MRS. JACKSON PRAISES HIM.

General's Widow Found President "Large-Hearted, Good, Great."

In an interview given out at Charlotte last week Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, widow of the Confederate General, pays tribute to President and Mrs. Roosevelt:

"In President Roosevelt's trip through the South he has probably made no more pleasing impression anywhere than in this city.

"Although his stop with us was all too brief (only 45 minutes), our people gave him a grand and enthusiastic welcome and ovation, and certainly he capitulated to meet him by his own exceedingly cordial and gracious manner.

"I had been honored in being placed at the head of a delegation of ladies to receive Mrs. Roosevelt, and when I was presented to his Excellency I was both surprised and overwhelmed at the warmth and excellence of his greeting. He expressed so much admiration for my husband and so much joy at meeting his wife, holding my hand so tenderly and yet reverently, that my heart was deeply touched; and when he spoke of his pleasure in appointing my grandson to a cadet ship at West Point and complimented him as a splendid young fellow, he struck the tenderest chords of a very grateful heart.

"I am sure the President is all right—a large-hearted, good and great man. His noble tributes to General Lee and Jackson proved that he is of the true metal.

"The President's wife made as favorable an impression upon the ladies as any 'first lady of the land' could, being cultured and gracious, womanly and responsive to all the eager attention showered upon her. It was lovely to see how the ladies and children crowded around her and how kindly and sweetly she received them.

"My faithful old cook was perhaps the most elated person in the parlor of my simple little home as she handed the 'first lady of the land' a glass of water, and she told me afterwards that 'we was the bontones folks in town, as nobody else had the President's wife in their house.'

"This brief and inspiring visit from the President and his charming wife, and especially was the town delighted when she affirmed his belief in the genuineness of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence. We Charlotte people now think with such distinguished and unquestioned indorsement that no one can ever doubt that Mecklenburg county did declare her independence against Great Britain on May 20, 1775.

"May his Excellency long live to be a blessing and a powerful, good friend to this grand country of ours."

LABOR IN THE SOUTH.

New York Times.

Apropos of the need of "help" in the South, to which we have frequently alluded, we note with interest a very sensible article in the Charleston News and Courier of the 18th on "Textile Expansion and Immigration."

Referring to the addition of 4,000,000 spindles in the cotton-spinning mills of Lancashire, "nearly half the whole number in the South," within a year The News and Courier points out that if the South were in a position to meet the growing demand for cotton textiles, as Lancashire is meeting it, "it would today be earning incomparably larger profits." "All natural conditions join to make the Southern American States the locality most favorable on the planet for spinning as well as for growing cotton," but they cannot increase their output primarily for the lack of labor. "Twenty per cent. of our spindles, so it is stated are idle now," and the "reservoir from which the supply of operatives comes has been exhausted." The tillers of the soil are kept on their farms by the high price of cotton, and the negroes are not fitted for the factory work. "The Appalachian Mountains contain some hundreds of thousands of people who could probably better their lives by moving to the mills, but to convince them of this would be a difficult and expensive undertaking.

Tud News and Courier says:

"The conclusion of the whole matter is that if more mills are to be built in the South, the people to run them must be brought here, not by twos and threes, and dozens and scores, but by the hundreds and thousands continuously. In short, only a large immigration of mill workers will make possible any considerable taking on of new growth by the Southern textile industry. The present population is not adequate to the present spindleage. No prospect is to be discerned that it will materially increase, except at a slow pace, unless accretions are obtained through concerted efforts on a large scale to induce newcomers."

This is not an appeal for "indiscriminate" or "undesirable" immigration. It is a plea for increased immigration of the available and desirable types, the available assets of the South. The Chattanooga conference surely should not be deaf to such an argument.

Wholesome Talk to Negroes.

The following are extracts from President Roosevelt's speech to the students of Tuskegee Institute:

Viewed from any angle, ignorance is the costliest crop that can be raised in any part of this Union.

If any community misunderstands between the races arises over any matter, infinitely the best way out is to have a prompt, frank and full conference and consultation between representatives of the wis, decent, cool-headed men among the whites and the wise, decent and cool-headed colored men.

The race cannot expect to get everything at once. It must learn to wait and bide its time, to prove itself worthy by showing its possession of perseverance, of thrift, of self-control. The destiny of the race is chiefly in its own hands.

The future of the South now depends upon the people of both races living up to the spirit and letter of the laws of their several States and working out the destinies of both races, not as races, but as law-abiding American citizens.

Taxing the Goat.

An old gentleman residing in New York was one day accosted by the tax collector and on being asked what live stock he owned he replied: "I have no stock except my goat." The collector then stated his business and the old man asked how much the goat was assessed. The collector said "$4." The old man said: "It is entirely too much. I can buy another goat with that." So it was put off and the old man went to the clerk's office to see about the matter. "Yes," said the clerk, "the city law says that 'everything bounding and butting on Chestnut street must be taxed $2 per front foot, and as your goat has two front feet he must be taxed at $4.'"

