

HAPPENINGS IN OUR NEIGHBORING VILLAGES

ROCKY RIVER.

We had a fine rain Sunday morning, which was beginning to be needed. The closing exercises of our school took place Friday afternoon. Rev. T. Lawrence of the Episcopal Church, Concord, made an interesting and instructive address. Mr. T. H. Spence presented the diplomas to the graduates. Mrs. McArthur and Miss Starnes for general efficiency to Miss T. ...

LOCAL MENTION

Cotton on the local market today is quoted at 27 1/2 cents per pound; cotton seed at 66 cents per bushel.

AGRICULTURAL COLUMN

Conducted by R. D. GOODMAN.

The Boll Weevil and the Best Means to Be Used to Destroy Him.

Cotton is the most valuable fiber in the world and its production is necessary if the greater part of the human race is to be clothed.

Why Farmer Boys Should Get an Education.

Some of us seem to think that if our boy is going to follow farming all his life it is not worth the trouble and expense of his getting very much learning. But if he expresses a desire to become a lawyer or doctor, we make every possible sacrifice and so does the boy. He wants to be thoroughly familiar with his profession and that is right.
