

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

By MISS COTTRELL SHERRILL Club and Society Items Are Solicited. Telephone 78, Tribune Office.

Grier-Hall. A marriage that will be of special interest in this city was solemnized yesterday afternoon at Lenoir when Miss Gertrude Hall, of Lenoir, became the bride of Dr. J. M. Grier, of Newton. Announcement of the marriage was made by Dr. Grier in letters sent to several friends in this city. Dr. and Mrs. Grier will make their home in Newton, where Dr. Grier is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Grier for the past several years has been court stenographer for the district which embraces Caldwell and Catawba Counties, and has many friends in western North Carolina. Dr. Grier was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here for fourteen years, having resigned last year on account of ill health. He is one of the most popular pastors that ever served in Concord, and has been prominent in the Southern Presbyterian Church for a number of years.

An Event of Interest. Every member of the Cabarrus Country Club is invited to the formal opening of the club, which will be held at the club house this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Members of the families of the club members also are invited. A picnic supper, which will be provided by the members, and will be served by a number of ladies, will be one of the features. Several short talks will also be made.

Several prizes will be given for winners in a golf tournament which will provide one of the features. Prizes will be offered to both men and women. At J. Hinson, club professional, will also give several exhibitions of driving, using different clubs for each shot. The event promises to be one of great interest, and a large number of guests is expected to be present.

In Honor of Mrs. Leonard. Mrs. L. A. Fisher entertained at a delightful party Wednesday evening in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Lacy Leonard, of Lexington.

The home was prettily decorated with Shasta Daisies, and three tables were arranged for bridge. After the game a delicious course of refreshments was served. Those playing were: Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. A. C. Cline, Mrs. T. D. Maness, Mrs. R. E. Ridenhour, Jr., Mrs. Gales Pickard, Miss Sue Caldwell, Mrs. B. W. Means, Mrs. J. L. Cannon, Mrs. J. E. Davis, Mrs. Ernest Porter, Mrs. H. G. Gibson and Mrs. Julius Fisher.

Meeting of Library Association. An interesting meeting of the Concord Library Association was held at the library yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Miss Mary King, President, presided. At the meeting the members of the association made a report of their financial campaign, which has been conducted here during the past several weeks. The money will be spent in ways that are calculated to best help the library. Members of the association plan to complete the canvass this week, and at the next meeting will know definitely just how much money they will have to work with during the year.

Young Ladies' Auxiliary to Meet With Miss Cress. The Young Ladies' Auxiliary of Trinity Reformed Church will meet this evening at 7:45 with Miss Anna Margaret Cress at her home on East Depot Street. Miss Margaret Fowkes will be the leader at the meeting.

The Concert Tuesday Evening. Alan D. Prindell, a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York, Mrs. Nancy Patterson Edwards, Mrs. Laura Ridenhour Gibson, and Miss Nell Herring of this city, gave a concert at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday evening for the benefit of the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The delightful musical program opened with piano duet from Faust, rendered admirably by Mrs. Edwards and Miss Herring. Mrs. Gibson sang most beautifully "My Rose," "Sofabs," and "Daybreak"—Daniels. Her lovely mezzo soprano voice is rich and colorful and she put her whole soul into the music. An encore was demanded and she responded graciously with "A Little Boy and a Little Girl"—Coombs.

Mr. Prindell possesses a wonderful tenor voice of fine range. He rendered "The Sob Song," from Pagliacci with marked fervor and effect. His lighter numbers embraced "Dum" and "Little Woman of Mine"—Bartlet. He made a pronounced success with his audience and was compelled to respond with a number of encores.

Mrs. Edwards has a bird-like voice which she used with ease and loveliness. Her numbers, "Butterflies"—Siler; and "Love is in My Heart"—Woodman, were charmingly and daintily given.

Miss Herring's support lent much to one of the most enjoyable recitals of the season.