Frightful Suffering Relieved.

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of indigestion food, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes, "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at all druggists'. Guaranteed.

Really and truly it is a disgrace how quickly the average widow braces up and begins to get better looking.

A man does despite fighting he is not in on.

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

Salsbury Sun.

Evidence of the prosperity of the Southern Railway is gratifying. The last annual report shows that the income account of the road increased over a million and a quarter dollars, while it spent over two and a half million in double tracking, new depots and other permanent improvements. The gross earnings increased 6 1/2 per cent. over last year, the passenger revenues 10 per cent. and the freight 5 3/4.

As the Wilmington Messenger remarks: "A railway cannot prosper unless its contributing territory is prosperous. A railroad cannot annually increase its business unless the territory through which its lines run increases its exports products and its demand for goods produced beyond its borders. Unless the people who patronize a railroad have money to spend and products to ship the railroad cannot make money."

By this test the country through which the Southern runs is enjoying unprecedented prosperity. The Messenger further observes that along the line of this road there were built or put into operation during the last fiscal year 46 textile mills, 34 furniture factories, 26 iron industries, 77 stone quarries and coal mines, 13 cotton seed oil plants, 8 fertilizer factories and more than 500 smaller industrial plants, while 250 existing ones were enlarged. Also there was more investment of foreign capital and settling of immigrants along the line of this road than in the previous years.

Farmers in Oklahoma.

St. Louis Republic.

The millers of Oklahoma join the millers of Texas and Kansas in an appeal for more care to haul the grain that fills all the elevators and is piled along the tracks at every railroad station. The earth has produced bountifully for the transportation people are taxed beyond their means to take care of it.

The condition are not like those in Kansas some years ago, when corn was so plentiful and prices so low that it was alike impossible and unprofitable to haul it to market. Good prices are offered for all the wheat and corn that Oklahoma marketed Oklahoma will feel rich.

But, besides the wheat and corn, Oklahoma has lots of cotton that will get to market after a while, making Oklahoma still richer. This is one advantage that both Oklahoma and Sequoyah possess; they are about as good as the best Middle West State for grain and about as good as the best Southern States for cotton.

The two new States of the Southwest will come into the Union with pockets full of money.

A Daredevil Ride

often ends in a sad accident. To head accidental injuries use Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "A deep wound in my foot from an accident" writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c at all druggists'.

AMERICAN SLAVES.

Gibson Drug Store's Emancipation Act That Will Free Thousands.

Gibson Drug Store, Concord's leading druggists, are ready to restore freedom to many who have been in absolute slavery.

No one appreciates better than the victim of indigestion that he is an abject slave to his stomach, and Gibson Drug Store, in guaranteeing that Micona will strengthen the stomach so that you can eat what you want and when you want it, removes all fear of further bondage.

The stomach is to the body what the foundation is to the house, and when it is weakened or diseased, one organ after another affected until the heart, lungs, kidneys, and liver will all be involved. Indigestion causes nervousness, sleeplessness, head aches, back aches, distress after eating, furred tongue, and general weakness and debility.

Micona is not a mere temporary relief for indigestion, but a positive remedy for all stomach troubles, promoting good digestion, stimulating the secretions, and restoring health.

Ask Gibson Drug Store to show you the guarantee under which they sell Micona. A large box of the tablets sells for 50 cents, but costs nothing unless it cures.

The Hour Was Favorable.

Travellers from the United States, after a visit to England and the Continent, are usually willing to acknowledge that there is a shrill quality in the voices of American women. The New York Tribune tells of a party of tourists who were on their way to visit a famous waterfall, when the power of American vocal organs was well illustrated.

"We are nearly there now," the guide said at last, and with revived spirits the tourists pressed on.

"How much farther, guide?" asked a little later, a young man whose boots were tight.

"Only a few feet distance, sir," was the answer. "As soon as the bridge stop taking you will hear the roar."

Emporia Gazette.

Here is a good fellowship story that is going the rounds: Give a man a 10-cent cigar and he will beam all over and love you for six hours; offer him the ten-cent with which to buy it for himself and he will throw it in your face. Give a man a 50-cent show and he will call you a good fellow in all the languages at his disposal; offer him the money to buy a ticket, and he will call you a fool. Ask a man to buy a ticket to take "hot luck" and he will jump at the chance; give him $2 and tell him to get a good meal at a cafe with your compliments and he will knock you down. The dollar is mighty, but it isn't warm.

"Poor man," said the sympathetic woman. Tell me how I can alleviate your troubles?" "Well, ma'am," replied the unburdened baby, "I use might begin by telling me what alleviate means, seein' as I haven't got me dictionary wid me."

Governor Glenn seems to be of the opinion that most of the inmates of penal institutions in North Carolina are getting only what they deserve, and in this his judgment is excellent—Charlotte Observer.
