

If you have anything to sell, let the people know it.

THE CONCORD WEEKLY TIMES

John B. Sherrill, Editor and Owner.

"BE JUST AND FEAR NOT."

$1.00 a Year, in Advance.

VOLUME XVI.

CONCORD, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 22, 1899.

NUMBER 51.

"Out of Sight Out of Mind."

In other months we forget the harsh winds of Spring. But they have their use, as some say, to blow out the bad air accumulated after winter storms and spring thaws.

This great Spring Medicine clarifies the blood as nothing else can. It cures scurvy, kidney disease, liver troubles, rheumatism and kindred ailments.

Kidneys—My kidneys troubled me, and an advice book told me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cured my kidneys.

Dyspepsia—Complicated with liver and kidney trouble, I suffered for years with dyspepsia, with severe pain.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. The above figures tell a remarkable story; they represent almost exactly the percentage of cures made by RHEUMATISM. The wonderful new constitutional cure for RHEUMATISM. The other two percent were not curable, or failed to take medicine according to directions.

MADE BY THE BOBBITT DRUG COMPANY, RALEIGH, N. C.

Children are a source of comfort. They are a source of care, also. If you care for your child's health, send for this illustrated book on the disorders to which children are subject.

Concord National Bank. With the latest approved form of books, and every facility for handling accounts.

KEEP YOUR ACCOUNT WITH US. Interest paid as agreed. Liberal accommo-

Southern Railway. The Direct Line to All Points. TEXAS, CALIFORNIA, FLORIDA, CUBA AND PORTO RICO.

STRICTLY FIRST-CLASS Equipment on all Through and Local Trains; Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars on all Night Trains; Fast and Safe Schedules.

Apply to Ticket Agents for Time Tables, Rates and General Information, or address R. L. VERNON, F. R. DARBY, T. J. A. C. P. & T. A., Charlotte, N. C.

NO TROUBLE TO ANSWER QUESTIONS. FRANK GANNON, J. M. CLAF, W. A. TUCK, 517 P. & G. M., Trip. Man. G. P. A. WASHINGTON, D. C.

PISO'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION. GENUINE. GENUINE. GENUINE.

BILL ARP'S LETTER.

Last midnight that same mocking bird was singing—making sweet music to comfort his mate who was brooding upon her nest.

Down in the pasture that fronts our grove I see the milch cows grazing peacefully. Our front yard there is a byland and the water is allowed to leak just enough to keep a basin full and it overflows to a little grass-hid pool where the penguins drink and bathe.

That the illegitimate children born in the convict camps are kept in perpetual slavery, and that the female convicts are outraged by the camp officers at pleasure, and that a girl of seventeen, who ran away to avoid it, was caught by bloodhounds and stripped and flogged amid furies.

The editor then says that the future of the colored race is the gravest problem that America has to face. Certain as grave as the expansion of her empire over Cuba and the Philippines, and that the United States is paying a heavy debt for the sins of her fathers.

Apple, geranium and lemon verbenas sweeten the breeze at our window. Looking northward from the verandah where I sit, the distant hills are piled upon each other in regular irregularity, while more distant mountains give a background of cerulean blue to the beautiful picture.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is vile. What a contrast to the view before me is found in the columns of the morning paper, which has just been handed to me.

REV. SAM JONES TACKLES GREAT CHURCH TROUBLES.

I returned home a few days ago after a month's absence and with my family moved out into our country home five miles from town.

The Methodist church has been recommended to the church a week of prayer beginning with next Sunday, I believe. I believe if the Methodist church will pray a week, it will be the best thing for us all.

The Publishing House matter has never hurt me. I have never meddled with it, I am a backslider, and a bright future before me. I believe a man and a church can pray themselves right. I am sure that in contentions and quarreling, they cannot.

I shall be a farmer this month. I am an agriculturist the year round but a farmer only one month this year. You know a farmer is a gentleman who stays on his farm and makes a living for his family.

Another Atchison girl who gets $40 a month for sitting in an office will resign in a few weeks to wash dishes and wait on tables.

When a woman is old and bilious she complains in a peculiar way by saying "I feel like a witch."

When a woman begins to admire a man she begins to persecute him.

There comes a time to every married woman when she has to use a sort of faith cure on her belief in her husband's affections.

