—Col. Paul B. Means and bride left Wednesday for a Southern tour.

—Messrs. S. J. Erwin and A. B. Correll spent Thanksgiving day in Lexington.

—Judge Montgomery went to Raleigh Monday morning to argue a case in the Supreme Court.

—Miss Laura Barnhardt has gone to Charlotte to attend the Baptist State Convention.

—Miss Mary Montgomery returns tomorrow night from an extended visit to Davidson College.

—Rev. J. R. Moore, the new pastor of Rays Chapel, will arrive tomorrow with his wife. He has no children.

—At the recent conference of South Carolina, Rev. Dr. H. W. Bays was returned to Abbeville for another year.

—Mrs. Kate Nicholson is having a nice cottage erected on the new Cannonville street, near Mr. R. S. Harris'.

—Mr. and Mrs. James C. Willford, who have been in Winston for some time, have returned to Concord to live.

—Rev. C. F. Sherrill, of Madison, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Concord on his way home from Conference.

—Mrs. H. E. Norris, of Apex, spent last night in Concord on her way to Charlotte to attend the Baptist State Convention.

—Rev. J. D. Newton, of Thomasville, spent yesterday in Concord. He was on his way to Charlotte to attend the Baptist State Convention.

—Two bales of cotton belonging to Mr. M. Olesby at Harrisburg, were burned one day last week. The fire was started by some careless boys.

—Dr. J. H. Newell and Mr. E. M. Morrison have bought the general merchandise stock of Mr. John Newell at Newella, and will continue the business.

—Rev. J. D. Carpenter, who has been on the superannuated list of the Conference, and who has been living in Concord for a year past, was appointed pastor of Old Fort Circuit for next year.

—Rev. T. W. Smith, the new pastor of China Grove circuit, will preach at the churches as follows: Sunday, December 10, 11 a. m., at Harris Chapel; Monday, 11 a. m., at Oak Grove; Sunday, December 23, 11 a. m., at Shiloh; 3 p. m., at Bethpage; Sunday December 30, 11 a. m., at Rocks Grove.

—Mr. W. G. Means was Monday elected county attorney for two years. Mr. H. S. Puryear has been the attorney for several years.

—Dr. Archey's former office in the Litcher block is being fixed up for Dr. Thames. It is being nicely papered, and will make a nice physician's office.

—Married, on the 21st of Nov. at the residence of Mr. W. L. Winecoff, Mr. John Moore, of No. 5, and Miss Jennie C. White, of No. 11 township.

—Mrs. J. M. Alexander, who visited her daughter, Mrs. F. S. Starrette, of Lincoln, for three weeks, returned home last Saturday night.

—Mr. T. B. Eldridge, formerly of Concord, has secured a position at Richmond, Va., with the Virginia Wheel Co. His father and two brothers reside in Richmond.

—We publish this week 28 columns of reading matter. In these 28 columns there is as much matter as is found in 36 columns of the type of the average newspaper.

—Our friends of the Standard had a serious accident yesterday. A form, consisting of two pages of the daily, was "killed," and anybody who knows what that is can sympathize with them.

—Five citizens of the unfortunate town of Marion have issued a call for aid. Greensboro has already contributed $65.65 and other towns are getting up subscriptions. Can't Concord do something?

—We publish the President's message on our supplement this week. It makes six columns. We publish also on the supplement the agricultural bulletin, just out, and altogether the supplement will be found very interesting.

—The Mt. Pleasant people regret the loss of Mr. Callahan from their midst. His home will be in Taylorsville next year. His people at Mt. Pleasant wanted him back, and he expected to return, but the Bishop sometimes makes changes which were not thought of.

—This evening a birthday tea will be given at the residence of Mr. James W. Cannon. Hours from 4 to 11 p. m. A reception committee will usher the guests to the dining room, where refreshments will be served by the young ladies of the Presbyterian church.

—A new daily paper will be started in Salisbury next Monday. It will be printed at the Watchman office, and will be run by Messrs. Crowson, Murphy and Patton. We wish it well. However, Salisbury is too small for two daily papers, if not too small for one.

—The Times and Washington Post, $1.50.

—The Times and Home and Farm, $1.50.

—The Times and Illustrated Home Guest and 20 complete Novels, all post paid for only $1.25.

—The Times, American Farmer, Workman and the White Ribbon Cook Book, $1.50.

—The N. C. Advocate has this: It was the regret of many that C. G. Montgomery, who has served the conference as Secretary so faithfully since its organization, was not re-elected. The conference respected the excellent work he has done in a suitable resolution. Rev. W. L. Sherrill, who was still in his fourth year, had filled the office of assistant secretary so well that the conference did not hesitate to place him at the head.

—At the recent Conference at Statesville all the Methodist ministers in Concord were changed except Rev. M. A. Smith, pastor of Forest Hill church. Rev. R. H. Parker, who last year was Presiding Elder of Franklin District, comes to Central church. Rev. J. R. Moore is the new pastor of Rays Chapel, and Rev. W. H. L. McLaurin comes to Concord circuit.

