CHEERING SIGNS IN BALTIMORE

Magical Progress in Moving the Debris—Ready to Do Business at the Old Stand.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 11.—To-day marked the most cheerful advance Baltimore has yet made in emerging from the dark cloud cast upon it by the great conflagration of last Sunday and Monday. An incident that inspired the whole community with tremendous confidence was the resumption of business by the banks, deposits being received and checks honored in the usual way. It would be difficult to estimate the volume of transactions in this respect, but according to the leading bankers it was gratifyingly large in view of existing conditions.

The knowledge that Baltimore's terminal facilities are intact and that the grain elevators were not involved in the fiery tornado also served to promote a popular conviction that the situation is not so dark as it has heretofore appeared. Indeed the optimistic feeling is manifestly growing that the calamity, though harrowing in every detail, will give the city an opportunity to re-adjust itself on new and modern plans and that a new city of imposing grandeur is to rise from the ruins of the old.

The progress which has been made today in the work of clearing the debris from the streets in the burned district seems almost magical. Baltimore street, which at sunrise was a confused mass of rubbish, is practically clean, and likewise South street, one of the great banking thoroughfares. Hanover street, near where the fire started, was made passable for wagons, and Pratt street, a long avenue of trade, is clear of encumbrances all the way through. The city engineers' department, the building inspector and the street cleaning department, all worked in conjunction. No attempt was made to do more than to clear the streets from curb to curb, the debris being piled high on the sidewalks and back of the building line.

Many dangerous walls which overhang the streets were pulled down. The most ambitious attempts at razing walls were on Liberty and Lombard streets. At each of these places there are hoisting engines with wire cables, which are fastened to a section of the copping walls and then wound upon the spools. The Hurst building in which the fire started was pulled down. All through the financial district preparations are being made to open safes and vaults.

The chamber of commerce has been exceedingly active to-day in sending broadcast to every center of trade in this country and Europe the assurance that Baltimore is even now in condition to transact all shipping, grain and foreign trade, and that all other lines of business will be restored to their normal channels within the next two or three months.

Many merchants and manufacturers whose places of business were swallowed up in the conflagration have signed contracts for rebuilding and there are on all sides the greatest signs of activity in this respect. All are simply waiting for the city to clear the streets of debris and give permission to the owners of the ground to take possession. The matter of accepting aid from other cities, has not yet been finally decided upon, according to Mayor Molane. The fire did not reach the residential section of the city and there is no actual destitution at this time.

The indications are that the citizens of Baltimore will be fully able to take care of all cases of want that might present themselves. The mayor feels grateful for the many proffers of aid from the citizens of this country and from foreign lands.

The leading savings banks in the city combined in a public announcement to-night that none of them have suffered any loss of securities by the fire, and that they are in as good condition financially as ever and that they will be open for business February 15th.

A composite estimate of the total loss from the fire by 25 expert representatives of leading insurance companies outside Baltimore places the figures at $85,000,000. Some of them think that the total loss will be reduced to $70,000,000, as much salvage is being dug out of the ruins which was thought to have been destroyed. The loss to the insurance companies is estimated by the same experts at 75 per cent. of the total loss.

UNITED STATES HANDS OFF.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—President Roosevelt to-day issued a proclamation declaring the neutrality of this government in the Russo-Japanese war. The document, after setting forth the existence of a state of war and that the laws of the United States, without interfering with the free expression of opinion and sympathy, or with the open manufacture or sale of arms or munitions of war, nevertheless imposes upon all persons who may be within their territory and jurisdiction the duty of an impartial neutrality during the existence of the contest, proclaims the provisions of the United States neutrality law, which law forbids the acceptance of a commission to serve either belligerent, or enlisting or hiring or retaining another person in the service of either; fitting out and arming, or commissioning vessels of war, increasing the force or armament of any armed vessel of either of the belligerents arriving in United States ports, and setting on foot any military expedition against either belligerent.

