MR. LOCKE MOODY, OF ALBEMARLE, GETS IT

Building to Be Completed in Five Months.—To Be of Brick, Modern in Design and Furnishings.—To Be Two Stories High, Part of It Three Stories.—Two Additions to Collegiate Institute Faculty.

The building committee of Mont Amenoa Seminary has awarded the contract for the new building to replace the one destroyed by fire last year to Mr. Locke Moody, of Albemarle. Work will begin in a short time and the contract stipulates that the building is to be completed within five months.

The building will be of brick with stone trimmings and will be modern in design and furnishings. It will be two stories high with exception of middle third, which will be three stories. The building will contain student rooms, class rooms and other appointments suitable for a modern school building.

Plans are also made for the opening of the Collegiate Institute. Two additions to the faculty have been announced. Mr. M. R. Adams, of A cadia, Tenn., A. B. and A. M., Roanoke College, has accepted the chair of English and History, succeeding Mr. Dennis Welsh, who has accepted work at Roanoke. Mr. A. F. Littlejohn, a graduate of Citadel, Charleston, will be commandant the coming school year. Both young men are highly recommended and will no doubt be quite an addition to the faculty of the institution.

Prof. G. F. McAllister, principal of the Institute, stated this morning that the outlook for the opening of the two institutions was especially bright and he looked forward to an unusually large enrollment this fall.

Kannapolis Keeps Up Winning Streak.

Kannapolis defeated High Point Saturday afternoon at Kannapolis by the score of 4 to 2. Bitter protest of the players on the decision of the umpire the game was a good exhibition of the national pastimes. The continual protest of decision engendered considerable feeling, which finally resulted in Umpire Reed striking Manager Houser of the visitors. The trouble was soon settled and the game proceeded. Craven was on the mound for the High Pointers and the Kannapolis lads rapped him from the box. He was succeeded by Fesperman, who finished strong. Overcash pitched a steady game. Spry's work at second featured the contest.

250,000 Starving.

London, July 14.—The White Cross League, formed to relieve the families of striking transport workers, estimates that 250,000 women and children are starving in London today. Funds are being collected on the street corners to aid them. DIED LAST FRIDAY ON THE CARPATHIA

A NORFOLK YOUNG MAN IS BURIED AT SEA.

Mr. Dorsey Pender, Who Had Been in Europe Studying, Died Friday on the White Star Liner.—Was on His Way Home Accompanied by His Mother and Miss Julia Barrow.

A message was received here by Mrs. H. M. Barrow yesterday stating that Mr. Dorsey Pender, Jr., of Norfolk, died Friday on board the Carpathia, the White Star Liner, en route to his home from Europe, where he had been studying for a year. With Mr. Pender were his mother, Mrs. Dorsey Pender, of Norfolk, Va., and his cousin, Miss Julia Barrow, of this city. The message stated that he died of hemorrhage of the brain and was buried at sea.

Mr. Pender was 18 years of age and went to Europe last year to study and travel. His cousin, Miss Barrow, went to Berlin to study music. Mrs. Pender went to Berlin about six weeks ago to make the return trip with them. The party spent about a month traveling after Mrs. Pender's arrival and sailed from Naples about 12 days ago and were due to arrive in New York yesterday.

Mrs. Barrow left last night for Norfolk to join Mrs. Pender and Miss Julia Barrow.

THE EXPULSION OF LORIMER.

Declared to Have Been the Recipient of Votes Secured by Corrupt Methods.

Washington, July 13.—Overturning a majority of its own committee and reversing its vote of March 1, 1911, the Senate today took away from William Lorimer his seat as Junior Senator from Illinois by the vote of 55 to 28. A member of the Senate since June 18, 1909, Lorimer today was declared to have the recipient of votes secured by "corrupt methods and practices, and his election is held to be invalid." Mechanically Lorimer will pass out of the Records of the Senate as a member of that body, notwithstanding his more than three years' occupancy of his seat.

Facing his associates with the declaration, "I am ready," Lorimer sat in the chamber and heard his fate decreed as the roll call showed adoption of the resolution of Senator Lea, of Tennessee, the man who for three days had the Senate's close attention with a remarkable speech of defense and attack upon his enemies rose wearily from his seat and passed back to the cloak room door.

Later Lorimer said he would leave Washington before the first next week.

Funeral of Mr. D. R. Hoover.

The funeral of the late Mr. D. R. Hoover was held Thursday afternoon at St. James Lutheran church. A large assemblage of friends of the deceased attended. The service was conducted by Rev. C. P. MacLaughlin. Mr. MacLaughlin paid many high and worthy tributes to Mr. Hoover's life and his discourse was a most appropriate one. The interment was made at Oakwood cemetery, the following friends of the deceased acting as pall bearers: Messrs. A. E. Lentz, J. L. Hartsell, R. E. Ridenhour, Maury Richmond, D. L. Bost and John H. Rutledge.

Children's day was observed at Boger's Chapel, in No. 10 township, yesterday. There was the regular preaching service in the morning, and in the afternoon the exercises by the children. These exercises were of a most interesting character, and were attended by a large number of children and adults as well.

