

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

TO ALMAEAE OF N. C. W.

September 24th is Founders' Day at North Carolina College for Women.

The annual of the North Carolina College for Women, at Greensboro, are receiving the following letters from J. I. Foust, president of the college and Miss...

As a result of their service to the college secured an appropriation of $125,000 for buildings and other improvements.

The alumnae of the college met on the 23rd to celebrate this event, to make plans for the larger tasks of the future.

It is not possible for you to hold a meeting of your association and in this way consecrate anew to your Alma Mater the state which she seeks to improve.

It is not possible in a short time to say all the things I should like to say to you. I must, thank, most gratefully, the alumnae for the unselfish service they rendered at the meeting of the general assembly...

Very sincerely yours, J. I. FOUST, President

October 5th, is Founders' Day at North Carolina College for Women. The day will not be a day of rest, but a day of activity.

Very sincerely yours, CLARA B. BYRD, Alumnae Secretary

The meeting conducted at Poplar Tent the past week by Rev. Wm. Black, of Charlotte, came to a close last night with an attendance that taxed the capacity of the church.

Mr. Black was assisted by his singer, Mr. Andrew Burr, of Canada. The services were well attended throughout the entire week. There were forty-four additions to the church at Poplar Tent and several joined other churches. Two hundred eighteen dollars was contributed to the work represented by these evangelists.

Several came out from Concord and greatly assisted in the song services. All so the colored choir from Cedar Grove was present several nights and rendered melodies enjoyed by everyone. The religious interest of the church and community was greatly quickened

Witnesses Summoned for Prison Investigation. Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 19.—Although Governor W. W. Brandon has written a letter saying that a grand jury investigation will not be tolerated, Solicitor Jim Davis has already summoned witnesses before the Jefferson county inquisitorial body which meets tomorrow to probe conditions under which convicts work at Banner mines of the Pratt Consolidated Coal Company. A mutiny of prisoners there last week resulted in the blowing up of mine machinery valued at $10,000.

Food, alleged brutal punishment, medical treatment, and labor conditions will be touched upon in the course of the investigation, according to Solicitor Davis, and findings of the grand jury will be made public without delay.

To Sell Articles Made by Oteen Patients. Durham, N. C., Sept. 24.—The establishment of a gold chevron shop here for selling articles made by patients of Oteen hospital, near Asheville, is being considered by the local chapter of the Red Cross. A committee, appointed to consider the advisability of establishing the shop, is expected to report within the near future. Rugs, blankets, bead work and many articles, especially of the gift nature, are made by soldiers being treated at Oteen hospital, it is said, and disposed of through gold chevron shops in various parts of the state.

Denby Not to Resign. Washington, Sept. 22.—Official denial was made at the White House today of reports that Secretary Denby is to resign and is to be succeeded by Assistant Secretary Roosevelt.

Death of Miss Margaret E. Eagle. Miss Margaret E. Eagle was born in Cabarrus county, April 25, 1850, and died in Concord, at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. L. Goodman, on September 21, 1923, after an illness which lasted over three years. She was a patient, uncomplaining sufferer, and an earnest, faithful Christian. She was one of the charter members of the Second Presbyterian Church, formerly known as the Cannonville Church—having been a resident of Concord for over thirty years. She was an active church worker until illness laid her aside. The funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. C. Wauchope on Saturday, and interment was made in the old Presbyterian cemetery.

Beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. She leaves to mourn their loss two sisters and one brother. The sisters are Miss Jenima and Mrs. A. L. Goodman, both of Concord, and Mr. Thomas Eagle, of Rowan county.
