

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

CARR-HOWELL NUPTIALS IN DURHAM SATURDAY NIGHT

Brilliant wedding of Carolina Social Favorite and Atlanta Young Man.

A brilliant and notable wedding of unusual interest in North Carolina and Georgia was solemnized at St. Philip's Episcopal Church at Durham Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The church was beautifully and artistically decorated in white and green. Standards bearing graceful clusters of blooms formed an avenue of lilies from the entrance of the church to the chancel.

Just before the ceremony Mrs. Neal Plarr, of Charlotte, sang "O Perfect Love." Twenty years ago Mrs. Plarr, who was then Miss May Oates, sang at the wedding of the bride's mother and father.

In the receiving line were: Mrs. Julian Carr, Jr.; Clark Howell, of Atlanta; Mrs. James W. Cannon, grandmother of the bride; Julian Carr, grandfather of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Clark Howell, Jr., and the other members of the bridal party.

After the ceremony a reception was given by the bride's mother, Mrs. Julian Carr, Jr., for the bridal party, intimate friends, and out-of-town guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell motored to Raleigh, leaving on the midnight train for New York. November 6th they will sail on the Berengaria, spending their honeymoon in southern France and England.

Among those who attended from this section were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Neal Plarr, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Lambeth, of Charlotte; Mrs. James W. Cannon, Miss Elizabeth Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Cannon, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene T. Cannon, of Concord; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cannon, of York, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Hill, of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. David H. Blair, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cannon, Concord.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. J. S. Carr, Jr., who was before marriage Miss Margaret Cannon, of Concord, daughter of Mrs. J. W. Cannon.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY INSTITUTE

For the Central District of the Classis of N. C. of the Reformed Church.

The Woman's Missionary Societies of the Central District of the Reformed Church in North Carolina, including the counties of Rowan, Cabarrus and Mecklenburg, will hold a one day missionary institute at Mt. Zion Reformed Church, China Grove, N. C., Wednesday, November 7th.

The following is the program: 10:00 a. m. The institute will be called to order. Mrs. L. A. Peeler, of Kannapolis, presiding.

Address: "Our Children an Asset or a Liability to the Missionary Enterprise"—Rev. L. A. Peeler, Kannapolis.

Presentation of Mission Study Books on Japan by Mrs. C. E. DeChant, Charlotte.

Presentation of The Magyars in America—Mrs. H. W. Link, Hickory.

Roll Call.

Our Literature—Mrs. H. W. Link, offering.

Noon—Picnic dinner served to all by the ladies of Mt. Zion.

1:30 p. m.: Address: "Our College, Its Future"—Rev. Shuford Peeler, Charlotte.

Forum, in charge of Mrs. L. A. Peeler.

Our Young Peoples' Work—Miss Mildred Suther, Concord.

Echoes from the General Synod—Mrs. C. C. Bost, Hickory.

Our Weakness and Our Strength—Mrs. L. A. Peeler, Kannapolis.

Consecration Service in charge of Mrs. H. L. Misenheimer, Salisbury.

Mrs. Effie Hostess at Country Club Luncheon.

The following from the Winston-Salem Sentinel will be read with interest here: Mrs. Edward L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Mrs. Edw. L. Effie entertained most charmingly at the Country Club this morning at a beautiful luncheon.

Tate, Baek, and Bradberry at Oteen.

Mrs. G. T. Crowell and Mrs. J. Lee Crowell will take charge of the Forget-Me-Not drive here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson Parents of Son.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilkinson are being congratulated upon the birth of a son on Saturday, November 2nd.

Reformed Church Groups to Meet.

Groups Nos. 1 and 2 of Trinity Reformed Church will meet tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. G. T. Crowell. Group No. 3 will meet tomorrow at 3 o'clock with Mrs. C. O. Earnhardt.

Meeting of Friday Afternoon Book Club.

An enjoyable meeting of the Friday Afternoon Book Club was held with Mrs. P. B. McFadyen on Grove street October 30. Mark Twain was the study.

