NO. 10 TOWNSHIP.

The freeze did considerable damage to fruit trees, breaking branches and pulling some of the trees out of the ground.
Miss Kate Sossamon died at her home at Sherrill Springs January 20, of pneumonia. She was 69 years of age and was a member of Rocky River Church. Miss Sossamon was of a good disposition, being all her life a modest and bashful as a girl in her early teens. One thing that makes her death more sad is the fact that her brother, the late J. C. Sossamon, preceded her to the grave just six days. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. T. H. Spence, and interment was made in the Rocky River cemetery. Her bereaved relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.
Mrs. Clara Aycock was born in 1843 and died on January 25th 1923. Her husband, John H. Aycock, and three sons and one daughter survive. They are: Rev. A. L. Samuel G. Lonnie and Miss Lillie Aycock. The deceased was stricken with paralysis a year ago and was an invalid until her death. She was a woman of deep Christian piety and was esteemed by all who knew her. Her greatest joy through her declining years was the knowledge that she had a son who is a minister in the Methodist Church, who has an enviable record; that of completing his quadrennium on every charge to which he has been sent during his ministry of twenty years or more. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. E. Huns, and the remains were interred in the cemetery at Bethel.
Mr. J. H. Carriker, of Cabarrus, and Mrs. J. S. Russell, also of Cabarrus, who have been sick with la grippe, are improving.
Mrs. M. W. Dorton, of Flowe's Store, has been very sick, but is now improved.
Mr. J. R. McNulty and son, of Flowe's Store, will at an early date open a garage at that place. They will keep in stock gasoline and all auto repairs.
Rev. W. A. Newell, of Winston-Salem, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Newell, for a day or so last week.
The schools of the township are progressing nicely. From all reports there will be a lot of promotions this year.

The farmers are about through killing pork and are busy sawing and chopping wood.

GEORGEVILLE.

Mr. L. E. Mabry, Miss Mary Belle Cannon and Miss Vayne Earnhardt spent Monday night with Mrs. H. L. Little.
Mr. T. L. Coley and family, of Locust, spent Sunday with Mr. Coley's brother, Mr. N. B. Coley.
While working at a saw mill last Wednesday Mr. Lee Shinn was knocked unconscious by a piece of timber hurled by the saw.
Mr. W. C. Furr spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Furr, at Mt. Holly.
Mr. Jack Klutz has been seriously ill with pneumonia, but is able to be out again, after about two weeks' confinement.
Mr. Jno. S. Turner was able to return to his home last week. His many friends will be glad to hear of his recovery.
