

HAPPENINGS IN OUR NEIGHBORING VILLAGES

ENOCHVILLE.

Mr. Mack Allan and children spent Sunday evening at Mrs. Hunicutt's near Kannapolis.

Mr. C. R. Freeze and family visited relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Heglar of Rose Avenue, Kannapolis, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Walter Cashion.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Upright visited relatives Sunday.

Miss Alice Wright was a visitor Sunday at the home of Mrs. Jennie Addie and Lou Anna Overcash.

Mr. C. A. Weddington has been picking cotton for Mr. H. H. Overcash.

A lady evangelist worker from Mooreville was a visitor in Enochville Sunday.

Mr. Channery Freeze and family visited at Mr. C. F. Freeze Sunday.

Misses E. W. Phillips, G. L. Upright and Jim Seidler, of Kannapolis, and Mr. Allan were visitors of Mr. C. C. Upright last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Thompson, of China Grove, visited Mr. John Thompson's on Sunday and were accompanied home by Mrs. Carl, son of Mr. John Thompson.

Little Dorothy, daughter of Mr. Mack Allan, has had an attack of tonsillitis.

Mr. C. Upright's baby has been right since.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Upright, of Kannapolis, recently visited relatives in the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright Overcash and son, left Monday on their return to California, having spent the past few months with relatives.

Mr. J. W. Petrea died last week, after a lingering illness of several months, and her body was laid in its last resting place in the little cemetery at Unity, following funeral services conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. C. Brown. Mrs. Petrea will be missed by her family, being a loving wife, a Christian, tender-hearted mother, and a kind, grand-mother, to those entrusted to her constant care. She was 62 years, 9 months and 11 days of age. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church and died rejoicing in the Lord.

BUSY BEE.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright Overcash and son, left Monday on their return to California, having spent the past few months with relatives.

RIMER.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Buckwell, September 24th, a son.

Miss Nan Furr has returned home from the Charlotte hospital, where she underwent an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Roseman, of Concord, spent Sunday evening in Rimer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Safrat and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Safrat spent Sunday in Rowland.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peacock, and children, of Concord visited at Mr. R. D. A. Safrat Sunday.

There will be Sunday School at Prospect E. L. Church on next Sunday at 10 o'clock.

The community fair will be held at Rimer on Thursday, October 11. Everybody is cordially invited to come and bring well filled baskets.

DIXIE.

There are now 227 pupils enrolled in the High School, and one hundred forty in the grammar grades.

ROCKWELL HIGH SCHOOL.

The Senior Class was organized September 28th. The following were elected as officers: Oscar Poole, president; Ruth Lybely, vice-president; Lulora Poole, secretary and treasurer; Maudie Norris, corresponding secretary.

The Rockwell High School Literary Society was organized September 28th. The following were elected as officers: Ruth Lybely, president; Claude Frick, Vice President; Ruth Holsinger, secretary and Treasurer. The program committee consists of Oscar Poole, chairman, Maudie Norris, Rosa Brown, Reid Miskelmer, Lee Graham. The program for the meeting of October 12th, is as follows:

Song: America.

Piano Solo—Miss Richardson.

Query: Resolved, That George Washington was a greater man than Abraham Lincoln.

Affirmative: Claude Frick, Mabel Fisher, Mary Holsinger. Negative: Virginia L. Goodman, William Ritchie, Maye Nelson.

Recitation—Annie Beck.

Reading—Lulora Poole.

Vocal Diet—Maudie and Elizabeth Norris.

Dedication—Glenn A. Miller.

Jokes—Clinton Fisher.

Mr. J. York Peeler was a visitor in our school Friday, September 28th.

The Rockwell High School Glee Club is progressing very nicely under the careful instruction of Miss Alma Richardson.

Miss Elizabeth Norris was a recent visitor in our High School.

The county health officers held a Baby Clinic October 5th at the Rockwell High School. About sixty (60) mothers brought their babies to be examined. Several foreign doctors were present from around the globe. This meeting proved to be a great success.

The Parent-Teacher Association will meet Thursday, October 11th, at 7:30 p. m. in the school auditorium. PETE.

BEAR CREEK.

