

Citizens Bank and Trust Company

Has grown into the strength that comes from faithful and efficient service to a progressive community.

A. JONES YORKE, President. CHAS. B. WAGONER, Cashier.

THE ONE SURE WAY

to have money is to save it. The one sure way to save it is by depositing it in a responsible bank.

The Concord National Bank Capital, $100,000.00 Surplus, $30,000.00

THE CABARRUS SAVINGS BANK

Capital, $100,000.00 Surplus and Profits, $40,000.00 A STRONG BANK A SAFE BANK A SUCCESSFUL BANK

YOUNG MAN

We have been watching you all the Spring and we know what you want—CLOTHES THAT ARE BUILT FOR YOU ALONE.

We have them fashioned for your Spring taste by the highest grade tailors in this country.

The suits are not UNCLE'S or FATHER'S style, but YOURS, and they express just that air of Smartness that appeals to you.

We have sold the best men of this county for five years. Ask them. Why not you?

BROWNS-CANNON CO., Shop of Quality Clothes.

DR. W. C. HOUSTON DENTIST.

DR. F. B. WATKINS, Office, Philter Building, adjoining Montgomery & Crowell.

DR. H. C. HERRING, DENTIST, in over the store of White-Morrison-Flowe Company

DR. J. S. LAFFERTY Office over Marsh's Drug Store.

GOWAN'S PREPARATION EXTERNAL ANTISEPTIC

1909. Wood's Garden Seed.

Always Dated. Full size Paper, two for 5c.

21 varieties Watermelon and 12 varieties Canteloupes, by the pound.

Onion Sets, white and yellow. GIBSON DRUG STORE

Assessment Now Due. The Cabarrus Mutual Fire Insurance Company assessments is now due and payable within sixty days from May 1st, 1909.

HIERONYMUS POP AND THE BABY.

BY SHERWOOD BONNER.

"Now, 'Onymus Pop," said the mother of that gentle boy, "you jes take keer o' dis chile while I'm gone ter de hangin'.

Hieronymus grunted gloomily. He thought it a burning shame that he should not go to the hanging; but never had his mother been willing that he should have the least pleasure in life.

"What's dat, 'Onymus?" she would say, pointing at random with her snuff brush to a letter.

"Is you sho'?"—in a hollow voice.

Woe be unto you Pop if he faltered and said it might be a Z. Mother Pop kept a rod ready, and used it as if she was born for nothing else.

The lad had been taught at spasmodic intervals by his sister Savannah—commonly called Sissy—who went to school, put on airs, and was always clean.

"A pretty thing," she would mutter to her self, "if I must be a learnin' thing from my own chile, dat wuz de most colicky baby I ever had, an' cos' me unheerd of miseries in de time of her teethin'."

It seemed to Hieronymus that the climax of his impositions had come, when he was forced to stay at home and mind the baby, while his mother and the rest of them trotted off gay as larks, to see a man hanged.

It was a hot afternoon, and the unwilling nurse suffered. The baby wouldn't go to sleep. He put it on the bed—a feather-bed—and why it didn't drop off to sleep, as a proper baby should, was more than he could tell.

Up jumped Hi, and the two boys were off like a flash. Not one thought to Tiddlekins in the well bucket.

In due time the Pop family got home, and Mother Pop, fanning herself, was indulging in the moral reflections suitable to the occasion, when she checked herself, exclaiming, "But, land o' Jerusalem! whar is 'Onymus an' de baby."

"I witnessed Hieronymus," said the elegant Savannah, "as I wandered from school. He was with a mulatto boy, who cheered, without a sign of disapprobation, two canine beasts, that tore each other in deadly feud."

"Such are my meaning," said Sissy, with dignity. "Den whar's de baby?" For answer, a long, low wail smote upon their ears, as Savannah would have said.

"Fan me!" cried Mother Pop. "Dat's Tiddlekin's voice."

"Never min' about fannin' mammy," cried Weekly, Savannah's twin, a youth of fifteen who could read, and was much addicted to gory tales of thunder and blood; "let's fin' de baby. P'r'aps he's been murdered by dat ruffian Hi, an' dat's his ghos' we hears a-callin'."

A search was instituted—under the bed, in the bed, in the wash-tub and the soup kettle; behind the wood pile, and in the pea vines; up the chimney, and in the ash-hopper; but all in vain.

Concord Citizens Testify for the Public Benefit.

A truthful statement of a Concord citizen, given in his own words, should convince the most skeptical about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. D. M. Thornburg, 45 Crowell St., Concord, N. C., says: Several years ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills and from my experience feel justified in advising others to use them.

