TO BEGIN DRIVE FOR WORLD COURT

A Nationwide Campaign to Induce Congress to Act on It

Washington, D. C., Nov. 3.—A nationwide campaign to induce Congress to act on the World Court at its next session will be launched by the National Council for Prevention of War during the week beginning tomorrow, "Armistice Week," which churches and other organizations are being asked to observe as "World Court Week." It is recommended that during the week special effort be made to obtain signatures to World Court petitions to be sent to the President and Senate of the United States, that peace programs be everywhere emphasized, and World Court resolutions adopted.

Something has been arranged for everybody so that working alone or in groups, each one can contribute something to the achievement of the great end sought. Such service ranges from the writing of personal letters to public speeches. One of the ways pointed out for advancing the World Court idea is the forming of groups for the study of the subject. Lectures, talks, addresses and debates on such a topic later could be arranged.

Other ways outlined by which service can be rendered is by the encouragement of international exchange of college professors and students; development of international correspondence among school children; seeing that public libraries have biographies, recent books and magazines and special shelves on international problems; looking into histories being used in schools to see if they are modern histories or of the old-fashioned type which exalt war; and supplying history teachers with literature on efforts of the United States to bring about world peace; providing to editors, ministers, teachers, legislators, public officials and others literature on peace subjects and encouraging promotion of international good will in news, editorials, columns, public addresses and statements; requesting local chambers of commerce, labor unions, lunch clubs, civic and social organizations to devote a meeting to international affairs; arranging public meetings, pageants, plays and so on in the interest of world peace.

POLICE ARE READY FOR ANOTHER DEMONSTRATION

From Irish Republic Sympathizers Against Lloyd George

New York, Nov. 3 (By the Associated Press).—The police today are prepared for another skirmish with Irish republic sympathizers who have made two demonstrations against David Lloyd George since he set foot on American soil.

Heavy details of uniformed police and plain clothes men were under instructions to conduct him from the Waldorf Astoria hotel to the pier of the Majestic on which he leaves for home. Irish republicans attempted their demonstration the moment Mr. Lloyd George landed at the Battery, but efforts of women to welcome at the city hall were frustrated by the police who broke up the parade before the little Welshman reached the hall. Last night 90 men were called into action and nearly a dozen persons were arrested when they attempted to hold an anti-British meeting on Broadway during Mr. Lloyd George's address, and later to disturb him after he had reached his hotel.

Six thousand, five hundred forty-seven decrees for divorce were granted in Cook County, Illinois, in 1922. In Chicago a half day is granted every twelve and a month for the ten months the courts are in operation.

AGRICULTURAL COLUMN
Conducted by R. D. GOODMAN.

N. C. Dairy Extension News Letter, August 1923.

There is a tendency on the part of many dairymen to make their cows depend upon their pasture for the major part of their feed until frost. This is a mistake since the majority of our pasture grasses make little growth after this season of the year. Growing not only becomes scarce, but the grass stems are more fibrous and less palatable. Unless the allowance of grain and roughage is increased gradually as the pasture declines a drop in the milk flow will take place which will be very difficult and expensive to recover later on in the season by heavy feeding.

On a basis of present feed values the following grain mixture is recommended for feeding this fall: 300 lbs. crushed corn, 200 lbs. crushed seed meals, 100 lbs. bran, 100 lbs. cotton-seed meal. This mixture contains 16 per cent digestible protein and can be assembled for about $41 per ton. It should be fed with a legume hay.

To State, District, Farm and Home Demonstration Agents:

Good crops of cotton and tobacco and good prices for these and other crops, are putting more money than usual in the hands of our farmers, and advantage of this is being taken by agents of all kinds for the sale of things necessary and unnecessary to the farmer. In fact, it would seem that a regular campaign is on to get as much as possible of the farmer's money through agent canvasses.

We believe very strongly in farm and home equipment, conveniences and beautification, but these things can usually be had better through the usual channel of purchases rather than from traveling agents or salesmen.

I urge that you use every reasonable influence in the right way to guide your farmers in these matters and the use of their surplus money for the payment of debts and the purchase of those things which will add to the comforts of the home and means for producing crops in an easier and larger way.

Very truly yours,
R. W. KILGORE, Director.

LLOYD GEORGE SAILS FOR HOME

Besieged by Officials and Delegations Wishing Him "God Speed."

New York, Nov. 3 (By the Associated Press).—David Lloyd George, former Premier of Great Britain, sailed for home on the steamship Majestic today after a triumphant tour of American cities, with his wife, Dame Margaret, and his daughter, Miss Megan. Right up to the minute of sailing in his cabin and on the broad decks of the steamer, he was besieged by officials and delegations wishing him "God speed." Among those who called to say farewell were John W. Davis, former ambassador to the Court of St. James, who was host to the former premier during his stay in New York; Secretary James J. Davis, of the Department of Labor; Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian Railway; and R. A. C. Smith, head of a delegation of the Citizens Committee of New York. Receiving newspaper men, Mr. Lloyd George said "I am very sorry to leave this hospitable country, and warm hearted people."

Mt. Pleasant Defeats Albemarle High School.

Mt. Pleasant, Nov. 3.—Playing with machine-like precision and exhibiting a versatility of attack which their opponents could not fathom, the Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute football team overpowered Albemarle High School here yesterday afternoon by a score of 46 to 6. Although the visitors fought hard and put up a clean game, they were completely outclassed and seldom were able to register first downs, being forced to do a great deal of punting. The local team smashed their way to victory through the excellent work of the backfield men who could not be held by the opposition. The outstanding feature of the game was contributed by Charles MacLaughlin, captain and quarterback of the locals, who make a broken field run of 90 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Other feature plays were made by A. MacLaughlin, Stroup, Joe Smith, and Beaver; all of whom went over the line for touchdowns. Buchanan and Goodman also were noted for good work as backs. The line of M. P. C. I. composed of Watson, Beaver, Little Walters, Shaw, Thomas, together with Amick and Stroup as ends, held like a stone wall, the opposition having many of its attempted plays spilled before they got under way. During the last half of the game many second string men were sent in, all of whom gave good accounts of themselves.

As this is the first year of football at the Institute and as the team has already won three victories, the students are highly jubilant over the good record of their team. The next game will be with Huntersville High in Charlotte on Friday, November 9th, at which time the boys expect to do their best. M. P. C. I. is very anxious to schedule a game with Concord High School in order that the championship of Cabarrus county may be settled beyond all doubt. It is hoped that such a game can be arranged later in the season. Concord ought to feel keen interest in the Institute team, as three Concord boys, Roy Becker, Harry Watson and Joe Foll, are making names for themselves on the gridiron here.

The score by periods:
M. P. C. I. 13 6 14 13 46

KAPLAN CAN NOT RECOVER HIS PHYSICIAN SAYS

Car Stolen By His Assailant is Found Parked on Greensboro Thoroughfare.

H. K. DeVere, Lewiston, Pa., to whom the car belongs, and from whom it was taken, with $150 by the desperado, identified the car as his. There is yet no trace of the man. Police believe that the unknown man brought it back here himself, fearing capture in the car, preferring to take his chances on getting away on train. One armed, it would be easier to escape detection on train than in car.
