KIWANIS MEETING

Better Mail Service Discussed at Meeting.—Fine Musical Program.

The Kiwanis Club of Concord at its regular weekly meeting on Friday evening at the Y. M. C. A., after receiving Eugene Barnhardt, Jr., as a new member, enjoyed a musical treat and a talk on music in the public schools by Prof. Price Doyle, recently elected by the public school board to direct the music in the Concord schools.

Eugene Barnhardt, Jr., was present at his first meeting since his election to membership in the club. President Tracy Spencer called on Will Foil to introduce the new member into the club, which the Major did in appropriate terms.

Vocal solos by Miss Mary MacLaughlin and by Miss Elizabeth Macey, who have just returned to Concord to resume their teaching in the public schools, were the features of the entertainment program. Both these singers delighted their hearers again with their selections, their accompaniments being played by Miss Nell Herring.

Prof. Doyle in his talk outlined the work that they are planning to accomplish this year in the primary and grammar schools, and the more advanced work which will be handled in the High School. It is very likely, he continued, that a little later on he will be able to organize one or more orchestras in the schools.

Only one business matter was brought to the attention of the club. Clarence Barriger pointed out the fact that persons living in his vicinity are receiving poorer city mail service than should be the case. Letters are collected by the carrier when he makes his round in the afternoon about 2 o'clock. Any letters mailed after 2 p. m. are not collected until about 11 o'clock the following morning, which is then too late to catch any of the morning trains, and in many instances letters are not dispatched from the Concord postoffice for more than 24 hours after they have been placed in the mail boxes in that section of the city.

Upon motion, President Spencer appointed Clarence Barriger, Joe Pike and Gilbert Hendrix as a committee to confer with Postmaster John L. Miller, and see if he cannot have his department furnished an improved service.

The attendance prize, given by Buck Hartsell's team, was drawn by Robert Ridgeway.

The program for next Friday will be in charge of Team No. 3, Lee Crowell, Jr., captain.

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE BEGINS ANOTHER YEAR

Many Friends, Alumni and Visitors Are Present For Opening Exercises.

Mr. Pleasant, Sept. 14.—Many friends, alumni, and distinguished visitors attended the opening of the Collegiate Institute and greeted the large student-body of this year. The devotional exercises were conducted by the Rev. L. A. Thomas, of Concord. For the scripture lesson he read the 19th Psalm which beautifully portrays the love and infinite power of God. Rev. W. T. Albright, of the local Methodist church, was present and extended to the student-body a cordial invitation to participate in all the activities of the church. Mr. Albright exhorted the students that they have a definite, Godly purpose for their life, that they have the courage of conviction to do as Daniel, that which is just and right regardless of public opinion. The Reformed Church pastor, Rev. Mr. Warlick, delivered some very timely remarks to the students. He impressed the importance of knowing one's self and that the great purpose of life can then be fulfilled by giving real genuine service to humanity.

The Board of Trustees was represented by Mr. Thomas, who promised better days for the Collegiate Institute. He further said that it is the duty of every young man to observe the rules of good health since self-preservation is essential to fit him for the tasks of life. Work will not disgrace nor will it hurt any one. Get hold of yourself by controlling your three powers of body, mind and soul. He also stressed the value of wholesome associations with other men. The knowledge of human nature is a valuable asset to the life of every man. Hold fast to the basic, fundamental principles of life which are essential for true success.

Rev. C. L. T. Fisher delivered a good speech to the cadets. He gave Bates College as an example of where a small school is doing wonderful work. He said that no school can give a man brains. The capacity for knowledge money will not buy. Certain mental tasks are necessary in securing knowledge, tasks that must be performed by the individual student. These tasks are done at any school that gives an adequate course and has a competent faculty. The small college gives definite advantages, the chief of which is personal contact between faculty and students; hence better work results. To succeed in school two points are essential: First, the willingness necessary to perform the given tasks consistently; and second, to succeed to the greatest degree is possible by thorough co-operation with your fellowmen and having full harmony and co-operation with the faculty.

Inactive Liver

"I have had trouble with an inactive liver," wrote Mrs. S. Nichols, of 4412 Spencer St., Houston, Texas. "When I would get constipated, I would feel a light, dizzy feeling in my head. To get up in the morning with a lightness in the head and a tremble feeling is often a sign that the stomach is out of order. For this I took Thedford's Black-Draught, and without a doubt can say I have never found its equal in any liver medicine. It not only cleans the liver, but leaves you in such a good condition. I have used it a long time, when food does not seem to set well, or the stomach is a little sour."

If it isn't Thedford's it isn't BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine.
