SOCIAL & PERSONAL

D. A. R. Meeting.
The Cabarrus Black Boys' Chapter D. A. R. held the last meeting of the year on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. R. E. Hidenhour as hostess. Sixteen members were present, with two visitors, Rev. W. H. Eubanks, of Poplar Tent and Mrs. J. F. Shinn, of Norwood. One new member was elected, Miss Myrtle Harris, formerly of Concord, but now of Charlotte.

The principal business of the afternoon was the election of a new Regent to succeed Mrs. John F. Reid, who has been the Regent for the past two and a half years. Mrs. R. S. Young was the fortunate choice of the chapter, and it is to be congratulated upon having her as Regent. She was a charter member of the organization, has represented it in the Washington Congress, and is equipped by position and ability to take the leadership of this work.

Rev. W. H. Eubanks, who has assisted the Chapter in having republished Harris' History of Poplar Tent, made a few remarks about this work. The Regent, on behalf of the Chapter, presented Mr. Eubanks with a purse, in appreciation of the work and help he has given in having this history republished.

The feature of the program for the afternoon was a report given by Mrs. J. F. Shinn, of Norwood, on the last Continental Congress, which met in Washington. Mrs. Shinn's description was delightful. She touched the highlights of the Congress with a humor that this meeting of the D. A. R.'s often evokes, and closed with a description of Belleau Woods, reproduced in the Smithsonian Institute. The sacrifice of our boys there was made possible by the high ideals for which our country stands and for which we trust she will always stand. After Mrs. Shinn's talk the program was fittingly closed by the Chapter repeating the American Creed.

Mrs. Ridenhour, assisted by Mrs. H. G. Gibson and little daughter, Frances Gibson, served a delicious iced course, after which the meeting adjourned until Fall.

Visitors Honored.
Miss Cornelia Stribling, of Atlanta, and Miss Mary Hewitt Moore, of Gastonia, who are the attractive guests of Misses Elizabeth and Annie Guffy Dayvault, are being the recipients of many social courtesies. Tuesday Miss Mary Dayvault gave a lovely dinner party in their honor. Tuesday evening Miss Elizabeth Dayvault gave a beautiful party in compliment to her guests. The home, yard and flower garden were very lovely on this occasion. Early summer flowers were used in profusion. After several hours spent in dancing, and in other enjoyment, the hostess served a delicious iced course. About thirty or more guests were invited.

Wednesday evening, Miss Edith Guffy gave a charming party in honor of Misses Stribling and Moore, and Miss Susie Crowell, of Thomasville, who is the guest of Miss Guffy. Miss Crowell has visited here on several occasions, and she is pleasantly remembered in Concord.

After a delightful social hour, the guests were served tempting refreshments.

Party Tuesday Evening.
Miss Elizabeth Dayvault charmingly entertained Tuesday evening, honoring her attractive house guest, Miss Mary Hewitt Moore, of Gastonia. The lovely reception hall, living room, and porch were made more alluring by the summer flowers, which were used in profusion. The beautiful front lawn and the rose garden were quite popular with the thirty or more guests during the evening.

Dancing was enjoyed by a number of couples, after which delicious cream and cake were served by Misses Dayvault.

Other out-of-town guests invited were Miss Edith Guffy, of Louisville, charming guest of Mrs. L. L. Mauldin, and Miss Cornelia Stribling, of Atlanta, Ga., guest of Miss Annie Guffy Dayvault.

Double Wedding.
A wedding of much interest and surprise to friends in Cabarrus and elsewhere took place at Mt. Olivet Church at sunrise this morning. The two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Scott were married: Lura to Mr. William S. Welborn and Blanche to Mr. Thomas H. Hough.

Just before the bridal party entered Miss Ida Mae Green, of Roaring River, gowned in brown tulle with corsage of snapdragons, sweetly sang "O Promise Me," accompanied by Miss Vitus Leo, Nicholson, of Burlington, N. C., wearing a midnight blue coat suit with black accessories, also wearing a corsage of snapdragons.

As the first strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March were pealed forth from the stately organ into the early morning breeze, a bride and groom entered each door, and took their places at the altar. Rev. T. W. Smith and Rev. W. A. Rollins performed the ceremony, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The brides wore blue traveling suits with a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Welborn used bisque accessories, while Mrs. Hough wore blue and black accessories.

Immediately after the ceremony the couples left by auto for short trips. Mr. and Mrs. Welborn expect to spend some time in Western North Carolina, while Mr. and Mrs. Hough will spend their honeymoon in southern cities before going to Lumpkin, Ga., for their future home. Mr. Welborn is a business man of Wilkesboro, while Mr. Hough is engaged in the lumber trade at Lumpkin, Ga.

Only the immediate families witnessed the ceremony.

