New Oil Company Here.

The Indian Oil Company has located in this city. This company placed a tank here several months ago but only began selling oil Wednesday. They have a wagon on the streets now and are delivering oil from their tank here to their customers throughout this section. This company and the Standard Oil Company have been waging a strenuous warfare in Charlotte and vicinity and it is very probable that they will begin a fight in this locality. It is reported that the price of oil was reduced 3 1-2 cents as the result of the keen competition of these companies in Charlotte.

Raleigh Broker Hangs Himself to a Door.

Charles Young, a well known broker of Raleigh, committed suicide Wednesday night by hanging himself from the door facing of his room at his home on Polk street. He was found about 10 o'clock already dead. Young had been drinking quite heavily and was despondent. He was 65 years old, and leaves a widow and three children.

Proposed New Train on Western Road

Citizens in this section of North Carolina and along the main line and Asheville divisions of the Southern Railway Company are greatly interested in a report that a solid vestibule train is to be operated by the Southern Railway through from Washington to Memphis by way of Salisbury. The report has it that the schedule of the present trains will be so changed that one of the vestibule trains will reach Salisbury from the west in the early morning providing connection for points north. It is said that travel is now greatly crowded on the western lines and that accommodations are not to be had some days on account of the heavy traffic. Express cars are now being run through from Washington to Memphis, being transferred from the main line to the western road at Salisbury.

The editor of this paper took a trip up the western road last week. The trains both ways were "packed and jammed" and from 25 to 40 people had to stand up all the way from Salisbury to Asheville. It was impossible to get a seat in the Pullman. Such a condition should be remedied and the public has a right to reasonable accommodations. The condition above mentioned exists every day, we learn.

Conjugal Amenities.

Georgia Blackburn, a colored woman who lives in Brown town, appeared at police headquarters Tuesday with her dark countenance somewhat battered and misshapen and with blood flowing in a small gentle stream from a gash on the side of her head, which was inflicted by a plate in the hands of her spouse, one Alonzo Blackburn. From what can be learned of the difficulty it seems that in the first round of the bout this morning, Georgia had everything going her way. Alonzo came home from his work and asked for his breakfast. Something in his manner evidently did not suit Georgia, for immediately after he was seated she proceeded to fling his breakfast, plate and all at him. Alonzo submitted a few remarks on her conduct whereupon she went at him herself. Alonzo showed his "yellow streak" and out the door he went with his assailant in close pursuit. Georgia finally caught him and was giving him a sound pummeling when he swatted her one with the plate.

Farmers' Union Picnic.

The Farmers' Union of Cabarrus county will hold its annual picnic at Cold Springs church, in No. 8 township, on Wednesday, August 24. Dr. H. Q. Alexander, State President, will be there and other prominent men of the Union will be present. These gentlemen will address the people on behalf of the Farmers' Union. The Mt. Pleasant band will furnish music for the occasion. Refreshments will be served on the grounds and half of the proceeds realized from the refreshment stand will be given to the Sunday school of Cold Springs church. Every farmer and others of all occupations of life are invited to join in this picnic. Mr. A. H. Litaker is president of the Cabarrus Farmers' Union.

The Would-be Assassin of Mayor Gaynor.

James J. Gallagher, the would-be assassin of Mayor Gaynor, is a widower, 55 years old.

He has no children or other family depending on him for support.

He was discharged from the city's Dock Department on June 1, for drunkenness.

His mind is perfectly rational. "It made me mad to think of Gaynor going on a vacation after he had taken my bread and butter away," was the reason he gave the police for the shooting.

Gallagher worked for the city for four years and four days.

He expressed no regrets for his crime and did not appear to be at all excited.

permanently be successful without live stock."

TO-DAY'S WEATHER REPORT.

Generally fair tonight and Friday; light variable winds.

LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

Marriage license was issued yesterday to Mr. C. F. Weaver and Miss Pratt Howell.

A new concrete floor is being constructed in the Clerk's office at the court house.

The graded school will open about September 12th, though the exact date has not been decided upon.

It's a Lubin with a strong dramatic story, which moves interestingly toward a satisfactory and unexpected ending. On at The Pastime tonight.

Mr. Roy Crooks, an assistant typographical artist in this office, is enjoying himself rapturing in the vicinity at Crescent today and ruminating on past happy recollections spent there during babyhood days.

Mr. Crawford Aldridge, of No. 11 township, whose residence and contents were burned last week, desires to thank his neighbors and friends for the substantial aid given him in his misfortune. Quite a nice sized purse was raised for him.

Mr. J. C. Newman, the photographer, who took a photograph of the veterans Tuesday, asks us to inform them that he will give one of the pictures free to every veteran who calls at his studio over J. L. Miller's store and identifies himself in the picture.

Mr. C. C. Hartman, who has been with the Southern Express Company, spent last Saturday and Sunday at home. Mr. Hartman has been running from Charlotte to Washington, but has been transferred and is now running from Greensboro to North Wilkesboro.

Gastonia correspondence Charlotte Observer: Mr. S. J. Durham, one of Gastonia's well known attorneys, whose residence is at Bessemer City, has moved his offices to Gastonia and is quartered in the Realty building. Mr. Durham moved in yesterday. He is a welcome addition to Gastonia's circle of legal lights.

Salisbury Post, 10th: Mr. James Mowry, who had business in Stanly county yesterday, killed a large rattlesnake three miles from Richfield. The snake was more than three feet long, and was four inches around. It had nine rattles which Mr. Mowry brought home with him. The body of the snake was picked up and thrown in the river.

Roofing! Roofing! SHINGLES! SHINGLES!

We sell no roofing, but Shingles. We sell no Shingles but Cypress Shingles. The "A" Grade, 6 inches wide by 22 inches long. We handle these because they are the best in wear and cheaper than other roofing.

Cypress Shingles are in use right here in Cabarrus county now that were put on 40 to 50 years ago, and are still giving good service.

The roof of the building is the most important part of it, therefore get a good roof.

See our Shingles by all means before you buy and we will give you better values for less money than you can get in anything else.
