THE SENATE ADJOURNS: TREATY NOT RATIFIED.

Senator Lodge Says that the Treaty is Dead.—Democrats Say That Is Not Dead.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Failing after three attempts to ratify the peace treaty, the senate late tonight laid it aside, ended the special session and went home. All compromise efforts to bring ratification off, the three resolutions of ratification all going down by overwhelming majorities. The Republican leaders, apparently despairing of bringing two-thirds of the senate together for any sort of ratification, then put in a run to declare the war at an end.

Two of the three ratification votes were taken on the resolution drafted by the Republican majority, containing reservations which President Wilson had told Democratic senators in a letter earlier in the day would mean nullification of the treaty. On each of the votes most of the Democratic supporters of the treaty voted against ratification.

The first vote on the resolution stood 39 for to 55 against. On the second vote, taken after several hours of parliamentary wrangling in which the Democrats made vain efforts to win over some of the Republican group of mild reservationists, 41 senators voted in the affirmative and 51 in the negative.

The third vote was on a straight-out ratification without reservations, which got only 38 votes to 53 opposing it. Only one Republican, Senator McCumber, of North Dakota, voted with the Democrats in its support.

One effect of the senate's failure to ratify the treaty will be the continuation of various war-time laws and regulations at least until the new session opens. Among these is the war-time prohibition act.

APPEAL FROM MR. BARRETT

Calls on Farmers to Steady the Country, Calming Labor and Reassuring Capital.

Memphis, Nov. 19.—The farmers of the country must find the influence that is needed to bring order out of the disjunctured times, declared Charles S. Barrett, president of the National Farmers' Union, addressing here today the annual convention of that body.

"Capital," he said, "is perturbed, even scared; labor is irritated almost to the boiling point. Between the contending elements the public is reduced to that condition of uncertainty which causes it to question where it is going to get its coal, its food, its clothes. Confronted with these tremendous problems and amidst the ocean of pent-up human passions now raging, the farmer is the only man who has his feet really on the ground."

"There is a feeling in Washington," Mr. Barrett said, "that somebody or something has failed, and in thinking circles there is a growing conviction that agriculture must be the interesting between the warring factions, that the farmer must stabilize conditions and make his great influence felt at this time."

"In this crisis the farmer must remain firmly at his post and, while refusing to surrender any rights which are his, he should by example and precept exercise such an influence as will tend to bring calmness to labor and assurance to capital, at the same time making it clear to each that nothing which makes for industrial progress and commercial solidarity can be accomplished without the aid of agriculture."

MARKET WILD AS THE PRICES SOAR

Profiteering Paper Manufacturers Threaten Life of American Publishers.

Publisher's Auxiliary.

The price of print paper is soaring skyward, with the final nowhere to stop, and every newspaper publisher is forced by circumstances to bid for every pound of print paper that can be secured.

There is undoubtedly a shortage in production in proportion to the demand, but it is charged that the manufacturers have taken advantage of the situation to boost the prices just as high as the publishers will pay, and regardless of what price is necessary to provide for a reasonable, or even liberal profit.

New York.—Thirteen cents a pound, 2.8¢ mill, was asked for print paper here during this week. The price was for car load lots, and was made to suit the largest purchasers of sheet paper in the country. The cost refused to make a price of anything less than thirteen cents.

Chicago.—It is reliably reported here that one of the large daily papers of the city has made an offer of ten cents a pound for 1,000 tons of roll-print, and has not found a mill that will take the order. The Chicago papers are being forced to omit a large amount of advertising from every issue because of the shortage of print paper.

Washington.—Complaints of inability to secure print paper are pouring into government offices here. Newspapers are reporting prices of eight, nine and as high as twelve cents being asked for print paper, and when orders are placed at these prices it is possible to secure only very small quantities, not nearly enough to meet their needs.

Omaha.—One of the largest wholesale paper dealers of the country reports print paper prices going upward every day, with a raise in one week of more than $1 a hundred. Many mills are refusing to accept orders at any price, and a forced suspension of many papers is looked for as there is no prospect of any relief in the immediate future.

NO TRUTH IN REPORT SAYS GOVERNOR HARDING

Sets at Rest Rumors That Federal Reserve Banks Would Withdraw Credit to Cotton Planters.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Governor Harding of the federal reserve board set at rest tonight rumors that federal reserve banks were reporting to withdraw credit to cotton planters in a telegram to the cotton committee of the National Farmers' Union, at Memphis, he said there had been no change in policy as to loans by reserve or members banks on cotton as security.

Dr. Gambrell Says Wilson is Greatest Man on Earth.

Macon, Nov. 19.—Dr. J. B. Gambrell, president of the southern Baptist convention, whose clash with General Funston over the latter's refusal to permit Baptists to conduct religious services in a Texas camp brought him into national prominence declared before the Georgia Baptist convention tonight that President Wilson was the greatest man of the age. He declared that the President had done more to "disseminate freedom and to scatter the principles of human love and liberty over the earth than any other man who ever lived." Four thousand men and women packed into the auditorium, cheered wildly.

In the circuit court at Knoxville, Tenn., 14 suits have been filed by negro porters working for the Southern Railway Company against Walker D. Hines, Federal director general of railroads, operating the Southern Railway Company. In all the cases plaintiffs seek to compel the railroad company to pay back salary claimed as due, the total amounting to $21,500.

FORMER CONGRESSMAN LET OUT OF FREIGHT CAR

Was Put There Yesterday by Citizens and the Sheriff.—Is Anti-League Speaker.

Appleton, Minn., Nov. 18.—After being locked in a refrigerator car several hours, where he was placed by citizens and the sheriff of Ortonville, Ernest Lundeen, former congressman from the Minnesota district, was today on his way for the Twin Cities, "more determined than ever to continue the fight against the league of nations," he declared. Lundeen arrived in Ortonville last night, intending to speak on the "British Wilson League."

Crowds gathered at various parts of the city preceding the meeting, and according to Sheriff Gowan, threats were made against Lundeen. The sheriff said he feared trouble when the meeting started, so when Lundeen appeared on the stage he escorted him to the railway station with the assistance of several others. A freight train was just pulling out and Lundeen was pushed into the refrigerator car and the door locked. Trainmen heard his shouts and he was released at Appleton about 22 miles from Ortonville.

LAST OF THE MORTONS IS DEAD OF PRIVATION

Man Who Lived in Swamps For Months Was Reduced to a 70-Pound Skeleton.

New Bern, Nov. 19.—James Morton, Jr., of Jones County, who has been under treatment in a local hospital for a week for illness growing out of lack of food while a fugitive in the wilds of his native county, died and the remains were shipped to his mother in Maysville.

There was little hope for the man when he was committed here by the sheriff of Jones county, for he was suffering from chronic malaria and it was expected that his physical condition would not permit him to overcome the disease.

Morton was the last of the Morton gang—father and three sons, who were responsible for the death of James Gulliver, a prominent farmer nearly two years ago. They were all captured soon after the crime and sent to the penitentiary for long terms.

The man who died here existed on such food as he could acquire in the woods, and he had become reduced to a living skeleton, weighing less than 70 pounds.