U. D. C. to Meet with Miss Harris. The Dodson-Ramsauer Chapter of the U. D. C. will meet Friday afternoon at 3:30 with Miss Rose Harris at her home on Grove Street.

Annual C. E. Convention. The Cabarrus County Annual Christian Endeavor Convention will be held at Bethpage Church Sunday, May 20th. The first session in the morning will open at 11 o'clock. Dinner will be served on the ground. Every society is urged to be present and be ready to give a report of the work done the past year. The program will be published at a later date.

McDowell Music Club to Meet with Miss Ward. The McDowell Music Club will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock with Miss Millicent Ward at her home on South Union Street.

Music Lovers' Club. Mrs. Morrison King and Mrs. J. P. Cook entertained the members of the Music Lovers' Club Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. King. Eighteen of the members were present. At this meeting it was decided that this club would go into the Fine Arts Department of the Woman's Club in the Fall, the club to retain its name. The following program was thoroughly enjoyed:

- Roll Call—Current events. Biography of Bellini—Miss Mary Morrison. Libretto—Norma—Mrs. Ritchie. Piano Solo, Norma Overture—Miss Jessie Willeford. Vocal Duet, Hear Me, Norma—Miss Woodhouse and Miss MacLaughlin. Vocal Solo, In Sweetest Accents—Miss Ruby Cline.

After the program was concluded the hostesses served a delicious salad course.

Club to Entertain. Next Tuesday evening, May 15th, will be Ladies Night at the Merchants and Manufacturers Club, and a committee of club members is now busy making plans for the event. Present plans call for one of the most elaborate and interesting social events ever held at the club. Dancing, card playing and a concert by some of the most prominent musical artists of the city will be features of the evening. An orchestra has been engaged to furnish dance music during the evening and the card tables will be available for the ladies.

Mr. Sam Goodman will sing several numbers and other musical artists will be heard. Wives and daughters of each club member and more than 200 other ladies will be invited to the club for the evening.

Flower Show a Splendid Success. The Flower Show held Tuesday evening at the "Y" by the Cabarrus Black Boys' Chapter of the D. A. R., was a splendid success in every way—in fact it was so successful that it was decided to make it an annual event. More than $140 was taken in through the sale of the supper, candy, flowers and fancy work.

Mrs. Deaton Entertains at Bridge. Mrs. Nestor Deaton entertained at a delightful party Tuesday afternoon at her home on South Union Street. Bridge was played at five tables and at the conclusion of the game delicious refreshments consisting of vegetable salad, sandwiches and iced tea, were served to the following guests: Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth, Mrs. W. M. Lanker, Mrs. J. B. Womble, Mrs. T. N. Spencer, Mrs. L. B. Boger, Misses Mary and Adeline Morrison, Mrs. J. H. Mewborne, of Kinston, Mrs. P. Williams, of Charlotte, Miss Johnnie Fisher, Mrs. C. E. Parks, Mrs. Charles Porter, Miss Laura Gillon, Miss Mary Belle Cannon, Miss Bertie Louise Wilford, Mrs. J. E. Davis, Mrs. Ernest Porter, Mrs. Luther Weddington, Mrs. Clyde Propst, Mrs. A. B. Davis and Mrs. B. W. Means.

Miss Adelaide Harris in May Day Exercises. In the May Day observance at Sweetbriar College on Friday, May 4, Miss Adelaide Harris, of Concord, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Harris, was a lady of the court. As usual, the college was crowded with visitors for May Day. Parents and guests from all over the country occupied the new inn or were comfortably placed in the neighborhood.

Mrs. Harris was one of the visitors to Sweetbriar for the May Day exercises.

Miss Russell to Be Here Next Week. Mrs. Margaret Russell, Field Secretary and Bible Teacher for the Assembly's Training School of the Southern Presbyterian Church, will be in Concord May 16-22 to conduct a series of Bible classes at the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Russell is a graduate of Moody Bible Institute and has had seven years of rich experience as Field Secretary for that school, and is unusually well qualified for her work. She is a Southern woman, combining a winning personality with rare power as a speaker, and her service has been highly appreciated by Churches, women's colleges, missions, Y. W. Christian Associations and young people's conferences. Concord is exceedingly fortunate in obtaining the services of this talented woman.

