Don Richardson's Orchestra to Give Concert at High School Auditorium.

The pupils of Mr. Don Richardson, of Charlotte, will give a recital in the High School auditorium tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Mr. Richardson has a music studio in Charlotte, and is recognized as one of the best violinists of the country, having a national reputation, and the concert will be one of the leading musical attractions of the season. The admission will be free, and Mr. Richardson will give the public of Concord an entertainment of the biggest order. The idea in giving the concert here is to create a greater interest in music generally among the citizens of the city, and it will be given without any cost whatever to any one here. Mr. Richardson bearing all the expense, thus making the admission free. The large auditorium will not doubt be filled and with appreciative and interested persons. The orchestra in connection with Mr. Richardson's studio is composed of a number of well trained musicians, and will give several numbers aside from the regular program numbers by the pupils. Miss Louise Morris, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Williamson Morris, of Concord, is among those who will take part in the program. Miss Morris being a young violinist with decided talent, who has been studying with Mr. Richardson for some time.

Mr. Vardell will be assisted by Mrs. W. B. Robeson, head of the violin department of the college. These two artists have been making a tour of the State during the winter, and have been most favorably received wherever they have appeared.

Boys and Officers Delighted With Mrs. Clark.

Wednesday evening in the auditorium of the Jackson Training School certainly proved to be one of fine interest and great joy to the boys and officers of the institution. The pleasure was reciprocal, for in return for the high class entertainment given by the inimitable Mrs. David Clark, of Baltimore, the boys rendered a programme consisting of songs and a number of selections by the institutional band. The institution appreciates the thoughtfulness of friends, who make it possible for the boys of the school to hear one so clever in her profession as Mrs. Clark. As a dialect reader she is superb. On all sides the boys were heard to express the wish that Mrs. Gorman would soon bring that lady back just as soon as she can." The entertainments given by thoughtful friends at stated periods, are among the bright spots in the life at the Jackson Training School, and are helpful and uplifting as well as chery.

Parent-Teachers Association to Meet.

The Parent-Teachers Association will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the No. 2 school building. All parents are urged to be present.

Entertainment Monday Evening.

The Woman's Club of Concord, in putting on the entertainment of Monday evening, again gave an expression of its aim--to bring to Concord entertainments of high class as a stimulus to higher culture and refined tastes, especially among the young.

The audience for a city of the size of Concord was small, but the rapid attention and applause that greeted each number showed an appreciation of the splendid interpretation of the entire program. Mrs. David Clarke, of Baltimore, a woman of strong personality, the dialect reader, was intensely engaging and she possesses the happy faculty of winning the sympathetic attention of her audience from the very start in giving her various interpretations of Southern dialect, including that of the negro. Mrs. Lillian Homesly Bott needs no introduction to Concord audience. She was at her best in poise and voice, and she gave each number with artistic effect that delighted her hearers. Miss Nell Herring, Concord's talented accompanist and a musician of no mean ability, added much to the pleasure of the evening by taking charge of the instrumental part of the program. The Woman's Club is to be commended for its efforts to give to Concord such high class entertainments.

Sunderland Students Enjoy Service.

The teachers and students of Sunderland School wish to express their hearty thanks to the pastor and congregation of the McKimmon Presbyterian Church for the invitation to worship with them on last Sabbath. The number of cars provided was most generous and we shall remember the helpful sermon with genuine pleasure.

War Mothers Meeting.

Mrs. John K. Patterson and Mrs. D. B. Morrison left Tuesday for Wilson to attend the State meeting of American War Mothers as delegates from the Cabarrus chapter. The Cabarrus chapter has been very active since its organization soon after the end of the World War and the Concord delegates to the convention will make a splendid report. Mrs. Patterson is president of the Cabarrus chapter and at one time served as State President.

With Our Sick.

A message from Spartanburg states that Mrs. J. N. Bates, of this city, who is recuperating there from a recent serious operation, continues to improve. Mrs. Bates will remain in Spartanburg with relatives some time before returning home. The many friends of Mrs. T. W. Smith will learn with interest that she continues to improve. Mrs. Smith was able to be on the porch of her home a short while Monday.

