

There are twelve brandy distillers in Cabarrus, and 225 in Rowan. Look at the difference. There is only one whiskey distillery in this county. Mr. E. C. Winchester, of Monroe, is the granger for this county.

The new cars now used on Nos. 35 and 36 trains are beauties. They are built by the Pullman company and have regular smoking compartments in one end. They are lighted by Pintsch gas. We learn that it is intended to make these trains regular vestibule trains.

About 1 o'clock yesterday a ten year old son of Mr. Daniel Hopkins was kicked on the forehead by a mule at Cor's stable. He had brought a load of wood to town and was feeding his mules when the accident occurred. He was sent around to Drs. Lilly & Montgomery, and it was discovered that his skull was fractured.

A hot Springs correspondent of the Concord Observer says that "Belle Boyd, the Rebel spy, and her outfit, have left Mrs. Lance, a Hot Springs boarding house keeper, in the lurch for a board bill amounting to $145, and has departed. They owe other Hot Springs parties $22.15." This woman was in Concord a few months ago. It is a pity that she is the original "Belle Boyd" that she has disgraced herself in her old days.

Sad Death by Accident.

A telegram was received yesterday afternoon by Mr. A. S. Harris bearing the distressing information that his little grand-son, Richard Wilson, son of Mr. T. J. Wilson, seven years old, was run over by a street car in Winston and instantly killed. The accident occurred on Fourth street. The little fellow was returning from dinner to school and was attempting to cross the track when the car was close to him, fell and the car passed over his body, nearly severing it. Both arms were cut off. Life was extinct in a few minutes. No blame is attached to the motorman on account of the terrible accident.

No Happy To Flee.

The editor of Senator Butler's populist paper here was interviewed regarding the persistent rumor that the democrats and populists are planning to cooperate. He said: "There is a sentiment among democrats for co-operation with the populists. Prominent democrats have written letters asking if a thing of that kind could be arranged. Our people have not replied. I have heard of no such advances made by either party. We are not jumping over each other to get into the democratic line. We intend to stay in the populist party, and go nowhere. If anybody wants to do with us he can come. We do not make no advance in 1892, but that made no difference, and the very same fellows who tried to cry him down then are doing business at the same old stand."

A FATAL ACCIDENT.

Two of the injured May die.—The accident happened at Mr. Robert Saffet's Planing Mill in No. 6.

Yesterday morning about 8 o'clock a most deplorable accident at Mr. Robert Saffet's planing mill in No. 6 town, about 6 miles from Concord. Five men, namely Messrs. Jackson Saffet, Robert Saffet, David Barrier, Anderson Cruse, and John Bost, and one boy, Victor Saffet, were working at the planing mill. Victor was attending to the engine and boiler, which were located on the side of the shed. The men were all working in the shed.

Something was discovered wrong with the working of the engine, and in an instant there was a terrible explosion. The boiler was lifted from its moorings, hurled against the shed and burst into a splinter. He is badly hurt, but not dangerously so.

David Barrier was not hurt much by the flying debris, but his left leg was badly scalded.

Jackson Saffet and John Bost were terribly, and it is thought fatally, injured. Saffet's skull was badly crushed and has a large hole in it. Besides he was terribly scalded and burned. His nose was also broken. There is very little chance for his recovery.

John Bost's skull was also broken at the base and he was hurt internally. He also is not expected to live.

Robert Saffet was injured but slightly. The engine and boiler were purchased only two weeks ago from Mr. C. L. Nussman of No. 7. It was an old boiler, and probably defective, though it said the boy had on entirely too much steam.

A messenger who arrived from the scene this morning says that the two who were attending to the boiler were not attended for. Dr. R. S. Young and Dr. L. M. Arcey, and hundreds of people from miles around were on the scene.

Free to Our Readers.

A first class high grade monthly home journal, has come to be a necessity in every household. Such a journal, well conducted, occupies a special relation to every member of the family circle. One of the best journals of this character that we have seen, is THE WOMAN'S HEALTH JOURNAL, published at Chattanooga, Tenn. The choice stories, charming verses and interesting miscellany, appeals alike to young and old. Its special departments of Fashion, Among Our Girls, A Page For Mothers, The Home-keeper, With The Children, and the Health and Hygiene and Expert Physician, make it invaluable to any home.

THE TIMES, always on the lookout for what will profit its readers, has secured fifty yearly subscriptions to THE WOMAN'S HEALTH JOURNAL, which it proposes to give away.

A year's subscription to this Journal will be given to—

(1) Every new subscriber to THE TIMES.

(2) Every old subscriber who renews.

(3) Every delinquent subscriber who pays up arrears.

These subscriptions won't last long. First come, first served. Call at this office and see sample copy.

Better Won't Trade With Democrats.

Charlotte Observer.

The following comes out from Raleigh:

"Have our friends rest easy with reference to any rumored co-operation or fusion with any party. Nothing will be done in any direction without a full consultation with our constituents and things being as they are, we believe that should stand by those who stood by us in the last campaign in preference to those who fought us. I am surprised to see our friends get so easily excited over rumors published in Democratic papers. If our people had to correct all such rumors by publishing anything they would not have time to do anything else."