It happened that a piece of fresh pork hung in the well, and Lord Percy—so was the dog called—was hungry. So he hurried with vivacity toward the fresh pork.

"De well!" shrieked Mother Pop, tumbling down all in a heap, and looking somehow like Turner's slave-ship, "as a stumpy leg protruded from the wreck of red flannel and ruffled petticoats."

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

stiffly braced knees of Hieronymus, and puckered up its face so tightly that it looked as if it had come fresh from a wrinkle mould.

"Dis here chile look's if it's got de measles," muttered Hi, gazing on the squirming atom with calm eyes of despair.

Hieronymus had in him the materials of which philosophers are made. He said to himself, "Tain't nothin' but heat dat's de matter wid dis baby; so uf cose he ought to be cooled off."

It happened that the chief treasure of the Pope estate was a deep old well that in the hottest days yielded water as refreshing as iced Champagne.

"If I was ter hang Tiddlekins down de well," he reflected, "a floed befo' he's as cool as Christmas."

With this quick-witted youth to think was to act. Before many minutes he had stuffed poor little Tiddlekins into the well bucket, though it he tied the baby securely in with his own suspenders.

"Hello, Hi! I say, Hi! Pop! whar is yer?" "Here I is!" cried Hi, starting up. "What you want?"

"Towar's dog," he said in great excitement, "and daddy's bull-pup is gwine ter have a fight dis evenin'! Come on quick, if you want to see de fun."

Mr. Pop said nothing. But he reached down from the mantel-shelf a long thin something, shaped like a snake, and quivered it in the air.

"The micraent is got back," remarked Savannah. "Hieronymus," called Mrs. Pop, "you may suitenly thank yo' heaven, 'cos yo' airn't a murderer dis summer day."

"A-waitin' ter be hung nex' wild-grape-time," finished Weekly, pleasantly. "Mr. Pop said nothing. But he reached down from the mantel-shelf a long thin something, shaped like a snake, and quivered it in the air."

Another interesting fact is that knitting machinery has been added to the equipment. The knitting in North Carolina, and the addition of this machinery to the textile school is very timely and makes this school one of the best equipped in America.

Last year and again this year the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers awarded the Students' Medal to this school, which is the only Southern school to receive it.

Senator Dolliver, it will be remembered, at a late hour broke his engagement with Meredith College, where he had pledged himself to deliver the commencement address.

Has anybody seen a man lately who recovers split bottom chairs? It used to be a considerable industry, but seems to be extinct, probably because the demand has almost ceased.

Protection by closing the door to the foreign article enforces the use of the domestic articles. If this article is a desirable natural resource protection aid in its destruction.

Causes of Hard Times. Has anybody seen a man lately who recovers split bottom chairs? It used to be a considerable industry, but seems to be extinct, probably because the demand has almost ceased.

Another interesting fact is that knitting machinery has been added to the equipment. The knitting in North Carolina, and the addition of this machinery to the textile school is very timely and makes this school one of the best equipped in America.

Last year and again this year the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers awarded the Students' Medal to this school, which is the only Southern school to receive it.

Senator Dolliver, it will be remembered, at a late hour broke his engagement with Meredith College, where he had pledged himself to deliver the commencement address.

Has anybody seen a man lately who recovers split bottom chairs? It used to be a considerable industry, but seems to be extinct, probably because the demand has almost ceased.

Another interesting fact is that knitting machinery has been added to the equipment. The knitting in North Carolina, and the addition of this machinery to the textile school is very timely and makes this school one of the best equipped in America.

Last year and again this year the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers awarded the Students' Medal to this school, which is the only Southern school to receive it.

Senator Dolliver, it will be remembered, at a late hour broke his engagement with Meredith College, where he had pledged himself to deliver the commencement address.

Has anybody seen a man lately who recovers split bottom chairs? It used to be a considerable industry, but seems to be extinct, probably because the demand has almost ceased.

Another interesting fact is that knitting machinery has been added to the equipment. The knitting in North Carolina, and the addition of this machinery to the textile school is very timely and makes this school one of the best equipped in America.

"Dar'll be anudder hangin' in town befo' long, and Hi won't miss dat hangin'."

Soon appeared a little woolly head, then half a black body, the rest of him being securely wedged in the well bucket.

"Dis here chile look's if it's got de measles," muttered Hi, gazing on the squirming atom with calm eyes of despair.

Hieronymus had in him the materials of which philosophers are made. He said to himself, "Tain't nothin' but heat dat's de matter wid dis baby; so uf cose he ought to be cooled off."

