

KANNAPOLIS DEPARTMENT

April 25.—Kannapolis

Week was reported a big success by all the participants, especially by Miss Sallie Beatty, who won the consolation prize.

A large wooden box containing the tickets was presented an interesting program after the usual jolly manner. In his usual jolly manner, adthe immense crowd that had gathered to see who had the lucky ticket. A large wooden box containing the tickets was presented an interesting program after the usual jolly manner.

to know her condition is improved. Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Housel spent Sunday near Mooresville with Mrs. Housel's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Wampler went to Charlotte yesterday afternoon. The four or five year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Goodnight is seriously ill of pneumonia. Miss Sadie Ritchie is nursing the child.

Four of Mr. Walter Davault's children are ill of measles, one of which is in a critical condition with pneumonia.

Mrs. T. P. Moore is having a new home erected on the highway near Glass. The home will be equipped with modern conveniences. Mr. C. A. Cook is contractor.

Mrs. Lowrance, of Charlotte, will be the guest Sunday of Misses Lury and Mamie Gilliam. Mrs. Lowrance is an aunt of the Misses Gilliam.

Of the second Sunday of next month Mother's Day will be observed at the Methodist Church. A special program will be rendered. Dr. T. F. Marr will hold Quarterly Conference at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Jamison carried their children to Charlotte Monday where they will undergo operations for the removal of their tonsils. Mr. Jamison left with the intention of having his tonsils removed, also.

The Methodist Church is being repaired and the choir will be enlarged so as to be twice present dimensions. A steam heating plant will be installed, the expenditure to amount to $6,000.

Mr. H. L. Riddell, of Gastonia, spent last night in the city. Mr. Leon Smith is building a six room bungalow. Mr. Riddell being the contractor.

Mrs. L. E. Host will occupy the house now occupied by Mr. Hendrix, who is moving to Gastonia.

Mr. H. L. Riddell and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Riddell in the hospital. Misses Lois Howie and Elizabeth Robbins spent Sunday in Asheville.

Mr. A. L. Brown left Sunday for New York to be away a week. Mrs. Joe Deaton, of the Mary Ella Hall, spent Sunday in Winston-Salem with her son.

Mrs. M. L. Troutman will entertain the Social Hour Club Thursday, May 3.

Rev. Mr. Morgan, of Hickory, delivered an excellent sermon Sunday at the Lutheran Church.

Mr. B. W. Durham is remodeling his house. Garden Week is being observed in Kannapolis. Posters suggestive of garden work have been made by John Rutledge, Jr., and Ralph Punch.

These posters deserve special mention as they reflect credit on their originators. Garden implements are displayed in the windows of the Kannapolis Hardware store, and seeds in the windows of the grocery stores. This was brought about under the auspices of the Woman's Club.

Edith Wilson, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. UMBERGER, died Sunday, interment being made in the cemetery at Mt. Olivet Church Monday.

Mrs. W. A. Hileman, Mrs. Paul Hileman, and Master Raymond Hileman spent yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Durham.

The friends of Mrs. John H. Rutledge will learn with regret of her being indisposed at her home on South Main Street.

Mrs. C. D. Morris was hit yesterday by a car. Mrs. Morris was confined to her home as the result of the accident, but it is hoped her injuries are not of a serious nature.

Following a lingering illness, Mrs. Alice Tickle died Monday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Sifford, where she had been living. The burial took place yesterday at Organ Church where she was a member. The funeral was conducted by Rev. M. L. Ridenhour. A number of Kannapolis people were in attendance. Beautiful floral offerings were in evidence as tributes from friends to the memory of the deceased. Mrs. Tickle lived an exemplary life, and her memory will be cherished by many who have been permitted to know her.

Surviving are three sons, Messrs. Arthur, George, and Roy Tickle, and four daughters, Mesdames Snyder, Hestridge, Sifford, and Yarborough, all of whom make their home in this city except Mrs. Yarborough, who lives in Lexington.

The Furr school, taught by Miss Mabel Reel, came to a close with a splendid entertainment Thursday night and a community picnic Friday. A sumptuous dinner was served on the grounds.