A large number of Cabarrus cantaloupes are being sold on the local market. A North Carolina editor recently said that a young man who produced cantaloupes and other produce for the market was twice the service to a community as the champion baseball pitcher of the country.

Rev. Mr. Hinshaw, of Rutherfordton College, preached last night at Forest Hill Methodist church. Mr. Hinshaw's discourse was an able one and made a profound impression upon his hearers. During his stay in the city Mr. Hinshaw is the guest of Rev. W. M. Robbins.

Miss Mary Hartsell will entertain a number of guests at a set back party this evening in honor of her guests, Misses Eleanor Ramsay and Mildred Overman, of Salisbury.

DR. PHILO P. WHITE.

Former Cabarrus County Man Died in March at His Home in St. Louis.

Mrs. Philo P. White sends us the notice below of the death of her husband, which occurred at his home in St. Louis in March. Mrs. White adds: "The Doctor often spoke of writing for your paper. He certainly enjoyed his Concord Times, and read it up to the very last. His remains were laid to rest in the Gallatin cemetery at Gallatin, Tennessee."

The following is the article Mrs. White sends, which is taken from a Gallatin newspaper:

On Sunday, March 17, the remains of Dr. White were brought from his home in St. Louis and laid to rest in our cemetery.

Dr. White was born on Buffalo creek in Concord, Cabarrus county, North Carolina, Nov. 16, 1843. Under 18 years of age he left the military school at Statesville, Iredell county, N. C., and on the 9th of April or May, 1861, joined the army of Northern Virginia under Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson.

Dr. White in his notes left of his life says: "I was under fire for weeks and weeks below Richmond in '62. The battles of Seven Pines, Mechanicsville, Cold Harbor, Savage Station and Malvern Hill were terrible; my right arm is now a mark for that last bad day." He followed the fortunes of Jackson to Chancellorsville, and of Lee to Gettysburg where he fell desperately wounded. He was an eye witness to the last meeting of these two immortal generals. His desperate wounds ended his army career.

He lived in St. Louis the last 25 years of his life, where he died Tuesday, March 12, 1912. He died as he had lived—a courteous Christian gentleman beloved by all who knew him.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Notie Malone, a daughter of our old townsman, John H. Malone, and a sister of B. F. and E. B. Malone and Mrs. Fannie Hall, of Houston, Texas.

Stringent Marriage Regulations.

Atlanta, July 13.—Stringent marriage regulations will govern the state of Georgia if a bill introduced by Senator Copelan, of the nineteenth district, is passed. He wants to prohibit the marriage of drunkards, drug users and persons afflicted with a transmissible or inheritable disease. He asks for the establishment of a commission, composed of reputable persons, in each county of the state, whose duty it shall be to report to the ordinary the advisability of any contemplated marriage before a license shall be issued for it.

Senator Copelan does not think the bill is the dream of an idealist, nor that it is unreasonable nor extreme. The American Medical Association and the Georgia Medical Association have advocated such measures. He recognizes the impossibility of securing the passage of his bill soon, but hopes that its moral effect will be great.

Meet to Plan Wilson Campaign.

Chicago, Ill., July 15.—With a large majority of the members in attendance the National Democratic Committee assembled in Chicago today for its first meeting since the Baltimore convention. Before the meeting adjourns it is expected that many of the details of the presidential campaign about to begin will have been definitely settled. The meeting will decide upon the man who is to have general charge of the contest and also the chief lieutenants at the campaign headquarters. Arrangements for the notification meeting and the first big rallies of the campaign will also be considered by the national committee.

Charlotte, July 14.—One of the largest realty transactions probably ever recorded in North Carolina is the sale of the Gore tract of land in Scotland and Richmond counties, comprising 27,000 acres, in one piece at $10 per acre, making the total sum involved in the transfer approximately $270,000. The property belonged to D. L. Gore, of Wilmington, and was taken by a ealthy northern land syndicate after several months' negotiations.

John Koonce, colored, was arrested yesterday for having more beer than it is alleged the law allows. John claimed the beer was owned by himself and J. Lorimer is Going to Work.

Washington, July 14.—"William Lorimer is going back to Chicago and going to work."

That was the brief announcement made in behalf of the man whom the senate yesterday stripped of his seat and title as junior senator from Illinois.

Whether he will re-enter politics and seek a vindication at the hands of the Illinois electorate, Mr. Lorimer has not decided. Some of his former colleagues in the senate have suggested that he seek a return to the seat in the house of representatives, which he left when the Illinois legislature in 1909 sent him to the senate.

Gov. Kitchin at Jefferson.

Gov. Kitchin spoke Thursday at Jefferson, Ashe county. The Jefferson correspondent of the Charlotte Observer has the following:

"While it has been conceded that Mr. Simmons is in the lead in this county, yet there will be some Kitchin enthusiasm engendered before election. However, the Democrats of Ashe county would like for the fight between the Governor and Senator Simmons to be free from injurious elements to the party locally, and would have welcomed a straight Democratic speech instead of one impregnated with factional difficulties.

"No one here has any disposition, it seems, to impeach the Democracy of Governor Kitchin and the people of Ashe were glad to have him among them."

Mr. W. H. Hunt, of Lexington, was a Concord visitor yesterday.