The general public is most cordially invited to these classes which will be conducted afternoon and evening.

Country Club Opening. A social event of marked interest will be the formal opening of the Cabarrus Country Club Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The exercises will take place at the club. All members and their families are expected to be present. The opening of the country club will mark an epoch in the life of the city and many numerous social events are calendared there.

Members and their families are requested to carry a picnic dinner with them for the opening.

Mrs. Goodson Will Entertain Sewing Club. Mrs. J. F. Goodson will entertain the Thursday Sewing Club this afternoon at 4 o'clock at her home on West Depot Street. Members are asked to note that the hour has been changed because of the Memorial Day service to be held on the same afternoon.

Mr. Carpenter Undergoes Operation. Mr. "Bill" Carpenter went to Charlotte yesterday and submitted to an operation at St. Peter's Hospital. A message from there states that his condition is very satisfactory.

Woman's Club to Meet. The Woman's Club will meet Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Central Grade School.

Concert at Mont Amcena Seminary. Prof. Alan D. Prindell, a noted teacher of music and voice, gave a most delightful impromptu concert on Monday afternoon, to the faculty and students of Mont Amcena Seminary and Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute and many of the residents of the town, in the assembly room of the Seminary. Prof. Prindell is a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York and has a studio in the Metropolitan Opera House, where over eighty pupils receive instruction under the gifted teacher. The program given below was rendered to a large and appreciative audience. The repeated encores testified to the same. Prof. Prindell has a well trained rich tenor voice of high range, and he appeared at his best on this occasion, and he seemed highly pleased with his reception among our people. He is spending his vacation in several Southern localities. Following is the program:

- 1. Vesti La Giubba—Pagliacci. 2. You Had Better Ask Me, Irish melody—Lohr. 3. The Blind Plowman—Clark. 4. The Voice in the Wilderness—Scott. 5. 'Tis Me, O Lord, Negro Spiritual—Burleigh. 6. Duna—McGill. 7. Sweet Little Woman O Mine—Bortlett. 8. Encore numbers: Ould Doctor McGinn—Lohr. Beneath Thy Window—Capri. The Rosary—Nevin.

King's Daughters. The King's Daughters held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. T. D. Maness on South Union Street.

After the reading of the minutes by the Secretary, Mrs. Ernest Hicks, and hearing the report of the Treasurer, Miss Margie McCachern, the visiting committee reported that clothes had been given to five children, school books to one child, a comfortable bed with bed clothes provided for one sick person and expenses for one unfortunate girl paid.

The visiting committee for next month is mesdames C. F. Ritchie, A. E. Harris, Chas. Porter and Miss Adeline Morrison.

The circle, after a most satisfactory meeting adjourned to meet with Miss Mary King the first Monday in June.

Senior Class and Faculty of High School Honored. Misses Zelah Blackwelder and Robbie Corzine entertained on Monday evening at the country home of Miss Blackwelder in honor of the Senior Class and the Faculty of the High School.

The home was beautifully decorated with a profusion of Spring flowers. Miss Blackwelder wore peach crepe-back satin with silver trimmings and Miss Corzine wore yellow taffeta. Punch was served in the dining room by Mrs. Mac Bonds and the class colors, green and white, were carried out in the refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake.

Miss Blackwelder was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. J. R. Blackwelder.

Music Club Organized. On Saturday afternoon at four o'clock ten young girls met with Frances Jarratt at her home on Georgia avenue and organized a Music Club. The name decided upon for the club is the St. Cecilia Music Club. The members are: Mary Rose Flowe, Annie Hoover, Elizabeth Ross, Ellen White, Elizabeth Hopkins, Douglas Archibald, Minnie Hill Davis, Emily Pounds, Frances Boger, Alice Wall, Adelaide Foll, Sara Frances Fisher, Alice Arnfeld, and Orchard Inferry.

