

CONCORD TIMES. PUBLISHED WEEKLY. November 28, 1895. OF TRAINS AT CONCORD. ...

Cotton has again gone up in price. It is now 8.25. Cow wanted. Must give three gallons a day. Apply at Times office. Saturday's Salisbury Herald has the following concerning a former resident of Concord: "Mr. Henry C. Lentz, of Zeb, is not only a good merchant and competent officer—he is the postmaster at his place—but he is somewhat of a farmer, too. This year with one horse he has made 83 bales of cotton, 450 bushels of corn and 83 bushels of wheat, taking no account of minor crops. If this is a good showing for a small, one-horse farmer then we would like to know one."

PERSONAL. Mr. A. Jones Yorkie is again in the city. Mrs. R. A. Fulp, of Fort Mill, is visiting in Concord. Mr. W. A. Ridenhour of Charlotte, was here Tuesday. Mr. Joseph Fetzler, of Greensboro, is visiting relatives here. Mrs. Phillips of Hillsboro, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. P. Cole. Dr. D. D. Johnson and Mr. John Post went to Atlanta Tuesday night. Mr. D. B. Coltrane's gas came to Reidsville to attend Conference. Mr. John Troutman now has a position at Gibson's drug store. Rev. F. S. Starrett, of Mooreville, editor of the Mooreville Record, was here yesterday. Messrs. Maury Richmond, Jim Young and Ed Moss have gone to the Atlanta Exposition. Mrs. R. E. Gibson and Miss Lalla Hill went to the Exposition Tuesday morning. Messrs. James Shevlin and John Schlierman, of Brooklyn, are in Concord on a hunting trip. Mr. J. Shappiro returned Saturday from the North. He has laid in a big stock of new goods. Mrs. R. H. Parker was called to Asheville Sunday morning by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Greer. Mrs. T. P. Johnson, of Salisbury is visiting relatives in Concord. She came down yesterday. Mr. H. B. Hawly, canvasser for the News and Observer and North Carolinians was here last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Yorkie left Monday morning for the vestibule for the Atlanta Exposition. Prof. J. F. Shinn and R. L. Keester are attending the Atlanta Exposition. Prof. Keester returned yesterday. Miss Fannie Rogers returned last Saturday night from a month's visit to her sister, Mrs. Judge Boykin at Clinton. Misses Milton and Youngblood, of Chester, S. C., who were visiting Mrs. W. C. Alexander, have returned home. Mrs. E. C. Misenheimer, Miss Laura Leslie and Miss Bessie Meader, teachers in the graded schools, went to the Exposition Monday. Mr. M. H. Lester, of No. 9, who has just recovered from a long spell of fever, was in Concord last Friday. We are glad to see him out again. The following party will leave on the vestibule next week for Atlanta: Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hurley, Miss Sallie Ervin and Mary Virginia Wadsworth. Miss Janie Ervin arrived home Tuesday morning from the Normal College at Greensboro. Prof. McIver and a large party of young ladies of the College passed through on their way to Atlanta. Misses Elizabeth and Emily Gibson were in the party. Mr. Burton Bennett left yesterday for the Atlanta Exposition. He joined at Spartanburg a party of Stanyly young ladies from Asheville Normal College who are going to the Exposition. The following are in the party: Misses Mary Bennett, Carrie Dunlap and Kate Cassels. Quite a party left Saturday for Atlanta, composed of the following: Mrs. W. J. Montgomery, Miss Mary Montgomery and Misses Ed Watkins and Marie Lewis, of Milton, and Master William Montgomery. They were joined at Spartanburg by Judge Montgomery and daughter, Miss Lucy. Free to Our Readers. A first class high grade monthly home journal, has come to be a necessity in every household. Such a journal, well conducted, occupies a special relation to every member of the family circle. One of the best journals of this character that we have seen, is The Woman's Health Journal, published at Chattanooga, Tenn. The choice stories, charming verses and interesting miscellany, appeals alike to young and old. Its special departments of Fashion, Among Our Girls, A Page for Mothers, The Home-keeper, With The Children, and the Health and Hygiene Department, edited by a competent and experienced physician, make it invaluable to any home. The Times, always on the lookout for what will profit its readers, has secured fifty yearly subscriptions to The Woman's Health Journal, which it proposes to give away. A year's subscription to this Journal will be given to (1) Every new subscriber to THE TIMES. (2) Every old subscriber who renews. (3) Every delinquent subscriber who pays her arrears. These subscriptions won't last long. First come, first served. Call at this office and see sample copy. Gone to Conference. Homes have been secured in Reidsville for all the ministers and lay delegates who will attend the Western North Carolina Conference next week. Concord's delegation is provided for as follows: Rev. M. A. Smith at Rev. D. I. Craig's; Rev. T. W. Smith at W. B. Beascham's; Rev. R. H. Parker at W. R. Vickers'; Rev. J. B. Moore at M. Apples'; Rev. W. H. L. McLaurin at Dr. S. A. Powell's; Rev. Z. Rush at I. Fell's; D. B. Coltrane, J. M. Odell and W. B. Odell at the Piedmont Hotel; C. O. Montgomery at Mrs. Belle Boyd's. Rev. W. H. L. McLaurin left Monday night. The other ministers left Tuesday morning for Reidsville, except Rev. T. W. Smith, who left Tuesday evening.

