hursday, July 26, 1923.

THE CONCORD TIMES

PAGE FIVE.

BNOR MORRISON PUTS BLAME ON MAXWELL

Wrote Revenue Measure

'harlotte Observer. Denouncing.

te required ouches to their education from the atement principal of a famous school for boys will not forget to look into the virtues charges failed to went from school directly into occupa-tion for themselves. Mr. Leslie was the bashful boy of the school. He was quieet 1022 Mr. A ble for that and retired, but he was by no means packward. He began his career as clerk for the Cannon & Fetzer Company and along about the time he had developed singular proficiency. Mr. Rogers opened he recent ousiness in Charlotte under the firm was insti name of Yorke Brothers and Rogers. charged He secured Mr. Leslie to take the management of the business, and one morn ber 31, 1922. ing in the course of a few years, he ed that Mr waked to find that Mr. James W. Cannon had "discovered" Mr. Leslie. Mr. Cannon had opened an office in New York for the handling of the product of his mills and he put Mr. Leslie in harge of the New York house. It was o very great an advancement that Mr. logers did not undertake to hold Mr. eslie to the Charlotte house, but he let him go with word to Mr. Cannon that he had secured the finest business head and the safest manager he could have found in the country. Never a day assed but that Mr. Rogers was wont o reminisce in connection with Mr. flour. Results with the North Carolina Leslie's Charlotte service, that he knew flour were excellent. I found that bread at the close of business every item in the dough made from this soft wheat flour day's transactions, with every item of must be stiffer than that made with hard sale properly legered. In the broader field at New York, period for rising.

JOHN C. LESLIE.

Mr.- Leslie had opportunity for exremaining portion

NOS ASK RECALL OF GOVERNOR-GENERAL WOOD

dopted without a dissenting

RELIEVE THE

ouses of the Legislature Unani-Endorse the Resolution. ame modest · and rd Wood wa of both hou The here tonight. was addressed to President

He became known and admired among olina feed itself. he big people of New York as a man of cter. In his earlier days he had made his way without asking advice, but it ame to pass that in a city of great

P. L. July 24 (By the Asso It was an extraordinary career of sucnt Harding's r ess the Concord young man worked out or himself; it was closed at a time when the future appeared to hold out yet greater things for him. The shock is one from which his friends must their praise of the results." one from which his friends must merge as from a daze into realization that this fine young man has passed on and that we shall know him no more.

ARGUMENT OF COUNSEL

In Dr. McBrayer Case Heard Before Special Legislative Committee.

he opening argument for the defense.

He made light of the charges preferred against Dr. McBrayer declaring the sanaorium had grown from a small hospital own Rats Invading Melon Fields in

Kinston, July 24 .- Farmers today re and watermelons in fields surrounding his city, where bumper crops of the

The reports

was de nclons have been made.

me from several localities.

orted damage by rats to cantaloupe

Kinston Section.

of the finest of its kind in the States under his management.

years ago.

dropped

today.

of the seven years term still against him

He is now between 50 and 60 years old

RECAPTURED AFTER

Meantime

of the world.

ley today.

ncreased recognition of his servicer, will be glad to send,

Raleigh, July 25.-Arguments of ounsel were heard today by the special DISABLED VETERANS gislative investigating committee apate Placing Them on a Permanent pointed during the last session of the Compensation Basis.

General Aassembly to make inquiry into charges of mismanagement against Dr. hington, July 25.-A brief L. B. McBrayer, superintendent of the State sanatorium for treatment of tu-Caviness Brown, Lillington, of counse proponents of the inquiry, characterized Dr. McBrayer as "temperamenally unfit" to be at the head of the sana-"Every patient who enters the sanabrium is afraid of Dr. McBrary because He was arrested and brought to Uewton f his domineering and overbearing disosition." declared Mr. Brown. "He is he Kaiser Bill of North Carolina." Judge Walter Neal, Laurinburg, made

MRS. McKIMMON PLEADS VILLA'S WIVES NOW FOR NORTH CAROLINA FLOUR FIGHTING FOR RANCH

Mr. John C. Leslie was one of "Frank Rogers' boys," which is to say, he belonged to a coterie of Concord Raleigh, N. C., July 23.—"While we Villa Ractions Line Up on Side of Each of the Widows. he belonged to a coterie of Concord Raleigh, N. C., July 23.-- "While we Mexico City, July 23.-- Francisco young men who received the finishing are having 'Live at Home' campaigns and (Pancho) Villa's matrimonial difficulties are striving to have home products lab- threaten to plunge his Canutillo yanch hands of Mr. B. F. Rogers, who was eled 'Made in North Carolina,' I hope we into bloodshed.

