—Rev. C. M. Pepper, of the Western North Carolina Conference, M. E. Church, South, died at his home at old Trinity, Randolph county, Friday evening. Mr. Pepper was at one time pastor of the Methodist church here, but for several years had been superannuated.

—Rev. J. D. Shirey, President of North Carolina College, was partially paralyzed last week. His left arm and the left side of face were affected. His hand was affected for a short time. Mr. Shirey is now much better and is able to attend to his duties at the College. His many friends hope he will not have [illegible] attack.

—Last Friday's [illegible] World contained [illegible] of Cabarrus county, [illegible] sometime ago [illegible] of this county, [illegible] has skipped the [illegible] Texas. He was [illegible] by Mr. New[illegible] tells us his daughter [illegible] unbalanced, and it is [illegible] recover.

—A [illegible] was given last Tuesday night at the pretty home of Mr. [illegible] Jerman, of Raleigh, [illegible] guest, Miss Mary Randolph Montgomery, of Concord. The decorations were lovely, being pink cut flowers and smilax in the reception room and yellow chrysanthemums in the dining room, and all with a lovely background of palms and ferns.

—The Western North Carolina Conference will meet in Reidsville two weeks from yesterday. The following are the delegates from this district: Dr. J. B. Douglas, of Big Lick; Dr. J. [illegible] Griffith, of Salisbury; Mr. J. A. [illegible], of Thomasville; and Rev. G. H. [illegible], Messrs. D. B. Coltrane, C. G. [illegible], F. M. [illegible] and W. R. Odell, [illegible] members of boards and will attend.

—Rev. W. C. Alexander preached in Central Methodist church last Sunday night. Although the weather was very inclement, there was a good audience to hear this able, thoughtful and earnest sermon. He held the best attention and interest of his hearers throughout. His sermon was practical, and one calculated to result in much good. Mr. Alexander is intensely earnest, and he never fails to impress his theme on his hearers.

—The weather prediction for to-day is clear and warmer.

—Prof. Geo. B. Cromer has been elected President of Newberry College.

—Mr. J. R. Ervin is again teaching school in No. 3 township.

—Mr Thos. D. Kirkpatrick, of Mecklenburg county, died yesterday morning.

—The bear men were in town yesterday, having three large, well-trained bears.

—Mr. George E. Fisher and Sidney Lentz have positions with the Baltimore Bargain House.

—M. L. Brown & Bro. have a number of good horses and mules for sale at their stables here.

—The ladies say the Ould Mercantile Co. have the finest and prettiest line of shoes ever brought to Concord.

—Mr. John A. Rankin, of No. 3, was in town Tuesday. He is now well nigh recovered from his paralysis, we are glad to learn.

—Caroline Plunkett, colored. who was paralyzed while at church Sunday night of last week, has since been unable to move.

—Mr. A. L. Sappenfield's little boy dipped his hand into a pot of boiling starch yesterday. Dr. Lilly dressed his hand, and he is getting along very well.

—Thursday's Salisbury World says: Geo. A. Fisher and wife left to-day for their new home in Cabarrus county. George is an enterprising young man and Rowan hates to lose him.

—Henry C. Lefler will take charge of the chain gang as suuperintendent December 1. H. McNamara and Ed. Litaker will be two of the guards. The third has not yet been decided upon.

—The last quarterly meeting for Central church for this year was held last Monday evening at 5 o'clock. The old officials of the church were re-elected for the ensuing year.

—Dr. D. D. Johnson received a telegram last evening announcing the fact that Dr. I. H. Blair, an old and prominent physician of Monroe, died there last evening. He was an uncle of Mrs. Johnson.

—A petition is being circulated to have the postoffice at Springville, in No. 2, reinstated and have Mrs. Mary Goode appointed postmaster. A petition has also been numerously signed asking the Department to put Maximo on the Mill Hill route.

—The time for the Sheriff to advertise land for taxes has been changed from April to November 1. The Sheriff is empowered to advertise after November 1, but the matter is discretionary with him. This is one of the laws of the Pop Legislature.