The following officers were elected: Elizabeth Ross, President. Frances Boger, Vice President. Adelaide Foll, Secretary. Annie Hoover, Treasurer. After the election of officers the following interesting program was rendered: The Story of St. Cecilia—Elizabeth Ross. Vocal Duet—Ellen White and Adelaide Foll. Piano Solo—Ellen White. Paper: "How Handel Learned to Play"—Annie Hoover. Piano Solo—Adelaide Foll.

At the conclusion of the program delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Russell-Wilson. A marriage of much interest was solemnized last Wednesday in Concord when Miss Mary Wilson became the bride of Mr. John W. Russell. Mr. Russell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Russell, of No. 1 township. Miss Wilson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wilson, of Florida. After the ceremony they left for Asheville and other points in the mountains. On their return they will make their home with Mr. Russell's parents for the present. Mr. Russell is one of the Jackson Training schools best officers and is a very prominent man in every way. He has made a host of friends by his clever disposition, and Miss Wilson, who was called here a few years ago to teach in this county, is a very attractive girl, and has made many friends since coming among us, by her kind and friendly ways. Mr. Russell has one of Rocky River's sweetest and prettiest girls. We wish them the best there is in life. A FRIEND.

New Cottage For Jackson Training School. Another cottage is to be erected in the near future at the Jackson Training School. Forsyth county commissioners and the Winston-Salem board of aldermen have voted $21,000 for the erection of the cottage, and work will begin as soon as possible.

The cottage will provide rooms for delinquent boys from Winston-Salem and other parts of Forsyth county. Under the present plans only delinquent colored boys will be cared for in the Forsyth Reformatory at Winston-Salem, all white boys to be sent to the school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lentz Parents of Son. Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Lentz May 7th, a son.

PERSONALS. Mrs. C. W. Cox and son, Earl, of Honea Path, S. C., are visiting Mrs. Cox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Litaker.

Miss Kathleen Sappenfield and Messrs. C. M. Sappenfield, Jr., and Charlie Griffin have returned from Columbia, S. C., where they spent several days with friends. Mr. Sappenfield, who is from Shelby, will spend several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sappenfield.

Miss Ruth Cannon has returned from Chester, S. C., where she spent the week end with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. DesPortes and children, of Winnsboro, S. C., arrived yesterday to spend several days with Mrs. DesPortes' mother, Mrs. T. W. Smith.

Mrs. J. H. Mewborne, of Kinston, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. A. Sims.

Miss Lucille Pickens, of High Point, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Frank Armfield.

Mrs. Tracy Leonard, of Lexington, arrived Wednesday afternoon to be the house guest of Mrs. L. A. Fisher, at her home on White Street.

Mr. Clyde Propst has returned from Charlotte, where he had his tonsils removed several days ago.

Miss Pat Adams has returned after a visit of several weeks to friends in the eastern part of the State.

Mrs. M. J. Wentz, of Danville, Va., is visiting her son, Mr. C. M. Wentz. Mrs. Wentz came down especially to attend the graduating exercises at Land's Sunderland School, her daughter, Miss Dorene Wentz, being a member of the graduating class.

Misses Viola and Edna Ridenhour have returned to their home in Albemarle after attending the graduating exercises at Sunderland.

Miss Beulah Host who underwent a serious operation at St. Peter's Hospital in Charlotte several weeks ago, has returned to her home here. Her condition is reported as very much improved.

Mr. John Rosman, of Chicago, has arrived to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Martin, at their home on Kerr Street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harris are spending the day with relatives in Anson county.

Mr. Harry Montgomery, Mrs. C. G. Montgomery, of Charlotte, and Mrs. Swanson, of Gadsden, Ala., spent Wednesday afternoon in Concord with relatives.

Mrs. C. L. Smith will leave Friday night for New Orleans, where she will spend a month with her niece, Mrs. J. D. Lockwood.

