CLEVELAND SAYS IT'S A LIE
NEVER LUNCHEDED WITH TAYLOR

The Former President Writes Representative Webb That the Allegation That He Had Entertained a Kansas City Negro in "A Deliberate Fabrication Out of the Whole Cloth."

Cor. Charlotte Observer.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 3.—Representative Webb, of North Carolina, to-day diverted the minds of his colleagues from the commo-place District of Columbia appropriation bill by reading a letter from former President Cleveland, who in scathing terms denied having lunched with the negro Taylor at the White House. Said Mr. Webb:

"Mr. Chairman, a man in trouble often attempts to get himself out by trying to pull others in. This was evidently the intention of the gentleman from Kansas (Mr. Scott) when he stated on the floor of this House (on his own authority) that Mr. Cleveland had invited a negro by the name of Taylor to lunch with him, and that Taylor did so. The gentleman, in terms, makes this statement several times in the course of his argument. On Tuesday morning, as soon as The Congressional Record reached me, containing the gentleman's statement, I wrote to Mr. Cleveland to know if it was true that he had lunched with the negro Taylor, as stated by Mr. Scott. I enclosed a copy of what the gentleman from Kansas said; this morning I received the following reply:

PRINCETON, March 2, 1904.

"Hon. E. Y. Webb, House of Representatives.

"Dear Sir: "It is a matter of small concern to me that a Mr. Scott has seen fit to use my name in display of his evil propensities on the floor of the House of Representatives. In answer to your inquiry, however, I have to say of his statement that the colored man C. H. J. Taylor, took lunch with me at the White House, that it is a deliberate fabrication out of the whole cloth. As far as Mr. Taylor is concerned, I understand prior to his appointment as Register of Deeds at Washington that he had served as an assistant in the office of the city attorney at Kansas City. His nomination as register was confirmed by the Senate, and he served in that place with intelligence and efficiency. He has since died. Some people restrain themselves from abusing the dead. My inquiries concerning Mr. Taylor before his appointment, my observation of him during his incumbency and the little I have known of him since, satisfy me that his character is unjustly attacked in the diatribe of Mr. Scott. One charge is made against Mr. Taylor by Mr. Scott, which he doubly clinches with truth when he declares: 'He was a black negro'. I am led, however, to doubt his familiarity with his subject when he adds, 'as black as you ever saw.'

Yours very truly,
GROVER CLEVELAND.

"It is said that falsehood travels around the earth, while truth is pulling on its boots, but I want this truth, as stated in Mr. Cleveland's letter, as far as possible, to travel in the same channels as the falsehood has traveled, and it may be, in many minds, the fabrication will be overtaken and destroyed. Mr. Cleveland was a friend to the negro, but not a 'fool friend.' He never by word or act encouraged the dream of social equality in the breast of the black man. Again, he was the friend of the colored man, but he was also the friend of the Southern white man, and sympathized with us in our race problems and race burdens, and that, sir, is more than Mr. Roosevelt seems ever to have done."

Political Washington has manifested very decided interest in this Cleveland letter. Some professed to see in the letter some things of undoubted political import, as showing the former Democratic President to be in a receptive frame of mind respecting the presidential nomination. By way of fortifying this point, it was asserted this was the first time that Mr. Cleveland has shown a disposition to sit up and take notice when things were said about him, and that on this occasion he had not only come forward very promptly, but had shown some feeling.

Asked if he thought the inference that Mr. Cleveland had the presidential nomination in mind when he wrote the letter, Senator Simmons said that Mr. Cleveland might, if he had any political motive in writing the letter, have simply thought the letter would have a tendency to win back the regard of many people of the South, where his policies have encountered so much opposition.

This incident having brought the subject to the front, many have expressed the opinion to-day that Mr. Cleveland would be very glad to receive the nomination and John G. Carlisle told some of his friends that if Mr. Cleveland were nominated he would carry New York by 100,000.

Mr. Scott, who made the charge that Mr. Cleveland had lunched with the negro Taylor, withdrew his remark in tendering his apology to Mr. Cleveland.

A gaunt looking beaker boy was recently brought before a Squire in a coal mining town of the New River District of West Virginia on the charge of having killed one of the "sacred" turkey buzzards, which are the only scavengers of that country.

After severely reprimanding the boy the old Squire, who was a German, said: "I fine you ten dollars!"

"I hain't got that much," replied the boy.

"Den I fine you five dollars!"

"I hain't got five dollars."

"Vel, how much haf you got?"

"Three dollars and seventy-five cents."

"All right; den I fine you three dollars and seventy-five cents!"

Wanted Him to Get "Noledge."
The Danbury Reporter says that a Stokes county teacher received the following note from the mother of one of her pupils: "Dear Miss: You write me about whipping Sammy. I hereby give you permission to beat him up any time it is necessary to learn him lessons. He is just like his father—you have to learn him with a clubb. Pound noledge into him I want him to git it, and don't pay no attention to what his father sez, I'll handle him."

Diagnose to the State.
News and Observer.

That public execution at Whiteville last week was a reproach to the State. More than two thousand people, men, women, children and babes in arms—jostled each other in crowds to see the condemned man launched into eternity, and many had traveled in wagons all night to see the show! God pity us, if this is the test of our civilization! After all, are we any more civilized than our ancestor who roamed the forests in a naked condition?"

What is What?

Mr. Bryan declares that he does not care about the candidate, but that the Kansas City platform must be reaffirmed. If that is done no one else will care about the candidate, either.

Often leads to poverty. No real woman ever sold her heart for the luxuries of life. But many a woman who has gladly faced poverty for the man she loved, may well doubt her wisdom when pain becomes the mate of poverty. If she were rich, she thinks, she could find a way of cure.