Children Walk from Hickory to Ten- Johnson City, Tenn., April 25.--Charles and Leon Hale, 11 and 13 years of age, reached here today after a tramp of 168 miles across the Appalachian mountains, following the death of their father, their only relative, at Hickory, N. C. They state they have been on the trip three weeks, sleeping outside every night, but were furnished ample food by people living along the route, and claim to be en route to an aunt living in Lynchburg, Va.

They reached Johnson City tired and ragged and applied for direction at police headquarters. Police officers quickly increased to an amount sufficient for new shoes and clothing, railroad ticket to Lynchburg, a hair cut, substantial pocket change and two big boxes of food.

USE THE PENNY COLUMN--IT PAYS

LOCAL MENTION

Cotton on the local market today is quoted at 27 cents per pound; cotton seed at 66 cents per bushel.

Two new cases of measles and one new case of whooping cough were reported to the county health department for yesterday and last night.

Thirty dollars was collected in fines in recorder's court Wednesday. Three defendants paid $5 each and the other paid $15. Court was in session only a short while.

A series of revival services will be held at the Methodist Protestant church next Sunday. The pastor will be assisted by Rev. Geo. H. Brown, D. D., of High Point.

Good progress is being made now on the new home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Meis, which is being erected on North Union street. The home will probably be completed within the next several weeks.

"Babe" Hammett, for three years a member of the Furman University football team, died this week of tubercular meningitis. Hammett will be remembered here as one of the stars on the Furman teams that defeated Davidson for several seasons.

The best route to Kannapolis now, according to persons who have to drive there often, is via the old Ice factory road. The road connects with the regular highway about two miles north of Concord, and is in fair shape now. This is the most direct and shortest route to Kannapolis.

The bird houses on display at the Pearl Drug Company are for sale, and are being handled by the Woman's Club. In an effort to arouse greater interest in birds the club offered prizes for the best houses and the three on display were presented and declared winners, and are now for sale.

Rose Heglar, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Heglar, was painfully injured several days ago when a young cow she was leading started running and she was caught in the chain. The child suffered severe bruises on her breast, right shoulder and right hip, and has been confined to her bed since the accident.

People traveling from Concord to Salisbury are using many roads now while the regular highway is being repaired. Some are going via the old Salisbury road; others are going via Kannapolis; and still others are going via Faith. The Faith road is said to be in excellent shape but is about four miles longer than the others.

A number of Carolina alumni are planning to go to Greensboro Saturday to witness the Carolina-Virginia baseball game. The game proves the biggest collegiate baseball game of the state each year, and is always witnessed by thousands of fans. The two teams are about evenly matched this year, and the game promises to be a good one.

The city will have a force of hands at work on South Church street, widening that part of the street extending from Means street to the Covington Candy Company. On the east side of the street some of the buildings are being moved back, the telephone company is having its poles moved and other changes are being made preparatory to widening the street.

The local highs are practicing hard for their game with the Baden highs here Friday afternoon. Last week in Baden the locals just managed to score the winning run in the ninth inning and they are going to take no chances on the game by letting up in their practice this week. Sullivan, pitching ace of the locals, probably will work on the mound for the Concord boys.

So far announcement of a Republican ticket for the municipal election has not been made. It has been intimated by several prominent Republicans that a G. O. P. ticket would be offered, but nothing definite has been stated about the matter yet. One Republican leader stated several days ago that his party would probably announce a ticket when the full ticket had been decided upon.

Persons who did not register for the special school bond election last year must register this year if they want to vote in the municipal election on May 8th. The registration books have been open several weeks, but they close Saturday, and those persons who have not registered are advised to do so by not later than Saturday. Absence votes will not be allowed in the election, as they do not apply to municipal elections.