It happened that the chief treasure of the Pope estate was a deep old well that in the hottest days yielded water as refreshing as iced Champagne.

"If I was ter hang Tiddlekins down de well," he reflected, "a floed befo' he's as cool as Christmas."

With this quick-witted youth to think was to act. Before many minutes he had stuffed poor little Tiddlekins into the well bucket, though it he tied the baby securely in with his own suspenders.

"Hello, Hi! I say, Hi! Pop! whar is yer?" "Here I is!" cried Hi, starting up. "What you want?"

"Towar's dog," he said in great excitement, "and daddy's bull-pup is gwine ter have a fight dis evenin'! Come on quick, if you want to see de fun."

Mr. Pop said nothing. But he reached down from the mantel-shelf a long thin something, shaped like a snake, and quivered it in the air.

"The micraent is got back," remarked Savannah. "Hieronymus," called Mrs. Pop, "you may suitenly thank yo' heaven, 'cos yo' airn't a murderer dis summer day."

"A-waitin' ter be hung nex' wild-grape-time," finished Weekly, pleasantly. "Mr. Pop said nothing. But he reached down from the mantel-shelf a long thin something, shaped like a snake, and quivered it in the air."

Another interesting fact is that knitting machinery has been added to the equipment. The knitting in North Carolina, and the addition of this machinery to the textile school is very timely and makes this school one of the best equipped in America.

Last year and again this year the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers awarded the Students' Medal to this school, which is the only Southern school to receive it.

Senator Dolliver, it will be remembered, at a late hour broke his engagement with Meredith College, where he had pledged himself to deliver the commencement address.

Has anybody seen a man lately who recovers split bottom chairs? It used to be a considerable industry, but seems to be extinct, probably because the demand has almost ceased.

Another interesting fact is that knitting machinery has been added to the equipment. The knitting in North Carolina, and the addition of this machinery to the textile school is very timely and makes this school one of the best equipped in America.

Last year and again this year the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers awarded the Students' Medal to this school, which is the only Southern school to receive it.

Senator Dolliver, it will be remembered, at a late hour broke his engagement with Meredith College, where he had pledged himself to deliver the commencement address.

Has anybody seen a man lately who recovers split bottom chairs? It used to be a considerable industry, but seems to be extinct, probably because the demand has almost ceased.

Another interesting fact is that knitting machinery has been added to the equipment. The knitting in North Carolina, and the addition of this machinery to the textile school is very timely and makes this school one of the best equipped in America.

Last year and again this year the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers awarded the Students' Medal to this school, which is the only Southern school to receive it.

Senator Dolliver, it will be remembered, at a late hour broke his engagement with Meredith College, where he had pledged himself to deliver the commencement address.

Has anybody seen a man lately who recovers split bottom chairs? It used to be a considerable industry, but seems to be extinct, probably because the demand has almost ceased.

Another interesting fact is that knitting machinery has been added to the equipment. The knitting in North Carolina, and the addition of this machinery to the textile school is very timely and makes this school one of the best equipped in America.

Last year and again this year the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers awarded the Students' Medal to this school, which is the only Southern school to receive it.

VALUE OF GOOD ROADS. Amongst material improvements which make for the betterment of the country the improvements of its public highways takes high place in the public mind.

Only twenty days until Chattanooga mounts the water wagon, and that is going to inflict a mighty strain on the wagon, too.

"Iowa has an editor ninety-four years of age," says the Atlanta Georgian. When that man promulgated the "We are here to stay," he evidently meant it.

Please note that the American Waterworks Association holds convention in Milwaukee. To be sure, the delegates to a waterworks convention are no more exempt from thirst than other people.

Senator Stone announces his firm conviction that party platforms are binding. The senator may be sincere, but if he is, he is evidently very old-fashioned.

Jersey Justice has a rival in Ohio, where a man is to have a leg amputated in order to save his life, so he may be electrocuted for killing his sweetheart.

It is doubtful whether a man of Mr. Roosevelt's perspicacity ever deluded himself with the idea that he could retire to a private life even in the African jungles.

Western railroads bearing rumors that the interstate commerce commission is about to regulate dog railroad traffic, are considering the advisability of making a charge for canine transportation, in the hope of discouraging this class of travel.

The transportation of dogs and corpses are the two questions never settled by the railroads, but which are the source of more trouble and vexation than any others.

"Do you think Miss Kidder was having fun with me?" asked Chawley. "Well, old chap, give me the details," was Arthur's response.

"You see, I had my bull terrier with me. And I said to her, 'That dog knows as much as I do.' And she said, 'Don't you think $4.50 was too much to pay for him?'"