Mr. Parker is a gentleman of about 50 years of age, and has a wife and one daughter. He is a man of ability and a good preacher and pastor. He will arrive in Concord next week, and will occupy his pulpit next Sunday a week. It will be filled next Sunday by Dr. Pool, the retiring pastor.

Rev. J. R. Moore is a young man of fine parts, of great energy and a worker. He has a good reputation where he has been, and we think he will be a successful pastor here, as he has been elsewhere.

Rev. Mr. McLaurin, the new pastor of Concord circuit, is a young man, this being his first year, we believe.

Dr. Pool is returning to the North Carolina Conference, and is now in attendance upon that Conference at Durham. He is a cultured man, an excellent and eloquent preacher, and a sweet-spirited Christian gentleman. The best wishes of all our people will follow him and his wherever they may go.

Rev. T. W. Smith, who has been appointed pastor of the China Grove circuit, will still live in Concord, his churches not being very far distant. Our people are glad that he and his excellent family will remain in our midst. Everybody is glad that Rev. M. A. Smith is to remain with us. He is a fine preacher and a fine gentleman, and is popular with all denominations.

Our people will regret to lose Rev. A. R. Surratt and his popular wife from our town. They are excellent people, and Mt. Holly will be the gainer.

—A New Factory.

Concord will, we think, see another cotton factory go up in its midst before many moons. The movement was started by the Messrs. Lippard, and already enough stock has been raised to purchase the site and erect the buildings. As soon as enough is secured to purchase the machinery, the factory will be erected. Our people have faith in the enterprise, and no doubt the stock will soon be subscribed. The factory will be built on East Depot street. Cotton factories are the life and backbone of our town, and the more we have, the more solid will our prosperity become.

—Club Boyer, a well known colored man of Concord, died Monday.

Bonds of County Officers.

At the meeting of the board of commissioners Monday the new county officers presented their bonds, all of which were accepted except that of the Register of Deeds, which was not gotten up according to law.

The bond of R. W. Biggers for Cotton-Weigher was $1,000, and Allen Boger, T. F. Starnes and Jno. E. Bost are his sureties. The bond was accepted, and Biggers took the oath and was inducted into office.

Jas. C. Gibson, Clerk of the Court, presented his bond in the sum of $10,000, with J. P. Gibson, R. E. Gibson, Jno. P. Allison, E. King, Elizabeth Gibson and A. B. Young, as sureties. Mr. Gibson took the oath and was inducted into office.

Jno. A. Sims, Sheriff-elect, presented his bond in the sum of $65,000, with the following sureties (63 in all):

Following for $500 each: S. S. McWhirter, W. N. Spears, T. L. Martin, J. R. Blackwelder, C. M. B. Goodnight, W. E. Litaker, A. F. Hileman, M. A. Alexander, M. H. Winecoff, R. T. Honeycutt, Edmund Honeycutt, Alexander Bostian, J. D. Baugh, R. F. Cline, G. H. Boat, M. A. Sturtevant, A. M. Furr.

The following for $2,000 each: W. M. Weddington, Register of Deeds, presented his bond in the sum of $5,000, but as it was not in accordance with the law was not approved. Weddington was allowed till the 13th inst. to perfect his bond.

G. Ed. Kestler, treasurer-elect, presented his bond in the sum of $49,020.94, which was not accepted because of the insufficiency of the security therefor. He was allowed till the 13th to perfect the bond, but secured the proper amount before the commissioners adjourned, and the bond was accepted and he was duly inducted into office.

The following are the bondsmen, with the amounts:

G. W. Patterson $10,000; W. R. Kindley, $20,000; W. C. Coleman $10,000; Geo. Moore, $2,000; J. M. W. Alexander, $1,500; T. Wiley Cook, $2,000. The following for one $1,000 each: D. M. —Mr. Joe Cannon spent last Sunday in China Grove, and H. P. Deaton spent the day in Lexington.

Suicided to Death.

Mr. John Milas Misenheimer, son of Mr. Kiah Misenheimer, of No. 5, was scalded to death on December 1, last Saturday, by the explosion of the boiler at the gin and saw mill of Mr. Pink Misenheimer, in the same township. The explosion occurred at 11 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Misenheimer had the furnace doors open and stooped down in front of the furnace to put some wood in the fire when the accident occurred. The explosion threw the fire, wood and boiling water on Mr. Misenheimer and knocked him down. He arose and walked 100 yards towards the house, the flesh being all off his hands and legs. While ascending a high hill he broke down. Mr. Pink Misenheimer and others who were assisting him got him to the house.

Mr. Misenheimer said on the way home that he was going to die. He was entirely conscious up to the time of his death. The sufferer was attended by Drs. Young and Archey who administered all the medical aid possible, but death occurred to relieve the suffering about 5 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Misenheimer was 25 years, 6 months and 8 days old. He was one of the kindest and most popular young men in the community in which he lived. He was much loved by all who knew him. It is reported that he was to be married soon.

The funeral services were conducted at New Gilead on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock conducted by Rev. B. F. Davis. A large concourse of people, about 600, was present.

We are indebted to our excellent No. 5 correspondent, Mr. Rufus J. Cook, for the particulars of this sad death.

