ARRIVAL OF TRAINS AT CONCORD The following change of schedule took effect after August 7, 1898: SOUTHBOUND

Train.	Arrives at—
No. 37 No. 11 No. 7 No. 35 No. 63 (freight)	8.49 a. n 11.23 a. n 8.53 p. n 9.25 p. n 7.40 a. n
NORTHBOUND.	Wat :
No. 8	6.27 a. n 10.00 a. n 7.09 p. n 8.53 p. n 1.00 p. n

Nos. 35, 35, 37 and 38 stop only at Charlotte, Concord, Salisbury, Greensboro and Danville, Passengers for local points between these stations will have to use the other trains.

LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

-Mr. Moose has moved his photograph car up to Cannonville. -The State Baptist convention will b held in Asheville next year. -Mr. Jesse Johnson and Miss Eugenia Hill, of No. 3 township, were married on Thursday of last week. -We print 50 visiting cards, just like suit you no matter what you want. engraving, for 50 cents; 100 for 75 cents.

Name and address if desired.

Saturday, the 17th. -Rev. A. E. Wiley moved his family last week from Mt. Pleasant to Lincoln ton, his new place of labor. lege will be observed from the evening to come and see. of December 23rd to January 3rd.

-The annual meeting of the G. W. be held January 10, at 11 o'clock. -Judie Warren, a colored inmate of the County Home, died last Monday,

She was about 90 years old. country, who have killed big hogs re- belonging to their parsonage.

cently, to report them to us. -Our representative, Mr. L. T. Hartsell, will occupy seat No. 21 in the House of Representatives at Raleigh. have prohibited the discharge of ficeworks in that down during the holidays.

his commission as Congressman from -Mr.Robert Neely has gone to Charles-tent rights for the novel cooking stove on exhibition here recently. -The soldiers of the First N. C. Regiment arrived in Havana Sunday morning. They will be assigned to garrison duty in or near Havana. -Hon. D. A. Covington, a prominent lawyer of Monroe, died there last Sunday night of Bright's disease. He was 45 years old, and an able lawyer. -Rev. J. N. Faust is engaged in getting up a history and directory of Trinity Caton's Hall on Thursday night, Decem-Reformed church. It will appear in pamphlet form, and will be printed at Friday night. -Rev. B. Lacy Hoge, the new Baptist Sunday for the first time. He is an ex-well pleased with him. -Mr. H. P. Deaton returned to Savannah last Thursday. He had applied for a discharge, but his papers failed to arrive, and when his furlough expired he had to return to camp.

-If you are going to get married, troops gave demonstrations of joy. don't forget that THE TIMES can furnish your wedding cards in the very latest style, and on the shortest possible notice. Strict secrecy guaranteed. Concord his last visit on Friday, Decem- ers can talk to Charlotte from their own and overcoat. It was a narrow escape. ber 23rd. After January 1st he will not 'phones. visit other towns. The doctor limits his practice to eye, ear, nose and throat.

-At the annual meeting of the North torney. Carolina Association of Academics to be will deliver an address decide on a package of engraved visiting cards and you will not fail to please. We furnish 50 for $1.00, including plate. Call at THE TIMES office.

-Mr. John W. Thomason, of Rowan of Mr. W. H. Fisher, of Mt. Pleasant, were married at the bride's home last Sunday morning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Linn.

-Mr. Joe Hill returned last Thursday night from Savannah, where he had gone with the intention of accompanying Capt. Hill's company to Cuba. He arrived at Savannah after the transport the first train.