An important deal in residential property in Concord was consummated yesterday when Mrs. N. F. Yorke sold her home on North Union street to Mr. Chas. S. Smart. Mrs. Yorke will begin, at once the construction of a modern new home in Statesville, where she will move as soon as the home is completed. Their many friends in Concord will regret to lose Mrs. Yorke and her family. Mr. Smart will remodel the house completely and work will begin as soon as he can secure possession of the property. He plans to move into his new home by this fall.

Side-Splitting Scenes at the Fayssoux Show.

It remained for Fayssoux, the psychic marvel, to bring out in his exhibition the comic possibilities of hypnotism. The old time Hypnotists with their limited abilities had made feeble attempts in this direction before the coming of Fayssoux, but they were extremely feeble in comparison to the mirth-provoking scenes created by Fayssoux.

"It beats the best comedy I ever saw." "It's funnier than a barrel of monkeys with their tails chopped off." "A whirl wind of gaiety." "Fayssoux makes you laugh until your sides ache." "It's the greatest comedy of them all." are some of the expressions heard in the theatre lobby during the show. Fayssoux will begin an engagement of one week at the canvas theatre, Monday, April 31st.

Mr. William A. S. Shaw, Jr., of Charlotte, spent several hours in the city yesterday on business.

BAPTISTS TAKE TRANQUIL PARK

Company of $500,000 to Be Formed; Mecklenburg-Cabarrus Association to Operate.

The Tranquill Park sanatorium in Myers Park, will be taken over by the Mecklenburg-Cabarrus Baptist Association as a denominational hospital, agreement to the offer made by T. T. Cole and associates, owners of the property, having been entered into at a meeting of the executive committee of the association Wednesday morning at the Y. M. C. A.

The terms of the agreement provide that the present owners organize a company and add at least 500 rooms to the plant immediately. The authorized capital stock of the proposed company is to be $500,000, of which $300,000 is to be raised immediately by popular subscription.

Operation of the hospital will be vested entirely in the bi-county association. The cost of improvements will be borne by Mr. Cole and associates.

The executive committee of the association negotiating for the hospital and accepting the proposition Wednesday is composed of Rev. L. A. Prunette, pastor of Ninth Avenue Baptist Church, chairman; Rev. R. D. Carroll, pastor of Allen Street Church, secretary; Rev. W. A. Smith, pastor of Pritchard Memorial Church; Dr. Luther Little, pastor of the First Church, Charlotte; Dr. G. A. Martin, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Concord.

The special committee appointed to investigate the proposition is composed of C. A. Duckworth, Dr. John Q. Myers and R. L. Goode.

Tranquill Park Sanatorium, located at the edge of Myers Park near the Myers Park country club, is considered splendidly situated for a hospital. The property consists of about 50 acres, the sale to include about 10 acres, it is said. It contains two buildings at present, one of 35 rooms and the other 10 rooms.

The hospital will not begin to receive patients until after the proposed improvements are made and it will be late summer or early fall before it will be formally opened. Modern equipment will be added to the already up-to-date equipment and the medical talent of the highest type will be procured, it was announced.

HOWIE MURDER CASE IS SET FOR MONDAY

All Civil Cases in Superior Court Moved Back One Day.

Immediately after court convened for the afternoon session yesterday, Solicitor Long announced that the criminal docket could not be completed this week and would continue through Monday of next week. By agreement with counsel, the case of State vs. Howie was set for Monday. Howie is a Monroe electrician who is charged with the murder of a child near the Hartsell mill, it being alleged that a car he was driving struck and killed a small child there several weeks ago.

This will necessitate all civil cases set for Monday being continued until Tuesday, in fact the civil docket will be called just one day later than first announced as a result of the criminal docket extending over a day into the week set apart for the trial of civil cases.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday in court: Ernest Sides was found guilty of abandonment. Not yet sentenced. Bob Arant was found guilty of false pretense and was ordered to pay $15 to L. A. Peeler, the prosecuting witness in the case.

John Will and Sarah Bradford pleaded guilty to an affray and judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs. Martin Boger was tried on two counts of assault with a deadly weapon. The cases were consolidated and he was found guilty. He has not been sentenced.

