JOHNSON WILL NOT RETURN TO WASHINGTON

Statement Is Made Today by Senator McCormick and Senator Borah.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Reports that Senator Johnson, Republican, of California, had been recalled here because of the treaty situation in the Senate, were changed today by Senators McCormick and Borah of Idaho, Republican, who issued the following statement:

"Senator Johnson is not going to interrupt his schedule to return to Washington. There is no reason for him to do so, and we are quite certain from telegrams we have received from him that no one has called him back."

SLAYER OF POLICEMEN NOT YET APPREHENDED

Joe Turner Who Killed Two Policemen at Greenville, Still Being Sought.

Greenville, S. C., Oct. 6.—Joe Turner negro who is said to have shot and killed policemen Kitchen and Blair Sunday morning when the latter were raiding a card game in the negro section of the city, is still being sought by a posse in lower section of the county today, although contact with the negro's trail seems to have been lost during the night. Quiet prevailed in the city this morning and no trouble is anticipated between the races.

WEATHER CLEAR AND COOL

Chicago, Oct. 6.—The weather this morning was clear and cool, indicating that the 5th game of the world series would be played this afternoon.

"Blessings come disguised," quoted the Wise Guy. "Yes, the homely girl needs no chaperone," added the Simple Mug.

CONFEDERATE REUNION ON AT ATLANTA TOMORROW

All Arrangements for Housing and Caring for the Vets Have Been Completed.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 6.—Incoming trains brought crowds for the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans which will be launched tomorrow.

All arrangements for housing and caring for the visiting veterans have been completed. Because of the lack of houses a tent city has been pitched in Piedmont Park, where accommodations have been provided for 10,000 old soldiers by Colonel George M. Hope, chairman of the commissary committee.

The decorations for the reunion are the gayest in the history of the city. Eighty-five blocks of the city streets are trimmed with flags and bunting. Stars and Bars of old Confederate flags have been mixed with stars and stripes.

STATE TROOPS PATROL STREETS OF GARY, IND.

Police Clash With Strikers and Stones Were Thrown.

Gary, Ind., Oct. 6.—State troops today patrolled the avenues leading to the steel plants in the parts of the city where disorders were liable to develop. Four companies, having been brought here last night from Indiana Harbor and East Chicago, Ind., where twelve companies were quartered after the rioting was resumed here by strike sympathizers.

Late at night hundreds of strikers began to congregate before the gates of the United States Steel Company plant and the mill of the American Sheet & Tin Plate Company. Police and special deputies clashed with the crowds of strikers, and many bricks and stones were thrown.

While the troops were on the way here the police succeeded in dispersing the crowd by using their clubs freely and by making more than a dozen arrests.

THE COTTON MARKET.

There Was an Advance of Over a Cent a Pound in The Early Trading.

New York, Oct. 6.—There was an advance of over a cent a pound in the cotton market during today's early trading owing to settlement of the English railroad strike and the strength of the Liverpool market. The opening here was firm at an advance of 76 to 88 points, and before the end of the first half hour active months sold 103 to 110 points net higher on covering and fresh buying.

TWO NEGROES LYNCHED IN GEORGIA TODAY

They Had Fatally Shot a Deputy Sheriff.—Bodies Burned.

Lincolnton, Ga., Oct. 6.—Jack Gordon and Will Brown, negroes, were lynched by a mob here early today and the bodies burned. The victims of the mob were charged with shooting deputy sheriff Roy Freeman and Boyce Fortson near here late Saturday.

Mose Martin, another negro, was killed by a posse late yesterday during the hunt for Gordon and several other blacks were whipped for refusing to give information as to the whereabouts of Gordon.

The lynching took place about 4 a. m. today after Gordon been taken from custody of Sheriff Kelly of Wilkes County, by a mob said to number 1,000 persons. The other negro Brown, was being held by the mob awaiting the arrival of Gordon. The two were strung up on the outskirts of the town, and after their bodies were riddled with bullets they were cut down and placed on a pile of burning pine wood.

MAY NOT MARRY PEOPLE WHO HAVE BEEN DIVORCED

Episcopal Convention Will Probably Adopt Report of Bishop.

Det., Oct. 6.—Clergymen of the Episcopal church will be prohibited from officiating at the marriage of any person who has been divorced, if the general convention of the denomination to open here October 8 adopts the report of the joint commission of bishops, clergy and laymen.

The report, signed by the Bishops of North Carolina, Chicago, Long Island, Lexington, Vermont, proposes a new canon which reads: "No marriage shall be solemnized in this church between parties, either of which has a husband or wife still living; who has been divorced for any cause arising after marriage."

A minority report would make the canon read: "No minister knowingly, after due inquiry shall solemnize the marriage of any person who has been or is husband or wife of any person living, from whom he or she has been divorced."

EMBARGO LIFTED

Against the Sailing of Shipping Board Vessels to Great Britain.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Embargo against sailing of shipping board vessels to Great Britain was partially lifted today by the shipping board as a result of the ending of the railroad strike there.

