

ARRIVAL OF TRAINS AT CONCORD

The following change of schedule took effect after January 9, 1905.

Table with columns for Train No., Direction, and Arrival Time. Includes sections for Southbound and Northbound trains.

All the above trains stop regularly at Concord, except No. 37, southbound, and Nos. 38 and 39, northbound. No. 37 will stop here to let off passengers from Washington and beyond.

CONCORD, N. C., MAY 19, 1905.

LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

—There will be preaching at New Bethpage next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.
—The St. Cloud barber shop has been moved two doors above its old location in the St. Cloud building.
—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Odell and Mrs. W. C. Houston are attending the big missionary conference now in session at Asheville.
—The graded school teachers will be elected on Friday, the 26th, instead of to-day, as we published in last Tuesday's issue.
—Remember Saturday May 27, is the day the excursion goes from Concord to Greensboro. Fare is remarkably low, only $1.00 round trip.
—Greensboro Record: Mr. George W. Kestler is confined to his bed, the result of a fall two days ago. His injuries are quite painful, though not thought to be serious.
—Owing to the fact that Rev. J. E. Shenk will preach the baccalaureate sermon at Mt. Pleasant next Sunday, there will be no services in the St. James Lutheran church here.
—Cards have been received here announcing the coming marriage of Miss Frances Moseley Graber to Dr. Dunlop Thompson at Burlington, June 5. Miss Graber is a sister of Mr. H. A. Graber, of Concord.
—Children's Day will be observed at Bethel next Sunday at 10 o'clock a. m. All who have relatives or friends buried in the graveyard there are requested to meet at 9 o'clock on that morning to decorate the graves with flowers.
—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brown, who have been living in Concord since their marriage, will move to Rock Hill next week. Mrs. Brown during her short stay in Concord has made many friends, and will regret to see her leave.
—The Class concert of Mon Amoena Glee Club will be given tomorrow night, and the elocution contest Monday night. Those entering the elocution contest are: Misses Autley, Shuler, Middleman, Wertz, Bostian and Blume.
—Greensboro Record: Mr. J. S. Kuykendall, representing the Carolina Real Estate and Investment Company, has secured vacant lot on Arlington street between W. A. Fields, the purchase price $500.
—The class of 25 from Cabarrus County has notified their intention of attending the Confederate Reunion at Salisbury June 14. If 85 can be secured, a special car will be given them.
—Bishop J. W. Hood, D. D., of Fayetteville, will preach in Price Memorial Temple (colored) here on Sunday night, May 28. Bishop Hood has been Bishop for 35 years, and is a most eloquent preacher. The white people are especially invited to hear him on the above occasion.
—Our offer to give the Southern Agriculturist a year free to all who pay their subscriptions a year in advance will expire June 1, as the Agriculturist will accept no subscriptions at the reduced rate after that date. All who wish to take advantage of this offer should come in at once.
—Miss Agnes King entertained all her fellow members of the graduating class of the Concord Graded School at her home on Corbin street last Tuesday evening, together with Prof. Thompson and Lentz and her former teachers. The evening was most delightfully spent by every one.
—Little Pauline, the remaining twin baby of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Peck, died last Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock and was buried Thursday. The little boy died just a week ago yesterday. The death of both was caused by inflammation of the bowels. Mr. and Mrs. Peck have the sympathy of the community in their sore affliction.
—Miss Ada Cross, of Fillmore, Ill., in writing for THE TIMES, says: "While I have always lived in Illinois, I had the pleasure of visiting in Cabarrus for a short time, and I feel that I have many friends there. I take the greatest pleasure in hearing from them through THE TIMES. I never met with any friendlier people anywhere, and hope to meet all of them again."

William H. Yates, Sanson S. Scott, Karl R. Cline, Arton Means, Charles T. Barrier, George M. Lore, Ruth L. Gibson, Della W. Thompson, B. May Kenette, Lillie J. Mc Lester, Annes R. King, William L. Hawthorne, Anna D. Sherrill, Verne M. Blume, L. Archibald Fisher, Miriam E. Dumville, L. Pearl Barrier, William S. Morrison, Golda V. Beckwelder, Clud Corl, Sallie S. Alexander.