The annual Harvest Home service will be held at Bear Creek Reformed Church, Sunday, October the fourth at 11 o'clock. The missionary societies of the congregation will hold their annual public meeting and thank offering service in the afternoon. Dinner will be served on the ground. Everybody is invited.

Chap practice was held Wednesday night of this week at the home of Mr. J. N. Penninger.

Mr. Lester Troxell, of Pennsylvania, spent the week-end at Mr. A. C. Leutz's.

Mr. Troxell is principal of the graded school at Mt. Pleasant.

Miss Clara Leutz took the class from Nazareth Orphan's Home to Newton last Sunday.

Mr. John Penninger, who holds a position in Albemarle, spent the week-end with home folks.

First of this meeting, October 9th.

Mrs. Geo. H. Moore, who underwent an operation at the Concord Hospital several weeks ago, is not doing so well at this writing.

Mrs. Geo. C. Penninger and little son, Lamar, is spending several days this week at the home of Mr. J. N. Penninger.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Moore spent last week with their son, Mr. W. B. Moore, of Beas.

Mr. Theodore Lyerly, and Miss Grace Penninger spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Lyerly, of Kannapolis. The six-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Barrier was buried in the Bear Creek cemetery recently.

Mr. W. F. Moore is suffering with a very sore hand.

NUNTIES.

Quite a large crowd attended preaching at Friendship Sunday night.

Mr. Arvel Mauney and family, of near Allen, spent Sunday at Mr. H. M. Dry's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rhinehardt, of No. 11, were visitors in No. 9 Sunday.

Miss Julia Smith spent Saturday night in Concord with Miss Pearl Drye.

Mr. Riley Petrea and family, of Mt. Pleasant, spent Sunday at Mr. J. V. Petrea's.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Rhinehardt spent Sunday in No. 10.

Mr. Reece Smith, of Concord, spent Sunday with home folks.

Mr. M. R. Rhinehardt and daughter spent Sunday with his son, Mr. Titus Rhinehardt, near Finger.

Misses Ethel Petrea, Esther Wetter and Emma Petrea, of Mt. Pleasant, spent awhile Sunday with Miss Julia Smith.

Mr. Carr Plott visited in Georgeville Sunday.

Mr. Clyde Miller and family were visitors at Mr. Jim Hudson's Sunday.

Misses Vertie and Ploma Ferguson, of Clear Creek, were visitors in No. 9 Sunday.

Mr. G. E. Smith made a business trip to Concord Monday.

LITTLE GIRL.

Misses Maye Shinn and Martha Lefler, of Concord, were week-end guests of Miss Carrie Barrier.

Miss Elma, Eudy, of Charlotte, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Eudy.

Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Shinn, of China Grove, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. J. C. Shinn.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Shinn and daughters, Misses Inez and Maye and Margaret, spent last Sunday with Mrs. Shinn's mother, Mrs. M. M. Furr, near Midland.

Mrs. J. M. Klutz and Miss Lizzie and Mr. Jackson Klutz spent last Sunday night with Mrs. Klutz's father, Mr. John Turner, of No. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Eudy spent last Sunday afternoon with relatives in Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Coley spent Sunday in Albemarle with relatives.

TULIP.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Millsaps and children spent the week-end visiting Mr. Millsaps' parents in Hiddenite.

Mrs. W. A. Stewart is improving nicely from an operation which she underwent a few days ago at the Concord Hospital.

Misses, Lloyd Hartsell and Webb Clontz spent the week-end with their parents near Midland.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Barbee, of Lincolnton, spent the week-end here visiting relatives.

Misses Creadie Wilson and Louise Thompson returned Monday to the Southern Industrial Institute in Charlotte after spending several days here with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kirkpatrick and children spent Sunday with relatives in Charlotte.

Mrs. Robert Warren and two children, of Greensboro, are visiting relatives here for several days.

Mr. Clarence Propst, of Wake Forest College, was called home Sunday on account of the serious condition of his mother, Mrs. C. W. Propst.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Phillips and children and Mrs. Mary Talley spent Sunday in Salisbury visiting Mrs. Geo. Russell.