-Mr. W. W. Melchor, of Mooresville, who was here Monday, tells us that the firm of Melchor Bros. will soon have in operation in Mooresville a fifty barrel roller flouring mill. The mill will be township, after an illness of several equipped with machinery of the very visiting cards? We furnish 50 engraved yard. cards with plate for $1.00. Work by the celebrated engraver, E. A. Wright. Styles the very latest. Call at THE TIMES office and see samples.

church last Sunday night by the Wo- solid and two strings of grantite are be man's Missionary Society was very in- ing put in at each crossing 12 inches teresting. There were recitations, etc., wide and 12 inches apart. This is someby Misses Fannie Stricker. Lizzie Bos- thing Concord needs. tian, Addie Barrier, Mrs. Faust, and an address by pastor Faust.

mr. J. W. Bunn moved his family from Concord to Norwood yesterday.

Mr. Bunn moved here from Norwood five years ago, and many friends regret to see him leave. He lived in Norwood sixteen years before coming to Concord and telephoned to all the towns in this part of the State, but up to this time sixteen years before coming to Concord, has heard nothing from his animals. and is really going back home.

-Hou. Wm. M. Little, consul at Te- here with his photograph car, and will gucigalpa, Honduras, Central America, probably remain here until after Christhas returned to Charlotte. He will be mas. His car is on the side track at the succeeded by a Republican. Mr. Little depot, and he takes one dozen fine Cabiwas one of the best men in the consular net photographs for $1.50, or 6 cards for service and made a good reputation. 50 cents. Ladies especially are invited He is a brother of Miss Fannie Little, of to visit his car. He guarantees all work concord.

-Cotton is now bringing 5.90.

-Little Fred Patterson fell and broke his arm last Tuesday. -Miss Grace Fisher has a position at Gibson's drug store during the holidays. -Mrs. H. E. Pope, of Clear Creek.

died last Monday. -The graded school holidays will continue one week. The session will be resumed January 2.

-Mr. L. H. Fesperman, of Charlotte, is assisting Mr. W. J. Moose in his photograph car on the Cannonville side

-The students from Concord a Trinity College will arrive here on their holiday vacation on Thursday night of next week. -The Woman's Missionary Society of Central church held its regular monthly meeting last Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. J. D. Hatchett's. -The John W. Herrin lands in Stanly county were sold at public auction here Monday by S. J. Lowe, trustee. Mr. R. L. Dick was the purchaser.

-Mr. S. J. Lowe's family will "break up housekeeping" next week, and will board at the St. Cloud Hotel until January 1, when they will move to Charlotte. -A colored child was burned to death in Charlotte Tuesday. Its mother locked tt up in her house and left it alone. She ought to be hung for murder. -Bell, Harris & Co., want to sell you your Christmas presents. They have an endless variety of furniture, and can -Rev. W. P. McGee moved his family to their new home at Pineville yester--The missionary sale at New Gilead day. He is an excellent man and citizen, Reformed church will take place next and we regret to lose him from our

-Dr. J. P. Gibson has a column article in this week's Traces telling you about Xmas things. He has an endless variety -Christmas holidays at Elizabeth Col- of toys and holiday gifts, and asks you

-President McKinley's special train passed through Concord at 12:30 Tues-Patterson Manufacturing Company will day night on its way to Atlanta, where the President and party are attending the peace jubilee.

-The trustees of Epworth Methodist church at Cannonville will sell at public auction for cash on next Saturday all -We ask all our people in town and the household and kitchen furniture

-Stricker & Son are selling out their entire stock of groceries at cost, to close up business. See circular for prices of verything. Now is the time to buy -The board of aldermen in Winston your groceries cheap. Dont miss it.

-Mr. Bostian, the Racket man has a full column ad. this week. Every holi-:-The Salisbury Sun says Mr. Kluttz day shopper should read it through. has received from the Governor by mail He has a great variety of Xmas things, and his prices are, as usual, very low.

-Presiding Elder Brooks will preach ton, where he is working the sale of pa-tent rights for the powel cooking stove administered at this service. Dr. Brooks will preach at Bays Chapel at night.

-Rev. J. S. Nelson, the new pastor of Concord circuit, preached at Centre church last Sunday morning and at Rocky Ridge in the afternoon. We learn that his people are much pleased with him.

