Many Sign Up For Clean Living and the Christian Life. The "Win My Chum" week, being conducted by the Boys' Division of the Y. M. C. A., under the leadership of the H. Y. Club, closed Friday, when James R. Morton, of Atlanta, Ga., spoke on "My Chum for Christ." Mr. Morton is secretary of the committee on Church Cooperation in Atlanta, which is the executive committee of the Christian Council. He is a forceful speaker and presented in a very simple but effective manner the claims of Christ on the lives of the boys. The figures for the week have not yet been fully tabulated, but estimates from the figures already ascertained show that the come clean pledges will run up to nearly three hundred, while there were around seventy-five Christian decisions. The campaign last week was run in the High School, in Central School, in Number 2 School, and in the Colored School. The speakers and their subjects were: Sunday—Buck Perrin: "A Man's Responsibility to the Boys of the Community." Monday—Rev. J. C. Rowan: "My Chum for Right Thinking." Tuesday—Rev. W. A. Jenkins: "My Chum for Clean Speech." Wednesday—William Barnhardt: "My Chum for Clean Scholarship." Thursday—C. C. Poindester: "My Chum for Clean Living." Friday—James Morton: "My Chum for Christ."

Julia, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Leffer, died in the Concord Hospital Friday. She was carried to the hospital Thursday in a serious condition from her home near the Roberta Mill. CHARLOTTE-CONCORD ROAD IS TO GET ATTENTION NOW

Detour Road Is to Be Put in Excellent Shape by the State and County Road Forces. The work of putting the State Highway detour from Concord to Charlotte in excellent condition was begun Friday, the work to be done jointly by the State Highway Commission and the road forces of this county. The work will be confined to Cabarrus County.

Two large traction engines, two road plows and two scrapers were put at work on the road Friday, and today the force of hands was increased. The road from a point just south of the Southern passenger station to the point where the macadam begins, will be plowed up, resurfaced, scraped and rolled. Beginning at a point where the macadam ends, the road will be worked in a similar fashion to the Cabarrus-Mecklenburg line. It is planned how also to rework the macadam road. The holes in the road will be cut, refilled and treated with a tarvia coating.

When completed the road is expected to be one of the best in the State. GEORGE W. BOST DEAD AT HIS HOME IN CITY. Death Occurred at 2 O'clock Saturday Morning—Funeral Services Held Sunday. George W. Bost, well known and highly respected citizen of Concord, died Saturday at 2 a. m. at his home on Loan street. He had been ill only a short time.

Funeral services were held at the late home Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Interment was made in Oakwood cemetery. George Wesley Bost was born in Cabarrus County 73 years ago, and had spent his entire life in this city and county. He was a carpenter by trade and had followed this trade here for many years.

Surviving are his wife, one son, Cletus Bost, of Hamlet; one brother, B. F. Bost, and one sister, Mrs. J. L. Hudson. Early in life Mr. Bost joined the Rocky Ridge Methodist Church and later moved his membership to Central Methodist Church of this city, of which church he was a member at the time of his death.

What Will Cabarrus Do With Her Orphans? Cabarrus County has been asked to maintain for another year fifty-four Armenian orphan children. These children are at Trebizond, on the Black Sea, within fifty miles of the traditional site of the Garden of Eden. The American flag protects them from the unspeakable Turk. The small sum of $5 per month feeds, clothes and trains for citizenship and usefulness one of these unfortunate children. Many of them are children of extraordinary promise.

Their parents were relatives and friends of the brilliant, accomplished Christian gentleman, Dr. S. K. Emurian, who spoke in the city schools and in the churches here last week and charmed every group of people who heard him. The chairman was thrilled to his heart as he listened to this man in one of the city churches, singing in four languages the old hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee."

Cabarrus citizens or Sunday school class, would you like to help build a life like his when you are reunited that it costs so little? We have had reports from comparatively few organizations or individuals. Please send these in at once. If it happens that you have sent money and pledges through your church mission board, or direct to Raleigh, don't fail to report the amount of these to me in order that it may be credited upon our quota for the county.

Next Friday, March 9th, The Concord Tribune will carry a full report of what has been done throughout the county. If you want your Sunday school class, your missionary society, your ladies' aid, your public school, your lodge, or your own name to appear on this honor roll don't fail to get a report of money and pledge to me by Wednesday night. One gentleman of the city accosted me a few days ago and said he desired to adopt an Armenian orphan child in memory of his own baby boy who had recently gone to heaven. What a beautifully appropriate thing to do!

We must not allow anyone of our fifty-four to be turned out of our orphanage. Once more, to be very emphatic, if you have done anything for the Near East report to me. If you have not done anything, "Do it now," and report not later than Wednesday night. In the name of God and humanity. J. FRANK ARMSTRONG, Chairman.

High School Ends Season With Victory Over Salisbury.