Mr. W. S. Long was host at a birthday dinner given in his honor on last Sunday at his home on Allison street.

The occasion was in celebration of his 71st birthday and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends.

A large table, about 22 feet in length, was placed in the yard where the sumptuous dinner was served amidst the beautiful bouquets of cut flowers composed of chrysanthemums, roses and ferns.

On account of the ill health of the honoree, the occasion was only a quiet affair.

Mr. Long was presented with several nice and useful gifts with the best wishes of all for many more happy occasions for him.

ONE PRESENT.

Entertains at Supper.

Mrs. Aubrey Henry delightfully entertained Friday evening at her home on North Union Street in honor of Mr. Henry, who celebrated his birthday Friday.

In addition to the members of the immediate family Mrs. Henry's guests included Messrs. Ed. Melchor, Charles Linker, Clarence Purefoy, Walter Johnson and Albert Johnson, who are associated with Mr. Henry at the St. Cloud barber shop.

The occasion proved one of unusual pleasure for Mrs. Henry's guests.

PERSONALS

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Simpson, of Monroe, spent Friday in Concord with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Foil returned Friday afternoon from Pinehurst, where they spent several days attending the Sandhill Fair.

Miss Elizabeth Hahn, student at Lenoir College, is spending the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hahn.

Miss Wall and Mr. Joe Gudger, of the Berk street at Albemarle, spent Thursday here on business.

Miss Mary Hiller and Miss Grace Probst, students at Lenoir College, spent the week-end here with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Alice Broom, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Cline, left Saturday morning for her home in Raleigh.

Mrs. R. A. Brower is spending the week-end in Laurinburg with her mother, Mrs. McNeil Smith.

Mrs. J. I. Davis, Jr., Mrs. Joe A. Hartsell and Mrs. C. W. Byrd spent Friday afternoon in Charlotte.

Mr. P. B. Fetzer has returned to her home here from Montreat, where she spent the summer.

Mr. P. B. Raiford, of Lebanon, Tenn., is spending several days here with home folks.

Mr. Jones York, student at State College, is spending the week-end here at the home of his mother, Mrs. A. R. Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Teague, of Greensboro, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Craven.

Mr. C. L. Mossman, of Asheville, is spending the week-end with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shuford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed. Cline on Friday evening, en route from the Sandhill Fair to their home in Hickory.

Mrs. Chas. B. Wagoner left Saturday night for Philadelphia and New York, where she will spend some time.

Misses Kathleen Sappenfield and Mary Belle Cannon left this morning for Georgeville, where they will teach school.

Misses Grace Probst, Marj Hiller and Elizabeth Hahn have returned to Lenoir-Rhyne College at Hickory, after spending the week-end here.

Mr. W. T. Miller, of Columbia, S. C., spent the week-end here with friends.

Mrs. Clyde Probst has returned from Winston-Salem, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. L. Enid.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Eudy and daughter, left Sunday for Florida, where they will spend some time with relatives of Mrs. Eudy.

Mrs. L. K. Lee, of Gastonia, spent Sunday afternoon and night here with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sherrill and daughter, Ellen, have returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Correll in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Graeber spent the week-end in Burlington with relatives of Mr. Graeber.

Mr. Joe Hendrix is spending several days in Greensboro on business.

Miss Kathleen Sappenfield left this morning for Georgeville, where she will teach school this year.

Miss Elizabeth Hahn and Miss Grace Probst have returned to Lenoir College at Hickory, after spending the week-end here with home folks.

Miss Edith Somney, of Charlotte, spent the week-end in Concord, the guest of Miss Mary Spurgeon.

Miss Stella Misenheimer and Miss Mary Stella, of this city, and Mrs. Squires, of Charlotte, spent Sunday in Winston-Salem with friends and relatives.

Miss Lena Hilliard, of Greensboro, spent the week-end in Concord with her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Terry, at her home on North Church Street.

Miss Estelle Crowell, of New York, is spending some time here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Crowell.

SPENCER TANNER DEAD IN AUTOMOBILE CRASH

Son of S. B. Tanner, Widely Known Textile Manufacturer.