Charlotte Observer: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davidson have returned home from Concord, where they went to see Mrs. Davidson's father, Mr. John A. Barnhardt, who has been quite ill. Mr. Barnhardt will be glad to know that he is much better now.

Misses Grace Ridenhour and Bernee Parish spent Tuesday in Charlotte.

JANE ADDAMS HEADS LIST OF Twelve of the Greatest Women in America.—Mrs. Catt Third. Washington, May 9.—Here are the twelve greatest living American women, in the opinion of a committee of the National League of Women Voters appointed to select such a list. Jane Addams, philanthropist. Cecilia Beaux, painter. Carrie Chapman Catt, politician. Anna Botsford Comstock, natural historian. Minnie Maddern Fiske, actress. Louise Homer, singer. Julia Lathrop, child welfare. Florence Rena Saban, anatomist. M. Carey Thomas, educator. Martha Van Rensselaer, home economist. Edith Wharton, novelist. Anna Jump Cannon, astronomer. The committee declared it was "humanly impossible" to know who the really greatest women were, and the selections had been made on the basis of those who had contributed most in their respective fields.

The request to the National League of Women Voters to choose the twelve leaders was made a year ago by Senator Mandoljano, a Chilean delegate to the Pan-American Conference of Women in Baltimore. Leagues in all parts of the country were asked to submit lists, and hundreds of them poured into headquarters, so that it became a great task to choose twelve while 100 might have been selected with ease.

EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF NORTH CAROLINA Yearly Meeting Being Held in Oxford.—Barbecue Served at Noon. Oxford, N. C., May 9.—Reading of the annual reports and a barbecue served at noon were the chief events of today's program of the 107th yearly meeting of the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina.

At yesterday's session the report of the Diocesan secretary had as its feature the recommendation that the convention attempt to raise $25,000 toward the endowment of St. Mary's college, Raleigh. The report of the bishop coadjutor and suffragan bishop revealed much progress in the church during the past year. Bishop Joseph E. Canty, of Raleigh; Bishop E. A. Penick, of Charlotte; and Bishop Delaney, of Raleigh, are attending the meeting.

FRAUD ORDER AGAINST PILGRIM OIL COMPANY Was Issued Today by Postmaster General New. Washington, May 9.—A fraud order was issued by Postmaster General New today against the Pilgrim Oil Company and several individuals at Fort Worth, Texas.

The order, which will stop the delivery of mail, named the Pilgrim Oil Co., the Pilgrim Oil Co., of Texas, and W. H. Hollister, J. M. Richardson, and H. E. Robinson, of Fort Worth, individually and as trustees.

A High School Girl Calls Down a Drummer. Recently a Winecoff high school girl, while waiting at her family physician's office was drawn into a conversation with a drummer. Later he appeared in the "jitney" as she returned home. A few days later she received a warm letter from him full of taffey and a request to correspond and call on her.

She answered as follows: My dear Mr. Davis, You might even die to save us. But I'm only fourteen, Dad says too young for courting. But, as a salesman, I extend to you my greeting. And trust that you are meeting With success and that you're beating Any record made before. If you're not, locate the trouble. Make your sales run more than double It may only be a bubble, That has hindered you before, Too much flitting—nothing more. If you'll look you'll see your defects. It's flitting with the high school elects, You'll lose half your business prospects, Half at least if nothing more. Lots of men have your bad habits, Seems drummers especially "grab it." Such fellows hop up like rabbits, Just hop up and nothing more. Now you follow my prescription, Stop your habit of making friction, Give your wife your best affection, Look more after your firm's election, Sell them goods from door to door. Take this recipe before retiring, Your wife of you will soon be tiring, And through the courts, will you be firing. If I send her this and nothing more, Yours truly,

TWO SALISBURY MEN ARRESTED AT DANVILLE L. G. Rabe and J. B. Pegram, Charged With Defrauding Mrs. Nannie Smith of $3,600. Danville, Va., May 9.—Charged with defrauding Mrs. Nannie Smith, of Winston-Salem, N. C., of $3,600, L. G. Rabe and J. B. Pegram, of Salisbury, N. C., were arrested here late yesterday. Warrants which were brought here from North Carolina, charge that Rabe got $1,000 and Pegram $2,600 from Mrs. Smith under false pretenses.