The stewards of Central Methodist Church held their last meeting for the conference year last Monday night at Mr. D. B. Coltrane's. The pastor was present and read his report of the year's work as follows: Total amount raised this year for all purposes, $1977.07. Amount raised last year, $1784.28. Increase, $192.79. Total membership at present 201. Assessments for the year $1362. Paid $1374.20. Out of all the assessments made not $25 remains unpaid by those assessed. Members added during year, 25. Members dismissed during year by certificates, death, etc., 24. Net gain 1. Total membership at present 201. The amount paid per capita was $9.74, a very remarkable showing. The pastor's salary, $1000, was paid in full. The sum of $206.08 was spent during the year for repairing the church and parsonage. The board of stewards Monday night endorsed Mr. Parker's work during the year and asked the Bishop to return him. Two Weekly Papers for Only $1.25. The Times has always been known among the citizens of Cabarrus as a live hustling newspaper. We always aim to give our subscribers the best and most interesting news. We do it too. The people of Cabarrus, we feel sure, are not so cooped up in their affairs that they don't care to trouble themselves about some one else's business. We have just completed a special clubbing arrangement with the Washington Weekly Post, published at the seat of our National Government, whereby we are enabled to give you the news of the world for almost nothing. It's going to be a busy session in Congress this year, and lively times are expected. We will send THE TIMES and Post both one year for only $1.25 in advance. Forest Hill Items. Mr. Wm. Henscuy took a trip to Stanyly last Saturday. Work was suspended in Mill No. 4 last Tuesday for half a day on account of some of the boilers being out of fix. Rev. M. A. Smith left Monday for conference. Mrs. Laura Smith died of fever last Saturday night. The funeral took place at the residence Sunday evening, after which the remains were interred in the cemetery. Mr. W. A. Warner, the boss carpenter for the Odell Manufacturing Company, is making things "hustle" now. The new addition to the cloth room will soon be completed. Magistrate's Blanks. The attention of magistrates is called to the fact that we have on hand a full supply of blanks used by them, such as State Warrants, Summons, Claim and Delivery, Commitments, Recognizances, Transcripts, Bastardy Warrants, Peace Warrants, Search Warrants, Executions, Proceedings in Attachment, etc. We also keep Chattel Mortgages and Mortgage and Land Deeds. Our forms are the best and the blanks are printed on good strong paper. Prices to magistrates, in quantities of five or more, one cent each. We Told You He'd Do It. Judge Norwood has broken the record, so far as known, for holding Superior Courts in North Carolina. On Monday morning of this week he opened court in Randolph county and finished up the docket by Wednesday evening, when an adjournment was taken. Coming from Asheboro to Salisbury he opened Rowan Court Thursday morning and all the business on both the State and civil dockets is now practically finished and an adjournment will be taken this evening. Holding two terms of court in one week is certainly out of the regular order of doing such things. Our Roll of Honor. The following have paid their subscriptions since our last issue: D. M. Coles, (part) W. C. Richards, (part) M. Boye, H. E. Motley, W. G. Nesbit, Mrs. V. Ervin, J. S. Bell, D. M. Moore, L. C. Walter (part).