-The Juvenile Missionary Societies of Central and Forest Hill Methodist churches will give an entertainment at ber 22, and at Rorest Hill church on -One night last Week some one stole the two front wheels from a new buggy preacher here, occupied his pulpit last of Mr. J. Dove at his home. No clue has been obtained as to the guilty party. cellent preacher, and his congregation is Mr. Dove offers a reward for any infor--The First North Carolina and Two Hundred and Second New York Volunteers marched through Havana Monday being the first American regiments to do -The Concord Telephone Exchange

now has direct connection with Charlotte. The charge for a five minutes conversation in 20 cents. The connec--Dr. Wakefield, of Charlotte, will pay tion was made last Tuesday. Subscrib-

-The Salisbury Sun says that Mrs. Nancy Verble, widow of the late John A fire alarm last Friday evening H. Verble, dissents from the will of her about 5 o'clock stirred up our people husband in order to secure the widow's the Racket Store now occupied by S. somewhat. The ceiling near a flue in dowry, which is one-third of the estate, Gaskell. The new firm will be known the Morris House caught fire, but was and in this instance amounts to a good as the Ritchie Hardware Company, and deal. Hon. Lee S. Overman is her at-

-Mr. White Odell Brown, of Hickory, held in Raleigh December 28 and 29, and Miss Blanche Stamey, daughter of Prof. Holland Thompson, of Concord, the late Rev. P. F. W. Stamey, a well known Methodist minister, were mar--If you do not know exactly what to ried at the home of the bride's mother give your friend for a Christmas present, in High Point Wednesday night of last week. The groom'is a son of Mr. Wm. Brown, formerly of Concord.

-Mrs. G. W. Burrage, of Forest Hill, died last Friday night. Consumption was the cause of her death. The funeral quanty, and Miss Sallie Fisher, daughter services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Forest Hill Methodist church. Mrs. Burrage was 27 year old, and leaves a husband and two children. Mr. Burrage moved back to Concord five weeks ago from Statesville. -Monday's Salisbury Sun : Dr. J. R. Brooks, presiding elder of the Salisbury district, returned Saturday night from a trip to Raleigh, Selma and other places had sailed, and returned to Concord on in the eastern part of the State. He began his first round of the present year at Chestnut Hill yesterday. He will be at Concord next Sunday. -Mrs. Dwight Russell died on Thursday of last week at her home in .No. 1 months. She was 67 years of age, and member of Rocky River Presbyterian church. The funeral services were con--What is nicer for a Christmas pres- dacted on Friday morning, and the reent than a package of nicely engraved mains laid to rest in the church grave

-The city of Salisbury has awarded the contract to Mr. J. T. Wyatt, of Faith, to put in the cross walks on their streets Mr. Wyatt is now at work placing them -The entertainment at the Reformed in with a force of hands. The walks are

-Mr. Adam Honeycutt, who lives on Mr. W. G. Means' place in No. 2, had -Mr. J. W. Bunn moved his family his mare and colt stolen from his stable

-Mr. W. J. Moose is now at the depot

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. W. Peeler, of Rockwell, was here Tuesday.

Miss Alice Jones, of Charlotte, visiting here. Mrs. W. G. Campbell has returned to Miss Willie Cress, of Rockwell, spent Tuesday night here. Mrs. W. H. Watkins, of Ramseur.

Woodstock, Va.

was visiting here this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Odell returned Monday night from Bessemer City.

Miss Mabel Tomlinson will arrive Saturday to visit Miss Nannie Cannon. Mr. Frank Rogers, Jr., is at home from the University for the holidays. Mrs. F. L. Robbins has returned to her home in Goldsboro.

Miss Ella Hand, of Charlotte, is visiting at Mr. Chas. F. Hislop's.