A small boy was asked to take dinner with a distinguished professor, and the professor gave him repeated directions. Upon his return, the first question was, "Harold, did you get along alright at the table?"

"Oh, yes, mother; very enough." "You're sure you didn't do anything that was not perfectly polite and gentlemanly?"

"Why, no, nothing to speak of." "Then something did happen." "What was it?"

"But I fixed it all right, mother." "Tell me at once." "Why I got along pretty well until the meat came; but while I was trying to cut mine, it slipped from my plate onto the floor. But I made it all right."

"What did you do?" "Oh, I just said, 'That's always the way with tough meat.'"

Davis White Sulphur Springs. An Ideal Place to Spend the Summer. The water unsurpassed. Accommodations for 150 to 200 guests. Swimming, hot and cold baths, electric lights; neat, comfortable, and well ventilated rooms. Splendid table fare.

May, June and Sept., $6 to $7 per week; July and August, $8 to $9 per week. Special rates to families. Open May 12 to October 1, 1909.

DAVIS BROTHERS, Owners & Proprietors. Hiddenite, N. C.

Alaska-Yukon Pacific Exposition, Seattle, Wash., June 1st to Oct. 1st, 1909.

For the above occasion Southern Railway announces extremely low rates for the grand tour. Rates of $4.25 will apply for Concord, N. C. Same round trip rate will apply from nearly all points in North Carolina.

Tickets on sale daily until Sept. 25th, with final limit October 31st. Passengers allowed to go via one direct route, and return via another direct route, without additional cost. It will cost $15.00 additional to go or return through Charlotte, one way.

For further information call on your depot agent, or write to: E. L. YERNON, D. P. A., Charlotte, N. C.

Fine Tract Land for Sale. 140 acres 1 1/2 miles east of Kannapolis, $4,410. Dwell, barn and outbuildings, good meadow. 15 acres bottom, 75 acres timber that is estimated to cut 200,000 feet lumber, 3,000 cords of wood and 1,500 cross ties.

Also 5-room cottage and lot with stable on Allison street in Wadsworth Addition.

JNO. K. PATTERSON & CO.

PARAGRAPHS. What the country really ought to do is to start at the bottom of the trouble and revise some of the members of Congress.

Only twenty days until Chattanooga mounts the water wagon, and that is going to inflict a mighty strain on the wagon, too.

"Iowa has an editor ninety-four years of age," says the Atlanta Georgian. When that man promulgated the "We are here to stay," he evidently meant it.

Please note that the American Waterworks Association holds convention in Milwaukee. To be sure, the delegates to a waterworks convention are no more exempt from thirst than other people.

Senator Stone announces his firm conviction that party platforms are binding. The senator may be sincere, but if he is, he is evidently very old-fashioned.

Jersey Justice has a rival in Ohio, where a man is to have a leg amputated in order to save his life, so he may be electrocuted for killing his sweetheart.

It is doubtful whether a man of Mr. Roosevelt's perspicacity ever deluded himself with the idea that he could retire to a private life even in the African jungles.

Western railroads bearing rumors that the interstate commerce commission is about to regulate dog railroad traffic, are considering the advisability of making a charge for canine transportation, in the hope of discouraging this class of travel.

The transportation of dogs and corpses are the two questions never settled by the railroads, but which are the source of more trouble and vexation than any others.

"Do you think Miss Kidder was having fun with me?" asked Chawley. "Well, old chap, give me the details," was Arthur's response.

"You see, I had my bull terrier with me. And I said to her, 'That dog knows as much as I do.' And she said, 'Don't you think $4.50 was too much to pay for him?'"

A small boy was asked to take dinner with a distinguished professor, and the professor gave him repeated directions. Upon his return, the first question was, "Harold, did you get along alright at the table?"

"Oh, yes, mother; very enough." "You're sure you didn't do anything that was not perfectly polite and gentlemanly?"

"Why, no, nothing to speak of." "Then something did happen." "What was it?"

"But I fixed it all right, mother." "Tell me at once." "Why I got along pretty well until the meat came; but while I was trying to cut mine, it slipped from my plate onto the floor. But I made it all right."

"What did you do?" "Oh, I just said, 'That's always the way with tough meat.'"

Davis White Sulphur Springs. An Ideal Place to Spend the Summer. The water unsurpassed. Accommodations for 150 to 200 guests. Swimming, hot and cold baths, electric lights; neat, comfortable, and well ventilated rooms. Splendid table fare.

May, June and Sept., $6 to $7 per week; July and August, $8 to $9 per week. Special rates to families. Open May 12 to October 1, 1909.