FIRE IN GREENSBORO Plants of Bickett Storage Battery Co. and Chero-Cola Bottling Works Destroyed. Greensboro, May 9.—Fire discovered shortly before 1 o'clock this morning destroyed the plants of the Bickett Storage Battery Co. and the Chero-Cola bottling works, the wall paper establishment of O. G. Williams and the railroad watchman's tower at the Summit Avenue crossing, doing damage amounting to more than $60,000. The property was partly covered by insurance.

Mrs. Walter Gerke is official landscape gardener of Portland Ore., and as such is largely responsible for the beauties of the parks and driveways of "the City of Roses."

Wouldn't you like to feel that you had helped to make it easier for some boy to find the way to success?

LOCAL MENTION Cotton on the local market is quoted at 26 cents per pound; cotton seed at 66 cents per bushel. Rev. Leonard Gill will preach at the revival services to begin at the Second Presbyterian Church Sunday, May 20th. Mr. Willis M. Dorton has opened an electrical repair shop in the Porter Drug Store. Repairs are made on all fans, irons and electrical appliances. Dr. S. E. Buchanan, county health officer, returned last night from Raleigh, where he attended a committee meeting of county health officers. Only three persons were tried in recorder's court here Wednesday. Two were fined $5 each for an affray and the other was fined $25 for having liquor in his possession. The other cases scheduled for trial were continued.

Sheriff Mabrey and Deputy Sheriff Caldwell captured a still in No. 2 township yesterday afternoon, also seizing about 50 gallons of mash that had been collected near the still. The still was a rather crude affair, having been made out of several tin cans. The Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs will hold a joint meeting at the Y tomorrow night at 7 o'clock. This will be the first joint meeting of the two clubs have held for several months, and many matters of public interest will be brought up for discussion.

Three Concord boys were tried in Salisbury yesterday in connection with the robbery of Linn Bros. store in Landis. One pleaded guilty to entering the store and the other two were found guilty of receiving. They have not yet been sentenced. Officers from Wentworth, Rockingham county, came to Concord yesterday for J. D. Kelly, wanted in that county on a liquor charge, according to local police officers, who arrested Kelly here Tuesday night. He will be tried at the next term of Rockingham Superior Court.

Patrolman B. F. Widenhouse, of the local police force, who has been ill for some time, underwent an operation in the Charlotte Sanatorium this morning at 11 o'clock. Chief Tabbutt and other members of the police department, drove to Charlotte this afternoon to be with Mr. Widenhouse.

Two new cases of diphtheria, fourteen new cases of measles and two new cases of whooping cough were reported to the county health department Wednesday afternoon and night. The diphtheria cases are the first reported to the department in several weeks. The High School baseball team will play the Davidson Sophomores here tomorrow afternoon. The game will be played at the Gibson Mill Park beginning at 3:30 o'clock. As the locals have but a few more games scheduled for the year they are anxious to win tomorrow's game.

The condition of Rev. R. F. Crooks, who was suddenly stricken yesterday afternoon at his home on Academy street, is reported today as much improved. Mr. Crooks suffered an attack of acute indigestion and though his condition was critical for several hours, he is greatly improved today.

Rev. R. G. Short, who has been helping Rev. J. F. Boggs, of Hickory in a revival meeting the past week, has returned home to finish plans for a big Concord Baptist Church next Sunday revival meeting to start in the West May 13. He will be assisted by Rev. E. G. Ross. The Trinity College baseball team won the state championship yesterday, by defeating State College 3 to 0. Trinity has but two more games to play, with Davidson and Carolina, and as she has defeated these teams this year and has not lost a game, she should win the championship even if she should lose these two games.