Miss Lillie May, of Salisbury, spent the week-end here visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary Slough.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tave have returned from a week's visit to relatives near Haw River.

Messrs. Murray Plyler and Morris Marshall, of the United States Navy, stationed at Norfolk, Va., are spending a furlough of ten days here visiting Mr. Plyler's mother, Mrs. M. M. Plyler.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert May, of Catawba, spent Sunday here visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Mary Slough.

Mrs. H. W. Furr, who has been confined to her home on account of illness, is slowly improving.

Mr. Clyde Brown, who has made his home in the Methodist Protestant orphanage in High Point for several years, arrived here last week and is now making his home with his mother, Mrs. Lottie Brown, on St. Johns Street.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Freeze, a son, on October 3rd.

NO. 10 TOWNSHIP.

Cotton is about all opened and most of it is picked.

There was an immense crowd present at the singing meet at Howell fifth Sunday of last month. Nearly all choirs of the Sunday Schools of the Cabarrus and Mockenburgh Baptist Association were represented and delighted everyone with their splendid singing.

Mr. J. L. Gourley of Greer, S. C., and Mrs. Belle Lemmon, of Spartanburg, S. C., were recent visitors here.

Mr. Ernest Bigger is having chills.

Mrs. J. K. Eaves has returned from the State tubercular sanatorium much improved in health.

Mrs. Bettie Connor lost a good milk cow recently.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burleyson, October 5th, a daughter.

See, Venus, we know a man just a little this side of 70 years, who has never profaned the name of God nor cursed. For a two-cent stamp we will send you his name and address.

Our boys and girls are all anticipating a good time at the fair. If for no other reason the fair had been staged to bring happy expectations to the young people of the county, that within itself would be worth every dollar that has been put into it. All aboard for the fair. H.

ROBERTA.

We have been having our regular services. We had with us Brother Lawrence Little and wife Sunday night. He sure made a fine talk and everybody enjoyed it. We will have him with us again the 16th of October at 7 o'clock to make a talk. There were eleven additions to the Church Sunday and four babies were baptised. We are glad to see these young boys and girls come in and begin to work.

Rev. Fred Love and Rev. Fred Furr

spent the week-end with home folks, returning to college Monday afternoon.

Venus, we have a little girl in our community, 12 years old who picked 211 pounds of cotton. If you can beat that trot out your cotton picker.

Misses Ethel Blackwelder and Gertrude Furr spent the week-end at home.

Rev. Roy Fisher spent Saturday night with Mr. Fred Furr.

Miss Essie Linker and Mr. Hoke Linker will enter King's Business College in Charlotte in a week or so to take a business course.

The community was shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. Kiser, mother of Mr. J. W. Kiser, of our village. Her death occurred Sunday at 2 o'clock. The funeral was held at Mill Grove and interment was made there on Monday.

Our singing school is progressing nicely. The young folks are taking great interest in it.

The school at Roberta will open the 22nd of October. We do not know all of the teachers yet. We are looking for a fine school year.

TRUST.

Most of the farmers are getting along fine with harvesting their crops.

Mrs. Nannie Ringhardt and little daughter are improving somewhat after being sick for some time.

We had a killing frost on the night of the 9th of October.

Rev. W. T. Albright from Mt. Pleasant was a visitor here Tuesday.

Mr. Lawson Paul and Miss Cora Morrison, John and Willis Starnes, of Locust, were visitors in this section Sunday.

Mr. Ralph Cox from Albemarle, visited in this community Sunday.

Mr. L. D. Whitley and wife and little daughter visited in Kannapolis Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Smith were visitors at Mr. John Widenhouse's Sunday.

Miss Mary Widenhouse is back at home from Boiling Springs school.

The 'possum hunters have started out tooting and yelling and pulling kittens a little too soon.

It seems that moving day will take place around here a little later. The people are going to change around some for next year.

BOOSTER.

GIANTS OUTPLAY YANKEES IN THE FIRST GAME

Count Was Three and Two When Stengel Drove Out Home Run.

New York, Oct. 10.—Swinging his bat in that fabled setting of the diamond—the ninth inning, with the score tied, two out and the count "two and three"—Casey Stengel blasted his way into baseball's hall of fame today with a home run drive that gave the New York Giants a spectacular victory over the Yankees, 5 to 4, in the opening clash of the 1923 world's series.