Many of Villa's followers who work principal of a famous school for boys in that town. Not many of Mr. Rogers' boys went to college. Nearly all of them went from school directly into occupa-tion for themselves. Mr. Leslie was the bashful boy of the school. He was quiect issued here tonight. other group of Villa's followers are de shall be properly done.

"Much has been said about the hard manding that the ranch be turned over wheat flour which comes into the state to Luz Corral, who is regarded by the from another part of the country and of Villistas as the legal wife.

Berta Villa has placed her interests the fine bread it produces, but it is now high time that the merits of our native in the hands of Jose Martinez Baca, a grown soft wheat flour be equally well Mexico City lawyer. known," Mrs. McKimmon continued.

Symptoms of trouble are so strong "It is true that soft wheat flour does that the Federal troops near Canutillo not contain as much of that elastic in- and also in the towns in the State of gredient known as gluten as does the Durango have been ordered to hold themhard wheat flour, but it contains quite selves in readiness to proceed to the Villa enough to produce light fluffy rolls and wholesome well risen loaves. I should Foll Followers of Villa who have arrived at like to emphasize that statement so that Parral for the funeral of their dead it may never be forgotten. "All we need to consider is that the flour shall be of good quality, the yeast shall be fresh and lively and that the trouble. A number of other Villastas are en route to Cantuillo, where they are expected to take the side of the folmixing and manipulation of the dough lowers of Villa who remained at the ranch and who are now demanding part "For six months of one year I spent of the gains of the ranch for work permuch time in experimenting with bread formed.

PREACHER BREAKS UP HORSE-SHOE PITCHING

Prays. in Open Field For White Youths Who Are Thus Wasting Their Time. Monroe, July 22—Wearing a pair of wheat and it required therefore a longer tan shoes, white sicks, light trousers

"The flavor of the bread was unexcell- and a "jim-swinger" coat, a colored ansion of his executive talents and Mr. Cannon was not slow in realizing that n him he had secured a valuable man. Under Mr. Leslie's management the ground in her neighborhood mills if she white boys against spending their time will follow recipes and directions which pitching horse-shoe, something like ng rapidity and regularity, and with the Office of Home Demonstration Work Jonah was sent to warn Ninevah against her evil ways.

Mr. Leslie came into progress:vely "I understand there are at present . The evangelist repaired to the field of igher financial standards. Prosperity around two hundred flour mills in North operations and right in the midst of a lid not turn his head. He was ever the Carolina which produce approximately game of honest to goodness horse-shoe honestly-spoken four million barrels of flour per year. pitching he sailed in to the white boys Johnnie Leslie" among the home folks Enough to feed the whole population of by telling them that horse-shoe pitching n New York and among the friends the state. The housewife who learns to isn't hardly a decent game for colored rom home calling upon him there. In use this home product not only gives boys to waste their time with, to say the business circles of that city he won her family a wholesome food but helps in nothing of intelligent folks. He told the place of abiding trust and cogndence. the great movement to make North Car- boys they should be at home working the gardens or helping about the farm

"At the recent annual school and conwork. He then kneeled and offered praysterling honesty and unquestioned char- ference for North Carolina Home Dem- er for the boys and they began to slip onstration Agents held at Blue Ridge, away until the game was fiinally one of the most interesting demonstra- broken up. tions given was in making tea rolls with

It is stated that some of the boys susiness men, his advice was sought. North Carolina soft wheat flour, home wanted to whip the intruder, but dared made liquid yeast, and an egg-from the not do it because he was a preacher. poultry raised on the farm. The rolls were prepared, baked and served to the audience that all might test their qual-

Virginia Jurist Sees "Travesty on Justice" Imminent in the Garrett

AFTER MANY YEARS. Murder Trial.