Charlotte, Nov. 4.—Spencer Tanner, 22, son of S. B. Tanner, widely known textile manufacturer, was instantly killed late last night when an automobile in which he was riding, driven by Edward Dowd, son of W. C. Dowd, publisher of the Charlotte News, turned over on the highway between this city and Fort Mill, S. C., to which the two were going, following the wedding of a prominent couple here.

Young Mr. Dowd was badly shaken up and shocked but not seriously injured.

Tanner and Dowd had attended the wedding of Miss Julia Baxter Scott and Stuart W. Cramer, Jr., in the city and were going to the home of Capt. Elliott Springs, when the accident occurred.

Wheels Slipped, Skidded and Hurtled Car Over High Hill.

Charlotte, Nov. 4.—In connection with the death last night in an automobile accident of Spencer Tanner, it is stated that Edward Dowd, his companion, was at the wheel. There is an embankment on the York road, which they were traveling to Fort Mill, about 1/2 mile deep. The road was clear and being late they were going at pretty good speed. One wheel slipped off the macadam, striking wet ground and the car skidded, hurling them over the embankment.

Mr. Dowd was thrown from the top of the car, but was not seriously injured. As soon as he recovered from the shock he called to Mr. Tanner, but there was no response. It was dark and he could not see where he was. Rushing to the main road Mr. Dowd hailed two or three cars speeding past, but none would stop, thinking perhaps, that the man in the road was a highwayman.

Mr. Dowd dazed and unsteady from the shock, found his way to a farm house, where he got help. It was found that Mr. Tanner had been killed instantly, his neck being broken.

Had Been Ill For Some Time and Death Was Expected—Funeral Services Tomorrow Afternoon.

Henry G. Ritz, 44 years a merchant in this city, died yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Charlotte Sanatorium, death being due to Bright's Disease. Mr. Ritz had been in ill health for several months and his condition during the past several days had been so critical that little hope was entertained for his recovery.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home on East Depot Street, and interment will be made in Oakwood cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. L. A. Thomas, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church.

Mr. Ritz was born in Anderson, S. C., on February 14, 1856, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Karl Frederick Ritz, who were born in Germany. As a youth he attended a German school in Baltimore and later, after moving to Salisbury, he attended North Carolina College at Mt. Pleasant, where he received his English education. Mr. Ritz moved to Concord in 1880, and had been in business here continually since that time.

The deceased was married on August 11th, 1880, to Miss Carrie Elizabeth Heathcock, of this city. To the union four children were born. Mrs. Ritz and the following children survive: Miss Studie Ritz, of Concord; Charles H. Ritz, of Chicago; Mrs. Anna Ritz Paris, of Concord; and Daniel F. Ritz, of Pineville. One granddaughter also survives.

Mr. Ritz was a member of St. James Lutheran Church and was actively identified with the church for many years. At the time of his death he was Esteemed Leading Knight of Concord Lodge B. P. O. E., and during his membership with the Elks had held several other important offices.

Mr. Ritz was one of the most popular merchants in Concord. He was especially popular with the children as he carried a variety of toys and candies at all times, and always had a pleasant word and smile for all the children who entered his store. He was successful as a merchant and was recognized as a very useful citizen.

Notice.

Sunday, November 11th, will be Rally Day at Tucker's Chapel at 3 p. m. There will be several quartets, selections by the Hartsell Mill quartet, and Roberta quartet, also several girls from Concord will sing and several good speeches will be made. The public is cordially invited to be present. Don't forget the time, 3 p. m.

REV. H. T. BLACKWELDER.

Mrs. Flatbush—"Who is that woman you just bowed to?"

Mrs. Bepsonhurst—"Oh, she's my next door neighbor."

"But she didn't return your bow."

"No; she never returns anything."

The boy replied, "No; but I ain't lost."

Getting the Hay

Tenderfoot: A donkey was tied to a rope six feet long, and 18 feet away there was a bundle of hay, and the donkey wanted to get the hay. How did he manage to do it?

