ENOCHVILLE.

Mr. D. V. Overcash lost a fresh milk can last Thursday night.
Mrs. James Butler and children, Mrs. M. W. Allman and children spent Saturday evening with Mrs. C. C. Upright.
Mr. Mack Smith has gone to Florda on business, and will spend a short time with Mrs. Smith before returning.
A birthday dinner was given in honor of Mr. C. D. Overcash, at his home on the 20th. A large number of relatives and friends gathered to celebrate the event and the dinner was much enjoyed by all.
Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ruple and children spent Sunday at Mr. C. C. Upright's.
Mrs. John Thompson is improving and a little.
Messrs. M. P. Corbit, R. O. Upright, Mr. H. S. Ruple and family and Mr. C. C. Upright and family spent a while Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. Mack Allman.
Mrs. Laura Lipe took dinner with Mrs. H. H. Overcash one day last week.
Mr. H. L. Karriker's horse has been sick for a few days. B. S. Y. BEE.

ROCKY RIVER.

Our farmers are making good of the poor weather and are plowing their land.
Ed. Platt, son of Mr. Henry Platt, is in the hospital in Charlotte for treatment for high blood pressure.
Henry Abernethy had the misfortune to break a leg while playing ball at school last week. He is reported as doing well.
Mr. Will Glesson shot with dynamite a hole in the wall which he had drilled to about two feet deep at the schoolhouse, thereby scaring water.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Linker entertained quite a crowd of young people last Friday night, the occasion being a birthday celebration of their son, Garfield.
Mr. Harvey Spears is out again after a long spell of sickness.
We are glad to note that all the fruit was not killed by the recent cold spell. A SCRIBBLER.

GEORGEVILLE.

The school at Georgeville will close Friday, April 20th. There will be a program rendered in the afternoon by the primary and intermediate departments.
At 8 o'clock there will be a play given by the higher grades, entitled "Light House Man." This is a good play and is expected to please a large and appreciative audience. There will be a small admission charge to the play to help pay for an organ for the school.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Little and Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Coley motored to Concord last Wednesday.
Prohibition Agent D. E. Widenhouse passed through Georgeville Wednesday.
Mr. A. Eady is on the sick list at this writing. We hope for him a speedy recovery. TULLY.

COLD WATER.

The annual event at Cold Water preceding the school closing exercises is a box party and the one this year far surpassed all previous similar events in attendance and fine spirit, making it a proud occasion for the community.
The funds realized from the sale of the numerous boxes will be used in a further equipment of the school building.
Miss May Mast, the teacher at Cold Water school, is proud to announce that her attendance is keeping up to high water mark and that her pupils are working most diligently for results. There are several pupils in the school who could enter High School next session, but are debarred unless permitted to go to the Concord schools, or to some boarding school. Right here we are confronted with the necessity of doing something for the rural children if they are to have the privilege of a high school training.
The Missionary Society of Cold Water Lutheran Church last week sent twenty-one dozen eggs to the orphanage of the church, located at Salem, Va. Mrs. Jack McEachern is the president of this society and she takes great interest in the inner mission work as well as in the work of the foreign field.
Farm work is terribly delayed by the recent heavy rains. The farmers are becoming impatient to receive the music of bearing through the fields "see-haw, huck." They are encouraged, however, with the promise of small grain crops present at this time.
Little Howard McDaniel, grand-son of John McDaniel, has been desperately ill with pneumonia, but is rapidly recovering. N. Y. Z.

ROBERTA.

We had our regular services Sunday —preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Next Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Next Sunday will be Easter, and there will be all day services, dinner on the ground. The quartet will sing most all evening as they have Mr. Carl Williams from Caroleen to assist them.
Everybody is cordially invited to attend and bring well filled baskets and spend the day.
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Garver, from Texas, who have been spending a month or so with their parents, left last Monday returning to Texas.
Mrs. Flora Verble and son, Preston, Mr. and Mrs. John Garver and day with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Linker.