—We call attention to the quarter double column advertisement of the Baltimore Bargain House in another column of this issue. This house contracted for this space for twelve months, and will give interesting announcements from week to week.

—Concord Presbytery has aided 11 men during the year and supplied 17 churches; raised for Presbyterial missions $1,700. Additions to the church 132; churches erected 2. There are 3 day schools, with some 250 pupils, supported by this Presbytery.

—Cannons & Fetzer have 2,000 men's suits, 1,500 youth's suits and other clothing that they are going to sell without reference to cost of manufacture. They say that when they fail to give the lowest prices they will nail up the front door and quit.

—Rowan Court convenes next week. So does that of Randolph, both to be held by the same Judge. Judge Norwood will open court at Ashboro Monday, and at Salisbnry Thursday morning. This is the only way out of the pretty mess the Pop legislature made.

—The pastor is conducting a series of meetings in Central church this week. Services are held every night at 7 o'clock. Bev. M. A. Smith preached Monday night, Rev. T. W. Smith Tuesday night, Rev. J. R. Moose Wednesday night. Mr. Moose will also preach to-night.

—There has been great complaint at the failure of the Northern and Western Carolina trains to make connection at Salisbury. It has been brought to the attention of the railroad commission, which is looking into the matter. The commission will within a few days arrange for close connection at Salisbury.

—Never in the history of Concord have all kinds of goods been cheaper. You can buy clothing, dry goods, shoes, etc., from our leading merchants at extremely and surprisingly low prices. We believe that Concord is the cheapest place to buy goods we ever saw. Our merchants advertise their wares, and by searching the columns of THE TIMES you can find some of their low prices.

—Sheriff Sims last week re-arrested Mr. John W. Widenhouse, his two sons and Jason Furr, who were fined by magistrate Smith for contempt of court, and who, refusing to pay, were sent here to jail, as noted in our last issue. Sheriff Sims refused to receive them then, as the papers were not drawn up properly. They paid their fine under protest, and will see Mr. Smith later, we learn.

—Tuesday's Salisbury World says: There was a runaway, near China Grove in which Mr. Shulenbarger, pastor of Mt. Zion Reformed church, and one of his parishioners, Mrs. Overcash figured. The two were in a sulky on their way to Mrs. Overcash's house when the horse became frightened. The vehicle turned over and the two were "ditched." Mr. Shulenbarger's wrist was broken and Mrs Overcash's arm was badly sprained.

A Big Suit at Statesville.

Judge Montgomery was called to Statesville this week on important litigation concerning the late assignment by Wallace Bros. Some large creditors have attacked the assignment. Judge Montgomery is of counsel for the creditors.

The Landmark says:

"A big suit and one that will be hotly contested and will attract much attention, was filed in Iredell Superior Court yesterday. It is that of F. & H. Fries, of Salem, vs. Wallace Bros., B. F. Long, assignee, and the Wallace Bros'. Company. The Messrs. Fries, who are creditors of the late firm of Wallace Bros., will seek to set aside the assignment on the ground of fraud, alleging that the firm failed to make a clean surrender of its property, and charging that assets were hypothecated with friends in the North. Dr. J. Lowenstein, also a creditor of the Wallaces, will join with the Messrs. Fries in this action. His attorneys are Messrs. McLaughlin and L. C. Caldwell, and Judge Montgomery of Concord."

Change of Time of Going to Press.

THE TIMES hereafter will be printed early Thursday morning instead of early in the afternoon of that day. Hereafter our papers will go out to Mill Hill, Tulin, Coddle Creek and Saunders on Thursday morning. We hope our subscribers at these offices will appreciate this movement on our part, and we hope to get several subscribers in No. 3.

Hereafter, we will also mail our papers that go South on the 10:23 morning train Thursday. Every postoffice in Cabarrus will then get THE TIMES by Friday evening. Subscribers at Forest Hill will also get their paper earlier. Our advertisers will please bear this in mind, and hand in their copy for advertisements sooner.