Richmond, July 24.-Governor E. Lee Catawba Man Who Escaped From Pen 32 Years Ago, Is Arrested Near New-Judge C. J. Hundley of the Cumber-Newton, July 23.—Dan Brinkley, "Lit-the attorney general or his assistant to the Dan" Brinkley, as he was known 35 take charge of the prosecution of years ago to distinguish him from his Robert O. and Larkin C. Garrett father, was arrested in Claremont, several miles from this city, today by Dep- scandal and from the disgrace of eral miles from this city, totag of search and from the disgrate of a great criminal trial which threatens to go down in history as a travesty upon years ago. He was convicted in Catawba court in 1888 of robbing the dwelling house of an old man named Smith and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. Three

AND BUILD YOUR HOME THERE

What a feeling of happiness there is in that statement. What a feeling of pride and pleasure creeps over you when you can say you OWN YOUR OWN HOME!

ON THE NATIONAL HIGHWAY

(Between Concord and Kannapolis)

No more desirable spot for your permanent home.

The property is enhancing in value rapidly-so attend this sale-buy several lotsmake a good investment.

TERMS ARE EASY

Remember the Date and Hour-Saturday, uly 28th; 3:00 P. M.

SALES CONDUCTED BY

Atlantic Coast Realty Company, Agents

"The Name That Justifies Your Confidence" Offices: PETERSBURG, VA. WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. Members of North Carolina Real Estate Association.

JUDGE HUNDLEY CALLS ON GOVERNOR TO ACT

order to save the state "from a great land county circuit court to appoint

USS ELIMINATION THE TWELVE HOUR DAY

nited He said the whole investigation was brought about by a disgruntled employee. After J. C. Little, of the counsel for he defense, had concluded his argument the committee adjourned for lunch. Two other speeches are to be heard this afernoon.

late the 12 e and inten

to Narcotics May ted in Montana

Investigation developed that fewer he rodents had been seen in the city cently. Locally no reason was ad-Farmers believed that aneed. nelon crop were luring the rats to the ountry. The damage in spots lared to be considerable In a local shop proof was found that ot all the rats had migrated. A numer of melons piled in a show window vere raided overnight and large noles gnawed through the rinds. Growers aid they would resort to poisoning. They were certain of their identification

Electric Light Fishing

in Beaufort County. 25.-Three tried Coun- Columbia will be hosts. Lightning Kills Father and Baby and ases are State vs vs. H. R. couses and the Carlisle home. mosques and If kept continously running a watch will tick 160,144,000 times a year.

Injures Daughter.

ten years in the penitentiary. Three Bonifant, the temporary think Mr. years later he escaped and had entirely prosecuting attorney, has wholly mis The last six out of sight. conceived his duty. months he has been visiting Claremon

Bonifant, commonweath's attorney o from time to time giving his name a Powhatan county appointed was Flowers, but some of the older citizen special prosecutor in the Garrett carse became convinced that he was Brinkley by Judge Hundley because of the ineligibility of the Cumberland prosecu-He acknowledged his identity tor. M. Smith, who witnessed the shoot and says he had been all over the world ing in front of the Baptist Parsonage at since he left here. He is well dressed Cumberland Corthouse June 5, in which and appears to have prospered. He will Rev. E. S. Pierce was killed be taken to Raleigh and will probably apply to the governor for a shortening

Revolutionary War Skeleton Found side Bayonet in Bronx.

New York Times. Workmen digging an excavation

the Hunts Point section of the Bron: TWENTY-FIVE YEARS vesterday afternoon unearthed a huma Dan Brinkley, of Catawba County, skull and a number of bones. The di-Traveled Much Over the World in the very was made about 300 feet south f Haggerty's Dock, on the Bronx

Raleigh, July 24 .- After being at lib-River, near Long Island Sound. erty nearly 25 years as an escaped con The skeleton was found a few viet, Dan Brinkley, Catawba county, to below the surface of the swamp morrow will be behind the bars at the in a sitting position, and be that of a young man. State penitentiary here to finish serving the rusty blade of what was declare a 10-year sentence for grand larceny.