Agents of the board on the Atlantic and Gulf ports were instructed to clear immediately all vessels loaded and proceed with loading of vessels for which cargo is at the dock or booked. Agents were instructed not to accept bookings beyond commitments already made.

Vienna Papers on President Wilson's Illness.

Vienna, Oct. 5.—The Vienna newspapers contained today the first time editorial comment on the illness of President Wilson.

One paper says: "The spirit of the Master walked through the world, but he from whom we hoped for salvation did not see him, nor did he grasp his mantle. He now is stretched on his bed where he has ample time to reflect on his lost opportunities."

PRESIDENT WILSON IS STILL IMPROVING

Passed a Good Night, According to Bulletin Issued at 11 A. M. and Signed by Grayson, Ruffin and Stitt.

THE FIRST JOINT BULLETIN ISSUED

The Bulletin Was Issued After a Consultation Between The Three Physicians Held Today.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Oct. 6.—President Wilson continues to improve and passed a good night today, signed by four Admiral Grayson, Rear Admiral Stitt, and Dr. Sterling Ruffin of this city.

The bulletin follows: "White House, October 6, 11 a. m. The improvement in the President's condition noted yesterday has continued. He has had a satisfactory night. Signed "GRAYSON "STITT" "RUFFIN."

This is the first time Drs. Ruffin and Stitt have signed. The bulletin was issued after consultation of the doctors.

Cabinet Meeting Today.

Washington, Oct. 6.—President Wilson had another good night last night, and apparently his condition continues to improve. During the morning Rear Admiral Grayson held another consultation with Admiral Stitt, head of the naval school and Dr. Sterling Ruffin, of this city.

The President has not prepared a message to the Industrial Conference which opens today at 2:30 o'clock, but last night Secretary Tumulty held a conference with Secretary of Labor Wilson relative to the details of today's meeting.

Secretary Wilson will call the conference to order and a permanent chairman will be selected. Secretary Tumulty has conveyed to Secretary Wilson the names of the Presidential selection as the permanent presiding officer.

A meeting of the cabinet was scheduled for this morning to discuss the industrial conference and Secretary of State Lansing was to preside. The cabinet meeting will be held in the White House.

FIFTH GAME TO BE FIERCELY CONTESTED

Believe Williams Will Pitch for Chicago.—Reds' Twirler Still Uncertain.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Victorious in three of the first four world series games, the Cincinnati Reds were out today to tag the fifth contest, postponed yesterday when a downpour of rain set in late Saturday night soaked Comisky field to such an extent that playing was impossible.

The pitching selections for this afternoon were uncertain, but so far indications from the Sox camp could be discovered. Manager Glavin's choice was to be Claude "Lefty" Williams, who was beaten in the second game, 4 to 2.

Manager Moran's pitching choice seemed to lie between "Red" Egan, who has been held in reserve, and Walter Reuther, who beat the Sox in the opener at Cincinnati. Reuther is the general choice of experts because of the sensational game he twirled when the series opened.

TWO GREENVILLE, S. C. OFFICERS ARE KILLED

Negro Shoots Plainclothesmen As They Enter Alleged Gambling Den and Feeling Is Running High.

Greenville, S. C., Oct. 5.—Feeling is running high here tonight as the result of the killing of J. L. Kitchen and A. M. Blair, plain clothes officers on the local city police force, at 1 o'clock Sunday morning by Joe Turner, a negro.

The officers were shot down while raiding an alleged gambling house in a negro settlement in the city. Poses have been scouring the county since shortly after the killing but the negro was still at large at last reports received from officers.

OKN, PERSHING NOT TO VISIT NORTH CAROLINA

Was Invited to Make Speech on Legion Day.—Daniels in Gettysburg.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Gen. John J. Pershing will not attend the North Carolina state fair on October 24. He declined today to accept an invitation extended by Charles W. Horne, president of the North Carolina Agricultural society, to go to Raleigh on this date, which is American Legion day, and make a speech. The refusal of General Pershing to accept the invitation of the state fair took leave with Secretary Daniels the question of getting a man of military distinction to go to Raleigh for the peace jubilee and make the address.

Secretary Daniels said tonight that he hoped to be able to secure a speaker within the next few days. The secretary himself has been asked to make the principal speech but on account of conflicting engagements he will be unable to go and is trying to get some well known man to accept the invitation.

ENGLAND'S RAILWAY SYSTEM IN OPERATION

Virtually Every Man in London Returned to Work by 9 a. m. Today.

(By The Associated Press.) London, Oct. 6.—Great Britain's railway system was again in operation today as a result of the settlement yesterday of the great railway strike, averting what threatened to develop in an ominous spread of nation's labor troubles. Virtually every man engaged in railway work in London returned to work before 9 a. m. Various railway services did not speedily reach normal state, however, because of displacement of railway material that had resulted from suspension of the work.