Tenderfoot: Oh no. He just walked up to the hay and ate it.

F. C. S.: But you said it was tied to a rope feet long.

Tenderfoot: So it was. But you see the rope wasn't tied to anything.

Play at Stanfield.

A play, "The Deacon," will be given at Stanfield High School on November 9. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

5-1-t-c.

No woman is commonplace when she loves.

W. D. HARRY DIED AT HOME EARLY THIS MORNING

Death Came Suddenly From Stroke of Apoplexy—Was One of County's Most Prominent Men.

W. D. Harry, one of the most prominent farmers in the county and member of the board of county commissioners, died this morning about 7 o'clock at his home at the "Morehead Place," death being caused by a stroke of apoplexy.

Mr. Harry was in his usual health when he arose this morning and he was fatally stricken while washing his face. He lived only a few minutes.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made, the hour to be determined after relatives have been advised.

Mr. Harry suffered a stroke of paralysis a number of months ago and was critically ill for several weeks, when he suffered the second stroke. For the past year, however, he had been able to conduct his business affairs as he remained all his faculties, and he was as well as usual when he arose this morning. The announcement of his death spread rapidly over the city and county and came as a distinct shock to his host of friends.

Mr. Harry was born September 13, 1859, and on October 23, 1888, was married to Miss Alice Patterson, of Huntersville.

Mr. Harry was 64 years of age and had made his home in Cabarrus county for 16 years, moving with his family from the Hopewell community of Mecklenburg county. He took keen interest in all public matters, and was an enthusiastic supporter of all community movements. He was recognized as a very successful farmer, and in addition to his farming interests was connected with several business enterprises.

His home, "Morehead Place," is known throughout Cabarrus and Mecklenburg counties and the genial hospitality of Mr. Harry, together with the interest shown by other members of his family, made it a pleasure for friends and relatives to visit there.

Surviving are his wife, several children and several brothers and sisters. The children are: Mrs. George Trotter, Albemarle; Miss Mary Harry, who lives at home; Mrs. R. V. Caldwell, Jr., of Concord; Miss Julia Bonnie Harry, of Roanoke Rapids, N. C.; Mrs. Lois Orr Stephens, of Charlotte; Miss Addie Sue Harry, of Windsor; William Harry, who lives at home, and John Harry, of Albemarle.

Surviving also are two sisters, Mrs. F. C. W. Kramer, of Leesburg, Fla., and Miss Addie M. Harry, who lived with her brother.

Mr. Harry at the time of his death was serving as county commissioner, having been elected last year. He was preparing to attend a meeting of the board here today when stricken. He was a member of the Harrisburg Presbyterian Church and was at all times an active worker for his church. He was also intensely interested in school matters and was a liberal contributor to school funds.

Mr. Harry was an elder in the Harrisburg Church and was also a Mason.

The death of Mr. Harry removes from Cabarrus county one of its most useful citizens.

DEATH YESTERDAY OF H. G. RITZ IN CHARLOTTE

Had Been Ill For Some Time and Death Was Expected—Funeral Services Tomorrow Afternoon.

Henry G. Ritz, 44 years a merchant in this city, died yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Charlotte Sanatorium, death being due to Bright's Disease. Mr. Ritz had been in ill health for several months and his condition during the past several days had been so critical that little hope was entertained for his recovery.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home on East Depot Street, and interment will be made in Oakwood cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. L. A. Thomas, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church.

Mr. Ritz was born in Anderson, S. C., on February 14, 1856, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Karl Frederick Ritz, who were born in Germany. As a youth he attended a German school in Baltimore and later, after moving to Salisbury, he attended North Carolina College at Mt. Pleasant, where he received his English education. Mr. Ritz moved to Concord in 1880, and had been in business here continually since that time.

The deceased was married on August 11th, 1880, to Miss Carrie Elizabeth Heathcock, of this city. To the union four children were born. Mrs. Ritz and the following children survive: Miss Studie Ritz, of Concord; Charles H. Ritz, of Chicago; Mrs. Anna Ritz Paris, of Concord; and Daniel F. Ritz, of Pineville. One granddaughter also survives.

