Bible Thought For The Day

THEY SHALL NOT BE WEARY.—They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.—Isaiah 40:31.

THIS WILL STOP WAR.

President Harding in his Memorial Day address at Arlington Cemetery told to the very root of war. He not only found one of the causes of war, but he also found the remedy.

work in the behalf of his constituency, his State and his party. He has left a rich heritage to his family; he has made the name Kitchen famous throughout the United States, by his prompt attention to business and zealous action in guarding the interests of his friends and party.

THE FIGHT IS ON.

Dry forces throughout the United States generally are of the opinion that Governor Smith's action in repealing the Mullen-Gage bill is the signal for a determined fight by the wets to do away with prohibition in the United States.

We think the action of Governor Smith killed him politically. He may think there are enough "wets" in the United States to elect him to the Presidency, but we are frank to admit that we do not.

The action of Governor Smith may make it possible to get more liquor in New York State but it will not bring wines and beer to the United States. The Federal government will continue to operate in The Empire State, and while its work will be harder without any assistance from the State, it will be carried on just as zealously as it has been done in the past.

TRADE WEEK A SUCCESS.

Trade Week ended here Saturday afternoon in a wild rush of shoppers to the bargain counters. The event officially ended at 6 o'clock Saturday evening after running ten days, and from every quarter come reports indicating that all went as a great success.

CHANGES AT STATE COLLEGE.

If the Board of Trustees of State College can get Dr. E. C. Brooks to accept the presidency of that institution they will get a president that will soon take rank with the leaders in that profession throughout the South.

AN ILLUSTRIOUS SON GONE.

North Carolina has lost one of her most illustrious sons in the death of Representative Claude Kitchen. Mr. Kitchen was a national figure, due to his earnest and efficient work in Congress, and though he fought always for the principles set for in the policies of the Democratic party, he enjoyed the esteem and respect of the Republican colleagues for he fought fairly and openly.

but its present growth is nothing to what the college would enjoy under the proposed changes.

IT'S THE WILL THAT COUNTS.

The will to do is what counts in most every instance. A person can have every opportunity add waste them. Another person will have practically no opportunities and yet accomplish great things with what little they have.

"BEBE" HARRIS DROWNS IN CREEK AT SALISBURY

Got Beyond His Depth While Bathing With Bunch of Other Lads on a Picnic. Salisbury, May 31.—John W. Harris, 11-year-old boy, known to his playmates as "Bebe" Harris, was drowned while on a picnic with the Sacred Heart Catholic School at the old waterworks place, on Crane creek, near town, today. The boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Harris, his father being a railway post clerk between Salisbury and Knoxville. "Bebe" borrowed a bathing suit from a little friend after a number of boys had been in the water and later got in water over his head, while the rest of the party were not in that immediate neighborhood. When the boy was missed a search was instituted and the creek was explored where another child had thought he stepped on the body of some kind of an animal. This body proved to be that of the Harris boy, who had been in the water for some time and efforts to resuscitate him proved futile.