The proclamation further declares the use of United States waters to prepare for hostile operations a violation of neutrality; that after February 15 there shall be a lapse only of 24 hours before the arrival and departure of warships of the two belligerents from United States ports, and that no warships shall remain in any port over 24 hours, except for necessary repair.

Such ships shall not be permitted to take in any supplies except provisions and so much coal as may be sufficient to carry the vessel to the nearest home port.

The proclamation further declares the principles as to the rights of neutrals at sea contained in the treaty between the United States and Russia of 1864 as permanent and immutable, as follows:

"That free ships make free goods—that is to say, that the effects of goods belonging to subjects or citizens of a power or State at war are free from capture and confiscation when found on board of neutral vessels, with the exception of articles of contraband of war; that the property of neutrals on board an enemy's vessels is not subject to confiscation, unless the same be contraband of war."

The proclamation declares that no person within the United States shall take part in the war, and warns all citizens "that while the free and full expression of sympathies, in public and private, is not restricted by the laws of the United States military forces in aid of either belligerent cannot lawfully be organized within their jurisdiction; and that while all persons may lawfully and without restriction, by reason of the aforsaid state of war, manufacture and sell within the United States arms, munitions of war and other articles ordinarily known as 'contraband of war,' yet they cannot carry such articles upon the high seas for the use or service of either belligerent. Nor can they transport soldiers and officers of either, or attempt to break any blockade which may be lawfully established and maintained during the war, without incurring the risk of hostile capture, and the penalties denounced by the law of nations in that behalf."

BANQUET IN THE PHILIPPINES.

EDITOR TIMES.—The North Carolinians, temporary residents of Manila, gave a banquet at the Bay View Hotel, Manila, P. I., Wednesday evening, December 23, 1903, preparatory to organizing a North Carolina society in the Philippine Islands. During the evening every one imagined himself back in the Old North State, and again with "Tar Heels" good and true.

A most elaborate collation was served from a handsomely appointed table daintily decorated.

The banquet hall of Manila's finest hostelry was tastefully decorated with palms and other tropical foliage, and over the entrance hung a wreath of roses with the words "North Carolina" suspended below. In the grounds was stationed an orchestra which rendered sweet music during the entire evening.

Capt. L. B. Alexander was toastmaster, and in a few well chosen words narrated some of the acts of bravery displayed by North Carolina's soldiers in time of war, and honors obtained by her civilians in time of peace. He declared that a "Tar Heel" could be relied upon always for the upbuilding of patriotism and citizenship.

He then suggested a toast from A. J. Cassidy, P. E. C. Guder, James E. Harvell, J. B. Barham, W. H. O. Smith, H. J. Welsh, S. F. Drake, E. W. Wilson, D. S. Smith, Alfred Smith, Albert A. Matthews, R. E. Walters, William N. Ray, Alex. H. Jones and J. W. Chesborough. Very Respt.,

JAMES HARVELL, Toast. Sec.

THE WAR.

Charlotte Observer, 12th.

The war news this morning is in the main confined to details of the declarations of neutrality and to additional information regarding the operations of the first twenty-four hours of hostilities. A dispatch from Tokio, however, asserts that it is reported there that the remainder of the Russian fleet, consisting of four battleships and three cruisers, was put out of action Wednesday by Japanese vessels which caught them outside the harbor of Port Arthur, and another dispatch says the bombardment of Port Arthur continues. Whether or not these stories are accurate, it seems to be an accepted fact that the Russian fleet at Port Arthur has ceased to be regarded as a serious menace to Japan's operations in that vicinity. The assertion of the Japanese ambassador to London that the plans of his government were long ago matured appears to be borne out by the aggressive and speedy action of the attacking forces, for it is stated that they attempted to land troops in the vicinity of Port Arthur, under cover of their naval guns, but were unsuccessful. So far everything seems to be playing into the hands of the Japanese, and if their forces succeed in putting the Russian naval equipment in the far East entirely out of commission, it would seem that the war were indeed a great deal more than half won. But Russia has many troops in that vicinity and the conflicts on land will doubtless be bloody. It is, however, inconceivable that without an adequate naval force at hand Russia could maintain an army so far from home for any length of time. Her only dependence would be on the railroad, and that is hardly worth considering, as much as has been claimed for it as a military aid.