That mighty and heroic blow by Stengel, who came back after being relegated to baseball's scrap heap not long ago, ended a gripping, pulse-throbbing drama, a thrilling battle in which the wits, drives and punch and brilliant defense of the Giants triumphed over the courage, brawn and fighting spirit of the Yankees.

Crashed to the extreme right center field stretches of the vast Yankee stadium, that herculean smash broke the heart of Joe Bush, baseball star, who had held the Giant in check after seeing his teammate, Waite Hoyt, battered from the mound, and who, otherwise, might have stood out tonight as the hero of a Yankee triumph instead of but a courageous figure in defeat. It was a heart-breaking ending to Bush's gallant stand, yet he spelled his own down-fall by his tactical error in "grooving" the ball for Stengel's dramatic feat.

A vast throng of 55,000, that shattered all records for world's series attendance, and gate receipts, and filled close to capacity the far-flung reaches of baseball's greatest monument, witnessed the opening of the third successive struggle between New York's rival clubs for premier honors of the diamond.

That colorful gathering of fans from all walks of life and all parts of the compass was whipped to a frenzied pitch of excitement as it saw unfolded before it one of the epic of the game. It saw the Yankees smarting from the memory of having been beaten for two straight years by their national league opponents, rush spectacularly to the front in the first two innings, only to be overhauled by a sensational rally, a masterpiece of strategic attack, that gave the world's champions four runs and the lead in the third inning; it saw the American leaguers, after being turned back time after time by an amazing defense, finally tie the score in the seventh inning, then go down to defeat as the crack of Stengel's blow was drowned in a thunderous ovation.

The attendance eclipsed by more than 13,000 the highest previous mark, while the gate receipts of practically $182,000 surpassed the old record by more than $50,000.

Items From the Mooresville Enterprise.

The Cabarrus county fair opens at Concord Tuesday for one week. This promises to be one of the most entertaining events of the season. Great preparations have been made to give the people of this section of the State the best fair ever. Iredell will be represented with a big delegation of exhibitors and hundreds of daily visitors.

Rev. L. A. Thomas, of Concord, formerly of this city, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Colson last Monday.

Master Luther A. B. (Rev. Mr. Thomas was the speaker to the children at the graded school auditorium last Monday. His address was very pleasing to the children and quite edifying.

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."

Ed—"No, not this one. We went to eat and she said she wasn't hungry, and she really wasn't."

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."

Ed—"No, not this one. We went to eat and she said she wasn't hungry, and she really wasn't."

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."

Ed—"No, not this one. We went to eat and she said she wasn't hungry, and she really wasn't."

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."

Ed—"No, not this one. We went to eat and she said she wasn't hungry, and she really wasn't."

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."

Ed—"No, not this one. We went to eat and she said she wasn't hungry, and she really wasn't."

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."

Ed—"No, not this one. We went to eat and she said she wasn't hungry, and she really wasn't."

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."

Ed—"No, not this one. We went to eat and she said she wasn't hungry, and she really wasn't."

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."

Ed—"No, not this one. We went to eat and she said she wasn't hungry, and she really wasn't."

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."

Ed—"No, not this one. We went to eat and she said she wasn't hungry, and she really wasn't."

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."

Ed—"No, not this one. We went to eat and she said she wasn't hungry, and she really wasn't."

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."

Ed—"No, not this one. We went to eat and she said she wasn't hungry, and she really wasn't."

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."

Ed—"No, not this one. We went to eat and she said she wasn't hungry, and she really wasn't."

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."

Ed—"No, not this one. We went to eat and she said she wasn't hungry, and she really wasn't."

Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Boger at the Jackson Training School and director of music at that institution, has been invited to take her singing class to Rockingham Thursday and Friday of this week, where they will sing for the State convention of the King's Daughters. Miss Goodman is very efficient in musical training and she has a class of boys under her that will both surprise and delight the audiences at Rockingham or elsewhere.

Ed—"I met the most unusual girl last night."

Bill—"Oh, yes, they're all that way for the first time."