BUTLER "COMES BACK."

The threatening cloud which presaged a terrible storm in Greensboro yesterday "went around," and afterwards the sun came out beautiful and bright. After a campaign of vilification and abuse, erimination and re-erimination, the defeated ones swallowed their medicine and engaged in the love feast. No Democratic paper and no Democratic speaker can say any worse things about Mr. Butler than members of his own party have said in the memorable campaign just closed. If Duncan, Adams and others are to be believed, Butler, who named Morehead and who is the virtual leader of the party, is a traitor, a schemer, a trickster and many other kinds of bad man, one who is indifferent to the interests of his party and actuated only by selfish aims.

With Butler in the lead, many Republicans who believe in good government administered by good men will keep hands off in this campaign or support the Democratic ticket. What else can they do if they accept as true the estimate of Butler given by many of the party leaders?

Representative Charles E. Littlefield, of Maine, now admits that the plank in the last Republican National platform regarding injunctions was put there to placate the labor leaders and with no intention of its being carried out. He carries his frankness to an even greater extent and says the plank is "perfectly non-committal" and means nothing, being simply a dishonest trick to lure the unwary workman and delude him with the belief that the Republican party was his friend. If the truth were told, it would no doubt reveal that the tariff revision plank was another dishonest plank, never intended of fulfillment, and that the whole platform was a tissue of falsehood and false pretense.

Ladies in various towns and cities of the State have formed what is known as Civic Leagues, which have as their object the improvement of civic conditions, and the aiding of every movement for the betterment of the communities. Wherever they have been organized there have invariably followed improved conditions. The women have not waited for the men to lead, but in many cases have gone right ahead to doing things, and when the good ladies start out to do things there is always something done. Concord has no organization of this kind. No city in the State needs one more, and no city has better material to compose a club. A word to the ladies should be sufficient.

The alarm is sounded through the R. F. D. News that there is a possibility of the discontinuance of the rural free delivery service. This paper states that preliminary plans are now being made to that end, the intention being to provide in its stead a daily delivery to the farmers by what is known as the star route plan. No plan can be so satisfactory to the people of the country as the present one and a vigorous protest should come from the rural districts against any change. No movement in many years has brought so much benefit to the people in the country as the rural free delivery system, and it should be improved and extended instead of being abolished.

The Democrats in days ago said some pretty hard things about Mr. Marion Butler, but nothing that was ever said was more vitriolic than some articles that have been published lately in the Greensboro News about him and his organ, the Caucasian. If Butler wins and gets his man Morehead in the News will have a nice little dish of crow to eat.

One of the things which caused them to fall over each other in getting on the Morehead band wagon was the statement passed around late in private among the faithful, that Morehead was President Taft's candidate, notwithstanding the fact that Duncan is national committeeman and the supposed dispenser of pie in the State. There is nothing which has as much drawing power as a little pie, unless it be more pie.

The committee named by Chairman Eller to settle the muddle in the sixth congressional district is composed of gentlemen in whom all the people of the State have confidence both as to their ability and their absolute fairness. The man whom they decide against will have no case before the voters, and if he don't withdraw should be snowed under in November.

Patterson's ticket for judiciary nominations was beaten by nearly 50,000 majority in the primaries last week, and now the statement comes that he may decide to retire from the race for Governor. If he should announce his retirement from politics and leave the State, it would be the best thing that could occur for the future good of that commonwealth.

MAYOR GAYNOR SHOT TUESDAY.

Discharged Dock Employee Shoots Four Bullets at Him.

New York, August 9.—John J. Gallagher, a discharged dock employe here, this morning boarded the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, on which Mayor Gaynor was to sail for his vacation, and shot four times at the mayor. One bullet entered back of the left ear and lodged in the mastoid bone. Mr. Gaynor is conscious and it is thought he will recover.

Mayor Gaynor was treated on the ship at Hoboken, and afterwards taken to St. Mary's hospital, where it was stated that he will live unless complications set in.