Mr. Carl Williams, of Caroleen, has accepted a position with the Roberta Manufacturing Co., and began his work last Monday. We hope he will like it.
The Pitts correspondent asks "Love" to explain the difference between a "Lizzie" and a Ford car. Well, we will try to do so. A "Lizzie" has to be cranked and a Ford car is a self-starter "come again." The Roberta school will close the 14th of April. We are planning to welcome Sara Frances Castor.
Exercise: "He Is Risen, Go and Tell."—Five girls.
Recitation: "Christ Is Risen"—Mary Crainshaw.

dleman, Hama Castor, Bertie Eddleman.

CABARRUS.

We are having some very fine weather along now and the farmers are getting ready to go to farming as soon as the ground gets dry enough to plow.
We are having plenty of measles in our community. Most every family have cases.
Old Uncle Sam Reeder is confined to his home on account of illness.
Miss Ada Flow has been confined to her bed for quite awhile and was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte Monday for treatment.
Mrs. Maggie Hartzell, of Cabarrus, is improving very slowly. She has been confined to her bed for almost six months. We hope she will soon be able to be out again.
Messrs. Lem and Denette Flowe and James Morrison, of Charlotte, spent Saturday night and Sunday with homefolks.
There was a large crowd out at Bethel Sunday for Sunday school and preaching services. We hope to have them with us every Sunday. Next Sunday will be a big day at Bethel.
Everybody come and bring your friends.
The Cabarrus baseball club will organize a team at Cabarrus, next Saturday, March 31st. Everyone who is interested in getting a baseball team at Cabarrus is asked to attend the meeting. We are planning to have a snappy team here this year.
Messrs. Lloyd and Anderson are putting down their cedar mill this week. They will be ready to start sawing right away. They have some sawing like 75,000 or 100,000 feet of timber on the yard and the people from all around are cutting and hauling every day.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. P. Jonas Almond, March 18, a daughter.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mc-Eachern, a daughter.
Messrs. Galtner Grey, A. O. Carrier and Clarence Kiser made a business trip to Charlotte Saturday.
Mr. J. H. Carriker is having a well dug at Cabarrus. All you people who are dry, come to Cabarrus and get a drink of good water.
Mr. H. T. Baker, of Midland, was in our city Monday.
Mr. Buford Hott, Miss Hilda Howell and Mr. Jonas Allman motored to Concord Friday.
Miss Lila Furr, one of the Bethel school teachers here, has measles.
Mr. Hoyle Carriker is doing a considerable amount of sawing on the old mine land near Cabarrus. He has two saw mills running most every day. Mr. Carriker hauls his lumber to Cabarrus by truck and ships it to Charlotte. Mr. Carriker is a very industrious saw mill man.
GRASSHOPPER.

invited to come. Children, bring your eggs.

Blackwelder. She was accompanied home by Mr. Jacob L. Lewis.
There will be an egg crack at Mr. and Mrs. Will Hudson's Saturday night. Everybody is invited.

urday afternoon with Miss Olene Miller.
Little Miss Irene Furr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Furr, has pneumonia.

appointment Sunday night at Mr.
Pleasant.
Misses Mae and Ethel Blackwelder and Gertrude Furr spent the weekend with home folks.
Miss Gertrude Dotson, of Caroleen, is spending a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. J. T. Sisk.
Miss Virginia Blackwelder spent

LOWER STONE.

Rev. C. W. Wardick will hold communion service at Lower Stone next Sunday, April 1st, at 11 o'clock. Preparatory services at Saturday before at 2:30 p. m.
The officers of Lower Stone went to Faith last Sunday evening to attend the meeting of the joint consistory of the Faith Charge.
The school at Lower Stone will close April 27th, but owing to the closing exercises of the Rockwell High School, the entertainment will not be held until Saturday, May 5th.
Messrs. Harvey Wyatt and Lee Beaver have just finished Homer Foll's deep well of 187 1-2 feet deep and furnishes six gallons of water per minute. "Venus," if you can beat that for a well, let's have it.
Mr. Ray Holshouser, the garage man at Lower Stone, has enlarged his garage.
Mr. John Hepiron and son, of near Statesville, spent last Sunday in this community.
While at Faith last Sunday evening we met Venus. He says he is going to get himself an automobile. TULLY.

BUY AN INTEREST IN OAKBORO COTTON MILL.