—It is said that the Grubb case at Salisbury will go to the jury Saturday.
—The State Episcopal Diocesan Convention is now in session at Charlotte.
—Miss Sallie Sappenfield's parrot died last night. She has had it several years, and it was an excellent "talker."
—There was an enjoyable dance at the dance hall last night. Several young ladies from Charlotte attended.
—Mrs. E. C. Register and Miss Gump, of Charlotte, are expected tomorrow night to spend Sunday at Judge Montgomery's.
—Miss Pearl Barrier will entertain the members of the graduating class of the graded school this evening from 8 to 11 o'clock.
—There will be no services at the Forest Hill Methodist church next Sunday morning, on account of the services at the graded school.
—Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Tucker entertained a few friends to dinner last Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Phillips, of Experiment, Va.
—The little son of Mr. J. E. Clontz got his arm broken at Mr. J. C. Williams last Saturday. He was playing with a string tied to a post, when it broke and threw him down, breaking his arm.
—Mr. Norman H. Johnson, of Raleigh, who is attorney for the N. C. Retail Merchants' Association, will make a public address in the New South Club rooms to-night. The business men generally are urged to come out and hear the address.
—The big special edition of the Charlotte Chronicle will be out tomorrow. It will be a great paper, and is gotten out for the benefit of the Piedmont Industrial School at Charlotte. It will be sold in Concord by Jno. C. Smith at 10 cents a copy. Be sure to buy one.

PERSONAL.
Mrs. S. J. Lowe is visiting in Charlotte.
Miss Rose Harris is visiting in Mooreville.
Mrs. B. C. Griffin is visiting relatives in Statesville.
Judge Montgomery spent Wednesday in Salisbury.
Mr. W. M. Smith spent Wednesday in Salisbury.
Mr. W. C. Maxwell, of Charlotte, was here Wednesday.
Miss Lella King has gone to Arkansas to visit for several weeks.
Mr. J. F. Newell, of Charlotte, was in Concord Tuesday.
Miss Nannie Cannon has returned from a visit to Baltimore.
Rev. W. A. Lutz, of Prosperity, S. C., was in Concord Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Luther Phillips returned Tuesday to their home in Experiment, Va.
Rev. J. E. Shenk and Mr. Jno. A. Cline are attending the Synod in Davidson county.
Miss Olivet Cline spent several days last week at Mr. Geo. E. Ritchie's in No. 6.
Mrs. Lillie Kearns has gone to Wadesboro to visit her aunt and cousin, both of whom are very low.
Mr. and Mrs. Luther Sloan returned to their home in Charlotte to-day, after spending several days in Concord visiting relatives.
Mr. Jno. W. Bostian, of Albemarle, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. G. T. Rowe, and his brother, Mr. J. J. Bostian.
Dr. J. O. Walker has gone to Ashboro, being called there by the illness of a nephew and of his father, Col. J. E. Walker.
Mr. Paul Parks, formerly of Durham, spent Tuesday here on his way to Gastonia, where he becomes superintendent of the Arlington mill.
The President made the statement Thursday that Raleigh would be the only North Carolina city he would be able to visit this fall when he takes his Southern trip.

STATE NEWS.

At a meeting of the trustees of Weaverville College Rev. L. B. Abernethy, pastor of the Biltmore Methodist church, was elected president. The institution will start the fall term free from debt.
The following sign will decorate a certain Charlotte window on the 20th: "John McNeill Alexander, one of the signers of the famous document known as the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, drank nothing but root beer."
Richard Lee, a negro driver of Spencer, was killed between Salisbury and Spencer Tuesday afternoon. The driver was frightened by an automobile. The driver was thrown out with his head between the spokes. His neck was broken.
President Roosevelt will visit Raleigh and Charlotte in October, and in all probability he will make brief stops at Greensboro and other North Carolina towns along the route of his tour, which will carry him to the states of Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Louisiana and Arkansas.
The board of trustees of Greensboro Female College have engaged Rev. W. M. Curtis, a well known member of the Western North Carolina Conference, as secretary and treasurer of the executive committee, and his duties will include, in addition to the raising of funds for building an endowment, a general financial supervision of the interests of the college.
Tuesday's Gastonia Gazette says: "The tin fever does not subside at King's Mountain. A few days ago a fresh vein was found on Mr. Sam Parker's place inside the town limits, showing an abundance of rich ore. One half-pound nugget assayed about 40 per cent metal. Mr. M. M. Carpenter, of that town, received a bronze medal at the St. Louis World's Fair for the best exhibit of tin ore."
Attention Veterans!
The time for our general reunion to be held at Louisville, Ky., will be held on June 14, 15 and 16. All who expect to go will hand in their names to the undersigned, or D. A. Caldwell, not later than the 1st day of June, so that necessary arrangements can be made for our welfare and comfort.
H. B. PARKS,
Com. Camp, No. 212, U. V. C.
The Southern is a party to a newly finished union depot in Atlanta, that cost $1,600,000. It has arranged to put $4,000,000 improvements in Chattanooga and a million dollar depot in New Orleans. Meanwhile, it is building a $60,000 depot in Charlotte.