Miss Texie Blanton spent the weekend in Concord with Mrs. A. J. Allen. Miss Blanton reports that little Jack Allen has a case of whooping cough.

Mrs. E. P. Reel spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. L. J. Brown. Mrs. Reel states that the two children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Honeycutt, who are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Brown, are progressing fine.

Misses Mary and Cathleen Correll spent the weekend out from China Grove with Miss Mary Bost. While there the Misses Correll attended the Deaton school closing, a ball game, and a picnic dinner.

A quartette from Hickory furnished music Sunday at the Methodist Church for the Sunday school and the church service. The music was much enjoyed.

The Methodist Aid Society will be entertained Tuesday night, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Reel on Oak Street by Miss Texie Blanton and Mrs. Mary Turley.

Little Miss Ruth Bost, of Ferris, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Little Miss Eloise Lyons, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Mrs. Correll and Mr. and Mrs. Holbyfield spent Sunday out from China Grove with Mrs. Hollyfield's parents.

Mr. M. E. McKnight, of China Grove, is the guest this week of his son, Mr. J. R. McKnight.

Mr. Bidmont, charmingly entertained the Ladies League at its recent meeting at her home on Ridge Avenue.

H. L. Riddell and family spent the weekend with Mrs. D. F.

M. Ballard, of Salisbury, visited with Mrs. Sides Sunday.

Prof. Smith, who had resided in Concord about two months, and has been superintendent of the building force in the national home in Knoxville, Tenn., returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

McDaniel, of Knoxville, Tenn., with his wife, who was Miss Smith, returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

Misses Mary and Cathleen Correll spent the weekend out from China Grove with Miss Mary Bost.

While there the Misses Correll attended the Deaton school closing, a ball game, and a picnic dinner.

A quartette from Hickory furnished music Sunday at the Methodist Church for the Sunday school and the church service.

The music was much enjoyed.

The Methodist Aid Society will be entertained Tuesday night, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Reel on Oak Street by Miss Texie Blanton and Mrs. Mary Turley.

Little Miss Ruth Bost, of Ferris, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Little Miss Eloise Lyons, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Mrs. Correll and Mr. and Mrs. Holbyfield spent Sunday out from China Grove with Mrs. Hollyfield's parents.

Mr. M. E. McKnight, of China Grove, is the guest this week of his son, Mr. J. R. McKnight.

Mr. Bidmont, charmingly entertained the Ladies League at its recent meeting at her home on Ridge Avenue.

H. L. Riddell and family spent the weekend with Mrs. D. F.

M. Ballard, of Salisbury, visited with Mrs. Sides Sunday.

Prof. Smith, who had resided in Concord about two months, and has been superintendent of the building force in the national home in Knoxville, Tenn., returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

McDaniel, of Knoxville, Tenn., with his wife, who was Miss Smith, returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

Misses Mary and Cathleen Correll spent the weekend out from China Grove with Miss Mary Bost.

While there the Misses Correll attended the Deaton school closing, a ball game, and a picnic dinner.

A quartette from Hickory furnished music Sunday at the Methodist Church for the Sunday school and the church service.

The music was much enjoyed.

The Methodist Aid Society will be entertained Tuesday night, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Reel on Oak Street by Miss Texie Blanton and Mrs. Mary Turley.

Little Miss Ruth Bost, of Ferris, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Little Miss Eloise Lyons, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Mrs. Correll and Mr. and Mrs. Holbyfield spent Sunday out from China Grove with Mrs. Hollyfield's parents.

Mr. M. E. McKnight, of China Grove, is the guest this week of his son, Mr. J. R. McKnight.

Mr. Bidmont, charmingly entertained the Ladies League at its recent meeting at her home on Ridge Avenue.

H. L. Riddell and family spent the weekend with Mrs. D. F.

M. Ballard, of Salisbury, visited with Mrs. Sides Sunday.

Prof. Smith, who had resided in Concord about two months, and has been superintendent of the building force in the national home in Knoxville, Tenn., returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

McDaniel, of Knoxville, Tenn., with his wife, who was Miss Smith, returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

Misses Mary and Cathleen Correll spent the weekend out from China Grove with Miss Mary Bost.