Messrs. C. B. Little and E. E. Snuggs, of Albemarle, were here last week. Messrs. C. L. Smith and J. F. Yorke. of Charlotte, spent Sunday here. Miss Hattie Cochrane, of Mecklenburg county, is visiting Mrs. Ed. F. Mrs. R. A. Brower and children will spend the holidays with Mrs. Brower's parents at Laurinburg. "Misses Midge McAden and Frances and Helen Mallory and May Oates go to Concord Saturday," says the Char-

Misses Elma and Mayfield Cole, of Greensboro Female College, will spend Christmas with their grand mother at Mrs. B. E. Sergeant, of Greensboro, Mrs. E. M. Andrews.

Was It a Lynching?

Mr. W. W. Melchor, of Mooresville, who was here Monday, told us that her home in No. 5, and her bed with the grip. last Saturday night and Sunday. Wash either lynched by a party of men Saturday night or driven out of the county.

No one yet seems to know which it is. Our readers will remember that on Monday night, 5th inst, the barn of Capt. J. A. Harris, two miles from Mooresville, was burned, involving the loss of a mule, a horse, five head of cattle and a quantity of roughnessrepresenting in all value of $1,000, upon | There were 148 communicants on Sunsaid that the bellowing of the cattle with Rev. Mr. Faust of Concord. could be heard for some distance as the death relieved their suffering. Suspicion rested on Wash Nance, a negro, 25 years old who lived near Mr. Harris' barn. Mr. Harris had told County Affairs. Nance he could not work on the place next year. Nance is reported to have special session last Monday, and been heard to say since that Capt. were present. Harris would be sorry for this, and the to render aid, though the other mem- will select his own guards, etc.

bers of the family did. On Saturday night Mr. G. O. Cornelius, accompanied by Mr. Ed. Brawley, went to Nance's house about two miles from Mooresville to arrest him. The negro was found after considerable search, hidden between two feather He was pulled out, and his captors started to Mooresville with him. They had gone only a short distance when a crowd of about 20 men met them, threw a rope over Nance's head pulled him from the buggy and spirited him away. The place was lonely and dark-just the place for such work.

All day Sunday crowds were busy looking for the body of the negro, as it was supposed he had been lynched. His body, however, could not be found, and has not yet been found. It is very probable that the crowd gave Nance a so. Cubans who saw the marching good beating, and made him leave the county. His hat and vest were found, but nothing else. In the same lonely spot where the negro was taken from the officers, Mr. Neil Kestler was shot at one night last week by some unknown person. The ball went through both his coat

New Hardware Store.

A new hardware store will be opened January 15, 1899, in the room next to Mr. Charles F. Ritchie will manage the and will return north January 10. Mr. business. Mr. Ritchie was for quite a while manager for the firm of Smithdeal & Morris here, and for a number of years was with Mr. Wm. Smithdeal in the hardware business at Salisbury. For some time he has had a position at the store of Mr. G. W. Patterson. He is a most excellent business man, and was almost raised in the hardware trade. He has many friends all through this section, and no doubt will make a success of his new business.

Great reduction on Ladies' Fine Fur Capes at H. L. Parks & Co.

is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALI-FORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company -CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS

LOUISVILLE &

of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor

Death of Hon, A. F. Hileman

Hon. Ambrose F. Hileman, a promibeen scarcely able to get away from his home. The last time he was in Concord was on the day of the Aycock-was twice married. He was the father different. are living. His last wife with one transports every day. Yesterday 17,000 enough. small child survives him.

Mr. Hileman was elected to the legislature, this time by the Populists and Republicans, and when the body as This is the most embled he was elected Speaker of the House. Before Mr. Hileman's health became so precarrious he was prominently mentioned for the congressional nomination n the fusion ticket this year. Mr. Hileman was a member of New dilead Reformed church, where the remains were interred on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. P. Barringer.