A certain Atchison woman is always invited to serve the brick ice cream at parties. She says the reason that she cuts it in such thin slices.

Would something terrible happen if a girl forgot to tie up those terrible buttons on the back of her skirt, and it is possible under present fashion conditions for a girl to dress without the assistance of the neighbors?

Reputation Helps Character. Sunday School Times. Reputation helps to make character. To be continually telling a boy that he is a bad boy is more likely to make him worse than better.

An Essay on Smoking. Young men, we have adopted a rule that all of you who like to smoke can do so, but please do not smoke in the presence of ladies.

Soap an Enemy to Disease. Cholera, once a pestilence in presence of which medical science stood helpless, is no longer regarded with serious apprehension by the health authorities of any clean city.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions.

Omaha Christian Advocate. We know of a young man, traveling beyond his majority, who is a traveling salesman for an important firm.

The Methodist church with its bishops and book committee have decided that the Publishing House matter shall remain in statu quo until the next general conference meets; that it is not a matter for any official or officials to amend or regulate.

A Card of Thanks. I wish to say that I feel under lasting obligations for what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has done for our family.

Mrs. McPherson was attracted by the following advertisement the other day: "To the public.—A gentleman who was cured of drinking, smoking, talking too loud, going out at nights, going to the races, and gambling, and who also gained twenty pounds of flesh in three years, will sell the secret to any respectable person for half-a-crown.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism.

Idea Wells made big money out of her lies years ago, and now she and her partner have got up another speculation on the Sam Hose case, and have had hundreds of thousands of pamphlets printed that contained that lying detective story, and are selling them all over

ARMY LIFE IN PHILIPPINES.

The Gatling and Hotchkiss shells burst right among a group of them, and I don't think one escaped. This fight lasted pretty nearly three hours, during which time nine of our boys were killed and 31 wounded, myself included.

"I was hit with a Mauser, which made a painful but not dangerous wound. It caught me in the muscles of the shoulder and was cut out of my back. The bullet was almost spent when it hit me or it would have gone right through."

"I suppose you read all about the battle of Manila. Well, I never want to experience another day like that of the 18th of August, a three-and-a-half-mile charge through mud and water, venturing from holes, with no change of clothing after fighting in the city; sleeping three nights on the sidewalk is anything but pleasant, besides having to live on hardtack and canned beef for over a month, but there was not a complaint from one of the men. They thoroughly understood the situation and made the best of it."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

ARMY LIFE IN PHILIPPINES.

Private Warren E. Sadler Writes of Hard Work and Privation. Baltimore Sun.

Warren E. Sadler, son of Prof. W. H. Sadler, who is a member of Company A, Eighteenth United States Infantry, writes from Jaro, Philippine Islands, to his brother, F. A. Sadler, as follows:

"The thermometer here has never been below 75 degrees, and ranging from that to 100 degrees. The better class dress in white the year round. The natives look as though they were literally dried up by the sun, and are the homeliest creatures I ever saw. The women marry at the age of 12 years, and after they pass their eighteenth birthday it is a hard matter to distinguish their age, as they look anywhere from 25 to 100."

"I suppose you read all about the battle of Manila. Well, I never want to experience another day like that of the 18th of August, a three-and-a-half-mile charge through mud and water, venturing from holes, with no change of clothing after fighting in the city; sleeping three nights on the sidewalk is anything but pleasant, besides having to live on hardtack and canned beef for over a month, but there was not a complaint from one of the men. They thoroughly understood the situation and made the best of it."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

ARMY LIFE IN PHILIPPINES.

The Gatling and Hotchkiss shells burst right among a group of them, and I don't think one escaped. This fight lasted pretty nearly three hours, during which time nine of our boys were killed and 31 wounded, myself included.

"I was hit with a Mauser, which made a painful but not dangerous wound. It caught me in the muscles of the shoulder and was cut out of my back. The bullet was almost spent when it hit me or it would have gone right through."

"I suppose you read all about the battle of Manila. Well, I never want to experience another day like that of the 18th of August, a three-and-a-half-mile charge through mud and water, venturing from holes, with no change of clothing after fighting in the city; sleeping three nights on the sidewalk is anything but pleasant, besides having to live on hardtack and canned beef for over a month, but there was not a complaint from one of the men. They thoroughly understood the situation and made the best of it."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

"The good man who goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out. When some people make up their minds they leave out a lot of important matter."