Tom Meadows was found guilty of larceny and sentenced to the chain gang for 60 days. Allen Darkin, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, was found not guilty. G. N. Lipe and Lula King, charged with fornication and adultery, were found not guilty.

The Kerr Street Baptist Revival.

A large and interested congregation greeted the singers and preacher again Wednesday night and the Spirit was felt in the very atmosphere. There have been seventeen (17) added to the church so far, eight by letter and nine by baptism. God is indeed blessing us.

The preacher spoke Wednesday night from II Samuel 5:24, "and let it be when thou hearest the sound of the going-in the top of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself, for then shall the Lord go out before thee to smite the host of the Philistines." He said in part: "First, when the people of God go in obedience, that God will bless their efforts and give them a glorious victory. It gave Moses and the children of Israel assistance. It gave Joshua assurance. It gave the apostles assurance.

Second, then we learn that when God's power is present that we as His children should put forth our best efforts with the assurance of victory. Third, we learn further that when God is in our midst that there is the time for sinners to seek the Lord in their salvation. Isaiah said to "seek the Lord while He may be found, and call upon Him while He is near." Herod waited too long. Felix waited too long. Many thousands have waited until God had left them.

Services will continue at 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. until Sunday night. Miss Minnie Allman has been a great addition to the meeting.

Will Not Make Contract With Union Printers.

New York, April 26.--Members of the American Newspaper Publishers Association voted today not to negotiate contracts with union printers or matters in compliance with a new amendment to the constitution of the International Typographical Union which provides that such contracts be made jointly and expire concurrently.

Modern cookery experts are said to prepare their dishes to please the eye, instead of the stomach.

Two Counts of Murder Returned by Grand Jury Tuesday Afternoon

Tuesday was another busy day in Cabarrus County Superior Court, a number of cases being disposed of before Judge James L. Webb.

The grand jury was also busy Tuesday. True bills charging murder were returned against Maurice C. Howie, of Monroe, who is alleged to have run down a small girl here with his auto; and Will Bray, negro, charged with killing another negro.

C. S. Smith, Clarence Shuping and Charles Dees, charged with carrying concealed weapons and with assault with deadly weapons, were tried Tuesday and all found guilty. Sentence has not been passed. The men were charged with firing at Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Means and daughter and threatening several other Concord men on the Kannapolis road several weeks ago. E. W. Calles, the fourth man in the party, did not show up for trial, he having been released recently on $300 bond, which he forfeited. The jury recommended mercy for Dees. John Barbee plead guilty to a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. He was fined $50 and the costs. He was cleared by a jury on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

John Staton was freed by a jury on a charge of robbery. Tom Madison, colored, and Charles Wilson, charged with larceny, were sentenced to the chain gang. The former will serve 60 days and the latter four months.

Most of the jurymen that were called Monday were discharged by Judge Webb. Most of them were farmers and were excused so they could continue their farm work.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT KERR STREET CHURCH

Rev. D. V. Yorke Conducting Series of Services at Methodist Church Now.

Rev. D. V. Yorke, one of the evangelists of the Methodist Church, Western North Carolina Conference, is conducting a series of services at the Kerr Street Methodist Church. The services began last Friday night and will continue for at least ten days.

The services have created much interest, and Mr. Yorke is preaching to large congregations each night. In addition to the regular services in the church Mr. Yorke is organizing prayer meetings and as many as eleven of these meetings are being held each day.

Last Sunday night twelve conversions were made after the service, and since that service increased interest has been manifested in the meeting. Services each night at 7:30, to which the general public is invited.

Evangelistic Services Next Week. Rev. Dr. George R. Brown, pastor of Main Street Methodist Protestant Church, in High Point, will arrive in Concord next Monday to conduct a series of evangelistic services in the Methodist Protestant Church on Main Street.

Dr. Brown is a strong preacher, and the congregation is looking forward with pleasure to his coming.

The wedding bouquet of Lady Elizabeth Bowles-Lyon when she becomes the bride of the Duke of York will consist largely of white heather, which is regarded by the Scotch people as a symbol of luck.