Two Attractive Visitors Honored.
Miss Martha Best, of Warsaw, and Miss Virginia Starr, of Raleigh, together with their host, Mr. A. Jones Yorke, were guests of honor at a two o'clock luncheon yesterday given by Miss Catharine Goodman at her home on North Union street. Covers were laid for twelve, including the hostess. These were: Misses Martha Best, Virginia Starr, Elizabeth Harris, Lucy Richmond Lentz, Elizabeth Smith, Messrs. A. Jones Yorke, Luther T. Hartsell, Jr., Earl Henderson Brown, Jr., Joe Bost, William Ritchie and Miles Wolf.

Party by Miss Mabery.
One of the most elaborate social affairs of the entire week took place on Wednesday evening between the hours of 8 and 11 o'clock when Miss Lucile Mabery entertained at a party honoring her brother, Mr. Clarence Mabery, of Badin. As the guests entered the door punch was served by Mrs. R. D. Mabery. Music was rendered by the Forest Hill Orchestra. After an hour or two of playing various games the hostess invited the guests into the dining room where ice cream and cake were served. The guests on this occasion numbered about thirty.

Harris-Query.
The marriage of Mr. J. F. Harris and Miss Kate Query, third daughter of the late Mr. Caldwell Query and Mrs. Query, took place yesterday at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, on Franklin avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. C. Wauchop, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, and was charming in its simplicity and quiet dignity. The vows were spoken before a background of green decorated with "Queen Anne's Lace," flanked on either side by standard's holding masses of sweet peas. The bride and groom entered the parlor together to the music of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, played by Mrs. Frank Barringer, sister of the bride. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present, a number being from out of town. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Harris left for a motor trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina.

Mrs. Harris wore a midnight blue traveling suit, and carried a shower bouquet of snapdragons, and sweet peas.

Many beautiful gifts attest the popularity of the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Harris will be at home after July 1st.

With Our Sick.
The condition of Mrs. G. S. Kluttz, who suffered two broken bones in her left leg several days ago, is reported today as improved, and Mrs. Kluttz is resting more comfortably now.

Mrs. T. H. Helms returned yesterday from a Charlotte hospital where Tuesday she underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils. The operation was a success and Mrs. Helms is reported as resting comfortably now at her home.

The appointment to head this important club was offered to Mr. Fields by Mr. Charlie McGee, representing the Democratic National Committee. Mr. McGee was in Concord for several hours this morning, and while here offered the appointment to Mr. Fields, who agreed to organize and head the local club.

Mr. McGee declared while here that practically every city of 1,000 population in North Carolina, has been organized now and while a club has to have but 20 members to be officially recognized by the national committee, in many cities in this State clubs have secured several hundred members. Mr. McGee declared that the national committee expected to enroll 200,000 active workers in these clubs before the next Presidential election. "These 200,000 or more active members give promise of becoming a vital factor in the next Presidential election," Mr. McGee stated.

Mr. Fields has already started the work of securing the members for the local club. The first 20 men who sign up will permit the local club to be officially recognized, and Mr. Fields expects to enroll many in addition to the original 20. ROTARY MEETING

Facts About Concord Library Presented to Club Members.—Musical Program.
A shop talk by Bob Ridenhour, a fine musical program led by Alan D. Prindell and Rosy O'Grady, and short talks by three persons intimately associated with the Concord Public Library, were features of the weekly meeting of the Concord Rotary Club yesterday.

The musical program was especially fine. It was conducted by Alan D. Prindell, of the Concord club, and Rosy O'Grady, of the Charlotte club.

Bob Ridenhour was heard with much interest in his talk regarding the management and operation of a modern laundry.

Just what the Concord Public Library is doing was pointed out by Mrs. Richmond Reed, the librarian; Miss Mary King, president of the Library Association, and Miss Elizabeth Dayvault, president of the Junior Library Association, which is made up of High School students.

The three talks were very instructive and gave the members of the club a new insight into the fine work the library is doing.

Vice President A. G. Odell presided at the meeting in the absence of President Sam Rankin, who is attending the International convention in St. Louis. Martin Verburg had charge of the program.

"Are you sure that you have shown me all the principal parts of this car?" asked the fair prospective purchaser.

"Yes, madam, all the main parts," replied the dealer.

"Well, then, where is the depreciation?" Tom told me that was one of the biggest things about a car."

Misses Lucile and Mary Yorke Johnson, of Charlotte, are guests of Mrs. W. G. Caswell.

Mr. John F. Kern, Jr., of Salisbury, spent several hours here Tuesday with friends.

Fifty of Them Ride Into Town but the Negro is Gone; Charged With Criminal Assault.

Williamston, June 20.—Fifty mobsters made an unsuccessful attempt at lynching a negro here early Tuesday when they rode into town and demanded that Sheriff Roberson deliver to them Earl Bascomb, charged with an attack on a white girl and with cruelly beating a white youth who went to her rescue yesterday. News of the coming of the mob reached the sheriff before they entered. "The negro has been taken away," the sheriff told them, "but if he were here I would not turn him over to you knucklers."

"We are not knucklers, but we want that negro," said the leader.

The sheriff invited them into the jail to see for themselves that the negro was not there.