American Beauty CORSETS "Dainty as the Rose" Over 100 new and up-to-date styles to select from. Every style "correct." Exclusive designs and latest fashionable models. Every pair has our liberal guarantee. Money refunded after four weeks trial if Corset is not satisfactory. Kalamazoo Corset Co. Sole Makers Kalamazoo, Mich. For sale and Recommended by Miss Nannie Alexander.

Graduated School Commencement.
The exercises of the graded school commencement will take place in the Central building next Sunday and Monday.
On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Rev. Geo. H. Cornelison will preach the annual sermon. Special music for the occasion will be rendered by a composite choir under the direction of Miss Lucy Lore.
On Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock the class exercises will take place. There are 21 members of the graduating class. We present on this page a list of the class with a list of names.
On Monday night the presentation of certificates to the graduating class will take place, and the annual address will be delivered by Prof. Plato Durham.

—The commencement exercises of Sunderland Hall school will take place Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The following young ladies compose the graduating class: Sadie Haley, Esther Harrison, Mary Penick Gourley, Mary McLean, Cleo Wright, Rena Ballard, Mary Barnes Green, Wilma McLendon and Eva Randall.
—Mr. E. C. Turner, who formerly operated the blacksmith shop at Corl's stable, has taken charge of Mr. D. L. Hathcock's shop. Mr. Hathcock gives up the work on account of sickness.
Penny Column.
Advertisements will be inserted in this column for one cent a word each insertion. This space has more than 10,000 readers every issue. Let your words be known.
For sale, two fresh milk cows. R. J. Cook, No. 70, East Depot street.
Lumber wanted at once—40,000 feet plank and framing. See M. M. Furr at Peeler's store, Kerr street. m 19-4t
Found—Purse containing money. J. V. Burleyson.
Two good fresh milk cows for sale. J. L. White, R. F. D. No. 7. May 19-3t.
Fine lot seed Irish Potatoes for late planting. Magnum Bonum, Rural New Yorker, Green Mountain $1.00 bushel, P. O. B. Concord. Few small ones 50c bushel. R. W. Bigger, Route 7, Concord, N. C. May 12-4t
L. Craven buys all grades of old iron. Smith Coal for sale. May 5-1m.

$2,000 Worth of New Sample Goods I have bought $2,000 worth of New Sample Goods at nearly half regular price. It is a very desirable line, mostly high-class goods. I have never seen such a line of Hosiery, for Children, Ladies, and Men. You can scarcely call for anything in the Notion Line that we cannot show you. I have decided to offer this lot of Goods at the low figures that I am selling the rest of my stock..... I'll put the knife in the entire stock of D. P. Dayvault & Bro., on Friday, May 12th, continuing the low prices for ten days. I mean to move the stock in ten days. D. B. COLTRANE'S STORE. P. S. Ask to see our Job Counters in both rooms. Will have great values each day on them. Keep your eye on these counters. Will fill them each day. GIBSON DRUG STORE

How About It? New Goods Coming In Daily. And we think just the things you want. . . . No Time to Tarry. When you can buy fine sheer Lawn for 10c that is worth 15c, it is a good investment. We want you to see our Silks. If you want a silk dress or are interested in the least, we want to talk to you. When you can get a real stylish silk for 50c per yard. Make beautiful Shirtwaist suits. When it comes to Mohairs you must see us. All shades and they are the popular dress stuff for the season. We can start you with the fine imported at $1.35 per yard, and come down to the domestic at 35c per yard. No use in making a long talk on Mohairs. They sing their own praises. Look out on the street and you will see them. The ladies know. When it comes to wash fabrics we have them. Fine sheer Organdies, Batiste, Mohair, Lustre, London, London Voiles, Pinor Crepes and all new things for summer dresses. Our Millinery Display you must not miss. We are increasing our sales on Millinery every day. The hats are trimmed while you wait, and are so little expense. When you want a hat that is stylish and right up-to-date don't miss seeing ours. Our milliner will be glad to show you. Take your time in going through. We have a line that it will be to your advantage to see. See them to day or first time in town. CANNON & FETZER COMPANY