While there the Misses Correll attended the Deaton school closing, a ball game, and a picnic dinner.

A quartette from Hickory furnished music Sunday at the Methodist Church for the Sunday school and the church service.

The music was much enjoyed.

The Methodist Aid Society will be entertained Tuesday night, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Reel on Oak Street by Miss Texie Blanton and Mrs. Mary Turley.

Little Miss Ruth Bost, of Ferris, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Little Miss Eloise Lyons, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Mrs. Correll and Mr. and Mrs. Holbyfield spent Sunday out from China Grove with Mrs. Hollyfield's parents.

Mr. M. E. McKnight, of China Grove, is the guest this week of his son, Mr. J. R. McKnight.

Mr. Bidmont, charmingly entertained the Ladies League at its recent meeting at her home on Ridge Avenue.

H. L. Riddell and family spent the weekend with Mrs. D. F.

M. Ballard, of Salisbury, visited with Mrs. Sides Sunday.

Prof. Smith, who had resided in Concord about two months, and has been superintendent of the building force in the national home in Knoxville, Tenn., returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

McDaniel, of Knoxville, Tenn., with his wife, who was Miss Smith, returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

Misses Mary and Cathleen Correll spent the weekend out from China Grove with Miss Mary Bost.

While there the Misses Correll attended the Deaton school closing, a ball game, and a picnic dinner.

A quartette from Hickory furnished music Sunday at the Methodist Church for the Sunday school and the church service.

The music was much enjoyed.

The Methodist Aid Society will be entertained Tuesday night, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Reel on Oak Street by Miss Texie Blanton and Mrs. Mary Turley.

Little Miss Ruth Bost, of Ferris, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Little Miss Eloise Lyons, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Mrs. Correll and Mr. and Mrs. Holbyfield spent Sunday out from China Grove with Mrs. Hollyfield's parents.

Mr. M. E. McKnight, of China Grove, is the guest this week of his son, Mr. J. R. McKnight.

Mr. Bidmont, charmingly entertained the Ladies League at its recent meeting at her home on Ridge Avenue.

H. L. Riddell and family spent the weekend with Mrs. D. F.

M. Ballard, of Salisbury, visited with Mrs. Sides Sunday.

Prof. Smith, who had resided in Concord about two months, and has been superintendent of the building force in the national home in Knoxville, Tenn., returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

McDaniel, of Knoxville, Tenn., with his wife, who was Miss Smith, returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

Misses Mary and Cathleen Correll spent the weekend out from China Grove with Miss Mary Bost.

While there the Misses Correll attended the Deaton school closing, a ball game, and a picnic dinner.

A quartette from Hickory furnished music Sunday at the Methodist Church for the Sunday school and the church service.

The music was much enjoyed.

The Methodist Aid Society will be entertained Tuesday night, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Reel on Oak Street by Miss Texie Blanton and Mrs. Mary Turley.

Little Miss Ruth Bost, of Ferris, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Little Miss Eloise Lyons, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Mrs. Correll and Mr. and Mrs. Holbyfield spent Sunday out from China Grove with Mrs. Hollyfield's parents.

Mr. M. E. McKnight, of China Grove, is the guest this week of his son, Mr. J. R. McKnight.

Mr. Bidmont, charmingly entertained the Ladies League at its recent meeting at her home on Ridge Avenue.

H. L. Riddell and family spent the weekend with Mrs. D. F.

M. Ballard, of Salisbury, visited with Mrs. Sides Sunday.

Prof. Smith, who had resided in Concord about two months, and has been superintendent of the building force in the national home in Knoxville, Tenn., returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

McDaniel, of Knoxville, Tenn., with his wife, who was Miss Smith, returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

Misses Mary and Cathleen Correll spent the weekend out from China Grove with Miss Mary Bost.

While there the Misses Correll attended the Deaton school closing, a ball game, and a picnic dinner.

A quartette from Hickory furnished music Sunday at the Methodist Church for the Sunday school and the church service.

The music was much enjoyed.

The Methodist Aid Society will be entertained Tuesday night, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Reel on Oak Street by Miss Texie Blanton and Mrs. Mary Turley.