A Paper One Year Free to All Who Pay in Advance for the Times.

The Times is pleased to announce that it will give either the American Farmer or Workman one year free to every subscriber who requests it who pays a year in advance. The price of each of these papers is 50 cents a year, so you get two papers by paying only the regular price of one.

The American Farmer is edited by a practical farmer who understands what the farmers want. Every department of farm work is represented in its columns. It is a large 16 page paper.

Workman is the same size, and is a paper for woman and the home. It is full of good stories, poems, etc. The ladies are delighted with it.

Remember we send you either of the above papers one whole year free if you pay a year in advance to THE TIMES.

The New Jailor.

Mr. John S. Hill, of No. 3 township, is the new jailor for the county and moved to town yesterday with his family, and now occupies the jail. Mr. Hill is a son of Mr. J. R. L. Hill, and is 36 years old. He is married, and has three children.

Mr. R. Will Johnson, the former jailor, has moved into the Caton house on East Depot street.

—The Statesville Landmark has this: Miss Grace Gibson, one of Concord's most charming young ladies and a member of the "Pleasides" Club, is expected here to-day. She will be the guest of Miss Maud Robbins.

County Commissioners Meeting.

The board of county commissioners met Monday. The new board went into office on that day, and the following were present: J. Dove, chairman, Wm. Propp, Jno. S. Turner and Jos. W. Foil. Mr. F. S. Goodman, the fifth commissioner, failed to qualify, and his place is vacant. The board above is elected for two years.

J. Dove and Wm. Propp, were appointed a committee to look after the jail and court house. Jno. S. Turner and J. W. Foil were appointed to examine the books of the county treasurer every three months.

Among others the following bills were ordered paid:

H. S. Puryear, $25, services as county attorney for six months.

R. Will Johnson, jailor, $45.80, jail fees for November, and $26 for waiting on chain gang.

Herbert Smith, $11, guarding convicts.

G. F. Barnhardt, $35.50, supervisor of chain gang.

Sidney Barnhardt, $12, for guarding convicts.

Jno. W. Cook and wife $25 for keeping county home, and $26.50 for hire.

S. Wittkowsky, $101.99 for cloth and clothing for convicts.

J. B. Sherrill and J. P. Cook, $33.12 each for publishing report of county expenditures.

Mr. Rogers Makes a Change.

Mr. B. E. Rogers, who for fifteen years has been in the service of the large clothing firm, August, Bernheim & Co., and their successors, has found it expedient to make a change. In leaving the old house, his relations with it are of the friendliest character. He has connected himself as traveling salesman with Herman Kratzenstein, a large clothing manufacturer of New York, and will soon call on his customers and friends all over the South with his line of samples.

No. 5 Items.

Mrs. Robert Cline is improving and can sit up awhile.

Mrs. Jno. W. Cline who has been in feeble health for some time is able to be up again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Haynes have returned to Cabarrus county, No. 5, to live.

Mr. Paul Sides (a cripple) cut his lame foot very bad last week. He split the foot from toe to instep wide open six inches long. This is had on Mr. Sides, he is a poor, honest and industrious cripple. Two of his children have been sick all summer with typhoid fever, and his wife unable to work. Mr. Sides was selling his cow and mule to pay sickness expenses.

Gertrude, the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Baker, was found dead in bed on 3rd inst. The child had been unwell a few days but up and about. The cause of its death is not known. Rev. B. F. Davis officiated in funeral services at New Gilead. This makes three funerals for Rev. Mr. Davis at New Gilead in eleven days. I hope I may not cause hard feelings to anyone, but I would like to say that the place where this child died is called by some of our No. 5 folks the death valley of No. 5. First during the war a negro got burned to death, second Manlius the 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe. F. Misenheimer, twelve years ago, was thrown from a runaway horse and killed at the house, third, about 5 years past Mr. Joe F. Misenheimer (owner and a large farmer) fell dead in his house.

Not three years ago Mr. Will Misenheimer, son of Mr. Joe, got his head sawed from his body at the same mill, and Mr. Milas Misenheimer was killed by same engine that ran the saw that killed Mr. Will. Will and Manlius were sons of Mr. Joe, while Milas and the two former were cousins. The sixth death was the finding of Mr. and Mrs. Parker's child dead in bed on the 4th inst.

The above are all sudden deaths at the home of Mr. Pink Misenheimer, a good and well to do farmer for a boy.

Different ministers preached the funerals of the Messrs. Joe, Will and Milas. But each minister had the same text, "Prepare to meet thy God." O. K.

A Word About Money.

THE TIMES never asks the subscribers for money but once a year, and that is in the late fall or early winter. This is a time when anybody in this section who ever has any money ought to have it, and we respectfully ask those who owe us to come up to the captain's desk at once and settle. We have been very lenient and we cannot afford to carry some of our subscribers any longer without money. They ought not expect us to do so.

We will send out statements next week to every subscriber who owes us for one year or more, and we will expect a prompt settlement.

The Hickory correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer says the friends of Mr. J. G. Hall are already suggesting his name as the probable nominee for Congress from this district in '96.
