Teams For 1923 Appointed—Sols by Miss Macey Enjoyed—Other Matters of Interest Discussed.

The meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Concord Friday evening at the Y. M. C. A. was one full of business and interest, as well as pleasure.

President Tracy Spencer in opening the meeting announced the teams and committees for the year 1923, which are as follows:

Team No. 1: Albert A. Palmer, captain; Rev. Jesse C. Rowan, Charles S. Smart, G. P. Hellig. Team No. 2: J. Buxton Robertson, captain; John S. Palmer, Julius A. Shauers, Paris Kidd.

Team No. 3: J. Lee Crowell, Jr., captain; Mark M. Linker, P. R. MacFadyen, Julius Fisher. Team No. 4: Brevard E. Harris, captain; Sidney E. Buchanan, Joe Gaskel, Robert E. Ridenhour.

Team No. 5: Jacob G. Moore, captain; Bill Wadsworth, Caleb W. Swink, A. Campbell Cline. Team No. 6: Clarence H. Barrier, captain; Joe W. Pike, Gus Kennet, Gilbert Hendrix.

Team No. 7: Will Foil, captain; Chas. T. Barrier, Fred R. Shepherd, Will M. Linker. Team No. 8: Chas. A. Cannon, captain; John B. Sherrill, Luther Marsh, W. D. Pemberton.

Team No. 9: R. Morrison King, captain; Jay L. Cannon, E. Boyd Grady, Tracy N. Spencer. Team No. 1: Albert Palmer captain, will be in charge of the program at the next meeting of the club on Friday, February 2nd.

Owing to the fact that 6:30 o'clock was deemed rather early for some of the members to get to the meeting on time, it was unanimously voted that the time of meeting be changed to 7 o'clock, effective at the next meeting night.

A letter was read by Secretary Cline, stating that the Merchants Association had appointed a committee consisting of J. F. Dayvault, C. M. Ivey and J. E. Davis to co-operate with the Kiwanis committee in securing an up-to-date hotel for Concord.

Albert Palmer presented to the club the matter of widening some of the principal streets of Concord, referring especially to East and West Depot Street, and other streets which are too congested, and which will require widening to keep pace with the growth of the city. He recommended that a committee be appointed to take this matter before the Board of Aldermen, with a request that they have the present session of the General Assembly create improvement districts in the city of Concord, so that these improvements may be made.

Upon the passage of a motion to this effect, President Spencer named Albert Palmer, Charley Smart, Lee Crowell, Gus Kennet and Fred R. Shepherd as a committee to take up this matter with the Board of Aldermen at its next meeting.

Fred R. Shepherd, in charge of the program at the meeting, presented Miss Elizabeth Macey, who rendered several vocal solos, which were keenly appreciated by the Kiwanians. Her accompaniments were rendered by Miss Margaret Hartsell, one of Concord's talented pianists, in a most pleasing manner.

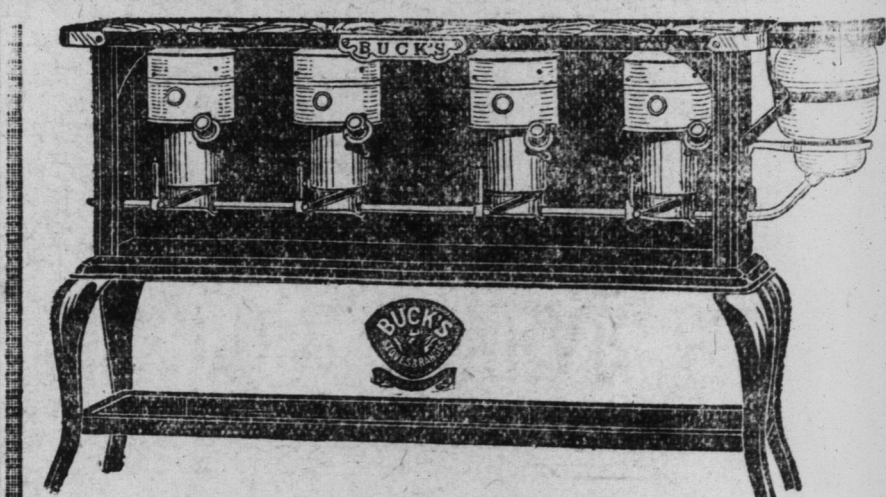

Rev. Jesse C. Rowan was then introduced by Fred Shepherd, who stated that the Concord club is glad to extend a welcome to this Kiwanian, who has now begun his active membership with the Concord club. Mr. Rowan responded with a most entertaining talk. He stated at the beginning of his remarks that he considered the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs as the most important civic organizations in any community. Continuing, he stated that a club should not undertake to put over things by themselves, but that it should be a leader, and lead the community in putting across the desired work. "The motto 'We Build,' said Mr. Rowan, is a splendid one, and the very best thing a Kiwanis club can build in any community is the builders' spirit in others.

The speaker stated that he had decided to give the club some of the dialect gems from the pen of North Carolina's most brilliant writer of this literature, and one of the greatest negro dialect writers in the whole country—John Charles McNeill. Then followed a number of McNeill's poems, rendered in artistic manner by the speaker, which were thoroughly enjoyed by his hearers.

The silent boost was given by Dr. Morrison King. After the drawing of the attendance prize, given by Fred Shepherd, and drawn by Jay L. Cannon, the meeting closed with a song. Six Telephone Operators Down With "Flu." Six of the operators at the local Telephone Exchange are out of the office confined to their homes with the flu, as follows: Misses Velma Lyles, Mamie Crowell, May Belle White, Lillie Wiley, Addie Ridenhour and Glenae Culp.