Two Marriages to Be.

Cards were issued last Friday announcing that Miss Mary Ellen Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel. Reed, and Dr. Eli J. Buchanan, of Lexington, will be married November 20, at 6 o'clock, p. m., in the First Presbyterial church here. Dr. and Mrs. Buchanan will be at home at the March House after December 6.

Cards have also been issued announcing the marriage on Monday morning, November 18, at 10 o'clock, of Miss Evvie Kime to Mr. Clarence P. Emery, to take place at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. C. Kime, on Church street.

An Outrageous Crime.

For sometime a man calling himself Jim White, and claiming to be an Indian doctor, has been going up and down the river near Georgeville hunting up chronic cases of sickness (all female cases). White claimed to have been captured by and reared among the Indians, and there learned the art of healing.

On last Tuesday, November 12, he went to the home of Mr. Wm. Barbee, who lives about three miles southeast of Georgeville, in Stanly county. Mr. Barbee has a daughter about 16 years old, who is troubled with a mental disease and sometimes has spasms. White claimed that he could cure her and said he would do so for $5, which Mr. Barbee paid in advance. White said the girl ought to take outdoor exercise, and drive out in a buggy. Mr. Barbee having no buggy, White volunteered to take her out driving in his own buggy. To this Mr. Barbee reluctantly consented.

White with the girl drove up near Meadow Creek in the woods. He stopped his horse, compelled the girl to get out of the buggy, and there committed upon her person a nameless crime, one of the most brutal and hellish ever committed. The young lady plead for her honor, but to no avail. After accomplishing his fiendish purpose, he drove her back to her home, put her out and drove off. The girl at once told her mother what had occurred. Drs. Jerome and Hartsell were at once summoned, and found the girl's story to be true.

White was pursued, captured, brought to Mr. Barbee's by the officers of the law, and kept under a guard of 50 men during Tuesday night. He had a preliminary hearing yesterday, the result of which we have not learned.

Excitement ran high in the whole section. Some had threats were made, and fears were entertained that White would be lynched last night.

LATER: White was brought to Concord last night and safely lodged in jail.

Paragraphs from Cannonsville.

We are putting on up-town style now. Eggs have gone up to 15 cents, but eggs are not the only kind of shell fish on our market. We have oysters.

Brick mason Sides carries his hand around in a rag. A slight hurt on the night of the Hornbuckle fire has grown to an extremely painful sore.

The stack of the new mill has reached such a height that the builders don't come down for dinner, but lunch at the top. McAlister and John Bulla know how to save time. The inside of the new mill has been whitewashed within three feet of the floor. The lower three feet is tinted a pretty red color.

Mr. J. W. Cannon is having pavements made on the new streets that have been opened up. All this work, save the brick work, is under the direct supervision of Mr. D. A. Caldwell.

Mr. S. Miller has completed his ten house contract. Nineteen new houses are under cover. As fast as finished they are being occupied by the employees for the new mill.

Mill street will be the direct link between Cannonsville and up town. Mr. P. B. Fetzer is doing the tying on with some pretty cottages, one of which is about completed.

Among those who with their families have added to Cannonsville population in the past week we note Messrs. John Freeze and James A. R. White, B. C. Morris and Frank Fraley, of Stanly.

The St. Andrews Lutheran congregation are delighted with their new pastor. His sermon Sunday afternoon was instructive and entertaining, indicative of profound study and deep thought.

Rev. J. R. Moose is a busy worker in the Master's vineyard. His pulpit and prayer meeting services are not all. He is ever on the go mingling with and ministering to his people. If Cy Thompson would visit Cannonsville and note the tender affection between pastor and people he would cease to believe that "the church is on the side of human slavery."

There is scarcely any politics hereabouts. Since the Republican sweep the Democrats and Pops won't be interviewed, and the free silverites are dumb as an oyster. One old veteran said the other day, "I expected this snow under. The laboring people like us don't want cheap money. Why, during the war we had a free and unlimited issue of bluebacks, and it took fifty dollars to buy a blue back spelling book. My daddy had to carry a hamper basket full of the stuff once to pay for a mule. Suppose we mill hands were paid off in something nobody wanted –what then?"