"Worry never cures an evil, but it sometimes relieves the monotony of too much happiness. When ordering a new ribbon for your typewriter always specify whether it's for her or for it."

"The poet possesses wonderful power. The mere sight of one has been known to raise the hair of an editor. The individual who spends his time in telling what he is going to do after he gets there fails to arrive."

We keep on hand a full stock of LETTER HEADS, NOTE HEADS, STATEMENTS, BILL HEADS, ENVELOPES, TAGS, VISITING CARDS, WEDDING INVITATIONS, ETC., ETC.

GOOD PRINTING ALWAYS PAYS

ROYAL Baking Powder. Made from pure cream of tartar. Safeguards the food against alum. Alum baking powders are the greatest menaces to health of the present day.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS. DR. G. CALDWELL & STEVENS. Office in former Postoffice Building on Main Street. Telephone No. 37.

DR. H. C. HERRING, DENTIST. is again at his old place on York's Jewelry Store, CONCORD, N. C.

DR. L. N. BURLEYSON, Physician and Surgeon. Offers his professional services to the citizens of Concord and vicinity. All calls promptly attended to day or night. Office over H. H. G. Drug Store. Telephone No. 36. Residence, corner Depot and Fetter Streets.

DR. W. C. HOUSTON, Surgeon, Dentist, CONCORD, N. C. is prepared to do all kinds of dental work in the most approved manner. Office over Johnson's Drug Store.

L. T. HARTSELL, Attorney-at-Law, CONCORD, NORTH CAROLINA. Prompt attention given to all business. Office in Morris building, opposite the court house.

DRS. LILLY & MONTGOMERY, offer their professional services to the citizens of Concord and vicinity. All calls promptly attended to day or night. Office over H. H. G. Drug Store. Telephone No. 36. Residence, corner Depot and Fetter Streets.

W. J. MONTGOMERY, J. LEE CROWELL, MONTGOMERY & CROWELL, Attorneys and Counselors-at-Law, CONCORD, N. C. As partners, will practice law in Cabarrus, Stanly and adjoining counties, in the Superior and Supreme Courts of the State and in the Federal Courts. Office on Depot street.

Paying Double Prices. For everything is not pleasant, is it? But that's what you are doing, if you don't buy here. Did you think it was a good thing to pay double prices for your bicycle?

Branch—Tree, congratulate me, and come along and take something. Yes, you've got to go. It's a 10-pound boy—my first, you know.

Tree—Really, Branch, you must excuse me this morning, for I cannot enter into the spirit of the occasion. Do not insist now; I am in no mood for it.

Branch—What's the matter, old man? Tree—It's a boy at our house, too. My eighth, you know.

The Bench and the Bar. Judge—Your face is familiar. I've seen you before. Prisoner—Yes, your Honor, quite often.

Judge—Ah! What was the charge the last time I saw you? Prisoner—I think it was 15 cents, your Honor. I mixed a cocktail for you, I believe.

A devout colored preacher, whose heart was aglow with missionary zeal, gave notice to his congregation that in the evening an offering would be taken for missions, and asked for liberal gifts.

"A devout colored preacher, whose heart was aglow with missionary zeal, gave notice to his congregation that in the evening an offering would be taken for missions, and asked for liberal gifts."

"A devout colored preacher, whose heart was aglow with missionary zeal, gave notice to his congregation that in the evening an offering would be taken for missions, and asked for liberal gifts."

"A devout colored preacher, whose heart was aglow with missionary zeal, gave notice to his congregation that in the evening an offering would be taken for missions, and asked for liberal gifts."

"A devout colored preacher, whose heart was aglow with missionary zeal, gave notice to his congregation that in the evening an offering would be taken for missions, and asked for liberal gifts."

"A devout colored preacher, whose heart was aglow with missionary zeal, gave notice to his congregation that in the evening an offering would be taken for missions, and asked for liberal gifts."

"A devout colored preacher, whose heart was aglow with missionary zeal, gave notice to his congregation that in the evening an offering would be taken for missions, and asked for liberal gifts."

"A devout colored preacher, whose heart was aglow with