Little Miss Ruth Bost, of Ferris, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Little Miss Eloise Lyons, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Mrs. Correll and Mr. and Mrs. Holbyfield spent Sunday out from China Grove with Mrs. Hollyfield's parents.

Mr. M. E. McKnight, of China Grove, is the guest this week of his son, Mr. J. R. McKnight.

Mr. Bidmont, charmingly entertained the Ladies League at its recent meeting at her home on Ridge Avenue.

H. L. Riddell and family spent the weekend with Mrs. D. F.

M. Ballard, of Salisbury, visited with Mrs. Sides Sunday.

Prof. Smith, who had resided in Concord about two months, and has been superintendent of the building force in the national home in Knoxville, Tenn., returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

McDaniel, of Knoxville, Tenn., with his wife, who was Miss Smith, returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

Misses Mary and Cathleen Correll spent the weekend out from China Grove with Miss Mary Bost.

While there the Misses Correll attended the Deaton school closing, a ball game, and a picnic dinner.

A quartette from Hickory furnished music Sunday at the Methodist Church for the Sunday school and the church service.

The music was much enjoyed.

The Methodist Aid Society will be entertained Tuesday night, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Reel on Oak Street by Miss Texie Blanton and Mrs. Mary Turley.

Little Miss Ruth Bost, of Ferris, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Little Miss Eloise Lyons, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Mrs. Correll and Mr. and Mrs. Holbyfield spent Sunday out from China Grove with Mrs. Hollyfield's parents.

Mr. M. E. McKnight, of China Grove, is the guest this week of his son, Mr. J. R. McKnight.

Mr. Bidmont, charmingly entertained the Ladies League at its recent meeting at her home on Ridge Avenue.

H. L. Riddell and family spent the weekend with Mrs. D. F.

M. Ballard, of Salisbury, visited with Mrs. Sides Sunday.

Prof. Smith, who had resided in Concord about two months, and has been superintendent of the building force in the national home in Knoxville, Tenn., returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

McDaniel, of Knoxville, Tenn., with his wife, who was Miss Smith, returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

Misses Mary and Cathleen Correll spent the weekend out from China Grove with Miss Mary Bost.

While there the Misses Correll attended the Deaton school closing, a ball game, and a picnic dinner.

A quartette from Hickory furnished music Sunday at the Methodist Church for the Sunday school and the church service.

The music was much enjoyed.

The Methodist Aid Society will be entertained Tuesday night, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Reel on Oak Street by Miss Texie Blanton and Mrs. Mary Turley.

Little Miss Ruth Bost, of Ferris, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Little Miss Eloise Lyons, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Mrs. Correll and Mr. and Mrs. Holbyfield spent Sunday out from China Grove with Mrs. Hollyfield's parents.

Mr. M. E. McKnight, of China Grove, is the guest this week of his son, Mr. J. R. McKnight.

Mr. Bidmont, charmingly entertained the Ladies League at its recent meeting at her home on Ridge Avenue.

H. L. Riddell and family spent the weekend with Mrs. D. F.

M. Ballard, of Salisbury, visited with Mrs. Sides Sunday.

Prof. Smith, who had resided in Concord about two months, and has been superintendent of the building force in the national home in Knoxville, Tenn., returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

McDaniel, of Knoxville, Tenn., with his wife, who was Miss Smith, returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

Misses Mary and Cathleen Correll spent the weekend out from China Grove with Miss Mary Bost.

While there the Misses Correll attended the Deaton school closing, a ball game, and a picnic dinner.

A quartette from Hickory furnished music Sunday at the Methodist Church for the Sunday school and the church service.

The music was much enjoyed.

The Methodist Aid Society will be entertained Tuesday night, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Reel on Oak Street by Miss Texie Blanton and Mrs. Mary Turley.

Little Miss Ruth Bost, of Ferris, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Little Miss Eloise Lyons, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Mrs. Correll and Mr. and Mrs. Holbyfield spent Sunday out from China Grove with Mrs. Hollyfield's parents.

Mr. M. E. McKnight, of China Grove, is the guest this week of his son, Mr. J. R. McKnight.

Mr. Bidmont, charmingly entertained the Ladies League at its recent meeting at her home on Ridge Avenue.