Miss Appie Krimminger returned to her home from Forest Hill two months ago nursing a felon, from which she was a great sufferer. As soon as her who was visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. felon got well, she was taken down R. Odell, has gone to Charlotte to visit with fever. She is now slowly im-

The scribe has a fine young horse nearly dead with blind staggers. Miss Fannie Suther has returned to her home in No. 5, and is confined to

Mrs. Martin Propet has been confined Nance colored, a barn-burner, was to her bed for quite a while with par-

Miss Wilms Cook, of Forest Hill, is visiting friends in No. 5. Mrs. Wm. Long and daughter, Lillie, spent a few days recently with friends in No. 5. The series of meetings at New Gilead last week were very interesting, and resulted in fine occessions to the church.

which there was $400 insurance. It is day. Our people were highly pleased Mr. W. C. Eddieman recently showed flames came upon them and until us an orange pumpkin grown by his son Louis, of South Rowan, which weighs 92 pounds.

The county commissioners held

R. C. Benfield, of No. 2, was elected night of the fire this negro did not go superintendent of the chain gang. He

J. T. Sapp, of No. 5, was elected superintendent of the County Home. J. C. Willeford was elected keeper of the county clock at $30 per year.

Ira Mehaffey was appointed to ring the court house bell. John B. Willeford was elected standard keeper.

Is This for You? Quite a number of our subscribers have paid us during the last two or three weeks. However, by far the larger part of them are still behind, and we earnestly hope they will make it a point to come in as soon as possible. We ask them to pay only at this season when everybody is supposed to have disappoint us. We are in earnest about this matter. Some Big Hogs. Mr. W. A. Smith killed his two big some money, and we trust they will not Poland China hogs last Monday. One weighed 587 and the other 519 pounds. Many thought the hogs would weigh 700 or 800 pounds each. Mr. D. Reece Brown, of No. 11 killed last Saturday a pig one year old which weighed 336.

Mr. Kirkman Resigns. Mr. Thomas Kirkman, who came here about two years age from Williamstown, Mass., to take charge of the bleachery, has resigned his position, Kirkman is an Englishman, and is a most clever gentleman. Both he and his wife have made many friends here, who regret to see them leave.

Go to Parks' for Clothing. Marry your feet to our Shoes. H.L. Parks & Co.

Fine trimmed Ladies' Hats going cheap at H. L. Parks & Co. An anti-cigarette resolution offered in the North Carolina Conference at Etizabeth City recently was tabled.

Miss Mary Brachen's

Now Ready! Finest and Cheapest Hats in Town!

Come and see them before buying. Hats from 10 cents up.

A Letter from flavana.

Mr. Rufus W. Woodside, formerly nent citizen of the county, and well of Concord, who is now courier to rapidly progressing. We went down a known all over the State, died at his Major-General Greene in Havana, last few days since and were surprised to house in No. 5 township last Monday week wrote to his little daughter here find the building enclosed and the night about 9 o'clock. He had been a most interesting letter from Havana, roof on. When finished it will be a suffering with heart trouble for several from which we have been permitted to handsome building, and Concord will years, and for 12 months or more had make the following extracts, which will at last have what she needs. be highly interesting to our readers:

Havana is a city of 300,000 inhabitants and is the dirtiest place I ever crossing. It is divided into three com-Thompson speaking, and his appear- saw. The United States has 500 men ance then indicated that his days were at work on the streets cleaning up. Mr. Hileman was 48 years old, and El Moro soon and then things will be two. The entire building is 21x70 feet embarked.