DAVIS BROTHERS, Owners & Proprietors. Hiddenite, N. C.

Alaska-Yukon Pacific Exposition, Seattle, Wash., June 1st to Oct. 1st, 1909.

For the above occasion Southern Railway announces extremely low rates for the grand tour. Rates of $4.25 will apply for Concord, N. C. Same round trip rate will apply from nearly all points in North Carolina.

Tickets on sale daily until Sept. 25th, with final limit October 31st. Passengers allowed to go via one direct route, and return via another direct route, without additional cost. It will cost $15.00 additional to go or return through Charlotte, one way.

For further information call on your depot agent, or write to: E. L. YERNON, D. P. A., Charlotte, N. C.

Fine Tract Land for Sale. 140 acres 1 1/2 miles east of Kannapolis, $4,410. Dwell, barn and outbuildings, good meadow. 15 acres bottom, 75 acres timber that is estimated to cut 200,000 feet lumber, 3,000 cords of wood and 1,500 cross ties.

Also 5-room cottage and lot with stable on Allison street in Wadsworth Addition.

JNO. K. PATTERSON & CO.

DEES OF FEAR OF BABES. Brooklyn Policeman a Victim of Sheer Nervous Exhaustion.

John H. O'Donnell, a Brooklyn policeman, died recently a victim of the fear of hydrophobia.

O'Donnell was bitten September 21st last by a big wolfhound kept by a watchman in a vacant lot behind Fulton street. The dog acted strangely, and when the policeman was called leaped at him and bit him on both hands.

O'Donnell's wounds were cauterized and he felt no ill effects until word came from the hospital that the wolfhound was suffering from a virulent case of rabies.

O'Donnell was bitten because very nervous. He had fainting spells and was sent away on a leave of absence for 64 days. He came back to the station December 27, made a joke of his fright and said that he was satisfied that he had not been affected.

A few days later he read of a Flat-bush man who had been bitten by a mad dog and had not felt any effects from it for several months and had then died of acute hydrophobia.

O'Donnell again broke down, and went away for 30 days. He returned March 23 and said he guessed he had been over excited. May 15 he had another nervous relapse after reading a newspaper story, and imagined that he had severe pains in his hands. The pains, which his physicians say were all in his imagination, but were none the less real to him, increased to such an extent that he went away to a sanatorium.

He died there of sheer nervous exhaustion. There was no trace of rabies in his system.

What Ails You? Do you feel weak, tired, dependent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid reflux in throat after eating, stomach distress, or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from (1) Stomach and Liver with indigestion, (2) Stomach and Liver with indigestion, (3) Stomach and Liver with indigestion.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine, it is a fluid extract, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrap and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandarin root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, state the foregoing facts: "The above is a full and complete list of the ingredients of the 'Golden Medical Discovery'."—Dr. J. C. Wood, M. D., of New York; Dr. J. H. Wood, M. D., of New York; Dr. J. H. Wood, M. D., of New York; Dr. J. H. Wood, M. D., of New York.

Why I got along pretty well until the meat came; but while I was trying to cut mine, it slipped from my plate onto the floor. But I made it all right.

What did you do? Oh, I just said, 'That's always the way with tough meat.'

Davis White Sulphur Springs. An Ideal Place to Spend the Summer. The water unsurpassed. Accommodations for 150 to 200 guests. Swimming, hot and cold baths, electric lights; neat, comfortable, and well ventilated rooms. Splendid table fare.

May, June and Sept., $6 to $7 per week; July and August, $8 to $9 per week. Special rates to families. Open May 12 to October 1, 1909.

DAVIS BROTHERS, Owners & Proprietors. Hiddenite, N. C.

Alaska-Yukon Pacific Exposition, Seattle, Wash., June 1st to Oct. 1st, 1909.

For the above occasion Southern Railway announces extremely low rates for the grand tour. Rates of $4.25 will apply for Concord, N. C. Same round trip rate will apply from nearly all points in North Carolina.

Tickets on sale daily until Sept. 25th, with final limit October 31st. Passengers allowed to go via one direct route, and return via another direct route, without additional cost. It will cost $15.00 additional to go or return through Charlotte, one way.

For further information call on your depot agent, or write to: E. L. YERNON, D. P. A., Charlotte, N. C.

Fine Tract Land for Sale. 140 acres 1 1/2 miles east of Kannapolis, $4,410. Dwell, barn and outbuildings, good meadow. 15 acres bottom, 75 acres timber that is estimated to cut 200,000 feet lumber, 3,000 cords of wood and 1,500 cross ties.