H. L. Riddell and family spent the weekend with Mrs. D. F.

M. Ballard, of Salisbury, visited with Mrs. Sides Sunday.

Prof. Smith, who had resided in Concord about two months, and has been superintendent of the building force in the national home in Knoxville, Tenn., returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

McDaniel, of Knoxville, Tenn., with his wife, who was Miss Smith, returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

Misses Mary and Cathleen Correll spent the weekend out from China Grove with Miss Mary Bost.

While there the Misses Correll attended the Deaton school closing, a ball game, and a picnic dinner.

A quartette from Hickory furnished music Sunday at the Methodist Church for the Sunday school and the church service.

The music was much enjoyed.

The Methodist Aid Society will be entertained Tuesday night, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Reel on Oak Street by Miss Texie Blanton and Mrs. Mary Turley.

Little Miss Ruth Bost, of Ferris, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Little Miss Eloise Lyons, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Mrs. Correll and Mr. and Mrs. Holbyfield spent Sunday out from China Grove with Mrs. Hollyfield's parents.

Mr. M. E. McKnight, of China Grove, is the guest this week of his son, Mr. J. R. McKnight.

Mr. Bidmont, charmingly entertained the Ladies League at its recent meeting at her home on Ridge Avenue.

H. L. Riddell and family spent the weekend with Mrs. D. F.

M. Ballard, of Salisbury, visited with Mrs. Sides Sunday.

Prof. Smith, who had resided in Concord about two months, and has been superintendent of the building force in the national home in Knoxville, Tenn., returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

McDaniel, of Knoxville, Tenn., with his wife, who was Miss Smith, returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

Misses Mary and Cathleen Correll spent the weekend out from China Grove with Miss Mary Bost.

While there the Misses Correll attended the Deaton school closing, a ball game, and a picnic dinner.

A quartette from Hickory furnished music Sunday at the Methodist Church for the Sunday school and the church service.

The music was much enjoyed.

The Methodist Aid Society will be entertained Tuesday night, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Reel on Oak Street by Miss Texie Blanton and Mrs. Mary Turley.

Little Miss Ruth Bost, of Ferris, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Little Miss Eloise Lyons, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Mrs. Correll and Mr. and Mrs. Holbyfield spent Sunday out from China Grove with Mrs. Hollyfield's parents.

Mr. M. E. McKnight, of China Grove, is the guest this week of his son, Mr. J. R. McKnight.

Mr. Bidmont, charmingly entertained the Ladies League at its recent meeting at her home on Ridge Avenue.

H. L. Riddell and family spent the weekend with Mrs. D. F.

M. Ballard, of Salisbury, visited with Mrs. Sides Sunday.

Prof. Smith, who had resided in Concord about two months, and has been superintendent of the building force in the national home in Knoxville, Tenn., returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

McDaniel, of Knoxville, Tenn., with his wife, who was Miss Smith, returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

Misses Mary and Cathleen Correll spent the weekend out from China Grove with Miss Mary Bost.

While there the Misses Correll attended the Deaton school closing, a ball game, and a picnic dinner.

A quartette from Hickory furnished music Sunday at the Methodist Church for the Sunday school and the church service.

The music was much enjoyed.

The Methodist Aid Society will be entertained Tuesday night, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Reel on Oak Street by Miss Texie Blanton and Mrs. Mary Turley.

Little Miss Ruth Bost, of Ferris, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Little Miss Eloise Lyons, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Mrs. Neal Winecoff.

Mrs. Correll and Mr. and Mrs. Holbyfield spent Sunday out from China Grove with Mrs. Hollyfield's parents.

Mr. M. E. McKnight, of China Grove, is the guest this week of his son, Mr. J. R. McKnight.

Mr. Bidmont, charmingly entertained the Ladies League at its recent meeting at her home on Ridge Avenue.

H. L. Riddell and family spent the weekend with Mrs. D. F.

M. Ballard, of Salisbury, visited with Mrs. Sides Sunday.

Prof. Smith, who had resided in Concord about two months, and has been superintendent of the building force in the national home in Knoxville, Tenn., returned to Knoxville Monday evening.

McDaniel