You have seen pictures of Spanish ture of 1881, having run as an inde-senoritas behind barred windows. pendent. In February, 1890 he was That's the way it is here. All the the depot. The roof of the building elected as the Democratic chairman of houses are built of stone and every extends six feet from the walls at the board of county comissioners to window is barred like a jail. Some of succeed the late Esq., R. W. Allison. In the fall of 1890 he was elected to the black hair and eyes, and they all speak the main track will be taken up, so that Lower House by the Democrats and re-signed his place as commissioner. In say anything in English except good tions and the waiting passenger trains. 1896 he was again elected to the Legis morning, and they will say that to us at The number of side tracks will be in-

This is the most beautiful country I freight trains easier. eyer saw and the land the richest. You can grow anything here, but the people | we heartily thank the Southern authoriwill have to be educated; they are at ties, through their gentlemanly and least 500 years behind the times; they courteous agent, Mr. Gowan Dusenbery, have no modern farming implements for the excellent accommodations they of any kind. But our country will soon are preparing to give us in the near overcome that. There are a great many Americans here now looking for in- Death of Mr. J. Harry Woodhe vestments. This is surely the coming country, if yellow fever can be stamped

Our troops will begin to arrive in few days, and the boys will see some sights they never dreamed of. I walk around the streets every night and can count hundreds of poor people lying in doorways and on the sidewalks, with no where else to sleep-men, women and little children. The American papers have never told the half about the suffering in Havana. You can stand in front of the Inglaterra notel and be accosted a thousand times a day by men, women and little children begging for penny, and God knows they look as f they needed it. Poor, emaciated, they look too weak to stand on their

I passed the Christobal Colon cemetery to-day, and there I saw a pile of years. Before his father's death and bones and kulls of reconcentrados who for a short while after he was connected buzzards to eat. There must have been soon after Mr. Woodhouse left for the ten tons of bones. The other day I saw a hospital wagon drive to the cemetery and throw four The others were carried on the head at 11 o'clock by Rev. W. C. Alexander, and shoulders of their friends; and and the remains laid to rest in the then if they have no money or friends cemetery. to dig a grave, the corpse is placed on Christmas Holiday Excursion Rates.

with a pile of earth. You should see the teams. Large than a donkey; and what loads they put on one poor little brute-as much four large American mules to pull it. They have no mercy on animals at all, earth. The camp for the troops will be ten miles from Havana, at Mariano, on a high plain overlooking the sea, and a very pretty and healthy place, with plenty of good water. You should see the Cuban soldiers, and then you could imagine what they have suffered in their struggle for free-final limit January 4th, 1899. dom. Ragged and hungry only half tells the story; but the United States now has hundreds of them at work and will employ more of them as they Albemarle Enterprise. are needed

The weather here is about like May line of drugs in one of the new Morrow is at home, only a little warmer in the stores soon as completed. Ham is 40 cents per pound, eggs 75 and everything else in proportion. Roll of Honor Graded School, The following is the roll of honor for the white graded schools: Ninth Grade-Flossie Pounds, Nina Dayvault. Seventh Grade-Shirley Montgomery, Myrtle Dayvault, Minnie Ross. Fifth Grade-Lina Hartsell, Lawson Fourth Grade-Vernie Blume.

rances Goodson, Mary Morrison. Second Grade-Nellie Herring, Carrie Petrea, Lucile Pitts, Leslie Bell. First Grade-Annie Cook, Maggie Hendrix, Luther Sappenfield. The following have paid their subscriptions recently: J. T. Teter, C. B. Little, D. H. Riden-

Ivey, Melchor Bros., J. F. Moose, John E. Turner, G. W. Misenbeimer, J. W. Bunn, Whit Shankle, J. R. Dayvault, Dr. D. W. Flowe, G. S. Jenkins. Following have paid in advance: C. C. Patterson, J. N. Winecoff, J. W. Collett, C. J. Williams, J. R. Mc-

hour, Wm. Richards, Warren Stafford,

C. E. Barringer, Jas. M. Carter, T. P.

Ciellan, W. F. Goodman (Kluttz). Rev. W. J. Boger's Work at Gastonia.

Mission work in this growing town as been undertaken by the North Carolina Conference of the Tennessee Synod, and it has pledged $1,000 to-wards building a church there. Rev. W. J. Boger, who has been preaching in a hall twice a month since last March, will soon organize a congregation. A lot has been secured and $920 subscribed for the work through the efforts of Rev. Boger, who expects to increase the local subscription to $1,000. The mission will be organized with twentyfive or thirty members.