Children

Have "eyes bigger than their stomachs," according to an old saying. They overeat themselves, and are tempted by all sorts of injurious and indigestible edibles. As a consequence the foundation of serious stomach trouble is often laid in childhood.

For children with "weak" digestion or whose stomachs are diseased, Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery may be confidently recommended. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, so that the nourishment contained in food is perfectly assimilated and the puny child is built up by food into a condition of robust health.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains neither alcohol nor narcotics. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.

Mrs. Ella Gardner, of Waterbury, Middlesex Co., Va., writes: "My little daughter is enjoying splendid health. I am glad to find a doctor who could cure my child. Whenever she feels sickly I give her Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and she is soon all right. She took twelve bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' eight bottles of Peppermint, and one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and she is well. We thank God for your medicines."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Ginners' Report.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The report issued by the Census Bureau to-day of the quantity of cotton ginned from the growth of 1903 up to and including January 16, 1904, shows that 30,171 ginneries were operated and that these ginned 9,859,277 commercial bales. Counting round bales as half bales the number is 9,485,537, which compares with 8,904,563 and 10,588,250 bales to December 13, 1902, and to March 14, 1903, respectively.

The report for the entire country is as follows: 9,038,890 square bales; 747,480 round bales; 72,907 Sea Island crop bales; 9,859,277 total commercial bales ginned from the crop of 1902 to December 13, 1902, was 9,311,835 and to March 14, 1903, was 11,078,882.

The report includes each state separate. North Carolina is as follows: North Carolina, 2,733 ginneries, 541,125 square bales, 21,200 round bales, 541,146 commercial bales.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets Unequaled for Constipation.

Mr. A. R. Kane, a prominent druggist of Baxter Springs, Kansas, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are, in my judgment, the most superior preparation of anything in use today for constipation. They are sure in action and with no tendency to nauseate or grip. For sale by M. L. Marsh."

Ratifications of the new treaty between the United States and China within a few days after it was signed were recently exchanged by telegraph, so that Mukden and Antung in Manchuria might be opened to American trade before Russia's hold on the territory was made firmer. Now, whatever may be the outcome of the dispute between Japan and Russia over that part of China, the United States merchant may sell his goods there, as Russia has announced its intention to respect all treaty rights.

Another Case of Rheumatism Cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

The efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the relief of rheumatism is being demonstrated daily. Parker Triplett, of Grigsby, Va., says that Chamberlain's Pain Balm gave him permanent relief from rheumatism in the back when everything else failed, and he would not be without it. For sale by M. L. Marsh.

A charter was issued recently to the Rowan Distilling Company of Salisbury with $25,000 capital. The incorporators were W. L. White of Winston, W. A. Bailey of Advance, and J. H. Broadspur of Greensboro.

Wilson, Feb. 11.—As the result of a compromise agreed upon last night, the terms of which were announced in court to-day, the alleged members of the mob which killed Insurance Agent Jones here a year ago, in an effort to run him out of town, go to the State's prison for terms ranging from six to ten months. The case was tried some months ago, but the jury failed to agree upon a verdict, and the matter had again come up for adjustment, when counsel in the case agreed upon a compromise, the defendants to plead guilty of manslaughter. The killing of Jones was a sensational affair. After being warned to leave town because of his alleged association with a colored woman, a number of men went to Jones' room late at night and made an effort to drive him away. Jones opened fire on the intruders, severely wounding one of them, and himself received injuries from which he died some hours later.

The Death Penalty.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus there mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when burns, sores, ulcers and piles threaten. Only 25 cents, at all druggists.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of R. S. Templeton as postmaster at Mooresville. Mr. Templeton has been postmaster at Mooresville for several years but a reappointment was necessary when the postoffice reached the presidential grade recently.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., 515 Broadway, New York, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and Home of Swamp-Root dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.