Gallagher stated that the Mayor was going off to spend money that belonged to him. He was promptly arrested by a policeman and Big Bill Edwards, of the Street Cleaning Department.

At 2:45 o'clock this afternoon the following bulletin was issued at the hospital:

"Mayor shot in right side of neck. Position of bullet is not yet definitely located, but will be determined later by X-rays. Mayor conscious and resting quietly and seems to be in no immediate danger."

Eleven physicians and the hospital staff are in close attendance on Mr. Gallagher. Gallagher was taken to the hospital about noon for identification by the Mayor but physicians refused to allow him to be taken into sick room, declaring it might excite the sick man. Identification is unnecessary as there were a number of witnesses to the shooting. Gallagher in his cell continually harps on the fancy that Mayor Gaynor has taken his job away from him.

MAYOR GAYNOR IS RESTING VERY WELL.

Unless Infection Manifests Itself There Will be no Operation to Remove Bullet.

New York, August 10.—Unless infection shows itself, there will be no operation on Mayor Gaynor, who was shot yesterday, to remove the split bullet. This is the decision made by the surgeons today following second inspection of the Mayor's throat. It is stated that it is remarkable that the bullet landed where it did without severing important blood vessels. A call was sent out today for all doctors in the case to hold consultation. Mr. Gaynor joked feebly with his wife and nurse this morning. Occasionally he had difficulty in breathing. His temperature is about normal. He has not mentioned name of his assailant. He takes it for granted that he is an irresponsible crank. Mr. Gaynor will be taken to the Adirondacks as soon as his condition will permit. President Taft today made inquiry over long distance telephone as to Mr. Gaynor's condition, and expressed himself pleased that he was doing so well. Gallagher broke down last night following conference with the attorney and cried. The lawyer told him that the public is much aroused and he is sure to get a long term imprisonment even if the Mayor recovered. Gallagher spent a wakeful night pacing up and down his cell. When asked what he wanted for breakfast said didn't want anything. Finally he ate a roll and drank a little coffee. After breakfast he complained of the injuries received in the tussle with "Big Bill" Edwards and the physician treated him.

"You are charged with larceny. Are you guilty or not guilty?" "Not guilty, Judge. I thought I was, but I've been talking to my lawyer, and he's convinced me that I ain't."

Johnny, looking at the specks on the potatoes, asked: "Mamma, are those specks for the potatoes' eyes?"

STATE NEWS.

The Durham Sun announces the purchase of a controlling interest in that paper by Mr. F. A. Moore, formerly general manager of The Winston-Salem Journal.

The Republican congressional convention of the Fifth district will meet this evening in the Grand opera house in Greensboro, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress.

It is announced that Mr. George F. Cochran, who has been for a long time identified with The Lexington Dispatch in news and editorial work, is to take a similar position on The Catawba County News, on September.

Loeke Craig and Justice J. S. Manning, two of the state's most prominent citizens, continue very ill. Reports state that both have rheumatism and that both are very sick men. They have thousands of admirers throughout the state who regret their severe illness.

The State Fair management is exasperated to discover that the county and city authorities have issued license to Ringling Bros.' circus to show in Raleigh Thursday of fair week. Secretary Pogue declares this will reduce fair receipts several thousand dollars, the circus last year having cut the fair receipts $5,000.

State Treasurer Lacy says there is still outstanding about $75,000 of the old $3,500,000 bond issue, payable July 1, with indications that the bonds remaining will come straggling in rather slowly for the next several months. He says a considerable part of the bonds left unrepresented for redemption is just awaiting a satisfactory opportunity for reinvestment.

Out Nephew to Death.