Another Large Textile Industry Will Be Operated in the County of Stanly.
Albemarle, March 28.—It has just been announced here that J. A.
Groves, of this place, who for the past years has been associated with the Wiscasset Mills company, and for recent years practically manager of that large manufacturing plant, has purchased the controlling interest in the Oakboro Cotton Mill company, and he, together with a few associates have become the owners of the entire company, and will begin shortly the work of completion of the building already under construction and toward the installation of machinery.
This company was organized about two years ago with a view to establishing a cotton mill at Oakboro, but for some reason the plant had never been completed. The original charter will be used and the capital stock will be $250,000.
It is understood that the mill will start with 6,000 spindles, electrically driven, with thoroughly modern machinery, and fine comb yarns will be manufactured. The Southern Power company's main power lines pass through Oakboro, from which power will be obtained.
Mr. Groves has resigned his connection with Wiscasset Mills company, which is one of the Cannon chain of mills, effective April 1, and will proceed at once toward the development of the Oakboro proposition. This adds another to Stanly's large number of textile plants.

Thought There Was a Show in Town.

Mormoe Enquirer.
"Is there a show in town?" asked a Marshville man of me the other afternoon.
"No; why do you ask?" I inquired.
"Those girls who just passed—don't they belong to an open troupe?"
"Now, see here, Marshville! I just ain't going to stand for you throwin' off on our nice Monroe girls." I ups and told him—me gettin' madder and madder. "Ain't you got two drug stores in your own town where they sell lip sticks, red paint, talem and perfumery? And don't your girls study modern make-up as well as make-believe?"
He was properly chewed, girls.
Lloyd George, when making a speech, has a habit of repeating the last few words of any sentence upon which he wishes to lay particular emphasis.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shinn, of Salsbury, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shinn, near Kannapolis.
A marriage of simplicity was that of Mr. Oscar Hurlucker and Miss Margaret Earnhardt, on last Sunday morning after the preaching service at Center Grove Church. After the benediction had been pronounced the sister-of-the-bride, Miss Vaue Earnhardt, rushed in from the left and played the wedding march while the bride and groom marched up the aisle to the altar. The bride wore a midnight blue suit with accessories to match and carried a shower bouquet of carnations and fern. The ring ceremony was used. The bride is the third daughter of Mr. J. L. Earnhardt and is an attractive and intelligent young body of Center Grove. The groom is the son of Mrs. Minnie Hurlucker, and is one of our prominent young men in church affairs. The couple will make their home with Mrs. Hurlucker's father.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook, of Concord, spent last Sunday with Mrs.
Cook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A.
Castor.
Mrs. Herbert Flora, who has for some time been visiting her father, W.
A. Castor, has gone to Kentucky with Mr. Flora.
Miss Bertie Eddleman is spending a few days in Salisbury with her sister, Mrs. S. O. Holland.
The Patterson school will close on Thursday, March 29. The folks are planning to entertain the public with a negro minstrel two hours in length and some other dialogues, etc. Everybody is invited to come and see the fun.
There will be preaching at Center Grove Friday night, March 30th. Also preparatory services Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. On Sunday morning at the usual hour communion service will be held.
On last Friday night Mr. and Mrs.
Oscar Hurlucker were favored with a miscellaneous shower at the beautiful country home of Miss Callie Winecoff.
The guests were met at the door and escorted to the parlor. Games and contests were enjoyed by all. Then from the outside tin pans, drums and all kinds of music were heard. After this a knock at the front door was answered and two little Indian boys pulled a wagon loaded with bundles up before the bride and groom and the happy couple opened the donations and read each word aloud. Then the guests were led into the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with ferns and lillies, where a delicious course of sweets was served.
B. D. and H. C. Castor, of Lenoir College, are expected home for the Easter holidays.
The Lenoir students have been very busy for the past while due to the fact of getting up a campaign of $850-000 which is to be added to the donation of Mr. Daniel Rhyne. The Lenoir fellows have been sent out each Sunday to speak at different churches on this matter. A JOLLY KID.

FAITH.