The local high school basket ball team, after only a mediocre season, came in strong at the finish and closed the season with a well deserved victory over the strong Salisbury team Friday night. The score was 27 to 20. Salisbury drew first blood when Faggart caged one from the free throw line. He immediately caged another foul and Burke added a neld goal for a total of four points before Smart found the basket for a foul. The red devils then began to find the basket and took the lead in the beginning of the second quarter never to lose it again. The half ended 18 to 16 in Concord's favor. The last half was all Concord's, the ball staying in Concord territory and Concord possession practically all of the time. The locals showed the best team work and the best form in shooting that they have this year. They were unusually strong in following up their shots, though at times they overdid this finding two of their own re-levs fighting over the ball. Smart was high scorer of the game. Playing at forward in Easley's place he caged four from the floor and three from the foul line. Faggart, for Salisbury shot six fouls in six chances for a perfect record. He added two from the floor for a total of ten points. Burke and Shuler of Salisbury also played well, but Captain Ridenhour, was probably the outstanding player of the game. He was everywhere "it seemed," always on the ball and yet guarding his man closely also.

KIWANIS MEETING

Speaker From Atlanta Speaks Interestingly of Work Among Boys. Transaction of regular business and a splendid program of entertainment arranged by Team No. 5, were the features at the Kiwanis Club at the Y. M. C. A. on Friday evening.

The local club has already started preparations for sending a delegation to the Kiwanis International Convention which will meet in Atlanta May 28-31. President Tracy Spencer appointed the following as the "On-To-Atlanta Committee": Albert Palmer, Chas. A. Cannon, Will Fall, Charley Smart and Caleb Swink.

Albert Palmer, for the Hotel Committee, announced to the club that his committee is marking time to see if the new company which took over the old St. Cloud Hotel is going to pull up a modern hotel for Concord before they begin their work along this line. Jacob Moose, captain of Team No. 5, took charge of the program, which was most enjoyable. Mrs. Charles B. Wagoner delighted her hearers with several vocal selections, her accompaniments being played by Miss Nell Hearing at the piano. Her audience showed its appreciation of the splendid music in its hearty applause, and Mrs. Wagoner was compelled to respond to a number of encores.

Mr. James Morton, secretary of church work, Atlanta, Ga., was then introduced by Chairman Moose. Mr. Morton took as his subject "Men's Responsibility Toward the Boys," and delivered a strong and earnest plea for the men to help build up the citizenship of our country by building up the right kind of boys. Some of our biggest opportunities are missed if we fail to take advantage of the opportunity to put something into the young boy's life, said Mr. Morton. Boys are taught the history of our country in the past and its glorious achievements, but nothing is taught the boys about the problems of today, the problems that the men are facing right now. It is imperative that the boys of today be given the power to see through the eyes of the men of today just what the country is facing and what will be their problems when they become men. The great need of our nation today is a true conception of a real citizenship, continued the speaker. Disregard for the law is practiced today not merely by the boys, but there is a serious lack of respect for law among the men of our country, as is evidenced by the crime wave that is sweeping our nation. Unless something is done to check this lawlessness there is no way of knowing the destination to which our fair country is drifting. The only way for true citizens to act is to obey the laws completely. If the laws are wrong, the people have the power of repealing the laws, but as long as a law is on the books obey them. The boys of today should have this idea thoroughly rooted and grounded into their young lives, and should grow up with the habit of abiding by the laws of the land.

The homes of boys have a most important influence on their lives. Apartments in large cities, where the boys have no real home, are not conducive to raising boys right; not is a palatial home with the finest kind of furnishings, where the lad cannot do anything for fear of injuring some of the furniture. Boys must have an opportunity to play and give vent to their buoyant spirits, and if they cannot do this at their homes it is but natural that they will rather go away from home for their enjoyment. The men should pay attention to the boys. Even a friendly word from a man is a great encouragement to a young lad. No one likes to be treated as a piece of furniture or some inanimate object, and the boy is no exception. Kind words and even small acts of kindness from a man toward a boy are remembered by boys after they have grown into manhood, and are a source of pleasure each time they are remembered by him. The men of Concord can do nothing which will yield them bigger returns than to let the boys of this town know that they are interested in them, said Mr. Morton in concluding.

The attendance prize, given by Caleb Swink, was drawn by President Tracy Spencer. The query: "Resolved That the Bible should be taught in the public schools" was debated at the meeting of the Methodist Protestant Church Friday. Miss Nola Helms and Mr. P. H. Scarborough spoke on the negative and Mr. Fred Helms and Miss Drisy Scarborough on the affirmative. "The question was ably debated, and proved very amusing at times. The judges rendered a decision in favor of the negative.

The committee will be composed of the Chief of Police, a representative of the Ministerial Association and a representative of the Elks.

Five new cases of whooping cough were reported to the county health department Friday. No new cases of measles were reported during the day.

Severe Indigestion. "I had very severe attacks of indigestion," writes Mr. M. H. Wade, a farmer, of R. F. D. 1, Weir, Miss. "I would suffer for months at a time. All I dared eat was a little bread and butter... consequently I suffered from weakness. I would try to eat, then the terrible suffering in my stomach! I took medicines, but did not get any better. The druggist recommended

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT. and I decided to try it, for, as I say, I had tried others for two or more years without any improvement in my health. I soon found the Black-Draught was acting on my liver and easing the terrible pain. In two or three weeks, I found I could go back to eating. I only weighed 123. Now I weigh 147—eat anything I want to, and by taking Black-Draught I do not suffer. Have you tried Thedford's Black-Draught? If not, do so today. Over 8 million packages sold, a year. At dealers'.