Concord Markets. Corrected weekly by D. P. Dayvault. COTTON MARKET. Low Middling . . . . . . Middling . . . . . . . . . Strict Middling . . . . . Good Middling . . . . . . 5.90 PRODUCE MARKET.

Bulk Meat, Sides . . . . .

Beeswax . . . . . . . . .

Butter . . . . . . . . . . . . .

Chickens . . . . . . . . . . . .

Corn . . . . . . . . . . . .

Eggs . . . . . . . . . . . . .

Flour, North Carolina . . .

Meal . . . . . . . . . . . . .

Peas . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .

Oats . . . . . . . . . . . .

Salt . . . . . . . . . . . . .

IrishPotatoes . . . . . . .

20 ten cases. 10 to 15 10 to 20 55 15

8 to 10

2.00

60

65

40

4 to 5

and Scalp. It is yours, for the asking. If you do not obtain all the benefits you expected from the use of the Vigor, write the doctor about it. Probably there is some difficulty with your general system which may be easily re-DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

The New Passenger Depot.

Work on our new passenger depot

The building is situated on this sid of the railroad track, just south of the saw. The United States has 500 men partments, a waiting room for white people, one for colored people, and a The stars and stripes will go up over ticket and telegraph office between the long, and each waiting room is 21x29 of ten children by his first wife, and all The Spanish soldiers are leaving on feet. This, we think, is quite large

The material used in the building is the very best, and the covering is slate. There will be a cement walk all around creased, rendering the handling of

On behalf of the people of Concord

In our last we noted the serious illness at his home in Augusta of Mr. Harry Woodhouse. He died on last Wednesday night at 11:30 o'clock. His mother and brother went to Augusta Tuesday night, but on account of the engine breaking down did not reach there until 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Woodhouse was then unconscious, and never rallied enough to recognize them. His body was brought to Concord, arriving here at 9 o'clock Thursday night. Mr. Woodhouse was 34 years old He had been living in Augusta since September 1, before which time since February 1st last, he had been living in Concord. In 1887, he left Concord for Newark, N. J., where he had a position in a job printing office for over ten lied during the blockade and were not with the Register. In 1887 the Regisburied—just thrown in a heap for the ter was purchased by THE TIMES, and

Mr. Woodhouse was an excellent young man, quiet, gentlemanly, of fine dead men in a hole and cover them up character, and a true Christian. He just like burying dead hogs-no cere- spent his boyhood in Concord, and had mony whatever. Yesterday I saw many friends. The funeral services eleven corpses on the way to the cem-etery, only two of which were in hearses. were conducted at his mother's resi-dence on Loan street Friday morning the ground and simply covered over For the above occasion the Railway will sell round-trip tickets from all points on their lines, also to points carts are drawn by mules no larger within the territory east of the Mississippi and south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers, on basis of one and oneas we put on one of our wagons with third first-class standard one-way fares for the round-trip; tickets to be sold December 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26, also but they are the most polite people on December 30, 31, 1898, January 1 and 2, 1899, with final limit January 4, 18-

99, inclusive. Tickets will be sold to students and teachers upon presentation of certificates signed by the superintendent, principal or president of schools and colleges, under the foregoing conditions, on De-cember 16 to 25, 1898, inclusive, with Stanly County News.

Mr. C. J. Mauney will open up a full Mr. E. L. Stoker, of Concord, was here last week on a visit to his old home cents per dozen, chickens $1.50 each, and his friends near here. He left our county about two years ago, but thinks of returning when the new factory starts to run. An old landmark in the shape of an oak tree, near the well on the Methodist parsonage lot, by reason of decay from approaching death, has been felled and split into Christmas wood for the preacher's family. This was once a very fine shade tree, the cooling shade of which many presiding elders and scores of itinerant preachers have en-Third Grade-Margaret Woodhouse, joyed. The oak stood just in front of the old parsonage.