Brinkley was convicted in Catawba county in 1888 and sentenced to serve to be a Revolutionary War bayonet. "I'll bet it's one of the Lieutenant 10 years in the estate prison. He es of George Washington's caped a few months after beginning his Army," said an old patrolman, who ha term, and nothing was heard of hinr un been on duty in the Bronx sixte til he appeared at Claremont, Catawba "Some of the fighting in county, near his old home, a few days Battle of Long Island was done ago. Older residents remembered Brinkfar from here, and Joseph ley and he was arrested yesterday. Drake, the patriot poet, is buried les Brinkley, who is now about 60 years of than three-quarters of a mile away age, told the authorities that during his Dr. Leo of Lincoln Hospital long freedom he had traveled over much pressed the opinion that the skull ma; seventy years old, whereupon De The sheriff of Catawba county will tective Herman Cahill of the Simpso leave Newton for Raleigh with Brink- Street Station went to work on

Straw Vote at Atlantic City 20

Against Dry Law. 95 - Th

Atlantic City, N. J., July Into the Yadkin. Spencer, July 23 .- Diving into shalcomplete result of the vote taken her low water in the Yadkin river near by the National Liberal Alliance Com Spencer Sunday afternoon Fred Bolton, mittee showed that in Atlantic City of Concord, was seriously injured by the 11,698 person were opposed to prohi fracture of his neck bone and was pulled bition, and 520 favored it. There were Vancouver, B, C., July 25 .- Elaborate out of the water in an unconscious con- 5,619 ballots against the enforcement of the blue laws, while 1.934 were in

The votes were taken on the board walk, streets, and in business places Baughan.

The committee will conclude similar canvasses throughout this State and the office of Dr. W. C. Slate in Spencer, Pennsylvania, then going to Ohio and the West. The vote included visitors from all over the country as well residents Prayer Meetings in Parliament. London. July 25.—Very few people prow that a weekly prayer meeing is all in the House of Commons, and is eld in the House of attended by members of all parties. The meeting is held every Tuesday, in the oom of the sergeant-at-arms, but in no circumstances are non-parliamentary peo ple allowed to participate. The at tendance is schiem more than a dozen. Members conduct the service in turns and it follows the Non-conformist form of free prayer, with Bible reading Prayer meetings have been held in the House of Commons at intervals since 1832, when first a group of devout mem-bers met together for prayer.

Our Opening Sale is an Extraordinary Success and Continues With Tremendous Force.

The unheard of low prices at which we are selling shoes is the talk of the entire community. If you haven't attended this sale of real savţ, ing values, don't fail to come and look over our shoes. If you have been, come again, as we are adding new numbers to our stock every day.

We wish to express our appreciation and thanks to those who have helped make this opening such a great success, and regret that they were not all waited upon at the opening, but we have increased our sales force and will be able to · handle the crowds from now on.

PARKER SHOE STORE

'warehouse" rats.

of the pests as "town-dwelling"

Canada to Welcome Harding.

preparations have been completed for dition. He had just reached the river the reception and entertainment of Pres-ident Harding and his party, who are ed in making his first plunge. Being undue to reach Vancouver tomorrow on acquainted with the shallow water, only the return from Alaska. An address about four feet deep at the place, he under the direction of Miss Helen L of welcome signed on behalf of Canada struck the bottom unaware. He was by W. L. M. King, the Prime Minister, said to have been paralyzed for a time. His associates rushed the injured man to has been hanosomely embossed. It is to be read to Mr. Harding by J. H. King, minister of Public Works. On where he was given first aid. Later he arrival of the Harding party a reception was sent to the Salisbury hospital where an X-ray picture disclosed a fracture will be given in a military and naval setting. An official luncheon will fol- lengthwise in the neck bone. The patient was placed in plaster and while At a formal dinner at a hotel the official representatives of the Dominion he passed a very restless night is said to of Canada and the province of British be doing nicely today.

Dr. Schweinitz to Visit Charlotte.

Fred Bolton Injured When He Dives

Charlotte, July 23 .- Dr. Geo. E. De Schweinitz, professor of ophthalmogy Rockingham, July 24 .-- E. S. Carlisle the University of Philadelphia, one and his baby were struck by lightning the best known oculists in the world, this afternoon and killed and a small will be in Charlotte Wednesday, August daughter was injured, during a severe electric storm which passed over the Entwistle mill village. The bolt struck the Carlisle home.

-Nearly one-eighth of the surface Sweden is covered by lakes.