A Story Hour for Children will be conducted at the library on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. Miss Mary Elizabeth Blackwelder will be in charge. All children are invited.

All persons interested in having the New Zion Primitive Baptist Church in No. 11 recovered, and getting the cemetery cleaned off, are asked to meet at the church on next Monday morning to help with this work.

Miss Mary King, principal of the Primary Department of Central School, states that the names of Elizabeth Odell and Esther Brown were inadvertently omitted from the honor roll list of the first grade.

Mr. Robert Miller, son of Mr. Doc Miller, caught a large gray fox several days ago. The fox was taken alive and Mr. Miller has it on exhibition at his home, near the city. The fox has attracted much attention.

According to figures announced by the Census Bureau 11,203 bales of cotton were ginned in Cabarrus County this year prior to January first. During the same period of time last year only 8,915 bales were ginned.

No new cases of whooping cough or measles were reported at the office of the county health department Tuesday morning. This is the first day in some time that new cases of this kind of disease have not been reported.

Mr. J. L. Pless informs us that during the year 1922 he had collected and shipped to the Lexington Creamery butter fat amounting to $5,750.92. This cream was collected from the Best Mill and Flowe Store cream route.

One case was disposed of in Cabarrus Superior Court Tuesday. In the case of G. R. Gaskoy vs. Mason Goodman, administrator, a verdict of $150 for the plaintiff was rendered. The jury also instructed the plaintiff to pay the defendant $37.00.

Mrs. Sarah Winecoff, who has been employed at the Cabarrus Y. M. C. A. in Kannapolis for the past two years, has resigned and returned to her home on South Main street. After a month's vacation Mrs. Winecoff will open her boarding house.

Part of the large plate glass front of the Concord and Kannapolis Gas Company was blown down Tuesday afternoon when the wind was exceedingly high. The glass fell without warning of any kind, and made a crash that was heard for some distance.

No cases were tried in Cabarrus Superior Court here Monday. A number of cases were docketed, but in almost every instance persons of vital importance to the cases were confined to their homes on account of illness, and the cases for this reason were continued.

The general clinic for this county got underway Monday and county health officials were encouraged with the start. The clinic will be conducted on Mondays and Tuesdays for several weeks, and a large number of persons are expected to be examined while it is underway.

Nine defendants faced Judge Furr in recorder's court here Monday. Seven of them paid fines totalling $95. One was found not guilty and the case of the other was continued until a later session of the court. Police officers stated this morning that everything was quiet Monday and Tuesday night.

News was received in this city Sunday that Mrs. Tom Query, of near Harrisburg, is able to sit up a short while each day in a Charlotte hospital. Her attending physician states that she will probably be able to leave the hospital this week. Her many friends in this city and county will be glad to know she is improving.

CONSTITIATION. Constipation of the bowels is a stoppage of the sewerage system that removes the waste matter from the body. It is as necessary that your bowels move regularly once each day, to carry off this waste, as it is that the waste pipes of your home be kept open and carry off the waste from the house. If you would enjoy good health, keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed.—Advertisement.

$500 Check For Training School. Mr. J. P. Cook, chairman of the board of trustees of the Stonewall Jackson Training School, on Tuesday received a check of $500, left to the institution by the late Mr. T. H. Street, of Roxboro.

Mr. Street was a prominent layman of the Baptist denomination, and during his life was interested in the work of the institution here.

MRS. BOWEN TELLS HOW RATS ALMOST BURNED HER HOUSE DOWN. "For two months I never went in our cellar, fearing a rat. One night in bed I smelled fire. Sure enough the rat had been nibbling at the matches. If I hadn't acted promptly my house would have been burned. Later we found the dead rat. RAT-SNAP killed it. It's great stuff." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Ritchie Hardware Co. and Cline's Pharmacy.—Advertisement.

Birthday Party. Miss Mildred Propst was the recipient of a delightful surprise Monday evening when about eighteen of her friends gathered at her home in celebration of her fifteenth birthday.

After an evening spent in fun and merriment the guests departed, wishing their hostess many happy returns of the day.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY. This is a pleasant, safe and reliable medicine for coughs and colds. It has been in use for many years and is held in high esteem in those households where its good qualities are best known. It is a favorite with mothers of young children, as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. Try it when you have need of such a remedy.—Advertisement.

RESULTS TELL. There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in Concord. Results tell the tale. All doubt is removed. The testimony of a Concord citizen can easily be investigated. What better proof can be had?

J. A. McEachern, mgr. street car company plant, 35 N. White St., Concord, N. C., has been several years since I used Doan's Kidney Pills but they did me a world of good at one time. My kidneys troubled me an awful lot. My back was lame and ached almost continually and I couldn't do any stooping or lifting on account of the severe pains through the small of my back. My kidneys didn't act right. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended and I used them. They soon gave me relief and I continued using them until I was free from all kidney complaints.

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McEachern had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Boll Weevil gets a blow from an entirely new quarter. Cotton farmers will be glad to know that fresh help against the weevil is now offered in the trust-worthy old Royster fertilizers. The formulas have been revised in the light of new discoveries, to make plant food more quickly available. For nearly forty years Royster fertilizers have been known as reliable—and this season they will be more satisfactory than ever before. Promotes Early Growth. As soon as Government demonstrations proved the value of the Royster organization were turned upon revising formulas so the cotton farmer could profit by this knowledge. The phosphoric acid and the nitrogen in Royster brands have been made more quickly available to push plants to early maturity. Only the scientifically tested and proven materials, for which Royster is famous, are used. Ask Your County Agent. Your county agent will tell you the tremendous importance of this. Get his advice in your weevil fight. Plant less cotton, plant earlier, use ROYSTER Field Tested Fertilizers.

THE FARMER'S WORST ENEMY—RATS. THE FARMER'S BEST FRIEND—RAT-SNAP. These are the words of James Baxter, N. J. "Ever since I tried RAT-SNAP I have always kept it in the house. Never fails. Used about $3.00 worth of RAT-SNAP a year and figure it saves me $300 in chicks, eggs and feed. RAT-SNAP is convenient, just break up cake, no mixing with other food." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Ritchie Hardware Co. and Cline's Pharmacy.—Advertisement.

Dental Clinic to Be Continued. Dr. S. E. Buchanan, county health officer, has received a letter from the State Board of Health advising that Dr. H. E. Foster, who was sent here to conduct a free dental clinic for two months, will be kept here three months by the State, provided the citizens of the county will raise $800 to keep him here the fourth month. More than half of this sum has been raised. If you have a contribution to make send it in at once. Dr. Foster is doing a great work among the school children of the city and county.

U. S. GOVERNMENT WARNS THE FARMERS ABOUT DISEASE CAUSED BY RATS. They carry Bubonic plague, fatal to human beings. They carry foot and mouth disease, which is fatal to stock. WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN. Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. "I saw after taking some Cardui . . . that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person. "Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me . . . My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it." Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments. For sale everywhere. E. 33