The bleachery is running day and night to catch up with orders. Mr. Geneva Sherrill now holds a position in the bleachery.

Mr. Levi Hatley and Miss Virgie Martin were married Saturday evening, Rev. J. R. Moose officiating.

A part of the machinery for the new mill is here and Mr. Gibson, a pleasant gentleman, is superintending putting up the shafting.

Mr. Walter L. Parrish's now dwelling is almost completed. A.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

Sad Death of a Little Child.

Little Mary Rebecca, the six year old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. M. G. G. Scherer, of Concord, died at the home of her parents in the Lutheran parsonage at half past four o'clock last Friday evening, November 8, after a week's illness with that fearful disease, membranous croup. All that attention and parents and friends could do was promptly and anxiously done to relieve the poor little sufferer, but the disease absolutely refused to yield even slightly to treatment, and after several days of suffering, which was distressing to those who witnessed it, she passed away. The sympathy of our people for the sorrowing parents was manifested in many ways.

The little girl was just 6 years and 24 days old. The funeral services were conducted from St. James Lutheran church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, by Rev. B. S. Brown, of Mt. Pleasant, who preached a touching sermon from the text, "And when the Lord saw her he had compassion on her and said, Weep not." After the services the casket containing the little corpse was tenderly deposited in the cemetery to await the glorious resurrection morn.

Death of a Former Resident of Concord.

Mr. D. J. Bostian received a telegram Saturday night from his wife at Shelby announcing the death at that place of her brother, Mr. L. Edward Boone. Mr. Boone had been a sufferer for several years with a diseased leg, and this caused his death. He formerly lived in Concord, and was a salesman at the store of the Odell Manufacturing Company. While here his affected limb gave him a great deal of trouble, and he went to Richmond twice and was operated upon by Dr. Hunter McGuire. He was not benefitted, however, and came near dying then. He had been better periodically since, but never well.

Mr. Boone was a son of Rev. T. A. Boone, of Lexington, and a brother of Mrs. D. J. Bostian. He leaves a wife and two little children, who mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and father, and who have the sympathy of many friends.

Travel to Atlanta.

We cannot pick up any of our State exchanges without seeing therein that several people have gone to the big Atlanta show. Atlanta is full of people, and the crowds pour in every day. The city seems able to take care of them easily, however. A large number from Concord and Cabarrus have gone and returned, and many more will go.

The Southern will put on sixty-Pullman cars commencing on November 21st, to accommodate the tremendous travel. The cars will be attached at Washington.

The Seaboard's travel is the heaviest known in the history of the road. It is nothing unusual to see eleven and twelve sleepers at Monroe, the morning bound train for Atlanta.

The Seaboard has made a rate of $5 for the tround trip to Atlanta for any station on its line north of Abbeville. We hope the Southern will announce a similar cut.

Magistrate's Blanks.

The attention of magistrates is called to the fact that we have on hand a full supply of blanks used by them, such as State Warrants, Summons, Claim and Delivery, Commitments, Recognizances, Transcripts, Bastardy Warrants, Peace Warrants, Search Warrants, Executions, Proceedings in Attachment, etc. We also keep Chattel Mortgages and Mortgage and Land Deeds. Our forms are the best and the blanks are printed on good strong paper. Price to magistrates, in quantities ot five or more, one cent each.

Our Roll of Honor.

The following have paid their subscriptions since our last issue:

Rev. L. M. Brower, John A. Watts, G. W. Dry, Dr. D. W. Flowe, Mrs. E. E. Fink, T. E. Furr, A. N. Kees, J. C. Dayvault, E. C. Beach, G. C. Shinn, W. B. Boger, Jno. D. Barringer, K. M. Cox.

A Child Enjoys

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs. When in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be costive or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known, and every family should have a bottle on hand.