The rumor to which Senator Butler alludes was that he was participating in a plan for the fusion of his party—the Populists—and the Democrats, Senator Butler intimated a decided leaning towards the Republicans as allies.

The news that there is a movement on foot looking to a fusion between the Democrats and Populists is on the highest authority. It is no secret at Raleigh. Which side the overture came from we do not know, but it is likely that they proceeded from certain Democrats. Our Raleigh correspondence has told us that the idea has not taken, and it is gathered from the above that it is gathered from the fact above that he abandoned it. He overestimated it as he abandoned it. He overestimated it as he abandoned it. He overestimated it as he abandoned it.

SEARCHING PARTIES.

It is never understood by Mr. Butler that he has abandoned it. He overestimated it as he abandoned it. He overestimated it as he abandoned it. He overestimated it as he abandoned it.

Grover Cleveland was denounced by free silver advocates before his nomination for the presidency in 1892, but that made no difference, and the very same fellows who tried to cry him down then are doing business at the same old stand."

DEATH, THE REAPER.

With his sickle gathers Two of Our Best People.

Since our last issue death has visited Concord and removed from our midst two of our best and best known people, Mrs. D. F. Cannon and Mr. J. W. Burkhead.

MRS. D. F. CANNON.

Mrs. Mary Jane Cannon, wife of Mr. David F. Cannon, died at her home on Union street last Sunday night a few minutes after 9 o'clock of typhoid fever, with which terrible disease she had been ill for two or three weeks previous. For several days her life hung only by a slender thread, and for two days before her death she was unconscious. All that her physician and kindred friends could do for her proved of no avail, and obedient to the call her soul winged its happy flight on Sunday evening to God who gave it.

Mrs. Cannon had been a resident of Concord for quite a number of years. She was a daughter of Mr. John A. Moss, who died several years ago. She leaves two sisters in Concord, Mrs. E. Threlton and Mrs. J. B. Ervin. Mrs. Cannon leaves three children, Miss Nannie, Masters Frank and Arcey, all of whom were at her bedside when she passed into the other world. She was for a long time a faithful and wholly consistent member of the Presbyterian church here, and was a woman who was universally loving and admired. Her warmest and tenderest sympathy of the entire community goes out to the sorely bereaved husband and children.

The funeral services were conducted from the late home of the deceased at 4 o'clock on Monday evening, and the remains interred in the cemetery. Rev. W. C. Alexander conducted the services. One of the largest concourses ever seen at a funeral here followed the remains to their last long home. The following were the pall-bearers: P. B. Fetzer, Geo. W. Brown, W. M. Stuart, E. F. White, W. J. Hill and F. L. Smith.

MR. J. W. BURKHEAD.

Mr. J. Whitfield Burkhead died Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, at the residence of his father, Esq. J. C. H. Burkhead, on Depot street. Mr. Burkhead had been very ill for some time with consumption. A few weeks ago he went to the mountains in Folk county and remained three weeks. He returned home but little improved, and since that time he has been at his father's in town. Since then his faithful and devoted wife remained at his bedside all day, returning to her home two miles below town to be with their children at night.

Mr. Burkhead was 35 years old, and leaves a wife and six children. For a number of years he was a salesman at Cannon's & Fetzer's store, until the Cabarrus Cotton Mills was organized, when he was elected secretary and treasurer of this mill, which position he held at the time of his death. He was for some years treasurer of the First Presbyterian church. He was an upright Christian gentleman, and had the respect of everybody. His wife was Miss Alida Woodhouse, daughter of the late John Woodhouse, Esq., editor of the Concord Register.

The funeral services were conducted from the Presbyterian church this morning at 9 o'clock, and the interment took place in the cemetery.

The Modern Beauty

Thrives on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face blooms with its beauty. A system needs the cleansing action of a laxative remedy, she uses the gentle and pleasant liquid laxative Syrup of Figs.

Governor O'Ferrall, of Virginia, is not as eloquent as usual in his discussion of the money question, but he is what is much better: clear and sound. There is no mistaking his position, and his frankness of his deliverance does him credit. He is a candidate for the Senate to succeed Mr. Daniel, who is a rank sixteen to one. Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, another prominent Virginia, who would like a seat in the Senate, is quite silent on the coinage question, though he has all efforts thus far to smoke out Mr. Martin, the new Senator, have failed.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For five years, I suffered untold misery from muscular rheumatism. I tried every known remedy, consulted the best physicians, visited Hot Springs, Ark., three times, spending $3000 there, besides doctors' bills; but could obtain no permanent relief. My flesh was wasted away so that I weighed only ninety-three pounds; my left arm and leg were drawn out of shape, the muscles being twisted up in knots, I was unable to dress myself, except with assistance, and could only hobble about by using a cane. I had no appetite, and was assailed by the doctors, that I could not live. In the summer of 1894, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Inside of two months, I was able to walk without a cane. In three months, my limbs began to strengthen, and in the course of a year, I was cured. My weight has increased to 150 pounds, and I am now able to do my full day's work as a railroad blacksmith."