We have received an invitation to the commencement exercises of the Oak Ridge Institute to be held May 13-15. Mr. J. A. Sloan, of China Grove, and Mr. T. S. Shinn, of Norwood, are among the graduates of this institution this year. Mr. Sloan is one of the marshals and Mr. Shinn is one of the debaters.

Mr. Jeff McNulty died suddenly this morning about 4 o'clock in the Concord Hospital. He suffered a stroke of paralysis near the Hartsell Mill yesterday, according to messages received at the hospital, and was carried there by friends. His home is in Salisbury, but he has been working at the Hartsell Mill for some time. Relatives will make funeral arrangements after their arrival here.

Increased interest is being shown now in the tuberculosis clinic, which started here Tuesday. The number of persons examined in the clinic Wednesday was larger than the number examined Tuesday, and today the number examined was larger than on either of the preceding days. Persons desiring an examination can still get an appointment by communicating with officials of the county health department.

Cold Weather Forecast East of the Mississippi. Washington, May 8.—With snow reported in the great lakes region and unseasonably cold weather prevailing in most states east of the Mississippi river, the weather bureau tonight predicted even lower temperature tomorrow for the lower lake area, the upper Ohio valley and the Atlantic states. However, a decided reaction is in prospect, the forecast calling for higher temperature and clear skies Thursday. A warning of probable gale off the Atlantic coast and along the lower lakes was issued by the bureau. WEATHER FORECAST Fair and not quite so cool tonight; Friday fair and warmer. Mercury Down to 36 at Hickory. Hickory, May 9.—The mercury registered 36 at the local government station here last night, and there was ice here this morning.

IMPROVED FINANCIAL AND BUSINESS CONDITIONS Shown by Activities of the State Employment Service. Raleigh, May 7.—Improved financial and business conditions in North Carolina is shown by the activities of the United States and State Employment Service during the first five months of 1923 as compared with the year, 1922. The report, issued today, shows the following number of persons in positions to date, according to an announcement today by M. L. Shipman, commissioner of labor and industry. The records of 1923 show that in January 3,029 persons were given jobs by the bureau of the state; in February, 2,144; in March, 2,212; in April 3,315. Last year's figures disclose the following number of persons placed: January, 1,403; February, 1,349; March, 1,575; April 2,516. Total for the first five months of 1923 is 9,209; for 1922, 7,123.

The April report, issued today, shows the Wilmington bureau still leading the state. The full report follows: Asheville: Skilled 19; unskilled 277; clerical and professional 9; domestic 57; industrial 0. Total 453. Charlotte: skilled 90; unskilled 629; clerical and professional 25; domestic 11; industrial 0. Total 755. Greensboro: skilled 24; unskilled 55; clerical and professional 55; domestic 14; industrial 1. Total 149. New Bern: skilled 15; unskilled 170; clerical and professional 0; domestic 2; industrial 0. Total 207. Raleigh: skilled 41; unskilled 89; clerical and professional 49; domestic 19; industrial 1. Total 189. Wilmington: skilled 105; unskilled 424; clerical and professional 14; domestic 32; industrial 0. Total 565. Winston-Salem: skilled 54; unskilled 236; clerical and professional 62; domestic 62; industrial 4. Total 558. Totals, male, 2,067; female, 589. Grand total 2,656.