See a Snow

We never did; but we have seen the clothing at this time of the year so covered with dandruff that it looked as if it had been out in a regular snow-

No need of this snowstorm. As the summer sun would melt the falling snow so will this: it prevents their formation It has still other properties: it will restore color to gray hair in just ten times out of every

And it does even more: it feeds and nourishes the roots of the hair. Thin hair becomes thick hair; and short hair becomes long hair. We have a book on the Hair

Why do you pay $1.25 for a Man's Work Shoe when you can buy "Fetzers Iron Clad," the best that's made for $1.15.

WHY?

Why do you pay 98 cents or $1.00 for a Woman's Oil Grain Shoe, when you can get at Cannons & Fetzer's the best Oil Grain Shoe in town for 95 cents? WHY?

Why do you pay $1.00 for a cheap Sunday Shoe when you can get a better one at Cannon & Fetzer Co's for 90 cents?

WHY?

Why do you pay 50 cents for a Cloth Hat or Cap when you can get the best that's made at Cannon & Fetzer Co's for 25 cents?

WHY?

when you can get just as good at Cannon & Fetzer Co's for 10 cents? WHY?

Why do you pay 1 to 2 cents for Boys' Cap

Why do you pay $.00 for a poorly made halt wool Suit when you can buy an all wool Suit splendidly made at Cannon & Fetzer Co's for less money? Why would you rather lose a quarter than to save a quarter? WHY?

Why, when you go to buy a suit of Clothes, or a pair of Shoes, or a Hat, or a Shirt, or a Dress, or anything else you need, why wouldn't you rather go to a store where they have a full line to select from,

and where every price is guaranteed to be the lowest price, and where, if goods and prices are not right, money will be refunded? Why wouldn't you?

That's Cannon & Fetzer Co's Store. You don't take any risk in buying there. The prices are bound to be right because you can get your money back if you are not pleased. We have anything you want. We can't be undersold, Come and see us.

Why Not Be Happy?

Get Into the Swim. Thanksgiving is Past and in a Few More Days We Will Have Christmas Again.

PRESENTS! Oh yes! You must have presents for Christmas times. We don't know of any better place in the State of North Carolina to uy a useful as well as # an ornamental present than the Furniture House of Bell, Harris & Co.

SEE. Run over the list and see if we are not correct. One Hundred Bed Room Suits, in all the fancy woods. Parlor, good, medium and best. Wardrobes, Sideboards, China Closets, Office Desks; Book Cases, Hall Racks, Rocking Chairs, Dining Chairs, and all kinds of Children Chairs, Bissell's Carpet Sweepers, Cook Stoves, Mattress and Spring Baby Tenders, Boy Wagons, Go Carts, Coast-

If you will favor us with a call we will convince you that we mean just what we say.

Yours, Etc.,

BELL, HARRIS & COMPANY.

must be seen to be appreciated. We have bought largely.

We have bought at right prices. We have bought to sell.

Our line of Pictures and Frames, Mirrors, Lamps, etc.,

COME AND SEE US. With best wishes for a merry Christmas we are ers, Tricycles, Velocipedes, etc.

that Christmas is almost upon us will be the fine line of HOLIDAY GOODS

we are displaying. Our stock is complete.

Furniture! Furniture! until you can't rest. A large variety of Rocking Chairs ## from 75 cents up. Bed Room Suits, Parlor Tables, Dining Tables, Easels, Screens, and a great variety of Beautiful Pictures; and the most attractive part of all is the low price we have marked on them.

Toy Wagons, Children's Chairs, galore, that are useful and will be appreciated by the recipients. Come to see us—we will do you good.

> CRAVEN BROTHERS, Furniture Dealers and Funeral Directors.