Child Badly Injured in Accident, Hill's L. Fincher, six-year-od son of Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Fincher, was set riously injured Friday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock when struck by a large truck near his home on Ken Street, a whole year free.

The child suffered injuries to his head and breast and had his left foot badly to the county health department Thursmangled. According to a statement by his father reported to the department for several

the child did not see the truck and ran days. across the road directly in front of it. The front of the truck struck the child and carried him along for several feet. He was then released and fell under the vehicle, his left foot being caught in a rear wheel, and being held there by the brakes which were applied by the driver in an effort to stop.

Mr. Fincher stated that the child was freed from the truck only after several ternoon. Mr. Barnhardt, who plays an persons assisted him in pushing it. The accurate, steady game at all times, won child was rushed to the Concord Hos- 4 up. pital, where every medical attention pos-