Two young couples have just motored down to South Carolina and got married from Faith. The first couple went Saturday, March 24th. They were Lee Wensil and Miss Volja Engle, daughter of Mr. B. C. Eagle. Both are fine young people. The second couple was Mr. Carl Misenheimer and Miss Mabel Lippard, daughter of Mr.
Adolphus Lippard. They have a host of friends who wish them with both couples long and happy lives.
If you want to see something good and nice written about our granite bed here, see a copy of Cement Mill and Quarry of March 5th, 1923, page 41, column 2. The paper is published in Chicago, Ill.
H. A. Wyatt has just finished a deep bored well for Mr. H. G. Foil, near Lower Stone church. Mr. Foil is one of the big farmers of that section.
The well is 187 1-2 feet deep and gives plenty of pure water.
We met six good Rowan county farmers and one merchant in Faith Sunday. They came up to preaching.
Here are their names: G. T. Brown, H. A. M. Barger, R. L. Holshouser, H. G. Foil, G. A. Fisher and Crawford Holshouser. They all live in the Lower Stone settlement except Mr. Holshouser, who lives at Rockwell. They all say they read the Faith items by Venus.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bame, of Barber's, N. C., motored down to Faith to visit Mrs. Bame's mother, Mrs. W.
S. Earnhardt, Sunday.
J. C. Stulenberger, of China Grove, has an old time curiosity that we would like to have. One of the very first home-made turn plows complete.
Some one sent us a comic valentine.
With a rope attached to the saw handles thirteen men all at one time sawed down a big tree to make lumber for the new church between Salsbury and Concord.
The P. O. S. of A. held their county meeting here Monday night, March 26th. A very large crowd was present and all had a fun time and refreshments were served after the meeting. Music was furnished by the Faith string band, which is now in the shape to make music for public occasions. Mr. Sam Hill and his son, Geo.
W. Hill, from China Grove Route 2, and J. S. McCorkle, and A. W. Albright, of Mill Bridge Camp, China Grove, attended the meeting and called to see Venus while here, because they had been reading his items from Faith for so long and liked them.
Everybody wants to read The Concord Times and the Coolidge Journal at one time when it comes to our boarding house here in Faith.
We expect to have some more weddings to report soon. Look out for them. VENUS.

FOSSIE AND MOONSHINERS FIGHT; FOUR ARE KILLED

Three Men and Woman Die as Result of Battle With Guns Near Asher, Ky.
Harlan, Ky., March 28.—Three men and one woman were killed in a battle between members of a federal posse, and alleged moonshiners near Asher, Leslie county, Kentucky, early this morning.
The dead are:
Ike Strong, Mrs. Della Strong, his wife; George Strong and Kelley Walker, the latter being a member of the posse.
The raiding squad had a warrant for Ike Strong, who was charged with illicit distilling of whiskey and who, with his brother George Strong, were considered desperate men. The Strong house was surrounded by the posse and Walker went forward to demand the surrender of the men.
George Strong is said to have fired upon Walker, shooting him through the breast and head, death resulting instantly. The posse then opened a general fire on the house and after two and one-half minutes there was no return fire and investigation showed its inmates killed, or dying, George Strong surviving an hour.
The posse found a still a few paces back of the house and two larger ones about 200 yards distant heavily barricaded with brush and earthen breast-works.

AUNT NANCY TLLISON DIES AT AGE OF 107

Was Born in 1816 and Was a Slave Prior to the War Between the States.
York, S. C., March 28.—"Aunt Nancy" Allison, negro, 107 years of age, said to be the oldest person in York county, died here yesterday.
She was in excellent health, alert and active, up to the time of her death, which was due to pneumonia. Surviving are four children and scores of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren, many of the latter being grown.
"When she was born in far away 1816, York county was in large part a forest primeval, with a sparse population bordering the trails and clustered in a few villages at strategic points. "Aunt Nancy" affords with a retentive memory, never forgot that bygone era and often pictured it vividly to the "white folks" who occasionally called at her humble home on the outskirts of York.
Prior to the Confederate War she was the slave of the late Col. W. B.
Allison, of Tirzah, and his children kept in touch with her and manifested a kindly interest in her to the last.

says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills will do all that is claimed for them. My kidneys were weak and acted irregularly. My back ached a great deal, especially when I did any sweeping or washing. I felt tired mornings and knee wavy kidneys caused all the trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended and I used them, getting them at Gibson's Drug store. They helped me right away, relieving the backache and the tired