Monroe Journal. Last Saturday afternoon, Mr. Wilson Curran, who lives on the College road, three miles this side of Olive Branch, stabbed to death Clifford Thomas, the twenty-one year old son of his neighbor and brother-in-law, Mr. Henry Thomas. That is about all that is known with certainty. Friends of both sides have their version of the affair and these vary very widely. The beginning of bad blood dates back several weeks. The Thomases claim Curran had made improper proposals to a daughter of Mr. Henry Thomas, while the other side say he merely let her ride on a cultivator which he was using and which his own and other children had been riding. The tragedy occurred in the road while the parties were returning from Anson county, where they had been to attend the funeral of Mr. Hosea Ross, who died on Friday. The Curran side says that he had been hit several times and knocked down by Thomas' knuckles, and stabbed him to prevent being beaten to death.

County Commissioners in Session at Charlotte.

Charlotte, N. C., August 10.—The second annual convention of the State Association of County Commissioners convened here at noon today, being called to order by President C. E. Foy, of Newbern. A hearty welcome address was made by Mayor Pro Tem Stewart, and reports were read at opening session. Important discussions on county road work, led by Chairman Long, of Mecklenburg, and on the fee system, led by J. A. Davidson, of Guilford, are engaging the earnest attention of the commissioners this afternoon.

Messrs. Evan Heathcock, Sam Cook and Misses Lilly Long and Kate Linker, have returned home, after spending a few days at Whitney with the latter's brother, Mr. F. H. Linker.

GENERAL NEWS.

President Taft has authorized the use of troops to fight forest fires in Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California.

It is said that there are now 150,000 automobiles in New York state with a few hundred more being added to the list every week. The automobile industry in this country is indeed reaching gigantic proportions.

By the overwhelming vote of 121 to 28, the house of representatives of Georgia Tuesday afternoon passed the as solicitors general are concerned, and placing these offices of the State on an annual salary of $3,000 each.

Ordinary expenses of the United States government last month were nine and one half million dollars greater than the ordinary receipts. Including expenditures for the Panama Canal and on account of the public debt, there was a deficit of fourteen and one half millions, compared with eighteen and one half millions in July 1909.

Announcement was made by Acting Secretary Hillis, of the Treasury Department, Tuesday of the appointment of Henry S. Jackson as Collector of Internal Revenue for the North Georgia district in place of Henry A. Rucker, colored, who has resigned. Rucker, it is believed, will be cared for by appointment to some other place under the Taft administration.

Roy Lindsay, of Hollis, Okla., and William Sapp of the same place were taken from a car of ice at Hominy, Okla., Monday night badly injured. Lindsay probably will die, and it was necessary to amputate Sapp's foot. With J. F. Hickman, they were stealing a ride in a Katy freight train. The movement of the train threw the ice on them. Their cries attracted the trainmen and they were released at Hominy.

Frederic I. of Prussia was killed by fear. His wife was insane, and one day she escaped from her keeper and, dabbling her clothes with blood, rushed upon her husband while he was dozing in his chair. King Fredrick imagined her to be the "white lady" whose ghost was believed to invariably appear whenever the death of a member of the royal family was to occur, and he was thrown into a fever and died in six weeks.

Missionary Day at St. John's.

Missionary Day will be observed at St. John's church on the second Sunday, August 14. Rev. J. J. Long will preach a sermon on Missions at 10 a. m. In the afternoon the program will consist of recitations and class exercises by the children and some special music by the choir.

Fishers Spring Hill Farm Once Again!

Only a few more days and the farm will certainly be sold. Do not do yourself an injury. This is one of the most desirable homes for sale at a reasonable price. Almost within the suburbs of your city. The elevation is such that in fact, it overlooks Concord, an stretching southward you are overlooking a park, as it were, of 30,000 thousands acres, presenting a view just now that no artist on earth can approach with brush or pen. You must come out and see to appreciate. Probably the nicest place naturally for a public park within five miles of Concord. Many of Concord's best citizens drink at the ever-flowing fountain in the picnic woods day. In order to allow inquiries from other States time to investigate the times is extended to Friday, August the 19th.
