KIWANIS MEETING

Regular Weekly Meeting Held Friday Evening, Oct. 5. M. C. A.—Talk by Mr. John Miller.

A splendid program, including vocal selections by Mr. Samuel Goodman and a talk by Postmaster John L. Miller, featured the Friday evening meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Concord.

Only a few business matters were brought before the club, the chief one being in regard to the erection of signs on the highways entering Concord. Charley Smart and Albert Palmer were appointed as a committee to raise the necessary funds and have the signs erected, the committee having power to act. They were instructed to have the signs erected before Fair Week.

On October 19th at the meeting of the club, the members will entertain Governor Morrison, of North Carolina, and there is also a possibility of having Gov. McLeod, of South Carolina. It was voted unanimously that the club invite the Rotary Club to hold its meeting with the Kiwanians on that day, the joint meeting to be held at 6 o'clock, and to which the Kiwanians and Rotarians may bring their wives and lady friends.

The vocal selections by Mr. Goodman, with accompaniments by Miss Nell Herrington, were most enjoyable, and the Kiwanians expressed their keen appreciation of the treat by their repeated accolades. Mr. Goodman's voice was in splendid form, and his singing was greatly enjoyed by his hearers.

Postmaster Miller in his talk emphasized the partnership between the post office and the citizens of this city. It is put there by the government, of which each citizen is a part. It should be the aim of every person to help expedite the work of the post office in every way possible, and the post office is there, to render the very best service in its power to the public. The Post Office department of the United States is one of the largest business conducted by the government, the volume of business transacted by it running into the billions of dollars.

The postmaster then went into an instructive talk on the different kinds of first class postage, special delivery mail, registered mail, and parcel post, with explanations about the preparation of parcel post packages for mailing.

The mailing of matter all through the day was urged by Mr. Miller, as this is a means by which the post office employees will be enabled to handle the volume of business more expeditiously. There are rush hours at the office, the same as in any other business, he explained, and if persons will form the habit of mailing their matter at various times through the day, instead of a rush at the closing evening hour, the congestion would be relieved.

The attendance prize, given by Team No. 6, Clarence Barrier, captain, was drawn by Brevard Harris. The silent boost was given by Clarence Barrier.

The club with its meeting on Friday evening began the first of its twice-a-month meetings, which will be held on the first and third Fridays in each month in the future. The next meeting of the club will be during Fair Week, October 19th.

Mr. Blanks has had considerable experience in Association work, especially in Dallas, Texas, where he was employed under the leadership of Mr. Scott, one of our most efficient secretaries in the South.

Mr. Blanks has also had considerable experience in the war work of the Y. M. C. A. Immediately after the summer school closed at Blue Ridge, Mr. and Mrs. Blanks were in Concord and while here the former met the board of directors of the local Y who were so pleased with him that they made him an offer to take up the work here after Secretary Verburg had left.

Mr. Martin Verburg, present general secretary of the Concord Y. M. C. A. announced this morning that he would leave the latter part of October or the first of November for Marion, O., where he accepted a similar position with the Y. M. C. A. of that city. CHARLOTTE HIGHS TRIMMED CONCORD BOYS EASILY

Ridenhour Has Collarbone Broken and His Club Lost Its Pep Following This Accident in First Half.

Bailey Groome in Charlotte Observer. The Charlotte high school team, after being outplayed by Concord in the initial period, came back strong in the final three quarters and won 33 to 0 yesterday afternoon at Independence Park before a large crowd of enthusiastic rooters from both towns.

In the final play of the second period, Ridenhour, fast quarterback for the visitors, had the misfortune to have his collarbone broken.

The visitors had a heavy club on the field and looked rather dangerous in the opening period. They held the locals without danger and out-kicked them in the exchange of punts. Their tackling was good and they were holding their own well. However, when Ford crashed off in the second period for a touchdown, the boys from Concord lost their pep and did not put up nearly so good an exhibition.

In the second half both teams set in a number of substitutes and the play was much faster and to Charlotte's advantage. The Charlotte backfield functioned better than formerly. Ford and McMillan were the stars of the game, the latter taking a forward pass from Wilson in the last half minute of play for some 30 odd yards and a touchdown.

Charlotte played woefully weak in the matter of getting the extra point following touchdown, and this weakness may cost them a game, or in fact, a championship, unless they strengthen. Only one point was made out of five attempts. The other two extra points came in the second period when Saunders broke through the line and blocked a punt on the five yard line, the oval bounding back of Concord's goal where a wild free scramble for the ball ensued. Halfback Cleaver saved his team from mother touchdown by covering the ball.

Play was marred when Schlitz, Charlotte guard, was put out of the game for rough tactics and his team was penalized half the distance of the goal. The locals suffered some 50 yards in addition to this penalty, which was some 40 yards, making a total in penalties of 90 yards. Another weakness, since most of the penalties gave Concord a first down.

There wasn't any doubt about Charlotte being guilty of the offenses for which they were penalized. There were several escapes as a matter of fact, when Referee Jackson failed to see the violations. The officials worked out a good game, so good in fact that Bub Crayton suggested that he be complimented for his work and so here it is. Bub.

The lineup and summary follows: Concord (0) Charlotte (33)