Mr. Ritz was a member of St. James Lutheran Church and was actively identified with the church for many years. At the time of his death he was Esteemed Leading Knight of Concord Lodge B. P. O. E., and during his membership with the Elks had held several other important offices.

Mr. Ritz was one of the most popular merchants in Concord. He was especially popular with the children as he carried a variety of toys and candies at all times, and always had a pleasant word and smile for all the children who entered his store. He was successful as a merchant and was recognized as a very useful citizen.

Notice.

Sunday, November 11th, will be Rally Day at Tucker's Chapel at 3 p. m. There will be several quartets, selections by the Hartsell Mill quartet, and Roberta quartet, also several girls from Concord will sing and several good speeches will be made. The public is cordially invited to be present. Don't forget the time, 3 p. m.

REV. H. T. BLACKWELDER.

Mrs. Flatbush—"Who is that woman you just bowed to?"

Mrs. Bepsonhurst—"Oh, she's my next door neighbor."

"But she didn't return your bow."

"No; she never returns anything."

The boy replied, "No; but I ain't lost."

Getting the Hay

Tenderfoot: A donkey was tied to a rope six feet long, and 18 feet away there was a bundle of hay, and the donkey wanted to get the hay. How did he manage to do it?

Tenderfoot: Oh no. He just walked up to the hay and ate it.

F. C. S.: But you said it was tied to a rope feet long.

Tenderfoot: So it was. But you see the rope wasn't tied to anything.

Play at Stanfield.

A play, "The Deacon," will be given at Stanfield High School on November 9. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

5-1-t-c.

No woman is commonplace when she loves.

ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATION

American Legion to Stage a Mammoth Occasion in Charlotte.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 4.—Flanders Field in all its grim action of 1917-18 will be brought to Charlotte when Hornets Nest Post, American Legion, stages a mammoth Armistice Day Celebration here November 10th.

"Over the top," just as real as the famous jump offs from the mud holes of France will be staged as one of the attractions of the day's celebration. Detachments from Fort Bragg, and National Guard units will take part in the demonstration, which will be plainly seen by the thousands expected.

French 75's will roar, machine guns will bark, trench mortars will boom and airplanes will circle above as the "doughboys" move forward to an imaginary objective.

This event will be but one of many arranged for the pleasure of the visitors, and in celebration of the close of the greatest war of all time.

Rear Admiral Andrew T. Long, of the United States Navy, will be the chief speaker of the day. General A. J. Bowley, commander of Fort Bragg, will also be a guest.

In the morning there will be a mammoth parade participated in by the colors from Fort Bragg and Davidson College, military company's six bands, members of fraternal orders in uniform, and fifty or more floats of civic and business organizations.

There will be a polo game in the afternoon between teams from Fort Bragg and the Charlotte Polo Club. Automobile races will also be staged in the afternoon, as well as a football game between Charlotte and Huntersville High School grid teams, crack outfits of this section. Band concerts will be given in various parts of the city. The barrage at two light will complete the afternoon's program.

The day will be climaxed with a grand military ball at the Carolina Exposition Hall that evening. A formal dance will be given Friday night before the celebration at the Myers Park Club, and at the same time there will be an informal hop at the City Auditorium.

Thousands of visitors from the Piedmont Carolinas are expected to be in the city and every effort is being made by the committee of legionnaires to make their stay both profitable and pleasant.

Found Shot Through the Heart.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Chas. H. Johnson, 65, agent at an elevated railway station, was found shot through the heart at a station early today. The window was broken and the window shattered about the office, leading the police to believe he was shot in an attempted holdup. A 32-caliber revolver with one exploded shell was found near the body. The fatal wound, the police said, was made by a .32 calibre bullet.

A smooth, unbroken highway now stretches from Vancouver to Los Angeles, linking two nations and joining three states to Canada. She last of the cement completing the highway from Vancouver to the border town of Cloverdale, British Columbia, was poured in the presence of thousands of motorists who met there to attend the opening ceremony.