Bible Thought For The Day

ROAD TO SUCCESS :- Commit thy way unto the Lord : trust also in him ; and he shall bring it to pass. * * Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him.-Psalm 37:5, 7.

SECRETARY MELLON WOULD CUT SURTAXES.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon one of the most important officers of President Harding's administration, is taxes on large incomes. He favors a decrease in these taxes from a minimum of 58 per cent, to a maximum of only 25 per cent. This would lower the rate of the tax to half its present

There is no likelihood that the next Congress, though nominally in the control of the Republican reactionarviews, will undertake any downward revision of the surfaxes. The "radical progressives" on the Republican multi-millionaires while every one else's taxes are growing bigger under the present Republican administration.

It is well known that Secretary Melwishes of President Harding and the Republican bosses of Congress when he says, "I favor * * * the reduction of the surtaxes to a reasonable level, with a minimum of 25 per cent. totaling 33 per cent. with the normal tax," but unlike him, the other advocates of this favoritism to the billionaires lack courage to speak their minds as frankly as he reveals his.

The Republican tariff has already raised the cost of living and promises to increase it still further. This tariff is a tax being collected from the multitude for the benefit of a few thousand profiteers. It is for these profiteers, who have made taxes higher for every one else, that Secretary Mellon would again reduce the surtaxes. The Republican Congress decreased these taxes some $62,00,000 in

NEW HOTEL.

A movement is on foot here now hotel for Concord. We hope the move ment will have all of the success it have already raised about $50,000 enthusiastic and optimistic.

There is nothing Concord needs more than a new, modern and commodious hostelry. The management of the present hotel is doing the very best it can, we think, for the travelling public, but the building is in such bad shape that it is almost hopeless. practically every night and business has been so good that the management has rented a dwelling in the city to be used as an annex.

And yet there are people who say a hotel will not pay here; that traveling men get in and out as quickly as possible; that they never spend the night here. All of which is bunk.

But the condition will not continue if the traveling men become uncertain as to whether they can secure a room. They-will not take a chance. We need a hotel with about 125 rooms and all modern conveniences new equipment and up-to-date fixtures. Such a hotel will pay, as they are paying in other cities not so large as Concord.

AVOIDABLE DEATHS.

We see by an editorial in The Charlotte News that "they have finalty completed the count of the death toll from two of the most prominent sources of mortality in 1922, pistoltoting and automobile speeding, and they total around 10,000 each."

Here are the facts. Twenty thousand lives that could have been saved. ended because of the illegitimate use of pistols and the carelessness of some fool automobile drivers. "That is a terrible indictment to write against the civilization we boast of in this country, a civilization that has not yet developed a proper appreciation of the value of a human life," The

The Charlotte paper finds again that "we can tell what a steer is worth right quickly being depreciated by the infestation of ticks, but we let human lives go out to the numerical extent of 20,000 a year by the wrong use of two mechanical instruments and hardly bat lon is merely uttering the hopes and an eye. And yet how much better is a man than a sheep?"

THE NEAR EAST AGAIN.

Rev. J. Frank Armstrong, chairman of the Near East Relief campaign in this county, states that the drive this year will begin on Sunday, February 25th, and continue through March 4th. He is preparing plans to make the opening very auspicious, and expects the $3,200 quota in this county to be the above-named children. easily raised.

AFTER WEEVIL IN EARNEST.

Judging by interest shown in the national conference for the eradication of the boll weevil, which was held this week in Atlanta, the entire And in spite of this, the hotel is filled United States is at last interested in the fight against "the million dollar pest" and there is every reason to believe the weevil has seen his best days. From the President down to the humble farmers there come promises of co-operation in the fight against the pest, and with such co-operation there is no reason why the weevil cannot be checked in his mad flight in the cotton fields of the South.

And co-operation is just what is needed. The organization of which Dr. Miller Reece Hutchison is leader. is working on various experiments designed to check the propagation of the weevil, and science in this fight, as in many others is certain to win. When the birth of new weevils is systematically checked, it will be but a matter of time until the pest is eliminated in the South.

The pity is that it took the United States so long to get interested in this campaign. The weevil for years has been playing havoc with the cotton crop, yet the public generally did not join in the fight until the past year. The cotton crop is something of vital importance to every section of the United States, not merely to the people who produce it, and for that reason it is right that every section of the country should join in the fight