Honor Roll of Primary School for April. First grade—Ruth Koster, Mary E. na Barnhardt, Jean Verburg, Isabelle White, Adelaide Pounds, Dorothy Abbott, Thelma Rollins, Charles Flom, A. N. Leary, Jr., Fred Dennis, Douglas Raymer, Mrs. J. M. Morrison, Bayley J. O. Thoms, Shirley Yandell, Pauline Basinger, Shirley Hatley, Nannie McCathern, Fred Howard, Billy Brown, Billy Wadsworth, Carl G. J. penter, Henri Smith-Barber, Harriet Varner, Morrison Blackwelder, Jimmie Cannon, Mildred Barber, Elizabeth Odell, James Sears, Esther Brown, Charles Smart, Jr., Betty Gay Coltrane, Frances Barrier, Mary Louise Means, Mary Alice Moore, Ellen Marie Sears, Margaret Smith. Second grade—Morton Clark, Mark Fuller, Hervert Van Pot, Rayley Y. borough, Raymond, Allman, Sam Tetter, Johnny R. Baker, Christine Elaine Laura Bonds, Fay Roberts, Gertrude Ross, Francis Ridenhour, Ashly Laughlin, Lillian Smith, Walter Bell, Nancy Dayvault, Nellie Blackwelder, Seamore Thomas, Phimore Thelma L. B. Preslar, Leander McChellon, Joseph Cannon, Tracy Spencer, Leah Harwood, Fred Rowe, Margaret Alexander, Nancy Haywood, Margaret Leutz, Hazel Miller, Tom Moore, Bettye Clark, Carolyn Lowan, Virginia Martin, Eugenia Brunley, Billie Deleyson, Pantry Austin. Third grade—Junior Hinson, Clifford Hinson, Stuart Henry, Hinton McLeod, E. C. Byrd, Claude Foster, Mary Barnhardt, Juanita Sides, Dela Mae Furr, Louise Williams, Merle Wiley, Robbie Misenerhen, Eugene Broadway, Joe Roberts, John Mike Linker, Robert Moore, Harold Turner, Ralph Ward, Wyatt Arnfeld, Ralph Benfield, Dorothy Weddington, Ida Partersson, Elizabeth Parks, Helen Gray, Mary G. Janker, Eula Lee Green, Mary McKee, Nancy Pike. MISS MARY KING, Principal.

Honor Roll Central Grammar School. Fourth grade—Juanita Yandell, Edith Haywood, Sara Lee Jenkins, Edith Shaw, Baker, Bailey, Mary Linker, Christine Freeze, Lindsey Ross, Wm. Archey Brown, Jr., Janie Carrell, Geo. Klutz, Jr., Louis H. Brown, Kathleen Southern, Jno. A. Fisher, Lynnwood Brown, Fabius Haywood, Mary S. Harrison, Mabel Russell, Pauline Widenhouse, James Batte, Alice May Follenner, Helen Ridenhour, Virginia C. man, Margaret Teeter. Fifth grade—Letha Osborne, Edna Davis, Christine Linker, Douglas Archibald, Dorothy Hartzell, Ethel Fisher, Bernice Live, Sadie Harris, Ethel Gaskel, Robert Rowan. Sixth grade—Lucy Robinson, Mable Henry, John Arnfeld, Felix York. Seventh grade—Mary Cannon, Evelyn Goodman, Millicent Ward, Beulah Craven, Donald Wauchope, Edith Fleming Harris. A. S. WEBB, Sup.

Library Report for April. Mrs. Richmond Reed, Librarian, makes the following report for the Concord Public Library for April. The library being open but fifteen days being closed half of the month due to repairs: Borrowers 5183. New borrowers 18. Visitors to reading room: adult 208 children 373, total 581. Books borrowed: adult 147, children 860, total 2311, average 153. Books bought: adult 21, children 4. Books given: adult 15. Books withdrawn: adult 24, children 26. Total number of volumes 5408. MRS. RICHMOND REED, Librarian.

With Our Advertisers. Preserve your property by using the best paint. Ritchie Hardware Co. sells the best grades. The potato plants of the Concord Plant Farm are grown from the best of seeds. See ad. today. See the new advertisement today of the Citizens Bank and Trust Company.

At the Theatres. "Trifling Women," a Rex Ingram production, is the feature at the Star today. "The Broadway Madonna" with all-star cast, and "Fighting Blood" are being shown at the Piedmont. The Pastime today is showing "The Pastime Today" in "The Primitive Lover."